Chapter 944 A Secret Love Affair

“Don’t tease your brother!” Arissa chastised as she pinched Zachary’s ear. He turned to look at her and chuckled dryly in response. The six children were the first to run in when they arrived at the hospital. “Mommy, Mr. Graham, hurry up!” they chorused.

Arissa and Benjamin followed behind while reminding the kids loudly, “Slow down. Don’t bump into anyone!” “I’ll go up and watch over them!”

By then, Kingsley had also arrived. He ran up to them when he saw the children running in. Arissa grinned. “Thank you, Mr. Watts!” “Don’t mention it! You two can do whatever you want!” Kingsley responded cheerfully before running toward the children.

By the time Benjamin and Arissa arrived at the elevator holding hands, Kingsley had already taken the kids upstairs, so they got into a different one.

As soon as the elevator door closed, Benjamin pulled Arissa into his arms, sending her crashing into his body. “What are you doing?” She looked at the man in puzzlement.

Benjamin lowered his gaze to stare at her beautiful face and red lips. Then he leaned forward and sealed her lips with his. His face tingled as her fluttering eyelashes brushed his face.
