Chapter 941: Pulling the Nets In Tonight

Lin Yuan could not be happier that someone had responded so quickly.

This meant that his trade message had struck a chord with a huge audience, and there were many experts that did not have the confidence to help their feys overcome the World Cleansing.

The trade message was important to Lin Yuan. Although the condition that the experts had to fulfill was not absolutely necessary to him, it would still benefit him significantly.

Lin Yuan now possessed Creation Breed fighting power in the form of Endless Summer's healing abilities and the Kill Food Sky Butterfly's combat power.

The Mother of Bloodbath was also a well of potential waiting to be tapped into.

Duan He's Purple Demon was also a fighting force to be reckoned with.

Purple Demon needed to consume the flesh of feys that had a higher grade than it, which was difficult to obtain.

But recently, many of the Blood Brew Grapevine's Blood Brew Grapes had ripened. Some of the Blood Brew Grapes would be given to the Mother of Bloodbath to supply it with blood energy. Soon, the Mother of Bloodbath would be able to evolve to Myth III.

As he continued to work with Long Xiao, the Indigo Azure Guard Captain, Coiling Dragon's Valley, Dark Clouds Bird Shrine, and Condense Fairy Orchard, Lin Yuan's store of Law Source Crystals had steadily increased.

The Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls that he had given Coiling Dragon's Valley and Dark Clouds Bird Shrine had started to fall into the hands of other veteran and top factions.

Brocade Zither was also hard at work nurturing Golden Lotus Brocade Pearls in the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

Lin Yuan would not be lacking in Law Source Crystals for the foreseeable future.

He could not help but be able to boast that he was able to gain the loyalty of Myth Breed feys and that he already had more plans to nurture Creation Breed feys.

Thus, Lin Yuan did not have much use for the emperor-class experts that responded to the trade message.

The condition that the emperor-class experts would agree to fulfill would become a power to strengthen Sky City further. They would become the tiles that built Sky City higher toward the clouds.

The part that he needed the most was the World Grace that would descend after the World Cleansing.

Although the Pure Land of Bliss only absorbed 10% of the World Grace, it would be able to produce a large amount of spirit qi crystals that Lin Yuan would use to evolve his feys' grades.

The evolution in fey grades would increase Black's power as a combat-class spirit qi professional.

After contracting the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen, Lin Yuan had benefited from the laws engraved on its skirt.

Lin Yuan had realized that in his recent rush to increase his own power, he had neglected to evolve his own feys.

He could not help but self-reflect.

Spirit qi professionals depended on their feys to fight. As such, it was of utmost importance to increase one's feys' powers.

Lin Yuan felt that he had been slacking off.

If he could use this blind trade to help more feys overcome the World Cleansing, his own feys would be able to evolve as well.

He also planned on finding rare spiritual ingredients to evolve his feys' qualities.

However, this was not the best time for Lin Yuan to respond to the messages about the trade message.

Lin Yuan had already put the 65 sets of Flower Brocade Pearls on sale and was planning on gathering all the Aurora pollen available in the market.

The market was always sensitive, and the Purchase With No Loss store's blind trades had become famous on Star Web.

Countless people paid attention to all news about the blind trades.

Those who had been paying attention were already using all the connections available to them to obtain Aurora pollen.

However, Sun Ningxiang did not know that Lin Yuan was planning on pulling in the net that he had trapped the Sea Bliss Clan in.

Hence, Sun Ningxiang needed to collect all the Aurora pollen she had on hand in order to maintain the Aurora pollen's price stability.

Lin Yuan did not want this to happen as it would be throwing a stone into the cogs of his plan instead, and it would become pointless for Lin Yuan to sell the 1,300 Flower Brocade Pearls through blind trades.

Instead of replying to the experts messaging him about the trade message, Lin Yuan left Star Web and called Sun Ningxiang.

The call rang for half a minute before Lin Yuan heard Sun Ningxiang's hoarse voice on the other end.

"Lin Yuan, you left the Guard Ye Banquet so suddenly that you didn't even collect your prizes for winning the Martial Arts Stage. Did something serious happen? Long Tao, Li Xuan, Gao Feng, and I all tried to find out what happened to you."

Lin Yuan chuckled before replying, "Something urgent came up, and I went to help a friend."

Sun Ningxiang was stunned when she heard what Lin Yuan said.

She remembered that Lin Yuan had left with Mystic Moon, so she had assumed that something extremely serious had happened to Lin Yuan.

Sun Ningxiang could not believe that Lin Yuan had given up the glory of accepting his prize just to help a friend.

No matter what Lin Yuan had done for that friend, Sun Ningxiang was heart warmed to know that Lin Yuan treated his friends in such a manner.

Anyone would be lucky to become Lin Yuan's friend!

Sun Ningxiang beamed brightly, for she was one of Lin Yuan's friends.

The first time she had met Lin Yuan was at Sky City's private territory. That was also where they established their partnership.

But it was only when her confrontation with Miao Zhuo at the Guard Ye Banquet implicated Lin Yuan that she witnessed Lin Yuan's righteousness for herself.

It was also then that she guessed Lin Yuan's identity.

She had taken the initiative to join Lin Yuan's group.

As the main pillar of support holding Condense Fairy Orchard up, Sun Ningxiang's sense of responsibility made her automatically want to gain Lin Yuan's favor after figuring out his true identity.

However, she realized that her friendliness had earned Lin Yuan's genuine friendship, which she saw as a blessing.

Lin Yuan had even connected her to Long Tao and Li Xuan, enabling Condense Fairy Orchard to strike up partnerships with Coiling Dragon's Valley and Dark Clouds Bird Shrine. These partnerships might be the road to salvation for Condense Fairy Orchard.

After leaving the Guard Ye Banquet, Sun Ningxiang had spent the past day handling Condense Fairy Orchard's affairs and barely had the time even to hydrate herself.

Apricot had just reported to her that there was an explosion of demand for Aurora pollen.. Sun Ningxiang asked Lin Yuan.

Chapter 942: You're Not Fit to be an Emperor-Class Expert

"Lin Yuan, it's not easy to suppress the price of Aurora pollen. At first, I only needed to supply one tonne of Aurora pollen to suppress the price of ten tonnes. But recently, I need to supply nine tonnes to suppress the price of ten tonnes."

Lin Yuan had his own reason for buying up the Aurora pollen and targeting the Sea Bliss Clan.

