

Chapter 150: My Genes Evolve Infinitely

KILL ALL, CARING EYES

And on the other side of Button.

Bai Lin turned into a white mist and rushed in the other direction.

He naturally understood that after separating from Button and sharing the firepower, the pressure would not be so great.

But after all, he was a genetic warrior of the Elemental System. Even if he turned into a white mist and increased his speed, he was still stopped by the four shadow clones of Ye Ye.

A round of black sword light slashed out from the shadow sword in the hands of the four shadow avatars, and slashed towards Bai Lin.

Bai Lin was forced to retreat from the ice fog state.

He looked at the four shadow avatars, his face was cold, and he frowned.

‘Do you think you can deal with me with four clones?’

With a wave of the staff in Bai Lin’s hand, the ice mist condensed and turned into spiral ice spears, respectively shooting at the four shadow clones. At the same time, ice mist circulated all over his body, spreading towards the four shadow clones.

The shadow clone who was avoiding the spiral ice spear cut out a sword light from time to time, but was blocked by the ice shield in front of Bai Lin.

As the ice mist spread, the bodies of the four shadow clones gradually became stiff, and the speed slowed down a bit.

A sneer flashed in Bai Lin’s eyes, and the four avatars wanted to stop him, and they looked down on him a little too much.

At this moment, a feeling of extreme danger emerged in Bai Lin’s heart.

His face changed, his body turned into ice mist and disappeared in place.

At his original location, a cloud of purple metal fell.

Next, Bai Lin's pupils not far away dilated instantly.

The purple light group burst open, and the fierce thunder power spread.

Even if Bai Lin turned into ice mist and escaped the most central explosion area, he did not escape the spread of thunder.

The terrifying destructive force surged, his ice shield pieces shattered, and next, his body was thrown out, thunder poured into his body, and the original frost and flawless body gradually turned into a scorched black color.

With just one blow, Bai Lin was nearly dead.

And behind the rooftop not far away, strips of Tianluo Wisteria shot out, instantly binding the scorched Bai Lin into a ball.

The terrifying power exploded on the Tianluo Wisteria.

Click...

Bai Lin, who had almost turned into a scorched corpse, was instantly crushed into a ball.

Behind the roof, Amy secretly looked up at the black mass in the distance, with a cautious look in her eyes.

She thought for a while, and took out another frost grenade with the power of the second-order peak lord.

Tianluo Wisteria threw the frost grenade to the black mass.

boom! !

The black lump was blown apart by the terrifying force and turned into pieces of crushed ice, and Amy breathed a sigh of relief.

She stuck out her tongue and patted her tablet, with a hint of lingering fear in her eyes:

‘As expected to be a king-level genius, that spiral ice gun is so powerful that I can’t stop it for a few hits. Fortunately, I have a lot of spells and psionic bombs.’

Previously, it used a psionic bomb obtained from a 10,000-meter-high building.

X1 type thunderstorm bomb Tier 3 100%: Lord-level psionic item.

She still has a lot of such psionic items, which can be exploded for a long time.

But Amy did not expect that the power of the lord-level psionic items of the third-order peak would be so powerful.

All of a sudden, the king-level Tianjiao was blown to death.

She had already planned to go a few more and throw it out.

It’s a pity that I didn’t try other styles.

But the power should not be bad.

Amy is a little happy, she has something to blow up next time.

At this moment, the four mechanical lords ran over.

Their red eyes swept around, and after seeing a frozen fragment, their red eyes flashed.

‘Di! Di! The goal can be cleared, and the mission is complete!’

The four mechanical lords returned to their original path.

And Amy looked at the pile of things that had fallen out after the black ball was blown to pieces.

Looking at something like a hill, Amy’s eyes sparkled, revealing a color of surprise.

‘A lot of treasures! This young lady is also a profitable person! As expected, this young lady!’

Amy nodded with her hands on her hips with some triumph.

Then ran over to put everything away.

And there were only six Lord-level geniuses not far from Lu Yuan.

They were entangled by six mechanical lords, they couldn't beat and beat them, they couldn't run if they wanted to run, but they were struggling to support them.

Of the six Lord-level geniuses, two of them are Green Demon, two are Hoarfrost, one is Kaman, and one is Kobold.

I have to say that he is worthy of being a lord-level genetic warrior, and his combat talent is not weak.

Although facing the mechanical guard of the lord's pinnacle, with various combat skills and combat skills, as well as previous gains, it barely dragged on for a few minutes.

