

Merchant 301

Chapter 301: Third Page Eternal Sin

The Mother of Bloodbath suddenly looked out of the window toward the north, and a trace of nostalgia flashed in its eyes.

It turned its head and said, "Three more days. I'll slightly prepare in these three days. We'll leave on time in the morning three days later."

...

In the past few days, the most miserable person was certainly Crow. Its emotions had been changing dramatically.

At first, Crow's emotions were mainly a mix of anger due to the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree's theft and fear due to messing up Lord Seventh Page War's mission.

However, the anger due to the theft of the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree had been dominant.

Gradually, Crow no longer had the mood to pay attention to the anger due to the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree's theft, which could allow it to have the chance to promote to Myth III. This was because its mind had been completely overtaken by fear.

At that moment, Crow kneeled on the ground in the room as indefinable fear suppressed it on the ground, causing it unable to move. This pressure contained an extremely strong desolate intent.

When a voice of pity and mockery sounded, the table in front of Crow, which was on its knees, was placed with a pot of golden thorn apple in full bloom.

"Chanter Crow, as one of the Eight Pages and the Lord of the Tower of War, I've never seen such a foolish person who can't even get such a trivial thing done! How useless!"

When the voice said 'How useless', that desolate intent instantly rose to the peak. Crow actually had a kind of feeling that it could crush its own life into crumbs at any time.

Besides this aura, the words 'How useless' from Lord Seventh Page War terrified Crow. If Crow had not reached pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II, it would have been scared out of its wits.

As a Chanter, Crow could only have access to the Lead Chanter under the Tower of War's Lord Seventh Page War. This mission was its first time being directly assigned by Lord Seventh Page War.

Although Crow was not qualified to understand Seventh Page War, it also knew his principle of handling things.

For Lord Seventh Page War, those who were useful would live! Those who were useless would die!

From the words 'How useless', Crow knew that he wanted to kill itself. It knew that if it could not fight for a chance to live, then only death would await it.

Even though Seventh Page War was not in the Radiance Federation but the Tower of War, which was far away from the Radiance Federation, it would be really easy for him to kill it.

One word from him, and the entire Tower of War and the Tower Canon would attack it.

“Lord Seventh Page War! I exposed nothing! I’ve already taken care of the matter regarding the sea.”

“You’ve taken care of it? Even the Eight Pages of the Tower Canon have not decided among themselves whether or not to go in the sea, yet you actually said you’ve taken care of it? When did a mere Chanter like you to decide about the Tower Canon’s matters?”

Crow immediately knew it had said the wrong thing in a hurry, so it quickly explained as it trembled, “Lord Seventh Page War, I’ve prepared for the matter regarding the sea.”

“Because of the change in your foolish plan, I order you to go and replace the sacred source item placed in the sea with five source-type items. Then, bring that sacred source item back to the Tower of War.”

Before Crow could respond, a cold snort sounded beside its ear.

“Since the matter on the land has been exposed, there is no more possibility of implementing the plan on the land within the Radiance Federation. Therefore, if you make any more mistakes regarding the sea, I’ll send you to Third Page Eternal Sin.”

Upon hearing ‘Third Page Eternal Sin’, Crow was so scared that it only knew how to kowtow and plead for mercy.

After doing so for a day and a night, while it was kowtowing, that golden thorn apple in full bloom withered.

Crow did not dare to look up. After it kowtowed and kneeled on the ground for three days, only then did it dare to look up.

However, when Crow looked up and found the golden thorn apple had withered, it immediately looked livid. At the same time, a crazy decision flashed in its eyes.

Just as it just saw that withering thorn apple, it knew that only when it reached Myth III and proved it was useful could it then have the possibility of surviving.

Crow looked through the half-opened window in the direction of the depths of the Endless Forest with its cruel, ruthless, and crazy gaze.

...

When Lin Yuan returned to his room in the guest house, he quickly entered the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

He was ready to take care of the 100 mid-grade strange flames that had already been sent over by Ostrich Logistics and exchanged through the blind trade of ten Flower Brocade Pearls.

Lin Yuan had been in the Spirit Lock spatial zone feeding the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree those mid-grade strange flames, which was not a trouble for him, for the entire day.

The Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree could store fire. It meant that it could absorb the mid-grade strange flames through its roots and store them in the golden leaves on its branches.

Each golden leaf could store a kind of strange flame. These hundreds of mid-grade strange flames were of various types. Each of them had its own characteristics, and even their flame color was also strange.

These different flame colors made Lin Yuan dizzy.

The Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree's golden leaves would change into the color of that stored mid-grade strange flame.

After its roots absorbed these 100 mid-grade strange flames, Lin Yuan found that the tip of the tree was like a beautiful aurora formed by a bunch of leaves of various colored flames.

Nearly 100 flame colors circulated between the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree's leaves and gathered toward the bird's nest that Chimey was resting in.

Ever since Chimey had been resting on the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree, it had almost always been in a state of slumber.

Lin Yuan knew that Chimey was absorbing the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree's energy that could promote its quality.

The seven-colored aurora-like flame color reached Chimey's body through the bird's nest and circulated on it. It was as if Chimey was resting on the seven-colored aurora.

Lin Yuan did not dare to guarantee that the energy from these 100 mid-grade strange flames could promote Chimey from Fantasy I to Fantasy II.

Nonetheless, he had exchanged the fourth completely jade-textured green elm with Gao Feng for 30 mid-grade strange flames,

After sensing Chimey's state, Lin Yuan thought that it should be enough.

Chapter 302: Should Be Good If You Make Them Into Soup

Shortly after Gao Feng returned to Wind Mist City, he sent over the infant Elemental Shellfish and 30 mid-grade strange flames to Lin Yuan through Ostrich Logistics.

When Gao Feng returned to the Gao family, Lin Yuan had let him bring back the four completely jade-textured pieces of green elm.

Lin Yuan could feel that Gao Feng wanted to become friends with him, so he had a mind of befriending him as well.

When Lin Yuan was thinking about forming his guild club's main team, he had thought of Gao Feng. His contracted Gold/Fantasy Breed Breeze Hibiscus, two Spirit Spring Lilies, and the Yellow Spring Lily were enough to take up all the responsibilities of 'soft' support.

For a pure support spirit qi professional like Gao Feng, coupled with the fact that the main role of the Spirit Spring Lilies and the Breeze Hibiscus was to restore feys' spiritual power, it could be said that Gao Feng's support ability had an extremely strong effect on his contracted Red Thorn or Liu Jie's contracted Insect Queen.

In Lin Yuan's opinion, Gao Feng was a power bank with a huge battery capacity. Although he had little attacking abilities, a power bank's battery life was much more useful in a team than a healing-type spirit qi professional to some extent.

Lin Yuan would not find another healing-type spirit qi professional for the guild club's main team that he had established because he could take up the role of one. However, he had never seen Gao Feng's strength before.

Furthermore, even though he had thoughts to establish his own guild club, he had not yet specifically done so yet. He did indeed have some thoughts about Gao Feng.

Lin Yuan fed the 30 mid-grade strange flames to the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree. Then he used the same method he had used to enhance the Aquamarine Elemental Shellfish and Celestine Elemental Shellfish. He induced this new infant Elemental Shellfish's mutation into a Scorching Elemental Shellfish through a very ordinary Bronze fire-element spiritual material.