Sun Ningxiang was trying to get Lin Yuan's input to see if he would advise her to continue supplying Aurora pollen to the market in this current period of booming demand.

On the other hand, she was trying to remind Lin Yuan that there was almost no more Aurora pollen left in the market to buy up as most of the stock available was being supplied by her.

Lin Yuan had called Sun Ningxiang to discuss this, yet she had brought up the matter before him.

He could not help but be impressed by her sharp mind.

"Sun Ningxiang, stop supplying any Aurora pollen to the market. The collection of Aurora pollen has reached my expectations, and it's time to let the price skyrocket."

"I will make the arrangements now and use Condense Fairy Orchard's connections to collect as much Aurora pollen as possible by tonight. We work with many businesses, and they should be willing to help us out with this," replied Sun Ningxiang.

Lin Yuan raised an eyebrow. Now, when it was time to allow the Aurora pollen's price to inflate freely, Sun Ningxiang was choosing to dig from the bottom of the barrel.

Even if the Sea Bliss Clan set aside their pride as a veteran faction, it would be impossible for them to buy the obscenely expensive Aurora pollen to feed the Angelfish of Bliss.

Lin Yuan wondered how much more ludicrous the Sea Bliss Clan could become.

After speaking with Sun Ningxiang, Lin Yuan immediately returned to Star Web and saw that another person had responded to his trade message.

This made Lin Yuan's eyes light up, and he was about to reply to the first person that had messaged him. But when he saw the message, Lin Yuan furrowed his brow slightly.

Attractive Boy Holding an Umbrella: "Will you be able to guarantee the safety of the fey undergoing the World Cleansing? I'll need you to go with me to the Spirit Guards to make things official. If my fey dies, your store has to compensate me handsomely."

This person sure was pragmatic to talk about compensation so casually.

Although it was human instinct to protect one's own benefits, this method of requesting compensation sure was forceful!

Even some emperor-class experts who helped their friends' feys to overcome the World Cleansing could run into accidents.

No one would be able to predict when such accidents would or would not occur.

Yet this person wanted Lin Yuan to shoulder all of the risks. This made Lin Yuan very suspicious of this person's sincerity.

However, Lin Yuan had the Kill Food Sky Butterfly, and it was powerful enough to ensure the safety of the fey in question.

For the sake of the 10% of World Grace and Genius' evolution to Diamond X, Lin Yuan composed himself and answered.

Deep Mountain Elder Lin: "I have no problem with going to the Spirit Guards. However, we cannot compensate you to an unreasonable extent. If your fey really dies during the World Cleansing, we will compensate you with a Bronze/Epic fey, and we'll also take care of the resources you spent evolving your fey to its current grade. Is this acceptable?"

Once he sent his reply, Lin Yuan was about to go on to read the next person's message when he received Attractive Boy Holding an Umbrella's answer.

Attractive Boy Holding an Umbrella: "Fine. However, we also have to stipulate that as long as my Three-Horned Dragon Rhino is wounded irreparably by the World Cleansing, your store will have to compensate me."

Lin Yuan's expression darkened.

He did not want to waste any more time on Attractive Boy Holding an Umbrella as he was clearly trying to take advantage of Lin Yuan.

If Lin Yuan still had to provide compensation if the fey did not die, he would essentially have protected it for nothing.

Moreover, the person had contracted the Suzerain/Fantasy V Three-Horned Dragon Rhino.

The Three-Horned Dragon Rhino was an impressive defense-type fey that could use its three horns to attack other feys. Its thick hide was also resistant to elemental abilities.

If Lin Yuan had contracted the Three-Horned Dragon Rhino, its defensive abilities would already be enough for Lin Yuan to be confident about it being able to evolve to Myth Breed.

However, the person called Attractive Boy Holding an Umbrella did not have this confidence.

This meant that Attractive Boy Holding an Umbrella did not have the heart of an expert at all. His head was only full of thoughts of how to continue turning a blind eye and taking advantage of others.

Lin Yuan had no desire to work with such a person. But for the sake of the 10% of World Grace, Lin Yuan forced himself to agree.

Just as Lin Yuan was about to tell Attractive Boy Holding an Umbrella to come to the Royal Capital, he saw another message.

Attractive Boy Holding an Umbrella: "Since the deal is sealed, let's discuss your conditions. I think that 10% of the World Grace is unreasonable. What do you think?"

Lin Yuan's fist itched to make contact with something.

He had always considered himself as a well-mannered person, but Attractive Person Holding an Umbrella was truly testing Lin Yuan's limits.

Lin Yuan took a deep breath and replied with gnashed teeth.

Deep Mountain Elder Lin: "Get lost! You're not fit to be an emperor-class expert. Your Three-Horned Dragon Rhino is fated to stay below Myth Breed."

Lin Yuan blocked Attractive Boy Holding an Umbrella so that he would not have to tangle with such a person any longer.

Next, he calmed himself and moved on to read the message from the other person who had replied to his trade message.

Floating World Complains of Calamity: "Hello, both my feys are at pinnacle Myth II. Does your store accept World Cleansings for Myth III?"

Chapter 943: Of Course

Lin Yuan's eyes lit up, and he responded.

Deep Mountain Elder Lin: "Of course."

Lin Yuan did not expect Floating World Complains of Calamity actually to have two pinnacle Myth II feys.

The World Grace that descended after a Myth III World Cleansing was completely different from that after a Myth II World Cleansing.

The World Grace that descended from a Myth III World Cleansing was meant to help a fey gain Body Weaponization and was ten times stronger than the World Grace from a Myth II World Grace.

10% of two Myth III feys' World Graces would produce a pile of spirit qi crystals large enough to enable Genius to evolve to Diamond X/Fantasy I.

After Genius evolved to Diamond X/Fantasy I, there would still be a fair number of spirit qi crystals.

Lin Yuan felt that he would be able to regain the feeling of being drunk on spirit qi crystals.

However, Lin Yuan started to become suspicious.

If Floating World Complains of Calamity had two pinnacle Myth II feys, they would help each other evolve to Myth III.

Moreover, someone who could nurture two feys to Suzerain/Myth II would not be lacking in resources.

Such a person had to be from one of the major factions or a hardworking independent contractor like Duan He.

However, it seemed strange that an expert like Floating World Complains of Calamity was coming to Lin Yuan for help.

