

Chapter 141: My Genes Evolve Infinitely

THE KING IS SHOCKED, GREEDY

Enter Black Bear One.

Lu Yuan and Amy looked at the purple light cluster in front of them with excitement.

‘Tier 2 Lord-level items, let’s see what they are!’

Amy’s purple eyes were full of expectation, and she looked at the purple light cluster.

Then, her pretty face suddenly stepped down, and handed the light ball to Lu Yuan dissatisfied.

‘look!’

Lu Yuan took the light group with some doubts and checked it.

Inside is a genetic weapon.

It was a triangular piece of black metal with white gold lines on the metal, and the center of the lines condensed into a star with four corners.

Flying Star Crest Level 2 40%: Lord Grade Gene Crest.

The main increase in strength, the second increase in defense and agility. After injecting spiritual power, it can blast out a meteor ray, the power is about the same as the full blow of the second-order intermediate lord.

Looking at the effect of the flying star emblem, Lu Yuan couldn’t help laughing:

‘Good luck Amy! It just happens to be something I can use.’

Amy couldn’t help rolling her eyes, her face unhappy.

‘Asshole Lei Feng! If you talk nonsense, this lady wants you to pay!’

Lu Yuan’s smile stopped abruptly.

Anything can be discussed, but money is not enough!

Too poor.

Lu Yuan absorbed the flying coat of arms, and suddenly an incomparably powerful force emerged from his body.

Because it is a coat of arms dropped by the second-tier intermediate lord, the degree of tempering of this coat of arms is only about 40% of the second-tier.

Even so, this coat of arms has increased Lu Yuan's strength by about 40%, and his defense has also increased by nearly 30%. Instead, Lu Yuan's agility has increased the most. This is also the same as Lu Yuan's agility. It's relatively weak.

Not only that, this flying star emblem also has its own offensive ability like a charm.

As long as you inject spiritual power, you can hit an intermediate lord level.

This power was already stronger than Lu Yuan's own full blow.

It can be said that Lu Yuan has another hole card besides Black Bear One.

After blessing the Flying Star Crest, Lu Yuan and Amy looked at five boss-level items.

There are two genetic weapons, the robe and the psionic cannon.

The other three are all one-off charms, which happen to be the charms of the meteor ray.

Lu Yuan gave everything to Amy.

What was left were boss-level items. Lu Yuan and Amy looked at them and found that it turned out to be a genetic liquid for strengthening spiritual power.

However, this is a second-tier enhanced spiritual power gene fluid, and a bottle of second-tier enhanced spiritual power gene fluid is equivalent to 10,000 second-tier spiritual crystals.

There are a total of 9 bottles here, which is equivalent to 90,000 second-order spirit crystals.

Lu Yuan couldn't help sighing, he was indeed a lord-level mechanical guard.

Just the spirit crystals have so many drops.

However, Lu Yuan gave Amy some of the genetic liquid for strengthening spiritual power.

After all, as a Tier 2 lord-level weapon, the Flying Star Crest is far more valuable than other items.

After packing things up, Amy's eyes flashed with expectation:

'Lei Feng, should we look for a lord-level aircraft? With the attack and defense capabilities of the Black Bear One, plus you can control the mechanical life, it seems very simple to hunt. This opportunity very rare!'

Lu Yuan also nodded a little excitedly:

'Well, I think so too. If you encounter a lord-level mechanical aircraft again on the road, you will hunt it down together.'

Black Bear One continued to fly towards the Central Floating City.

After being attacked by the previous Lord-class aircraft, Lu Yuan found that his perception range was far worse than the detection range of the Black Bear 1.

Therefore, Lu Yuan asked the Black Bear One to fully start the exploration and notify them as long as there is a lord-level mechanical aircraft in the counterattack.

If the opponent's strength is below the senior lord level, Lu Yuan will go up and kill.

If the opponent is already the pinnacle lord, or even the consummation lord, avoid it.

Fortunately, the aircraft, like the mechanical guards, have their own patrolling airspace. As long as they do not enter their airspace, these mechanical lords will not hunt down the black bear.

Otherwise, with the detection abilities of the Peak Lord and the Consummation Lord, Black Bear One may not be able to escape detection.

I'm afraid I will be hunted down all the way.

So on the way to the Central Floating City, Lu Yuan and Amy led the Black Bear One to kill all the way.