This Scorching Elemental Shellfish produced elemental pearls rich in fire elements, which could provide enough fire-element energy to the immature Lifeform Sacrificial Fire that was being bred by the Twin Red Pagoda's main flower.

The Scorching Elemental Shellfish now finally could be put to use. That way, Lin Yuan only needed to wait quietly to be able to wait for a new Lifeform Sacrificial Fire.

As long as Chimey woke up from its slumber, it could be promoted from Fantasy I to Fantasy II. Lin Yuan did not intend to keep this new Lifeform Sacrificial Fire just in case like the matured Lifeform Sacrificial Fire.

The Lifeform Sacrificial Fire contained a powerful vitality. Lin Yuan probably wanted to use a flame like the Lifeform Sacrificial Fire to grill the fruit tree. He would be able to release the natural fruit sweetness with vitality from the fruit tree.

He felt that he could entirely build a fireplace in the mansion and put the Lifeform Sacrificial Fire in it to grill the completely jade-textured fruit tree.

The fruit fragrance that was full of vitality would certainly add a different touch to the winter in the mansion.

If other experts learned of Lin Yuan's idea, they would probably make the first move to beat up Lin Yuan with the risk of being hunted down by the Moon Empress.

Using the Lifeform Sacrificial Fire that is ranked seventh among the world's fire-element spiritual materials to light the fireplace?

Don't be so extravagant!

Don't go overboard!

Lin Yuan was casually sorting his resources and accumulating reserves.

On the other hand, the Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' live-streaming room on Star Web had blown up.

The Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess had gone missing for more than a month without live streaming. This time, its disappearance had been much longer than the last time, which was a tragedy for its fans.

Of course, the most upset would be Radiance Hundred Sequence #87 Lord Ranger.

Bai Hao had no appetite to eat, nor had he slept well during this month. As a result, he had lost more than 5kg.

If it were not for the fact that the S Tournament had already started, and Bai Hao needed to pull himself together and participate in the S Tournament, he probably could have lost weight from 62.5kg to below 50kg.

Lin Yuan went to bed early at night. He was full of expectations for tomorrow.

Lin Yuan did not know much about the opportunity that could help his Red Thorn evolve from Epic to Legend the Mother of Bloodbath had mentioned.

However, if Red Thorn could really evolve, it could fuse with the Willpower Rune and become a Fantasy Breed.

The next morning, Lin Yuan and the Mother of Bloodbath ate the breakfast that the grandfather and grandmother of the guest house had prepared with great enthusiasm. Then they embarked on their journey to Endless Forest's depths to find the opportunity to evolve Red Thorn into a Fantasy Breed.

This time, Lin Yuan booked a Diamond Divine Travel Black Swallow from Star Web.

According to the Mother of Bloodbath, the Endless Forest's depths' location was somewhat far away.

It was now less than a month away from New Year's.

Since Lin Yuan had decided to go to the Radiant Moon Palace to spend the year with his master, the Moon Empress, he had to hurry on the road.

It was more uncomfortable sitting on the Diamond Divine Travel Black Swallow, but it was more than ten times faster.

The Mother of Bloodbath took on a human form and stood on the Divine Travel Black Swallow's back to show it the way.

Suddenly, the Mother of Bloodbath turned and looked at Lin Yuan before saying, "Do you think that an avian fey like this Divine Travel Black Swallow that has more bone than meat is more delicious as a dry pot with pepper and salt, or a smoked cold dish?"

Before Lin Yuan could react, he felt the Divine Travel Black Swallow below him suddenly tremble. He quickly soothed the Divine Travel Black Swallow and replied to the Mother of Bloodbath, "Don't make such jokes in the sky."

Then Lin Yuan pondered for a moment and whispered, "I don't think either of these is good. They should be good if you make them into soup."

When the Divine Travel Black Swallow had trembled just now, the Mother of Bloodbath had released its Suzerain/Myth II aura and made the Diamond Divine Travel Black Swallow travel in the designated direction.

The Divine Travel Black Swallow did not dare to blame it on the Mother of Bloodbath, but after hearing Lin Yuan say that it was suitable to be made into soup, it quietly half-erected the feathers under Lin Yuan's butt, causing great discomfort to him.

After flying for some time, the Mother of Bloodbath transformed into a one-centimeter-sized red crystal spider and lay down on the leaf-shaped Diamond fey storage box Lin Yuan was wearing.

When it was not going to eat gourmet food, the Mother of Bloodbath clearly preferred its original form.

Lin Yuan closed his eyes, feeling Red Thorn's state and the two Willpower Runes' properties in the spiritual spatial zone. He made a decision without hesitation.

Chapter 303: Grus Feys

Lin Yuan decided to let Red Thorn use the Willpower Rune that contained vitality in destruction to allow it to become a Fantasy Breed. He felt that after Red Thorn had become more and more dependent on spawning the sea of flowers to fight.

This Willpower Rune that he had comprehended from the extreme massacre was becoming more and more incompatible with it because this Willpower Rune contained a sudden sense of eruption in that feeling of destruction.

In Lin Yuan's opinion, the sudden sense of eruption was more suitable for power offense feys that mainly focused on single-target attacks.

This Willpower Rune that contained vitality in the destruction was actually also suitable for Red Thorn, so he chose this among the two.

When they arrived at the Mother of Bloodbath's designated location, the Diamond Divine Travel Black Swallow stopped at the empty space deep in the Endless Forest.

After Lin Yuan jumped off the Divine Travel Black Swallow's back, it acted as if it was afraid of being made into a soup with salt and pepper by the Mother of Bloodbath. It flew away in a whoosh.

When the Mother of Bloodbath arrived in the depths of Endless Forest, it turned into human form and said to Lin Yuan, "This place is very suitable for Creation Masters to do wild harvesting. While you do so, we can hurry on our journey. If we could fly at high altitude here, we could even let the Divine Travel Black Swallow fly further."

Lin Yuan was a little unsure and asked, "Why can't we fly at high altitude here?"

The Mother of Bloodbath recalled fondly and replied, "Because she doesn't like having anything flying above her."

Upon hearing that, Lin Yuan immediately knew what the Mother of Bloodbath meant. It seemed that 'she' should be a Suzerain/Myth Breed fey.

Only such feys could be qualified to set rules that other feys would respect in the depths of this Endless Forest.

The Mother of Bloodbath looked down at the ground and pushed aside the layer of snow. It suddenly bent down, picked a weed-like plant, gave it to Lin Yuan, and said, "There are many gifted feys here. This wild orchid is hidden really deep. It actually knows how to make itself grow shorter among the weeds to let the weeds cover itself up."

Lin Yuan looked at the wild weed-like orchid in its hand.

After using True Data, he found that this was actually a precious orchid fey called Dragon's Mouth Orchid.

This Dragon's Mouth Orchid was much more precious than the White Jade Snow Orchid that Lin Yuan had nurtured. It bloomed huge flowers just like a dragon's tongue.

The only function of the bloomed flowers was to definitely stimulate a fey containing the dragon-species bloodline once.

It could be said that these flowers were very suitable for the Spirit-Gather Goldfish, Blackie. It had awakened the rare dragon-species bloodline in its body when it was promoted to Bronze. Its dragon-species bloodline had not changed ever since.

During this period, Blackie had been eating the Butterfly Shells to increase the possibility of awakening its dragon-species bloodline, but there had been no significant effect.