The person behind Floating World Complains of Calamity was a two-meter-tall burly man with cropped hair and bulging muscles.

But one look at the burly man's face, and one would notice that his countenance was not only lacking in ferocity but was rather cute instead.

Needle-puncture-like scars were peppered all over his body. They did not look to have been the result of external injuries but rather some plant that was trying to grow out of his skin. The scars made the burly man's skin seem very bizarre.

These scars would also occasionally shift like a centipede was crawling under the man's skin. The man would tremble with his brow deeply knitted every once in a while as though he was trying to fight off excruciating pain.

However, it was clear that such pain was a daily occurrence in the man's life.

Besides the shivering and the frowning, the moving of the scars did not affect the man in any way.

When he saw Lin Yuan's reply, the burly man's scrunched-up features did not relax.

A look of faint hope bloomed on his face, and he chanted, "Of course, of course."

Lin Yuan's reply had given the burly man much more confidence.

At that moment, the scars on the man's skin started to move around wildly. The physical, spiritual, mental, and soul anguish that came after forced the man to log out of Star Web.

A willpower burst forth from all the pain, suppressing all the pain.

Although the scars were still moving about on his body, the man logged into Star Web again and shivered hopefully before sending a long message to Lin Yuan.

Floating World Complains of Calamity: "My two Suzerain/Myth II feys are very special. They cannot handle any attacks from the World Cleansing, resulting in their immediate destruction. Do you think they can still experience the World Cleansing?"

The burly man closed his eyes as though he was waiting to receive judgment.

When Lin Yuan had first seen Floating World Complains of Calamity's message, he did not think anything strange of it.

But a look of suspicion still appeared on his face.

It was ridiculous that Floating World Complains of Calamity's two Suzerain/Myth II feys could not handle any attack from the World Cleansing.

Genius was a functional-type fey that did not have any combat skills.

Hence, when it reached pinnacle Myth II, it also had to avoid being struck by any of the World Cleansing's attacks.

Otherwise, there was a high chance of its roots being injured during the World Cleansing. However, it would not die.

Although functional-type feys did not have fighting abilities, their physiques would have become decently powerful once they reached Suzerain/Myth, and they would not die immediately from just one of the World Cleansing's attacks.

Apparently, Floating World Complains of Calamity's two Suzerain/Myth II feys were very special.

But the more special the fey, the more specifically valuable they were.

Thus, Floating World Complains of Calamity should not have any problems using his feys' special abilities to find experts to help him.

Lin Yuan could not figure out what Floating World Complains of Calamity's situation was, so he decided not to dwell on it or ask what Floating World Complains of Calamity's feys were.

Other people might be stumped by Floating World Complains of Calamity's feys being unable to even receive one attack from the World Cleansing, but this was a cakewalk for Lin Yuan.

But since Floating World Complains of Calamity had made his request, Lin Yuan felt that he needed to adjust his own conditions.

Deep Mountain Elder Lin: "No problem. I can promise that both your feys won't have to receive any attacks from the World Cleansing."

The burly man's eyes flew wide open, and the spark of hope in his gaze erupted into a blaze. His eyes looked like two minuscule suns.

The burly man finally saw the light at the end of the tunnel. He started to quiver slightly, but not because of the pain from his scars.. It was because his excitement had taken full control of his body.

Chapter 944: The Happiest Person on Star Web

At the same moment that hope flooded the burly man, the hatred that was usually buried deep in the depths of his soul surged violently, and his adorable features arranged themselves into a cold expression.

Suddenly, Lin Yuan sent Floating World Complains of Calamity another message.

Deep Mountain Elder Lin: "Your request will need the power of a Creation Breed fey. I'm sure you're aware of this. I believe that you've been searching for a thearch-class expert to help your feys overcome the World Cleansing. If so, I need to add to my stipulated conditions. But I won't be adding too much. Since you have two feys that need to overcome the World Cleansing, the compensation is doubled, and add 50 more source-type items."

Lin Yuan had thought deeply before he changed the price.

The main reason he had sent the message was to obtain the 10% of World Grace. Hence, he did not increase the price by much.

The burly man's expression soured, and his ears turned red. This made him seem even cuter like he was an enormous teddy bear. He scratched the back of his head with a vexed look hanging on his face.

He sent Lin Yuan an astonishing reply.

Floating World Complains of Calamity: "I don't have any money now. I don't even have any Heaven and Earth feys or source-type items. Can I give you all the World Grace instead? Or I can find a way to earn money after my feys evolve to Myth III."

The burly man added another message shamefully.

Floating World Complains of Calamity: "I'll definitely do my best to pay you accordingly."

Lin Yuan's jaw fell open when he first saw the messages.

Just how thick-skinned is this person? He had the gall to take advantage of me? Since when did stores on Star Web accept credit?

Lin Yuan took a closer look at Floating World Complains of Calamity's messages and realized that he was not actually trying to take advantage of him. Instead, he seemed desperately sincere.

Floating World Complains of Calamity needed someone to help his feys overcome the World Cleansing while Lin Yuan had thearch-class power.

Thus, Floating World Complains of Calamity could not go back on his word in the face of Lin Yuan's martial force after Floating World Complains of Calamity's two pinnacle Suzerain/Myth II overcame the World Cleansing.

Yet, Floating World Complains of Calamity was willing to give up all the World Grace. This showed just how backed into a corner Floating World Complains of Calamity was as he would essentially be giving up his feys' futures.

By burning the bridge once one was across it, one had no choice but to push on and move forward until they finally attained success.

Floating World Complains of Calamity sent Lin Yuan another message.

Floating World Complains of Calamity: "If you can't accept credit, I can swear on a law to be your servant for three years. I'll do anything for you in those three years. But once three years is up, I need to leave to do something absolutely necessary."

Lin Yuan fell silent when he read the message.

Perhaps it was because he had also been once submerged in darkness and had to climb out of it on his own painstakingly. Lin Yuan felt that he could relate to Floating World Complains of Calamity to some extent.

Unless he was in a hopeless situation, there was no way an emperor-class expert would set aside his pride, give up his freedom, and leave his fate in the hands of a stranger.

After a few moments of silence, Lin Yuan sent his reply.

Deep Mountain Elder Lin: "I'll help your feys overcome the World Cleansing first. We can discuss the compensation and other conditions once we meet. Let me know once you've reached the Royal Capital."