At this moment, the psionic cannon in the hands of a mechanical lord shot out and fell on the green demon wearing a robe and panting.

boom! !

The roar sounded.

The Green Demon Elemental Warrior screamed and flew out, hitting the wall of the tall building heavily, spraying blood, and slowly landing.

The mechanical lord would not have sympathy, a series of psychic cannons fired continuously, and the roar made the Green Demon scream, and it also fell on the hearts of the other five lord fighters.

Their hearts were constantly shaking with the whole roar, and their hearts were cold.

Soon, the psionic cannon stopped, and the green demon's body fell into a deep pit on the ground.

Seeing this, the other five people felt the sadness of the rabbit and the fox in their hearts, their eyes were red, and they stared at Lu Yuan who was maintaining the electromagnetic shield.

The kobold lord roared:

‘Human!! I heard that you are also a lord level?! Have the ability to fight with your grandfather and me!!’

Lu Yuan glanced at him: ‘Something’s wrong!’

I also want to maintain the electromagnetic shield.

Lu Yuan expressed that he did not want to leave him, and lost a mechanical lord to him.

The previous mechanical lord who used the psionic cannon just killed the green demon lord and became empty. Lu Yuan was thrown to the kobold lord by him.

The lord of the kobold was full of anger when he saw the mechanical lord who had killed the Green Demon aimed his cannon at him, his eyes widened and his face was dumbfounded.

‘What am I...’

Then, the kobold lord was overwhelmed by the psionic cannon.

The remaining four Lord-level fighters became more and more cold in their hearts, and their scalp numb.

They couldn’t deal with a mechanical lord, and now there are two more.

Three hits one, this is exactly three dads hitting one son.

They already knew they had no way to survive.

The Kaman’s face was horrified, and he looked at Lu Yuan:

‘Human! My friend! Your lord! I came here at the order of Patton! I am innocent! You let me go, I am willing to give you all the treasures!’

Lu Yuan glanced at the Kaman somewhat speechlessly, and threw two mechanical lords toward him.

The Kaman’s eyes widened, and before he could speak, he was overwhelmed by the psionic cannon.

Lu Yuan saw the piles of things like hills after the death of the Kamans, and couldn't help but complain:

'It's such a cutie. You're dead, what's your thing is not mine?'

After all, everyone had entered the El Mechanical Ruins this time, and the dead things would definitely fall out, and even the cultivation base that had been broken through before had to fall back, and it was still due to a truly transcendent gene.

What happened when you came in, and what happened when you died out, this time when you enter the Land of Origin, everything has nothing to do with you.

The remaining Green Demon and the two Hoarfrost saw that the Kaman was also dead, and their eyes were cold.

A beautiful Hoarfrost girl looked at Lu Yuan and said coldly:

'Human! It won't take long for you to be proud! Master Bai Lin will avenge us!'

Another Hoarfrost Boy also sneered:

'Yes, our young master will definitely come to avenge us!'

As soon as their voices fell, a silver-white streamer flashed past, and ran over with the four mechanical lords.

Amy fell to the ground with a surprise smile on her face:

'Big liar, big liar! I killed that hoarfrost man king! He has a lot of good things! But compared to ours, there is still a gap.'

Two Hoarfrost: '???'

They stared at Amy in disbelief.

Crazy eyes flashed in the eyes of the beautiful Hoarfrost Girl, and she screamed:

'Impossible! Master's talent is unparalleled in the world! A natural king! How could he die in the hands of a human being like you?! You must be lying to me!!'

Amy heard the girl's scream, blinked her big purple eyes, and looked at Lu Yuan innocently: 'What's wrong with her?'

Lu Yuan also looked innocent when looking at the two Baishuang people who were a little collapsed:

'how could I know?'

Lu Yuan said he could not understand and lost seven mechanical lords to the two Baishuangren.

Four of them came back with Amy. Originally, Lu Yuan asked them to help suppress that Bai Lin.

Unexpectedly, Amy was so fierce that he would directly blow him to death.

Lu Yuan thought of something, and asked casually:

'By the way, Amy, what did you use to blow him up?'

Amy was a little interested:

'I used an X1 thunderstorm bomb to blow him up half to death, and then I was afraid that he would cheat his corpse, so I threw him a frost grenade, and finally blasted him to pieces!'

Lu Yuan: '...'

Hearing the first words Amy said, Lu Yuan's heart hurts.

Good guy, you kill a second-tier low-level king warrior, why do you use the lord bomb of the third-tier pinnacle? !