Nevertheless, after Lin Yuan cultivated this Dragon's Mouth Orchid's grade, Blackie's dragon-species bloodline could be activated once again with its blooming flowers.

The dragon-species bloodline was divided into the ancient dragon species and the flood dragon species.

Looking at the Spirit-Gather Goldfish's current appearance, it was clear that its dragon-species bloodline was awakening toward the flood dragon species.

As for how far its dragon-species bloodline could be stimulated, Lin Yuan was not sure. However, if the Spirit-Gather Goldfish's dragon-species bloodline could be strengthened again, then when it became a Fantasy Breed, there was a great possibility for it to take a leap across species.

It could evolve into a dragon species from a fish species, but this was very slim.

The Mother of Bloodbath said to Lin Yuan, "Given our current speed, we should still have to walk for two more days. You can do wild harvesting as you wish in these two days."

As a fey, the Mother of Bloodbath understood very well that a fey would most likely be sold to an expert with a Willpower Rune after getting nurtured in Lin Yuan's hands. This was a great opportunity to feys.

The Mother of Bloodbath remembered its own arduous journey down the road for so many years. It could not help but be a little envious of the contracted feys that could rely on the Willpower Runes from humans.

For the past few days, Lin Yuan had obtained more gains for his wild harvesting than the other time in the Endless Forest with Fang Duoduo, Xin Ying, and the others.

However, the plant feys he had picked this time were less. After all, it had snowed, and many plant feys hiding under the snow layer were not easily found.

Lin Yuan did not pick any feys that could evolve into auspicious feys like the Dragon-Phoenix Landscape Carp.

Being able to pick such auspicious feys was purely based on luck. Among those other feys he had picked, a few of them were better than the Mist Flame Dragonflies in terms of quality.

These wild-harvested feys were enough for Lin Yuan to use for a long time. One of the most pleasant surprises for Lin Yuan was a 50-centimeter-tall avian fey with a wingspan of more than a meter.

This avian fey was gray and looked very ugly. When Lin Yuan first saw it, he thought it was some other bird that other feys had wounded. But at a closer look, he found that this avian fey was not simple.

There was a trace of a Grus fey in this gray avian fey, actually. Thanks to True Data, Lin Yuan found that this avian fey was actually a Grus fey, and it was a young one.

It had to be known that among all avian feys, Grus and peafowl feys were the least seen, but the Grus feys were actually rarer than the peafowl feys.

The Grus feys represented longevity and good fortune, so they were known as a 'first-class bird'.

True Data showed that this gray Grus fey in front of Lin Yuan was so ugly because its genes could not be fully revealed due to the lack of spirit qi.

It could be said that this gray Grus fey was in a situation where its genetic model could not develop due to the lack of spirit qi.

In the case that almost the genetic model had not undergone development and was not shown, Morbius' True Data could not precisely determine which kind of species of Grus fey it was.

Therefore, Lin Yuan put this Grus fey into his Diamond fey storage box first. He intended to wait until the end of this trip before taking it to the Spirit Lock spatial zone and let its genetic model develop to restore its original appearance through the huge and pure spiritual power.

However, Lin Yuan had some regrets, as he did not find a defense-type fey suitable for Shi Xu.

At that moment, the Mother of Bloodbath's expression suddenly changed. It smelled a familiar, dark, and stinky smell.

Chapter 304: I Couldn't Win You Even if I Didn't Sneak Attack You

Lin Yuan noticed that the Mother of Bloodbath's peculiar yet pleasant voice sounded stern.

"I smell a pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II fey in front."

Upon hearing that, Lin Yuan did not really understand what the Mother of Bloodbath meant.

Although the possibility of such feys appearing in the depths of the Endless Forest was very low, it was still possible!

However, Lin Yuan frowned. He had heard the Mother of Bloodbath mention before that this area should be a Suzerain/Myth Breed fey's territory. Otherwise, it would not have forbidden flying in the air.

After a fey reached Suzerain, no matter what species it was, they would have an extremely strong sense of territory.

Except for some feys used to living together as a family, like the mandarin duck feys, few Suzerain feys would live together in a territory. The temperament and living habits of Suzerain/Myth Breed feys were different. Thus, the rules within the territory of each Suzerain/Myth Breed fey were different as well.

Since the Mother of Bloodbath was aware of the Suzerain fey in this territory, the aura of the pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II fey that it had mentioned just now was clearly not the one that the Mother of Bloodbath was familiar with.

The Mother of Bloodbath cautiously said in a cold voice, "This pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II fey's aura contains a dark and stinky smell. It's the same as the smell of the Myth Breed fey back in the dimensional rift."

Upon hearing the Mother of Bloodbath's words, Lin Yuan immediately knew how serious it was. The Mother of Bloodbath looked very grim now, and it was in a bit of a dilemma.

Although the Mother of Bloodbath was also a Suzerain/Myth II fey, it had just reached Myth II. If it really fought against a pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II fey, the Mother of Bloodbath did not dare to say that it would definitely be its match.

The Mother of Bloodbath did not care about its own safety, but it now had Lin Yuan. As a party involved in the battle, the Mother of Bloodbath was simply unable to ensure Lin Yuan's safety while fighting.

When Lin Yuan saw the Mother of Bloodbath's expression, he smiled brightly and revealed his white teeth.

He immediately took a wooden token out of the Diamond fey storage box, cupped it in his hands, and said, "My master gave me this. She said that when I use this source-type Extreme Token, I can immediately release a one-time moonlight domain."

The Mother of Bloodbath's expression immediately relaxed. With this trump card on hand, Lin Yuan would use the moonlight domain engraved within this Extreme Token when he was in danger. Under the moonlight domain's protection, probably nobody could hurt Lin Yuan in this world.

The last time Lin Yuan had helped the Mother of Bloodbath survive the World Cleansing, it had been akin to giving it a new lease of life. In the Mother of Bloodbath's opinion, it was not only Lin Yuan's Path Protector, but he was also its benefactor. In peril, the Mother of Bloodbath was willing to protect him with its life.

At that moment, Lin Yuan only felt the white snow on the ground under his feet instantly melt into the soil. Then the land became barren in the blink of an eye.

The fertile land in the depths of the Endless Forest lost all its nutrients. It turned into a dry land without nutrients and was covered in ravines.

Then, a desperate and furious shout sounded.

“You actually plotted against me while I was breaking through! I’m going to make you pay for this with your life!”

Upon hearing this, Lin Yuan could sense a desperation in that voice as if its way had been blocked, as well as the anger of being brutally hurt with ruthless methods.

A brash, malicious peal of laughter echoed. This voice sounded a little like the sound of scraping a blackboard with fingernails, sharp and hoarse.

Although this voice spoke the human language, when Lin Yuan heard this voice, he immediately sensed it was unique from a kind of avian fey.

This voice belonged to that dark-type Suzerain/Myth Breed avian fey that the Mother of Bloodbath had said its aura had appeared in the controlled Class 3 dimensional rift, if it were to be said that Chimey’s voice was extremely pleasant among the avian feys, then Lin Yuan really could not think of a more unpleasant voice than this avian fey.

“If it wasn’t because you were evolving into Myth III, I couldn’t beat you even without sneak attacking you!”

It sounded very insolent, but there was some shamelessness of a weak mentality. As early as when it heard that shout, the Mother of Bloodbath’s expression had turned very ugly.

At that moment, the insolence in that unpleasant voice unique of an avian fey slowly turned vicious.