Lin Yuan sent his phone number to Floating World Complains of Calamity.

He did not know Floating World Complains of Calamity well. As such, he dared not take up the offer to take him on as his servant for three years.

From Floating World Complains of Calamity's words, Lin Yuan could sense that he had a long life story behind him which would entail what he had to do in three years.

Hence, he decided to hold off on agreeing on the compensation until he met Floating World Complains of Calamity in the face before he decided whether to take two Heaven and Earth feys and 110 source-type items or Floating World Complains of Calamity as his servant for three years.

Lin Yuan did not like the term servant.

Listen had used his Willpower Rune to swear his servitude, but Lin Yuan did not treat him any differently from the other people in the mansion.

He waited for Floating World Complains of Calamity's reply, but he still received nothing even after a long while.

When he opened Floating World Complains of Calamity's messages, Lin Yuan saw that Floating World Complains of Calamity had logged out of Star Web.

Lin Yuan sighed and said, "What is wrong with Floating World Complains of Calamity? He left right in the middle of our serious discussion. Why is he so unreliable?"

But since he had sent the messages, he could only wait for Floating World Complains of Calamity to call him.

At that moment, in a tiny, decrepit house, a burly man dressed in a long robe was writhing wildly on the floor.

Clearly, he was fighting intense pain as he locked his jaw to stave off any whimpers of pain.

His black robe was soaked through with sweat, and he left stains on the ground as he thrashed about.

He lay face-up on the ground as sweat rolled down his face a moment later.

The moisture on his face was a mixture of sweat and tears.

The burly man raised his head with great difficulty and looked at his scars for a second before he shakily got to his feet.

He looked out into the dark night as though he was searching for a ray of light that would illuminate his heart.

...

Now that he had settled his matters, he wanted to check on Chimey.

Currently, Chimey's live-streaming room was the most booming place on Star Web.

Bai Hao was now the most excited and happiest person on Star Web.

Chapter 945: What a Powerful Host!

Bai Hao had been sparring with Wang Fan in the training room to practice their compatibility so as to put up a better fight against the four strongest competitors at the next S Tournament.

He stood out with his explosive attacks, was the third most powerful member of his team, and had an extremely aggressive fighting style.

However, he knew his weakness was his lack of stamina.

He would be in deep trouble if he could not attain victory within his first three attacks.

Meanwhile, Wang Fan was a support-type spirit qi professional.

After Wang Fan had become acquainted with Bai Hao and Liu Jie, he had adjusted his fey allocation and fighting style.

As members of the Radiance Hundred Sequence, Bai Hao and Wang Fan all had secret weapons that they had not displayed.

Their guild club had yet to become an A-level one, and they had never placed in the top five of the S Tournament.

If they could win against the top four guild clubs, the ranking of the most powerful guild clubs in the S Tournament would be reindexed. They might even be able to become one of the top three and enable their guild club to become an A-level guild club.

Thus, Wang Fan and Bai Hao were ready to put in the necessary work. They were ready to show a small portion of their secret weapons during the S Tournament.

However, they usually kept their secret weapons under wraps and had never worked together in such a direction.

After two consecutive days of intense training, Bai Hao gave up pondering over the connection between Black and Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess.

But even after he emptied his mind of all thoughts, Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' voice sometimes floated into his mind of its own accord.

Not only did Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' voice not distract him, but it even filled him with a fervent motivation.

However, he did not expect his leader to walk in with Wang Fan's girlfriend, Anna, in the middle of his and Wang Fan's training.

When Bai Hao heard the news that his leader brought, he immediately logged into Star Web right there in the training room and went to the live-streaming room that he would even enter when no one was live-streaming. He noticed that the GIF was gone.

In place of the GIF was a shadow.

When Bai Hao saw the shadow, the image melded with the voice that resonated in Bai Hao's soul.

Bai Hao thought, “Once you meet the one, you realize that even the most eloquently beautiful descriptions can't live up to personal experience.”

He stared dazedly and unblinkingly at Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess.

Once he drank Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess's face in, he suddenly found the small white cat in her arms rather annoying and its tails too plumose.

Bai Hao could not help but be jealous of the white cat that Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess was stroking with a look of reluctance.

If Bai Hao could enter the screen to the live-streaming room, he would shake the white cat as he exclaimed, “Be thankful! If you don't want to be in your position, let me take your place!”

As stunned as Bai Hao was, his hand had not stopped moving.

There were bouquets of 100 flowers of support that cost 10,000 Radiance dollars each on Star Web, and Bai Hao was sending three bouquets every second.

As the No.1 supporter of Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess's live-streaming room, his entrance into the live-streaming room set out a notification.

The long-time fans of Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' live-streaming room were already used to Bai Hao's immediate assault of gifts because he was never absent during one of Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' live streams.

Many of Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' fans also often saw Bai Hao in Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' live-streaming room when there was no live stream going on.

It could be said that Bai Hao spent more time in the live-streaming room than even Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess did.

Suddenly, Bai Hao noticed activity in his message box, and he opened it to see a message from Wang Fan.

Reunited-Wang Fan: “Damn! I can't believe how gorgeous Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess is! No wonder you like her voice. But if she's so stunning, why has she never shown her face? If she showed her face from the beginning, wouldn't she be even more popular?”

Bai Hao's mouth twitched. He did not expect Wang Fan to also have logged into Star Web, nor had he ever heard that Wang Fan was also Shadow Voice Loli Goddess' fan.

Wasn't Wang Fan always terrified of Anna? Since when did he become so brave as to start discussing girls' looks on Star Web?

After he read Wang Fan's message, Bai Hao noticed that Wang Fan was a shallow person for the first time.

He did not like Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' voice because of her looks because he was far from a shallow person.

Whether Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess showed her face or not, almost every live stream of hers ended up as one of the top ten live streams of the beauty department.

What a powerful host!

As the number of live stream watchers continued to climb, Bai Hao suddenly felt threatened.

Now that Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess had shown her face, there was four times the usual number of watchers.

He might not be able to hold on to his position as the number one fan!

Just as Bai Hao was trying to come up with a way to maintain his position, one fan sent Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess 3,000 bouquets.

This pushed that fan to the third-place position, and he was only a hair's breadth away from second place.

Bai Hao immediately checked the person's ID, and his eyes immediately widened.

The ID was Unknown Flame—Anna.

Wasn't this Wang Fan's girlfriend?