The battle started in the air from time to time, and a lord-level mechanical aircraft fell from the air to the ground.

This drew countless genetic warriors jealous.

boom!!!

There was a roar in the sky again, and a triangular aircraft slowly fell from the sky.

The genetic warriors within tens of kilometers nearby looked up at the sky.

A Kaman had green eyes.

'It's another mechanical lord... how many mechanical lord did these two guys kill?'

'As far as we can see, it is already the second one. With the addition of the previous ones, I'm afraid there will be seven or eight, right?'

Another Barrow was full of envy.

'The entire airborne mechanical aircraft are their prey, and that human teenager can also control the mechanical life. This is simply the battlefield that heaven has prepared for them!'

Another Barrow also nodded again and again: 'Yes! The high-level lord's mighty spacecraft plus the control of mechanical life, this combination is too ridiculous!'

A kobold looked at the sky jealously, and said: 'The most important thing is that the aircraft in the sky has a lord level! The highest ground city in this core area is only the boss level! If you want to find a lord level, unless you go Central Floating City!'

The Barro who spoke before said:

'The aerial vehicle was originally used to ban the air and protect the floating city, so there will be a lord aircraft? As a result, who would have thought that there would be a treasure that can control the life of the machine? But... hey, that should be the one who can't sit still. Three kings, right? Even if they don't have the ability to fly or control mechanical life, there is no lord-level mechanical life on the ground. They have to wait for a few hours to go to the central floating city, and they can only watch others in them. Keep killing the lord-level mechanical guards under your nose.'

'You said that, it seems to be true. To be honest, even if there is a mechanical lord in the city on the ground, who can really defeat the mechanical lord, I am afraid that there will be no one except the three kings? This matter seems to have something to do with us. Not too big.'

With that said, the genetic warriors who were watching the performance of the Black Bear 1 destroying the Lord's aircraft were balanced in their hearts.

The surface city outside the central floating city.

Somewhere on the roof of a five-kilometer-high building not far from the tower, Bai Lin frowned slightly as he watched the news from the communication crystal in his hand.

He squinted his eyes and looked into the distance high in the sky.

It is as if you can see the battle in the distance through a flying vehicle wandering in the air.

'The two humans...'

There was a cloud of white mist flowing around him, and the crowds of Hoarfrost around him retreated quickly, not daring to get too close to Bai Lin.

'It's really lucky, I just don't know, after meeting me, their luck will continue to be so good!'

On the five-kilometer-high building on the other side of the tower, Green Demon Barton listened to the reports of his subordinates, his tyrannical eyes filled with greed.

‘In other words, they have killed at least eight Lord-class aircraft by now, haven’t they?’

‘Yes, boss!’

A green demon wearing leather armor spoke.

‘Hey, hey, it’s really good luck. Those two humans have the right time and place on their side. If this goes on, even if the central floating city is opened, my gains may not be as good as them.’

‘Boss, do you want to grab them?’

Barton’s fierce eyes glared at his subordinates, and the subordinates suddenly turned blue, and they lowered their heads and shivered.

‘Idiot! Need to ask?! Look up where they are now. If they are far away from us, then they are lucky! If they are close to us, then go ahead! After they destroy the Lord-class aircraft, we Go ahead to the landing place of the aircraft and guard them. Wait for them to be automatically hooked!’

The subordinate asked with some doubts:

‘If they feel our presence and don’t come down?’

The atmosphere fell silent, Patton looked at his subordinates, and then with a wave of the huge battle axe in his hand, the green demon was cut in two immediately.

‘What a idiot! How could I have such a stupid subordinate of you, and I will take care of you when I leave the place of origin!’

Barton cursed and looked at the other Green Demon shivering beside him.

‘What do you say?’

A green demon wearing a robe shivered and said:

‘The boss is right! If they don’t get down, we will take the treasures dropped by the lord’s aircraft they destroyed. After that, they only need to hunt the lord, and we will all go over and  it. Unless they stop hunting.’

‘Well, yes, Corle is more flexible than your brain, much better than that idiot from Plane.’

Barton grinned and looked at the green demon in the robe.

‘Okay, don’t you want to prepare? Let me find out where the aircraft is!’

‘Yes!’

The third place outside the tower is the roof of a five-kilometer tall building.

Two cat-man girls were grilling fish, sitting aside every night, staring at the grilled fish.