“You just used the Willpower Rune to communicate with heaven and earth to prepare to experience the World Cleansing. The World Cleansing is coming soon. I took out your tree core at this time. With your tree core and the World Grace that will descend after you survive the World Cleansing, it should be enough for me to break through my current quality!”

When Lin Yuan heard that, he knew things were bad. Even though having their tree core ripped out was not as bad as dying immediately like an animal having their heart ripped out, plant feys would be akin to losing all their energy essence without the tree core.

Although they might be able to recondense the tree core after a long period of recuperation, the plant feys’ grade would remain the same during that period. Also, they would continue to be in a weakened state of having damaged roots.

Take the Cinnabar Sweet Osmanthus as an example. In order to produce a new tree core, it had always been absorbing the huge amount of pure spirit qi in the Spirit Lock spatial zone. But even after such a long time, its tree core still had not yet been condensed.

On the contrary, the Cinnabar Osmanthus Haworthia on the Cinnabar Sweet Osmanthus had regained its health. It was absorbing a huge amount of pure spirit qi in the Spirit Lock spatial zone and slowly growing.

The Mother of Bloodbath ground its teeth, while its expression turned cold, full of worry. It transformed into a palm-sized red spider and landed on Lin Yuan's shoulder.

"Lin Yuan, I've withdrawn all of my aura. Take me nearby carefully."

Upon sensing the anxiety in the Mother of Bloodbath's tone, Lin Yuan immediately understood what it meant. The Mother of Bloodbath was going to sneak attack the avian fey. After all, it was a fey that was good at assassination.

Only when suddenly sneaking an attack could the Mother of Bloodbath show its full strength. It could even double its killing power during an unexpected moment.

Lin Yuan quickly walked forward and held the source-type Extreme Token tightly in his palm.

Chapter 305: A Change of Color in the World

Lin Yuan held the source-type Extreme Token tightly in his palm. He could immediately release the moonlight domain inside with a little force when he encountered danger.

In the Endless Forest this time, he did not let the source-type Source Sand create sand underground in large quantities.

If the Source Sand did so recklessly in the depths of the Endless Forest, it would attract the attention of the high-grade feys within.

Powerful feys even inhabited the land beneath the Endless Forest. If it created sand recklessly in such a natural environment in the wild, it would really be no different from having a death wish.

The Mother of Bloodbath had intended to rather sacrifice itself to protect Lin Yuan when facing danger. However, after knowing he had the Moon Empress' Extreme Token, if it were to really fight with the Suzerain/Myth Breed fey, the Mother of Bloodbath would not need to worry about Lin Yuan's safety anymore.

Perhaps, when Lin Yuan crushed the Extreme Token in the event of a perilous situation, he could protect himself and even save the Mother of Bloodbath.

At the same time, the Mother of Bloodbath told Lin Yuan to make his way there because he was now at best only a C-rank spirit qi professional, so his aura was very weak.

Moving in the depths of the Endless Forest would not attract that Suzerain/Myth II dark-type avian fey's attention.

Before he could get close, Lin Yuan saw a nearly 30-meter-tall beautiful tree. It was not conspicuous in the Endless Forest's depths, where the average tree height was 50 meters.

But when Lin Yuan saw what this tree looked like, he was shocked. He felt as if he was in a dreamy scene and saw a tree so beautiful that it felt dreamy.

This tree looked a bit like a banyan tree, but it had countless pink-and-purple hydrangea-like flowers unlike a banyan tree. Each of these hydrangea-like flowers was made up of small flowers.

The pink-purple color gently clumped together and blossomed among the tree branches.

The tree branches were draped with many vines that were covered with bunches of flowers formed by hydrangeas and emitted a lustrous pink-purple glow.

At that moment, a not-so-small triangular hole emerged on the tree trunk. This hole looked as if it had been pecked through hard by a bird's beak. Dark-type energy was slowly eroding the tree trunk on the hole. The center of the trunk where the tree core was had also been hollowed.

Although this plant Suzerain/Myth Breed fey was rapidly condensing vitality, trying to fill in the wound on the trunk and the tree core that had been taken away, the dark-type energy and the vitality attempting to fill in the hole caused a mutual erosive effect.

A woman clad in a pink-and-purple silk dress was covering her heart under the tree with these pink-purple hydrangea-like flowers. She angrily looked at the middle-aged man in the air, who was holding an emerald-green crystal tree core.

Lin Yuan could sense a strong dark-type energy from that middle-aged man. This smell was the same as the ink-colored essence blood that the Mother of Bloodbath had given him, as well as the smell on the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree.

However, this middle-aged man with triangular scars at the corners of his eyes only had a somewhat similar aura as the middle-aged man who had sneak-attacked Lin Yuan in the controlled Class 3 abyss dimensional rift. He had no similarities in other areas.

This middle-aged man's aura was much stronger than the middle-aged man in the controlled Class 3 abyss dimensional rift.

This was Lin Yuan's first time meeting a pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II enemy face-to-face.

Even though the woman clad in the pink-and-purple silk dress below the tree was full of anger, she emitted an indescribable benevolence.

Although she looked very young, the drooping arc under the corner of her eyes was like pitying all the surrounding creatures. She should be the human form of this Suzerain/Myth Breed plant fey.

Even though plant feys could transform into human form at Suzerain/Myth II, since their roots grew underground, those plant feys that relied on their roots to absorb nutrients from the land were unable to move their roots easily.

Therefore, in a way, moving their roots was an act that damaged their roots.

Even if they could transform into a human form at Suzerain/Myth II, they did so with the huge spiritual energy within them. Furthermore, their human form also could not be too far from their body.

When they reached Myth III, not only could they transform into a human form with their spiritual energy, but they could also transform into a human form with their bodies like animal feys and integrate into human society.

A pink-purple Law Rune hovered over that 30-meter-tall Suzerain/Myth Breed plant fey's head with a tree full of flowers.

This Law Rune was just like the continuous fusion of pink and purple petals, forming a petal-like Law Rune. It was different from the blood power contained in the Mother of Bloodbath's red-crystal-like Law Rune.

This pink-purple petal-like Law Rune was emitting a different yet similar kind of power to spiritual energy.

If it were to be said that spiritual energy was the power from the head, the power emitted by this pink-purple petal-like Law Rune was a kind of power from the mind.

Such a power was the power of enlightenment that seemed to be able to give wisdom to something or make something enlightened.

Lin Yuan suddenly understood what the opportunity in the depths of the Endless Forest the Mother of Bloodbath had mentioned was. The power this plant's Law Rune emitted could raise Red Thorn's quality.

At that moment, a hole suddenly appeared in the sky. This hole was as if the calm dark-blue sky had suddenly collapsed, and all the blue color was flowing toward the hole. Brownish-red color with the aura of destruction also poured out from this hole.

Upon seeing the change of events, Lin Yuan understood that the World Cleansing should be coming.

A moment after the sky collapsed with the arrival of the World Cleansing, that brownish-red color with the aura of destruction burned up half of the sky.

The power of that brownish-red flame containing destruction concentrated on the plant Suzerain/Myth Breed fey's head.

The triangular-shaped scar under the corner of the pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II dark-type avian fey's eyes appeared particularly sinister.

Chapter 306: Fallen Myth

Crow looked at that woman clad in the pink-purple palace robe and said heartlessly, "I hope you can survive the World Cleansing before you die. If you can't, I can help you do so. Otherwise, I won't be able to obtain the World Grace after the World Cleansing."