Bai Hao was about to ask Wang Fan what was going on when he saw another message from Wang Fan.

His tone was just like Red Riding Hood's when she was about to be gobbled up by the big bad wolf.

Reunited-Wang Fan: "Bai Hao! If I didn't come here to comfort you for fear that you'd be disappointed by Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' looks, Anna wouldn't have followed me into Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' live-streaming room."

Bai Hao immediately realized what was going on.

Anna always placed emphasis on looks. She liked anything that was attractive and would even go into a frenzy when she saw something shockingly beautiful.

Once she saw Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' face, she became an instant fan.

Bai Hao gulped. If Anna became Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' fan, Wang Fan's finances would only decline from now on.

He wondered if he would need to lend Wang Fan money in the future.

Chapter 946: Black and Lin Yuan are...

When Anna was in one of her frenzied states, she would not hesitate to dump all of her and Wang Fan's money into Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' live-streaming room.

How could he compete with the income of two people?

Bai Hao felt that his position as the number one fan would be snatched from him soon.

Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess had risen to fame so quickly on Star Web because of her magnificent voice and all of Bai Hao's contributions.

The members of the Radiance Hundred Sequence were all regarded as celebrities on Star Web.

Every member of the Radiance Hundred Sequence had different abilities and contracted different feys. As such, they all had different fan bases on Star Web.

The fan clubs would even crowdfund to help their idol's fey evolve to Myth II and change into human form as soon as possible. Thus, all of Bai Hao's contributions to Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess had been a key driving force to her success.

Now, Anna of the Radiance Hundred Sequence had spent 30,000,000 Radiance dollars on Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess.

The flowers that flew around at the top of the live-streaming room excited every audience member.

Stars' Dreams: "What's going on? It's already crazy enough that Lord Ranger is one of Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' fans. Why is Unknown Flame Lordess a fan of Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess too?"

This Era: "I can't believe the Unknown Flame Lordess that I worship likes Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess too. This is great! Both my interests are aligning. I love this!"

The World of Mortals Favor Looks: "For some reason, I think that Lord Wang Fan's head is so lush now that he'll be able to feed a herd of Coiled Horn Goats!"

Hut on River Sanzu: "Based on Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' perfect looks and voice, I predict that her popularity will explode after today."

Chimey was stroking Genius as it looked through its messages on Star Web and was not paying attention to what was happening in the live-streaming room.

It had always been afraid of Lin Yuan finding out about its live streaming. Hence, it only sent Lin Yuan surprise boxes using its account but never added Lin Yuan as its friend.

Star Web users received instant notifications whenever the hosts they liked started live streaming.

As thanks to their fans, the hosts would mention their fans personally.

The audience list was always open, and any person who watched the live stream would see who was being mentioned by the host.

Normally, the hosts would mention the fans with the largest contributions.

But there were exceptions. For example, Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess never mentioned anyone, not even Bai Hao.

Now that Lin Yuan knew that Chimey was live streaming on Star Web, Chimey immediately mentioned Lin Yuan and Black.

Many people soon followed in Anna's lead and started to contribute to Chimey's live-streaming room. Most of them were Anna's fans or people who had seen Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' live-streaming trending on Star Web and had come to see what the fuss was about. Eventually, neither group of people could leave after seeing the beautiful host.

These new fans checked up on Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess out of curiosity and saw that she had mentioned two people.

These two people were too special!

Lin Yuan and Black's fans were in the middle of a heated war. Many young disciples of veteran factions and top factions were on Lin Yuan's side, and Black's fan count had dwindled.

Although Black was a prominent character on Star Web and was being called Ancestor Peace, he could not compete with the influence of the young disciples of veteran and top factions.

Thus, the members of the audience who had noticed this strange occurrence started to make their opinions known.

Passerby: "Does Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess know both Black and Lin Yuan? If she does, why doesn't she make it clear once and for all which one of them is stronger?"

Passerby's comment was soon buried under the tsunami of other comments.

However, many people had already seen the comment.

The long-time and new fans of Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess immediately went to see Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' mention page.

New comments quickly appeared.

Chimey never gave thanks for the presents it received, but it did pay close attention to the comments.

As a Songstress Bird that used not even to understand the mechanics of singing, Chimey loved to be praised.

Chimey suddenly saw people talking about Lin Yuan and Black in the comments and said instinctively, "Why are Black and Lin Yuan being compared? They're..."

At this point, Chimey immediately shut its jaw and blinked guiltily.

It could not believe that it almost revealed that Lin Yuan and Black were the same person.

Many people were already guessing about the connection between Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess and Black after the avian-type fey that Black contracted appeared in Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' live-streaming room.

But its slip of the tongue had exposed that Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess was familiar with Black and that she was close with Lin Yuan.

Many people were watching Chimey's live stream, and its words had immediately led to more people joining the live stream to watch the excitement unfold.

All the young disciples of veteran and top factions knew about Lin Yuan's identity. He was a genuine chosen one.

None of these young disciples had any real reason to resent Black, and they were only doing so to bootlick Lin Yuan.

But whether Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess had said that just to create hype or not, it brought the young disciples of veteran and top factions to its live stream to hear what she had to say.

Chapter 947: Long Tao's Appearance

Soon, Sparrow Voice Loli Goddess' live-streaming room became the battlefield for the war between Black and Lin Yuan's fans,

Now that the commotion in the live-streaming room was growing out of control, Chimey frowned.

Chimey liked listening to compliments about Black and Lin Yuan, but it did not like seeing both camps go after each other.

It suddenly remembered the song that Lin Yuan had taught and started singing it softly.

Chimey's voice was full of exuberance. The moment it started to sing, the rowdy live-streaming room fell silent.

As Chimey was singing, the audience seemed to see a fearless young man slowly and surely moving forward.

Despite the fury in Chimey's heart, its voice was serene.

This serenity made the daring young man that Chimey was singing about seem cold and distant.

Instead of making the young man look arrogant, the cold and distant young man appeared dignified.

In Chimey's journey from the Songstress Bird to the Clear Voice Luan Sparrow, it had come to understand many facts of life.

Although it was still twittering around Lin Yuan as it had always been, it now understood the struggles of growing up.

Strong loneliness accompanied Lin Yuan's entire life. No matter how lonely he was, he always had a smile hanging off his face.

However, the perfect Lin Yuan that Chimey saw was now being criticized by others.

All Chimey wanted to do now was rage against its audience.