At the edge of Ye Ye, the white-haired cat girl glanced at Ye Ye who was drooling, her eyes full of helplessness.

Your Highness is good at everything, but he is very greedy.

Fortunately, your majesty asked me to follow, otherwise your majesty will definitely make mistakes because of gluttony.

But... Your Majesty is so greedy, you won’t be fooled by someone in the future, right?

Thinking of this, the white-haired cat girl was a little bit dumbfounded.

What do you think?

No matter how greedy your Highness is, it is impossible to be deceived.

At this moment, the white-haired cat girl moved her eyes and took out the communication crystal.

After seeing the message on the communication crystal, the white-haired cat girl widened her eyes, with a hint of shock in her eyes.

She quickly looked towards Yeye:

‘His Royal Highness, something has happened!’

‘Um?’

Every night staring at the grilled fish motionless, just questioning.

The white-haired cat girl has already taken it off.

She spoke quickly: ‘Our spy reported the news. Your friend named Lu Yuan, drove the diamond-shaped aircraft to the core area, and his diamond-shaped aircraft is very powerful, comparable to the second-tier high-ranking lord, and then cooperate. Your friend controls the special treasure of mechanical life. The entire sky has become their hunting ground. All lord aircrafts below the high lords are their targets. As of reporting the news, your friend has hunted at least eight lords. The aircraft is out.’

When she said this, the voice of the white-haired cat girl was full of disbelief.

You know, even they have not hunted down a lord mechanical guard so far!

It’s not that it can’t be hunted, but in the ground city, even in the core area, there is no lord-level mechanical guard.

Only in the central floating city.

Even if they want to hunt, there is no way.

However, someone has already hunted down the lord aircraft in the sky!

It seems that no one has ever done this kind of thing since the relics of El’s machinery began to appear.

After quietly listening to the report of the white-haired cat girl, Ye Ye quietly turned his attention away from the grilled fish.

There was a hint of surprise in her dark eyes:

‘Really? Is he already able to hunt down the lord?’

The white-haired cat girl nodded, she struggled, and then she said:

‘His Royal Highness, aren’t you friends with him? Would you like him to take you one?’

In the eyes of the white-haired cat girl, with the beauty of her highness, no man with normal aesthetics would refuse this request, right ?

Although this is a bit of a betrayal of your highness's beauty.

But who made His Highness and that human friend be friends ?

Well... this is not a betrayal, is it ?

YeYe didn't answer the white-haired cat girl.

She opened the mouth and said:

'Where is Bai Lin ? Are you staring ?'

'Yeah! Staring at it.'

Nodding every night, he continued to look at the grilled fish:

'If Bai Lin does something~www.mtlnovel.com~, let me know.'

Seeing that Ye Ye didn't contact Lu Yuan, the white-haired cat girl couldn't help but want to continue to persuade her.

At this moment, the communication crystal flashed again.

The white-haired cat girl glanced, her face changed:

'His Royal Highness, something has happened!'

Ye Ye turned to look at the white-haired cat girl.

'Barton took the people out of the station. According to the description of the person we were staring at, they should go in the same direction as your friend.'

Ye Yexiu frowned slightly: 'Barton ?'

The white-haired cat girl nodded.

At this moment, the communication crystal flashed again.

The white-haired cat girl glanced, her face changed again:

‘The spy heard news that Bai Lin has also left. The direction of departure is the same as that of Barton. I am afraid that they are all going to your friends. Your friends can hunt down the lord-level mechanical guards now, which makes people jealous. . I’m afraid they will go and  it with your friend.’

Ye Ye nodded faintly and stood up: ‘Let’s set off too.’

The white-haired cat girl was taken aback, looking at Ye Ye:

‘His Royal Highness, shall we go too?’

‘Um.’

Ye Ye nodded, and walked out toward the rooftop door.

The white-haired cat girl was a little confused, then she glanced at the grilled fish, and quickly said:

‘His Royal Highness, where is your grilled fish?’

Ye Ye gave a violent body, with her back facing the grilled fish, her voice trembled, and she said with some firmness:

‘Next, eat again next time!’

At this time, a cat-man girl who grilled fish was a little innocent and said: ‘But, your lord, it’s just baked now...’

As soon as she finished speaking, Ye Ye had already appeared in front of her. When she came back to her senses, the grilled fish on the grill had disappeared, and Ye Ye had disappeared after the Tiantai door had been opened.