Just as Crow laughed maniacally and was almost non-vigilant, a red-crystal-like blood-red Law Rune floated above the Mother of Bloodbath.

A peculiar, pleasant, and eerie voice sounded.

“The Blood Law. Use blood as a blade, and use the blade to pierce through the heart.”

As the Mother of Bloodbath’s terrifying voice resounded, the desperate and furious woman clad in the pink-purple palace robe under the tree suddenly revealed surprise and sorrow on her face.

When Lin Yuan saw such emotions, his heart tightened suddenly for some reason. Although such emotions seemed complicated, the meaning was very simple. It was the surprise of seeing her friend and the grief of her imminent fall.

At the same time, Crow’s miserable scream rang out in the air. This scream was unusually mournful as if it had endured some great pain. Crow’s body seemed to suddenly wrinkle up, and the location of its heart looked abnormally swollen.

At that moment, the Mother of Bloodbath’s peculiar yet pleasant voice sounded again.

“The Blood Law. The heart and blood are as one with the blade, and myriad blades will repel and dissolve!”

Crow’s wrinkled human body trembled violently. It was as if something would break out of its body at any moment.

The Mother of Bloodbath’s Blood Law Rune’s power and energy completely displayed itself without a trace of restraint.

When Crow sensed the Blood Law Rune’s energy, its expression instantly became complicated. Anger and resentment filled its mind.

It now only wanted to attack the Mother of Bloodbath with all its might and kill it.

The woman clad in the pink-purple palace robe did not bother with the World Cleansing that was pouring down from the sky. Instead, she chose to take back her pink-purple petal-like Law Rune.

A kind, compassionate, and gentle voice suddenly sounded.

“The Enlightenment Law. Seal the emotions and stop the mind.”

Immediately after that, the hydrangeas made up of pink and purple flowers all fell from the tree. A rain of flowers splashed as they fell to the ground. Each petal was like a chaotic blade that could cut through the red dust.

When this sudden rain of flowers landed on that woman clad in the pink-purple palace robe while she said ‘stop the mind’, it instantly landed on Crow.

This chaotic rain of red flowers acted as the blade to cut up Crow’s skin. Then, the ink-colored blood from Crow’s body shot out of the hole cut by the blades. This blood also carried a jelly-like substance that had been churned up. Its heart should have burst due to the blood.

However, when the ink-colored blood gushed out, Crow had recovered its mind that had been frozen. But it did not immediately resist. It looked livid instead.

Crow knew that it could not hold on any longer. As a pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II fey, Crow could clearly sense how crippled it was and its life force loss. However, what Crow really cared about was not this.

At that moment, all Crow could think of was that it had yet to get the sacred source item in the sea. Even if it knew that it was about to die, the sense of fear still crept up in its heart.

Crow turned from its human form into a black bird less than the size of Lin Yuan's forearm. It was no different from ordinary crows. However, its fur was darker, as if it could melt into the night at any time.

Lin Yuan used True Data to check this dead pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II crow's corpse. He realized that this crow fey's name was actually Night Calamity Crow.

This was Lin Yuan's first time seeing the fall of a Suzerain/Myth Breed fey. Everything had happened in a flash, and the fall of this crow was because the Mother of Bloodbath had unexpectedly assassinated it.

More importantly, the Suzerain/Myth III plant fey that was going to break through had suddenly made a move.

Otherwise, Lin Yuan could also see that given the sudden attack of a power offense-type fey like the Mother of Bloodbath, even in the case of a sneak attack, although the Night Calamity Crow had directly suffered serious injuries, it was not enough to kill it.

A pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II fey had fallen at this moment.

But at that moment, the wave-like brownish-red karmic fire under the World Cleansing burned the Suzerain/Myth Breed plant fey's body.

Since the woman clad in the pink-purple palace robe had taken back the Willpower Rune, she was currently unable to resist this World Cleansing.

The tree branches visibly turned from green into the color of withered and yellow.

The Mother of Bloodbath hurriedly transformed into its human form and went forward. It picked up the tree core beside the Night Calamity Crow's corpse and threw it to the woman clad in the pink-purple palace robe. "Sister Xia, quickly fuse the tree core. I'll help you resist this World Cleansing."

That woman looked at the Mother of Bloodbath, with only joy and calmness on her face.

"I thought I would be able to leave the Endless Forest to look for you after I broke through to Myth III, but I never thought such a change would happen. Even if I can't leave this forest, I still met you eventually."

A sparkling mist gushed out of the Mother of Bloodbath's red eyes.

It was as if it had seen a weak spider and a young sapling clinging to each other for countless years to survive.

The sapling provided a hiding place to the spider and shaded it from the heat, while the spider helped the sapling expel the leaf-eating pests from its body.

That young spider and the young sapling supported each other like this. Until one day, the two reached Bronze, Silver, Gold...

Finally, they became Myth Breeds.

The Mother of Bloodbath had experienced its first World Cleansing when it had been promoted to a Myth Breed, and the Moon Empress had saved it and helped it break through to Myth I.

In order to repay the favor, it should have probably only stayed in the Endless Forest or had long turned into a wisp of smoke under the World Cleansing.

The woman clad in the pink-purple palace robe ignored the World Cleansing that was burning her body.

More than half of the lustrous leaves and branches had withered in the blazing karmic fire, and even the branches had been burnt, broken, and fallen to the ground.

Even if the fallen branches looked lifeless, after the withered leaves and short branches landed on the ground, all the other ordinary feys on the ground madly grew around the withered branches.

When her tree core had been dug away, the woman in the palace robe knew that she could not survive this Myth III World Cleansing.

Chapter 307: Body Weaponization

For any fey, even if they were at their prime, they wouldn't dare to say that they would definitely be able to withstand the World Cleansing. Furthermore, this woman clad in the pink-purple palace robe was suffering an injury after having her tree core dug out.

Lin Yuan looked at the surrounding ground and felt emotional when he saw how there were still plants frenziedly growing. It was said that 'Withered flowers aren't heartless, they will blend with the soil to protect other flowers'.

Actually, these Suzerain/Myth feys were all pure feys that were nurtured by nature. They comprehended a Law Rune, allowing them to uphold a trace of law in the world.

Lin Yuan saw the Mother of Bloodbath's sad expression and hesitated before taking a jade box out of the Spirit Lock spatial zone. It was the box that contained the Lifeform Sacrificial Fire.

As soon as the Lifeform Sacrificial Fire appeared and brimmed with vitality, it immediately alerted the Mother of Bloodbath. It also allowed that palace-robed woman to have new hope that replaced her despair.

Earlier on, the palace-robed woman was filled with the sorrow before departure and also trying to put on a strong front. But now, she was truly able to see life and hope in this state of despair.

It was all because of this youth who was holding a bundle of grand light that was brimming with warmth and hope.

The Lifeform Sacrificial Fire was something that was considered a second life for a plant-species fey. Furthermore, it was a plant-species Suzerain/Myth II fey, whose tree core didn't completely shatter yet, and broke through to Myth III.

Therefore, a tree core and this Lifeform Sacrificial Fire was enough for this palace-robed woman to withstand the World Cleansing to upgrade to Myth III.

Lin Yuan tossed this Lifeform Sacrificial Fire over and said, "Senior, with this Lifeform Sacrificial Fire, you should be able to withstand the Myth III's World Cleansing."