...

At that moment, Kong Qi was sighing at Tian Ningning, who had a bitter expression on her face.

“You’re the only one who can come up with a solution. If you really don’t want to do anything without Black’s knowledge, you can wait until Black comes back online to discuss it with him,” said Kong Qi.

Tian Ningning looked up at Kong Qi and asked with stubborn hopefulness, “You said that you’d go to Star Tower to ask them to get in touch with Lin Yuan and Black so they can organize a fight. Did it not work out?”

A strange look came over Kong Qi’s face.

As the editor-in-chief of Star Web, Star Tower should take her suggestions seriously.

After contacting Yu Yan, who was the manager of Star Tower, Yu Yan had also agreed to her idea and said that he would try to contact them.

But in less than 20 minutes, Yu Yan told Kong Qi that he would not be able to help her. His tone had also sounded chiding as though she had led Yu Yan into trouble.

Kong Qi could not understand what Yu Yan’s attitude had changed so suddenly as she had always been on good terms with him.

However, Kong Qi did not know that Yu Yan would have reprimanded her if they were face-to-face with each other.

Yu Yan had agreed without hesitation when he received a request from an old friend.

But after he messaged Lin Yuan and Black on Star Web, he realized that he actually did not have much power despite being the manager of Star Tower.

He even had the authority to read up on the Radiance Hundred Sequence’s information.

Thus, the ever-cautious Yu Yan contacted his boss and applied for a higher level of access. But even after he was granted access, he still did not have the authority to check up on Lin Yuan and Black’s information.

Yu Yan broke out in cold sweat and started to make tentative guesses about Lin Yuan and Black’s identities.

As the manager of Star Tower, Yu Yan knew better than anyone about the structure of Star Web.

Every person on Star Web had to have their identities checked by three important people before extra security measures could be added.

The fact that all three important people had granted Lin Yuan and Black such high security proved that Lin Yuan and Black both had elite statuses.

The three important people had to know by now that Yu Yan was trying to look into Black and Lin Yuan.

Yu Yan was afraid that he would be called in and handed disciplinary action tomorrow.

When she saw Tian Ningning's stubborn gaze, Kong Qi did not know what to say. She just returned to her office and continued working.

From Kong Qi's reaction, Tian Ningning knew that Kong Qi was all out of ideas.

Tian Ningning clutched her phone tightly and willed herself to calm down as she readied herself to call Long Tao's exclusive reporter back.

Tian Ningning's phone rang at that moment, but it was an unknown number.

However, Tian Ningning still picked up the call. A stern voice on the other end of the call asked, "Is this Black's exclusive reporter? I'm Long Tao."

Long Tao did not expect something like this to happen right after the Guard Ye Banquet ended.

Since he was from a top faction, Long Tao immediately knew why this was happening.

If he had stood up to speak on Black's behalf at the beginning of the incident, the issue would not have blown up to this extent.

Long Tao was friends with Lin Yuan, but he had also cheated death while fighting alongside Black.

He felt stuck between Lin Yuan and Black.

But when he had first encountered Black, he had felt a sense of familiarity.

When Long Tao analyzed this feeling even further, he realized that it had come from his brief interaction with Lin Yuan at the Radiant Moon Palace.

Later, when he had encountered Lin Yuan again, the feeling of familiarity struck him again as though he had fought to the death alongside Lin Yuan.

After a short conversation with Tian Ningning, Long Tao hung up the call and called Lin Yuan.

However, Lin Yuan did not pick up the call.

Long Tao did not know whether it was because Lin Yuan's phone was not with him or because he was logged onto Star Web and could not hear his phone ring.

Chapter 948: Liu Jie Started Trouble with One Post

Although Long Tao did not find out who Chief Guard Ye's disciple was at the Guard Ye Banquet, he had exchanged contact details with Liu Jie.

After giving it some thought, Long Tao decided to call Liu Jie to see if he would be able to contact Lin Yuan or ask him if he could settle the matter personally.

Since the disciples of top and veteran factions were trying to gain Lin Yuan's favor, someone with status as high as Lin Yuan's should make a statement that could place a lid on the matter.

Frankly, Long Tao did not want to call Liu Jie just because of Black but because of Lin Yuan as well.

Lin Yuan had the Order of Radiant Light and would eventually compete to become one of the Radiance Envoys.

If this incident ended up painting Lin Yuan as someone who was overly aggressive, his road to becoming a Radiance Envoy would be an isolated one.

Liu Jie, who had just evolved his sacred source lifeform, inhaled sharply and was about to drink the Silver Stamen Gold Luster Cassia nectar that Lin Yuan had given him to cleanse his soul so as to enable the Insect Queen to gain control of the insect-species carcinoma fey when he heard his phone ring in his left pocket.

Liu Jie raised an eyebrow. When he had decided not to reveal his identity at the Guard Ye Banquet, he had prepared himself by getting another phone and registering for another Star Web account.

The phone that was currently ringing was the extra one he had prepared.

He took out the phone and picked it up when he saw that the call was coming from Long Tao.

Liu Jie had met Long Tao before, but he had introduced himself again using a different identity. This felt strange to him.

Now, he knew why Lin Yuan needed separate Star Web accounts for each of his three identities. Now, he also had three, one as the disciple of Chief Guard Ye, another one as Liu Jie, who was #30 of the Radiance Hundred Sequence, and the third one as the leader of the white-clothed followers.

He would be able to follow Lin Yuan in whichever capacity he chose to appear in.

Liu Jie felt comforted by this, and it was also Liu Jie's desire to follow in Lin Yuan's footsteps as his retainer.

He guessed that Long Tao had something to discuss with him. But when he picked up the call, Liu Jie frowned all the way until Long Tao finished speaking.

Liu Jie asked Long Tao. "Did you contact Lin Yuan before calling me?"

"I called Lin Yuan twice before I called you, but he didn't pick up. I called you so that this matter can be settled as soon as possible," replied Long Tao.

Liu Jie replied in a low tone, "Let me handle this."

Liu Jie hung up the call without telling Long Tao what he was going to do.

This did not assure Long Tao.

The disciple of Chief Guard Ye probably was not acquainted with Black. If Liu Jie said on Star Web that there was no comparison between Black and Lin Yuan, those disciples of veteran and top factions who had not yet joined in the debate might jump in immediately.

At that point, Black might be even more negatively affected.