Seeing Amy's excited look, Lu Yuan almost squirted out a mouthful of blood.

However, after all, that was the trophy allocated to Amy, and Lu Yuan could only feel distressed, there was nothing he could do.

Is this guy too prodigal?

At this moment, the two Hoarfrost were dead, and the remaining Green Demon resisted stubbornly, but they did not. With so many mechanical lords, one person and one teaching could crush him.

Although his final ending was not crushed, it was not much different.

After another meeting, Ye Ye also returned, with four mechanical lords.

She spoke lightly:

‘Barton is dead.’

Lu Yuan nodded and smiled: ‘Thank you.’

Hearing this, Amy suddenly jumped up dissatisfied:

‘Wow! Big liar! You didn’t even say I worked hard!’

Lu Yuan: ‘???’

He looked at Amy dumbfounded.

This guy threw a bomb, so what’s the hard work! ?

But seeing Amy’s cute face with a bulging face, Lu Yuan said seriously:

‘Ms. Amy is a strong adult after all! This hard work is nothing to you. I told you that it was hard. Don’t you think Miss Amy is not mature enough?’

When Amy heard it, she blinked and nodded:

‘What you said is right, this lady is indeed an adult. Hmm! You have the intention!’

Amy smugly patted Lu Yuan on the shoulder.

The corners of Lu Yuan’s mouth raised slightly, still this guy is so coaxing.

Every night on the side looked at Amy, his eyes gradually softened, and there was even a hint of caring.

Amy noticed Ye Ye's sight, looked at Ye Ye with some confusion, and frowned slightly:

'Yeye, why are you looking at me like this?'

Ye Ye fell silent, and asked curiously: 'Amy, how old are you?'

Amy smiled, her little face full of triumph:

'My lady is sixteen.'

Ye Ye nodded silently, the color of care in his eyes became a little heavier.

Lu Yuan also noticed Ye Ye's eyes, the corners of his mouth twitched, and he gave a dry cough:

'It seems that all the geniuses have been killed. Let's go and collect the spoils.'

'good!'

Amy's eyes lit up and she jumped up.

She still likes collecting trophies.

Ye Ye on the side also nodded, and continued to look at happy Amy with caring eyes.

When the three of Lu Yuan began to collect trophies, they were only more than ten kilometers away from this battlefield.

A group of Kamans were pale, and their eyes were full of horror.

The leader of the Kaman, Binbi, had a solemn expression and stared at the dim communication crystal.

The atmosphere fell into dead silence.

After a long silence, a Kaman leader behind Binby opened his mouth and said in a difficult voice:

‘Bin, Big Brother Binby, this...’

Binby’s eyes flickered, and his hand holding the communication crystal shook slightly, his voice a little hoarse:

‘The communication crystal can’t be contacted, Barton is no longer in the ruins.’

He looked up at the electromagnetic shield flashing blue light at the end of the street~www.mtlnovel.com~ His eyes were full of disbelief:

‘He actually died inside...’

The leader of the Kaman at the side quickly said:

‘Brother Binby! Contact Bai Lin quickly! See if Bai Lin is dead?’

Binby nodded and started to contact Bai Lin.

But as soon as I contacted the Communication Crystal, it became dim again.

The atmosphere was silent again, and all the Kamans were dumbfounded, staring at the dim communication crystal.

‘How can this be?’

Some people whispered to themselves, in disbelief.

‘Whether it is Barton or Bai Lin, they are all king-level arrogances... How could they die here? Obviously they are already at the top here.’

At this moment, the electromagnetic shield in the distance suddenly dissipated, and Binby and others were shocked and panicked.

After seeing no one at the end of the street, a cold sweat appeared on Binby’s forehead:

‘Go! Get out of here! In the last less than a day, as long as we encounter the diamond-shaped aircraft, we will run!’

The others also nodded frantically, one by one the Kaman burst out with all their strength and ran towards the distance, fast, and hated to have two legs.

Except for the Binby team, the other six search teams led by lord-level geniuses fell behind because they failed to catch up with the trio of Lu Yuan.

Now they are also beginning to realize that they can no longer contact Patton and Bai Lin.

Everyone was panicked and terrified, and some couldn't believe the news that Bai Lin and Button had died.

But the fact is true. Everyone has discovered at this moment that it turns out that the Night King and the two human lords can't provoke them at all.

They were all far away from this area, and the news that the three of Lu Yuan were ambushed by the two kings Bai Lin and Barton but killed them instead, gradually spread from them.