The woman clad in the pink-purple palace robe stared at the sparkling Lifeform Sacrificial Fire in her hands. Her originally benevolent eyes were now revealing gratitude.

The Mother of Bloodbath's sobbing voice was filled with a pleasantly surprised tone. However, this pleasantly surprised tone had a trace of indescribable warmth.

The Mother of Bloodbath said to the palace-robed woman, "Big Sister Xia, this is the Moon Empress' disciple. I am now his Path Protector. His name is Lin Yuan."

The palace-robed woman looked at the Lifeform Sacrificial Fire in her hands before looking at Lin Yuan solemnly and giving him a bow to express her thanks.

Subsequently, the palace-robed woman leaped forward and dove in her withering plant body that was within the World Cleansing. The withering plant swayed its branches and fused the tree core and the Lifeform Sacrificial Fire into the tree trunk's opening.

In a split moment, the suddenly revived plant exuded vitality, and it felt as though it could pierce through the heavens. The withered branches were shed from the trunk and instantly grew new branch sprouts.

This entire tree of new leaves felt like it was in midsummer, extremely verdant and thriving at its prime. Due to this enhancement, this Suzerain/Myth tree started to bloom with flowers that were like pink-purple embroidered balls.

The embroidered ball-shaped flowers were constantly falling off and would burst out with beautiful hues of red that would spread out in the sky. They were now welcoming the brown-red flames that were descending due to the World Cleansing.

This World Cleansing lasted for four hours. Even though the Mother of Bloodbath offered assistance at the crucial moment, it was finally over after a daunting experience.

At the World Cleansing, it was time for World Grace.

The palace-robed woman walked under the hole that was opened up in the sky. A white halo sprinkled down and onto the palace-robed woman.

At that moment, the plant that was filled with embroidered ball-shaped flowers was suddenly growing. It grew from a height of 30 meters to nearly 70 meters.

When under the World Grace, the palace-robed woman activated the Law Rune. A pink-purple flower petal-shaped Law Rune landed onto the tree's giant body and started to emit crystal-like ripples.

The crystal-like ripples were mixed within the pink-purple halo as though it was bathing in the world's willpower.

Finally, the plant nearly 70-meter-tall plant was constantly shrinking and finally turned into a delicate flower hoop.

The flower hoop was covered in embroidered ball-shaped flowers. If one didn't look carefully, it would look like a green branch decorated with many pink-purple bells.

The palace-robed woman caught the flower hoop. After examining it for a moment, she wore it on her wrist.

This was a transformation that would certainly happen once a fey reached Suzerain/Myth III. It was a transformation called Body Weaponization.

Body Weaponization had a literal meaning, and that was for the fey to change its body into a weapon.

This way, when the Suzerain/Myth fey was in human form, it wouldn't be inferior to its fey form. When the weapon formed by the Body Weaponization was working in tandem with the human form, it would produce a stronger power than either the human form or the fey form. This power was also known as 'Spirit Return'.

It was also because of Spirit Return that an extremely large chasm was created when a Suzerain fey reached Myth III.

When a Suzerain/Myth III fey was in the Spirit Return state, it would be able to defeat a Suzerain/Myth II fey with ease. Because the difference between having Spirit Return and not was extremely big, it wasn't just a difference of one level.

Therefore, Suzerain/Myth feys that could enter the Spirit Return state would be known as Great Suzerain.

At present, the World Cleansing was considered to be at a complete end.

The palace-robed woman had officially upgraded to Myth III.

The palace-robed woman was looking at Lin Yuan and subsequently lifted her head to speak with that pink-purple flower petal-shaped Law Rune. "I, Endless Summer, take a vow upon the Law Rune. I shall become a Protector for this human who bestowed me with a new life. I shall protect his future ahead and obey his commands. If I violate this vow, my summer shall end."

The pink-purple flower petal-shaped Law Rune looked as though it took the role of the world's witness and shot out a pink-purple light onto Lin Yuan.

Lin Yuan seemed as though he could see this world much clearer than before. He looked at the hole, where the World Cleansing and World Grace had descended, before looking at the frenziedly growing plants, which were now in a calm state.

The soil that had lost its nutrients had become fertile again.

Everything looked like it contained infinite knowledge and wisdom. Lin Yuan felt as though he had that feeling of comprehension again. However, it was so subtle and faint that it was negligible.

Lin Yuan scratched his head and didn't think that he would actually obtain a loyal subject because he had brought out the Lifeform Sacrificial Fire. A plant-species Suzerain/Myth III fey at that.

Chapter 308: Repayment With Life

A Protector and a Path Protector were completely different.

The Path Protector was a role that was a combination of a guardian and a teacher. However, a Protector would be the same as vowing loyalty, like a retainer knight.

If retainer knights was a spirit qi professional vowing loyalty to a Creation Master, then a Protector would be a human or fey that possessed a Willpower Rune and vowing their loyalty to a spirit qi professional.

There might be a difference between Protectors and Path Protectors, but their relationships with a spirit qi professional were almost the same. They formed the contract with Law Runes, and it was firm and reliable.

When the Mother of Bloodbath saw Endless Summer vowing an oath, she didn't feel there was anything strange. After all, such help during the World Cleansing was the same as saving a life. It was already sufficient for a fey to repay with their life.

Lin Yuan might have already decided to create his own guild club, but he was constantly thinking toward this idea of a private faction but didn't take any action.

Firstly, it was because the Floating Island Whale had yet to become a Fantasy Breed, allowing it to become a giant floating island that could support the entire faction. The other reason would be the lack of experts.

If Lin Yuan wanted to build his own private faction, apart from being able to produce popular items like the Flower Brocade Pearls and completely jade-textured wood, he would also need a martial force so powerful that it would deter others.

The Moon Empress might be Lin Yuan's master, but he didn't wish to rely on her to create his faction. If Lin Yuan relied on the Moon Empress to develop his faction, his faction would just be the Radiant Moon Palace's vassal in the eyes of others.

As Lin Yuan's Path Protector, the Mother of Bloodbath might be a pinnacle expert that could support a private faction, however, it was Lin Yuan's Path Protector and not a member of his private faction. Therefore, Lin Yuan was still hesitant.

But now, Lin Yuan's previous worries were no longer existent. With Endless Summer, a Suzerain/Myth III fey, vowing her loyalty to him, Lin Yuan's private faction would be able to dominate in terms of martial strength.

The palace-robed Endless Summer walked to Lin Yuan's side and made a delicate bow. The benevolent and gentle voice echoed beside Lin Yuan's ears again.

"Lin Yuan, I will be your Protector from now on. I shall humbly take on your orders."

Lin Yuan wasn't sure what to do for a moment. Endless Summer was now a Suzerain/Myth III fey and was considered an absolute expert in this generation. But when Endless Summer suddenly vowed loyalty, Lin Yuan truly didn't know how he should address Endless Summer.

The Mother of Bloodbath saw the situation and said to Lin Yuan seriously, "For a fey, the World Cleansing is the same as struggling against heaven. You saved her, she vowed her loyalty to you, there is nothing inappropriate. If there is anything, it just means that she owes this to you. After all, there is nothing more important than to continue surviving in this world."

After listening to the Mother of Bloodbath's explanation, Lin Yuan felt as though he understood how the laws of feys worked.

It was true that to a dying fey, being rescued meant that the fey would have many more possibilities in the future.