Long Tao, who was initially going to go to his breeding room to evolve his feys, hastily logged into Star Web.

This was when he saw the message that Liu Jie had posted.

“I don’t know who is stronger between Lin Yuan and Black. They had dinner together tonight, and neither of them wanted to discuss who was stronger.”

There was a function on Star Web to verify identities. Although Liu Jie’s account was new, it had already been verified. His name, Young Liege of Midnight Palace, immediately pushed him to the status of one of the most elite young people in the Radiance Federation.

Long Tao immediately smiled when he saw Liu Jie’s message and shared the post. He asked his guild club teammates like Zhao Xiaochun and Fang Duoduo to share Liu Jie’s post as well.

Soon, everyone on Star Web saw Liu Jie’s post, and their first reaction was to assume that it was just a rumor. One of these people was Loi Lang.

However, after these people harboring suspicion opened Liu Jie’s Star Web account, their jaws immediately snapped shut.

The verification by the Star Web officials could not be fabricated. Thus, there was no way that the post could be fake.

No one could believe that Lin Yuan and Black not only knew each other but were also friends. They had to be friends in order to eat dinner together.

Liu Jie’s message made those who were attacking Black for Lin Yuan’s sake immediately feel like they had made fools of themselves. They deleted all the posts they had made about Black and Lin Yuan.

After Liu Jie’s post, the curtain fell on this incident.

Tian Ningning, who had been watching the activity on Star Web, could not help but cry as a flood of emotions overcame her after she saw Liu Jie’s post.

She could not help but cry out, “It’s finally over! Finally over!”

But she still felt that she had a responsibility to talk to Black as his exclusive reporter.

Lin Yuan had just received messages from braised egg head, Zhou Jiabin, Violent-Tempered Woman, and the others.

Although Lin Yuan did not block everyone’s posts like he did with Black’s account, he did not have many friends on Star Web.

He did not even add most of the Purchase With No Loss store members as his friends.

Nonetheless, he immediately clicked on the messages to open and read them.

A number of emotions flashed across his face in quick succession.

Lin Yuan could not believe how many people had insulted him for nothing.

Just as he was about to come up with a way to fix the situation, he saw Liu Jie's post and knew that the issue was no more. There was no need for him to try to fix the situation himself.

Lin Yuan immediately thought of Tian Ningning, who was Black's exclusive reporter.

He logged out of his Star Web and into Black's Star Web account.

This was when he saw the more than 99 messages that Tian Ningning had sent him.

At that moment, Lin Yuan felt he was too inconsiderate toward his exclusive reporter.

He had been so busy that he had no time to rest, much less tend to Tian Ningning.

So far, he had been extremely satisfied with Tian Ningning's work as his exclusive reporter.

Lin Yuan felt that it was time for him to have a frank and open conversation with Tian Ningning.

Chapter 949: Come to My House!

Lin Yuan felt guilty to have caused Tian Ningning so much worry and distress.

As such, he replied Tian Ningning.

Black: "I'm sorry."

He pondered for a moment before sending another message.

Black: "I started a guild club. Are you interested in being my team reporter on top of my exclusive reporter? If you are, I would like us to discuss this offline."

Lin Yuan had only sent this message after deep contemplation.

As his exclusive reporter, Tian Ningning had been dedicated to helping him with the miscellaneous matters of Star Web. Yet, he always neglected her due to his busy schedule.

Thus, he hoped to be able to establish a closer connection with Tian Ningning, and to do so would require them to interact offline instead of just on Star Web.

This was the only way that he would be able to attend to Tian Ningning on top of his busy schedule.

At least, this way, Tian Ningning would be able to find him at any time and would not need to wait seemingly endlessly during such situations.

Once they moved their relationship offline, Tian Ningning would be able to contact the rest of the people in the mansion or discuss how to handle such matters if she could not contact him.

In two weeks, this year's S Tournament would almost be over.

After this year's S Tournament ended, the qualification rounds for next year's S Tournament would begin.

Lin Yuan had been planning to join the Dome Guild Club and become part of the main team as Black.

Tian Ningning should already have gotten wind of the news as his exclusive reporter.

All the famous people on Star Web had exclusive reporters, and famous guild clubs were no exception.

Lin Yuan had witnessed Tian Ningning's capabilities for himself.

If she was also willing to become the Dome Guild Club's team reporter, it would save Lin Yuan the trouble of finding another team reporter for the Dome Guild Club.

The team reporter would be responsible for reporting on all the information regarding the guild club and was a very important role.

A good team reporter would ensure that the team would not encounter any problems on Star Web. This would allow the team to increase their power and achieve the best results on Star Web.

If Tian Ningning was too swamped with work after becoming the Dome Guild Club's team reporter, she could ask Liu Jie's exclusive reporter to share the workload.

The two of them would definitely be able to take care of the Dome Guild Club's affairs together.

After all, the Dome Guild Club was only recently established, and Zhang Xiaobai and the rest used to be Extreme Guild Club's reserve team members. There would eventually be rumors about them on Star Web.

Lin Yuan felt that it would be best to prepare in advance for whatever those rumors would turn out to be.

If Tian Ningning agreed to be the Dome Guild Club's team reporter, she could warm up by handling all the rumors about the Dome Guild Club that arose during the next S Tournament.

While Lin Yuan was thinking, Tian Ningning went through a wave of complicated emotions.

She had been slightly angry at Black. He had left her in the lurch instead of immediately contacting her when such a serious situation had broken out. Moreover, he had not responded after she reached out to him.

However, his apology had shot her like an arrow.

His apology proved that he did not intentionally ignore her.

An exclusive reporter was supposed to help the person they were attached to handle all their affairs on Star Web, such as releasing news about them.

There was actually no need for Black to apologize to her.

But the fact that he had shown that he cared about her feelings.

Tian Ningning's eyes lit up when she saw that Black had started a guild club.

As his exclusive reporter, she was already trying to come up with the best way to release the news on Star Web.

From Black's invitation to become his guild club's team reporter, Tian Ningning could tell how much he trusted her.

However, the pressure seemed too overwhelming.

It was already difficult enough to be Black's exclusive reporter. The thought of taking care of Black and an entire guild club was almost too much.

Nonetheless, Tian Ningning could not seem to bring herself to reject such a laborious task.

When she saw that Black wanted to talk to her offline, Tian Ningning could not help but let out a happy cheer.