Endless Summer turned around and picked up that dead Night Calamity Crow and handed it to Lin Yuan. "This Suzerain/Myth II Night Calamity Crow's corpse has quite the value."

After speaking, Endless Summer fixed her eyes on Lin Yuan. He observed Endless Summer's eyes and could see a trace of feeling as though she was waiting for an acknowledgment.

Lin Yuan revealed a sunshine smile and received the Night Calamity Crow's corpse from Endless Summer before saying, "Endless Summer, I shall trouble you from now on."

Endless Summer revealed a warm smile in response too. The yearning for acknowledgment in her eyes vanished, but it was now replaced with a look of anticipation to serve him.

The smile on the Mother of Bloodbath's face never stopped since the moment Lin Yuan took out the Lifeform Sacrificial Fire. The Mother of Bloodbath didn't know why it felt as though this sunshine youth always had a kind of magic. As a fey, the Mother of Bloodbath didn't think it would ever trust or acknowledge a human that was so much weaker than her.

The Mother of Bloodbath had to admit that ever since Lin Yuan had helped it break through to Myth II, it had already subconsciously acknowledged Lin Yuan.

The Mother of Bloodbath had been observing as this sunshine youth grew during the past few months. It couldn't help but recall the time it experienced its World Cleansing. This youth had stood calmly in the storm and provided a path of survival for her.

It felt that Lin Yuan had a trace of silliness. Lin Yuan could be selfish, but he chose not to, just like how he had taken out the Lifeform Sacrificial Fire earlier.

It was also because of Lin Yuan's actions that allowed the Mother of Bloodbath to gradually treat Lin Yuan differently from the Moon Empress.

The Moon Empress was simply the Mother of Bloodbath's benefactor. However, the Mother of Bloodbath felt that its relationship with Lin Yuan was more like its relationship with Endless Summer—more like a senior, a friend, a family member.

The Mother of Bloodbath said to Lin Yuan, "Pass me that bottle of essence blood that I gave you previously."

Lin Yuan took out the bottle with the Night Calamity Crow's essence blood and handed it over to the Mother of Bloodbath.

Once the Mother of Bloodbath received the bottle, it opened up the bottle and poured the black essence blood in her palms before closing the bottle again.

She then tossed the bottle to Lin Yuan and said, "Earlier on, I used a fresh Blood Law Rune to purify the blood inside this Night Calamity Crow. After including the previous drop, the bottle now has 20 drops of essence blood.

"This Night Calamity Crow might not have a chance to use its Law Rune, but it was probably a power offense-type fey with darkness attributes. It probably possessed a Law Rune that is extremely adept at sneak attacks."

While speaking, the Mother of Bloodbath looked at Endless Summer. The Mother of Bloodbath knew clearly about Endless Summer's strength. Endless Summer might not be adept at defense, but it was still superior to the Night Calamity Crow in terms of grade. However, the Night Calamity Crow was still able to pick out the tree core.

The Night Calamity Crow might have been stuck at Suzerain/Myth II for a very long time, but Endless Summer had already touched the doorstep of Myth III and had been preparing to face the World Cleansing of Myth III. Therefore, Endless Summer was still superior.

After speaking, the Mother of Bloodbath reached out and grabbed the Night Calamity Crow's head before pulling it forcefully.

Chapter 309: Law Crystal

Lin Yuan immediately heard a sound that resembled iron getting shattered.

Immediately after, Lin Yuan saw the Mother of Bloodbath pulling a black crystal the size of a fingernail out of the Suzerain/Myth II Night Calamity Crow.

The black crystal seemed to have a layer of unclear night mist that was flowing around, and it looked as though something was constantly getting corroded. It felt like the night mist could corrode anything into ashes.

Endless Summer looked at the fingernail-sized black crystal and said, "This is the Night Death Law Rune, and it has a kind of withering power. This Law Crystal is extremely complete and doesn't have received any damage."

When Lin Yuan heard the words, 'Law Crystal', his eyes immediately widened. He then carefully looked at the black crystal that was in the Mother of Bloodbath's hands.

Lin Yuan had heard of the Law Crystal from the Moon Empress. Only Myth Breed feys would produce Law Crystals, so Lin Yuan hadn't asked about them in detail. He didn't think he would have the chance to see one.

The Mother of Bloodbath noticed Lin Yuan's observant eyes and handed this the black crystal to him. "Keep it well. This is truly a rare treasure."

Subsequently, the Mother of Bloodbath cleared its throat and explained, "When a Myth Breed fey perishes, the Law Rune that it comprehended won't vanish. It will be crystallized into the Law Crystal.

"However, it is very rare for a Law Crystal to be this complete. After all, a Suzerain/Myth fey will use its law rune during combat.

"Once the Law Rune's energy is used or if it clashes with other Law Runes, there will be cracks.

"Once a fey reaches Myth II, it will comprehend a method to burn Willpower Runes. That's why most of the Law Crystals are cracked and seldom complete."

Lin Yuan couldn't help asking in return, "What about this Law Crystal?"

When asking this question, Lin Yuan had a conjecture in his mind.

The Mother of Bloodbath took the Night Calamity Crow's corpse and started to disassemble it while it said, "That is because this idiotic crow didn't manage to use the Law Rune in time before dying. Big Sister Xia's Enlightenment Law Rune is able to calm the thoughts too.

"Because of Big Sister Xia's full-powered attack, my sneak assault, along with the final blow, it ended the Night Calamity Crow's life, allowing us to have this complete Law Crystal.

"When a Myth III fey perishes, the Law Crystal will be different too. Take a look at the darkness-elemental Law Crystal that you have. Doesn't it have two golden notches? Each golden notch represents the Myth grade of the fey."

When the Mother of Bloodbath explained until this point, it suddenly saw an image of the Moon Empress smiling creepily at her. The Mother of Bloodbath felt that chills coursed down its entire body.

If the Moon Empress finds out that I am imparting knowledge to Lin Yuan, she will certainly mark this as a feud.

As Lin Yuan was listening seriously, the Mother of Bloodbath suddenly spoke softly. "The next time you have a question and answer session with the Moon Empress, don't tell her that I have explained about this topic before. It is better to use the Moon Empress' knowledge as it is more accurate.

"Here, I have already sorted out all of the spiritual ingredients that could be found from this pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II Night Calamity Crow.

"However, none of these spiritual ingredients are superior to that Law Crystal with the two notches."

Lin Yuan received the spiritual ingredients that were disassembled and sorted by the Mother of Bloodbath. He had a sudden feeling that the Mother of Bloodbath was simply a poultry butcher specialist as this Night Calamity Crow was butchered cleanly.

But be it the ingredients obtained from the Night Calamity Crow or that black Law Crystal, they weren't useful to Lin Yuan right now.

Putting aside the rare spiritual ingredients from a Suzerain/Myth II fey, that Law Crystal could only be obtained if one could instantly kill a Suzerain/Myth II fey. How many individuals in this world had such strength?

This Suzerain/Myth II Night Calamity Crow was truly Lin Yuan's treasure. Be it the Heaven and Earth Fey, Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree, or the orange-gold metal disc, they were all things that Lin Yuan wouldn't be able to obtain so easily.

Finally, the Night Calamity Crow fulfilled its responsibility to the greatest extent by delivering itself to him. Lin Yuan was truly overfed right now.

Endless Summer looked at the environment of the Endless Forest and felt emotional as she said, "Ever since I gained wisdom, I have never left this place. But in the future, I will be visiting all the mountains and rivers."

Endless Summer sounded rather reluctant to leave, but she looked forward to the future more.

For animal- and insect-species feys, as long as they could survive until Normal grade, they would be able to travel the world and see all sorts of sceneries. On the other hand, Endless Summer was only able to leave the soil after reaching Myth III.

Seeing that Endless Summer was fine now and that her grade was already stable, Lin Yuan immediately mentioned his objective for this trip.

"Endless Summer, the Mother of Bloodbath said that you have the resources to upgrade Red Thorn from Epic to Legend quality? I wonder if you are able to upgrade Red Thorn's quality?"

Lin Yuan already summoned Red Thorn as he spoke, and Red Thorn's thornless vine immediately wrapped around his wrist.

Lin Yuan was able to sense Red Thorn's emotions; apart from reliance, there was also a sense of relief.

Lin Yuan suddenly realized that he had been focusing on his own matters during this period and neglected his partner feys, be it Genius, Chimey, Red Thorn, or Morbius.

To him, he had family, friends, and plenty of feys. However, for each of his contracted fey, they only had him. Because as their contractor, he was their everything.

At that moment, Morbius' voice suddenly rang in Lin Yuan's mind. "Yuan, for each and every one of us, having you around is the greatest blessing. You don't have to consider too much about us. Focus on your path because we still have a long time with you, an entire lifetime."

After hearing Morbius' words, Lin Yuan's mind flashed with the words, 'an entire lifetime'.

Lin Yuan said softly in his spiritual spatial zone, "A lifetime is the longest time in a human's life. It is truly great to have all of you around in this lifetime."

When treating a fey, a person's attitude was actually very easily identified from the interactions between the spirit qi professional and the contracted feys.

Chapter 310: Endless Summer's Enlightenment

Endless Summer could clearly feel that Red Thorn's wisdom was like a child who just could express happiness, anger, and sadness.

Lin Yuan must have usually treated it extremely well. Otherwise, even if he was Red Thorn's contractor, it would never be so dependent on him.

Given Red Thorn's wisdom, if Lin Yuan did not treat it well, it would instead fear him. A fey's fear and obedience toward a human was what Endless Summer hated the most.

As she looked at Red Thorn's vine that was clinging to Lin Yuan's hand and the red ribbon tied on the vine, Endless Summer suddenly felt that even time had warmed up.

It had recently snowed heavily in the depths of the Endless Forest, and the snow-covered ground revealed a coldness. However, the affection in front of her made the scenery as warm as midsummer in August.

"My Enlightenment Law Rune can enlighten a plant fey with the power it condenses every five years. I enlighten myself every five years, but I've set aside a chance to enlighten myself.

"I thought if I could not resist the World Cleansing when I reached Myth III, I could use this enlightenment chance to earn myself a chance of survival, but I didn't use it.

"I'm not sure whether this Law Rune's enlightenment can promote your contracted Red Thorn from Epic to Legend."

After saying that, Endless Summer summoned her pink-purple petal-like Enlightenment Willpower Rune and enlightened Red Thorn.

She did so very quickly, and Lin Yuan could feel that after Red Thorn digested this enlightenment, it immediately fell into a deep sleep. He knew that this was a necessary state for it to improve its strength.

Red Thorn was originally just a source-type Source Seed, and it had turned out this way now because it had followed the evolution path that Lin Yuan had chosen for it.

It could be said that Red Thorn was like a blank canvas, but this blank canvas had been drawn into its current state under the joint efforts of Lin Yuan and Red Thorn.

Lin Yuan did not dare to say that Red Thorn's current evolution and form were at the optimum path. However, its current state was most suitable for his combat style.

Endless Summer sensed Red Thorn's state and said, "It takes seven days for one enlightenment. It looks like it has a high chance of promoting its quality."

Lin Yuan nodded. Just a second before Endless Summer had spoken, he had already known that Red Thorn's quality would certainly be raised.

This was because Red Thorn had transmitted a request to him. It had asked in which direction it should evolve afterward.

Lin Yuan did not expect that Endless Summer's enlightenment would be so powerful. It was akin to letting the Bronze/Epic Red Thorn cross this hurdle that was hard to overcome and reach Bronze/Legend.

However, he knew that this Law Rune's enlightenment was so powerful because Endless Summer had just reached Myth III.

Furthermore, Endless Summer could only cast it once every five years. Since Endless Summer had just undergone the World Cleansing, there was a hint of World Grace in her Enlightenment Law Rune.

After Red Thorn's quality had broken through the barrier, this enlightenment caused it to have nowhere to vent the huge amount of energy, which it had accumulated from devouring a lot of flesh from the sea of demons and was intended to enhance its quality.

This huge amount of energy in conjunction with that hint of the World Grace in the enlightenment would allow Red Thorn to very likely break through to Silver when it fused with the Willpower Rune and became a Fantasy Breed.

Although Lin Yuan had always been very clear about Red Thorn's evolution path, the detailed branches Red Thorn had provided made him hesitate about the main path that he had planned.

Because of one of his decisions, its form would be very different after becoming a Fantasy Breed. However, Lin Yuan could take his time to think about it. He did not need to be in a hurry to decide its evolution path as Red Thorn's metamorphosis would be completed when it fused with the Willpower Rune and became a Fantasy Breed.

Therefore, while Red Thorn was receiving the enlightenment for seven days, he could make some careful deliberations based on his own combat system.

...

In the supreme imperial court in the Radiance Federation, 13 chairs were situated next to a huge stone table inscribed with many marks. Each of the chairs had one figure—the true experts of this era. All of them possessed great strength.

Unexpectedly, it was silent in the imperial court right now.

A very kind-looking old man, who leaned on the backrest, was at the stone table's main seat. The interior light could not shine on his face. However, one could feel the other 12 people's respect for the old man.

The Moon Empress was sitting on the second chair in the row on the left side of the imperial court. A full-bearded man sat on the left-hand seat, looking at her with narrowed eyes.

At the third position at the right side was a man holding a bamboo, his eyes flowing with an unknown meaning.

The one who kept looking at the Moon Empress was the oldest of the Radiance Federation's three Class 5 Creation Masters, Chef Supreme. However, the Moon Empress was looking at Bamboo Monarch. Clearly, the three of them were interacting.

The black-veiled Spirit Guards' Chief Guard was sitting opposite the Moon Empress.

A man with peach blossom eyes and a smiling face was sitting opposite the Moon Empress, as well as a livid, stern man clad in dark armor.

If Lin Yuan could see these two people, he would certainly have recognized one of them, the man called Iron Prison. He had nearly forced his master to make a move.

The other one was none other than the man with the smiling face who had come at the last minute and made the Moon Empress stop what she was doing.

Besides Chef Supreme, the Moon Empress, Bamboo Monarch, Chief Guard Ye, Iron Prison, and the man with the smiling face, there were six other men with different looks.

There were only two women among the two rows of twelve seats. One of them was the Moon Empress, while the other was the Spirit Guards' Chief Guard.

At present, the atmosphere was a bit strange. The crowd was exchanging glances, and only the man with the smiling face knocked on the table with his finger as if he was waiting for something.

A very gentle voice sounded. Nobody could figure out this voice's age, but it was very calm, with an indescribable weight.

This voice came from the old man who was leaning back on the chair at the main seat.

"Tell me what you guys think about this issue."

The 12 voices replied, 'Yes', and the first to speak was the stern Iron Prison.