All her pressure eventually succumbed to her excitement, nervousness, hopefulness, and a hint of bashfulness.

Although she was Black's exclusive reporter, he was also her idol.

She was going to meet him!

Tian Ningning suddenly realized that she could be seeing how Black looked beneath the mask, and she wondered what the young hero looked like.

There were many things she wanted to ask him face-to-face, especially about his frequent disappearances.

Hence, she sent her reply.

Tian Ningning: "I've been wanting to talk to you too. When will it be convenient for me to come to see you?"

Lin Yuan immediately replied.

Black: "Come to my house. The address is (Radiance Federation; Royal Capital; South District Zither Lake; Return from Faraway Mansion)."

Since he had asked Tian Ningning to meet offline and wanted her to become the Dome Guild Club's team reporter, there was no reason for him to continue hiding his identity from her.

He would only be able to work properly with Tian Ningning after telling her about his identity.

The Dome Guild Club was within Return from Faraway, and it was unrealistic for Tian Ningning to be the Dome Guild Club's team reporter without coming clean.

The new season of the S Tournament was about to begin, and he planned on asking Gao Feng to join the main team of his guild club.

Eventually, Gao Feng and Liu Jie, who were part of the Dome Guild Club's main team, would also need to meet with Tian Ningning.

Gao Feng was now Cicada Song's disciple and was no longer just the direct descendant of the Gao family.

Tian Ningning blinked dazedly when she saw Black's message.

She felt like she was an innocent girl being lured to the home of a creepy old man.

Tian Ningning quickly shook the thought out of her head.

Chapter 950: Chimey's Coincidental Karma

Tian Ningning: "I'm in the Royal Capital now. I have some work to attend to and will visit your house in a week. I didn't do much to solve the commotion on Star Web. But I want to know what you did to provoke Lin Yuan and just who Lin Yuan is. Why did so many disciples target you?"

Tian Ningning typed the message with a solemn expression.

She needed to know such details as Black's exclusive reporter because she was not certain that there would never be a repeat of such an incident. She would only be able to effectively handle such situations if she knew about them in advance.

Currently, she would be pulling her hair out if such a situation arose again.

Lin Yuan mulled over Tian Ningning's words and decided that it would be too much of a hassle to explain everything to her over Star Web. Such situations were best explained face-to-face.

Thus, Lin Yuan responded.

Black: "You'll know once you're here. I've been swamped recently and don't plan on logging into Star Web anytime soon. You can call me if you need anything."

Lin Yuan proceeded to send his number to Tian Ningning before entering Chimey's live-streaming room.

This was the first time that he was watching a live stream on Star Web, as well as the first time that he was watching Chimey.

He gulped when he saw the insane number of gifts being sent and the rising number of watchers.

Chimey's voice was so mesmerizing that Lin Yuan already knew that it would be popular on Star Web.

However, he did not anticipate such raging popularity.

When he saw all the gifts being sent, he suddenly felt that all the money in the surprise box that Chimey gave him was just as much as the Purchase With No Loss store's earnings.

Most of Chimey's earnings came from the tens of millions of people watching. Even if each person only gave one Radiance dollar, it would add up to over 100 million.

Lin Yuan saw there were almost 200 billion watchers who had contributed to Chimey.

Although some only contributed Federation dollars, there were still many who gave Radiance dollars.

Lin Yuan estimated that Chimey had to have earned a few billion Radiance dollars at least.

At that moment, Lin Yuan regretted telling Chimey to use whatever method to earn Radiance dollars from its live-streaming room.

Chimey was currently singing in the live-streaming room.

While it sang, it remained conscious of the amount of time left that the Spirit Bodhi Fruit would remain effective.

Chimey was finally live streaming in human form, and the last thing it wanted was to abruptly change back into a bird.

While Chimey was singing, it unlocked the vault of memories that it had kept locked away.

Its feathers had been covered in grime as it trembled in hunger in a small box. It did not even have the strength to chirp.

All the other Sound Birds in the box had Usneas to eat. But every time it went to nibble on the Usnea leaves, it would be pushed away forcefully.

The seller would harshly yell, "A Song Bird that failed to evolve into the Songstress Bird has no right to eat Usnea leaves."

Each day passed like this, and Chimey gradually grew weaker.

Every time someone opened the box, Chimey would do its best to raise its head and flap its wings to show itself off in a bid to be chosen.

Although it could not sing and had failed to evolve to the Songstress Bird, it did not want to become worthless even if it was not allowed to eat Usnea leaves.

However, the Sound Birds around it continued to leave, and new ones took their place. Only Chimey was left.

Its attempts to show its best side were only met with looks of scorn and disdain.

Slowly, Chimey became accustomed to squeezing itself into a corner of the box as it hid its head below its wings.

At that time, Chimey felt that it was an unwanted piece of trash.

But one day, a pair of cold hands carried it out of the box.

Chimey gingerly spread its wings and peeked its head out to see a skinny young man smiling vibrantly at it, revealing a row of pearly white teeth.

The young man's smile was like the rainbow after the storm that illuminated Chimey's heart.

Chimey also noticed the young man carrying a dirty gray cat.

Once they returned home, the young man gently washed Chimey and the small gray cat.

As he bathed them, the young man would ask them whether they were cold before testing the temperature of the water. He would then carefully add warm water when necessary.

The young man would also use his hand to shield Chimey and the small gray's faces when he poured the warm water for fear of burning them.

That was the first time that Chimey had experienced such warmth.

Later, it was given a name, delicious Usnea vines to eat, and the first praise it had ever heard in its life.

Within half a year, Chimey finally learned its first song after patiently learning from the young man.

When it was with Lin Yuan, Chimey felt like the luckiest creature in the world.

The fey that had started out in the pits of life eventually ended up in the branches of the Phoenix Perching Chinese Parasol Tree.

When Lin Yuan had decided to let Chimey earn money by live-streaming on Star Web, Chimey did not know how it would spend the money.

Now, it was full of determination.

As it watched the moving screen, Chimey softly said, "Everyone, please be quiet. I have something to say."

Chimey's words seem to have a magical quality because the live-streaming room immediately fell silent.

At that moment, Genius hopped up onto Chimey shoulder and whispered into its ear, "Chimey, I muted the live-streaming room. You can speak openly."

Chimey's jaw immediately fell open as it coughed awkwardly and spoke.
