

Chapter 176: My Genes Evolve Infinitely

WEIRD TENTACLES, SOURCE OF ALIENATION

Hot recommendation:

A group of people ran towards the defensive camp.

It didn't take long before they heard the roar and footsteps of fierce beasts all around.

The number of fierce beasts he encountered has also increased, but Lu Yuan ran in the forefront to open the way, and there was no danger on the way.

They even met many other teams.

At this moment, teams are desperately running towards the defensive camp.

When Lu Yuan met, he naturally helped. All the teams followed the Lu Yuan team, Lu Yuan opened the way, and everyone ran towards the defensive camp.

Lu Yuan and his party rushed at full speed, and after a short time, they ran back to the defensive camp.

Before entering the camp, Lu Yuan saw a team of genetic warriors standing on the wall, and the psionic cannons on the side were activated, and the psychic light flashed and the atmosphere was solemn.

After entering the city gate, Lu Yuan found that many guards had just returned at the gate.

Many people were stained with blood and their injuries were not light. One by one, the healing gene warriors were healing everyone.

There are also teams of guards who are helping.

McGonagall, Zhu Zhengyang, Yan Jing and others are all here.

After seeing Lu Yuan, their eyes lit up and greeted him.

‘A Yuan! Are you all right? The fierce beast rioted outside.’

McGonagall came over.

Lu Yuan shook his head and said with a smile: ‘It’s okay, you don’t know my strength senior.’

Yan Jing on the side looked at Lu Yuan with shining eyes, and smiled:

‘Indeed, Lu Yuan’s schoolboy is very famous in our camp recently.’

Zhu Zhengyang raised his eyebrows, showing a smirk:

‘Does it mean the name of the Lingjing Warrior?’

With that said, there was a trace of distress on his face:

‘Unexpectedly, Lu Yuan schoolboy, you actually used so many spells and psionic bombs. If this is replaced by a spirit crystal, how many spirit crystals will be obtained.’

Lu Yuan shook his head: ‘Since I have joined the scout team, I have to do something. Although there is no way to ensure the safety of all the scout team members, I must save my teammates, right?’

Behind Lu Yuan, a touch of emotion appeared on Grote’s faces.

When Zhu Zhengyang heard the words, he quickly said:

‘Little brother Lu Yuan, I’m not saying that there was a problem with what you did, but that it hurts a little.’

Yan Jing looked at Lu Yuan with a smile: ‘School brother is a hero in the hearts of many guards.’

McGonagall shook his head: ‘Okay, don’t talk about it. A Yuan, you guys go back and rest soon. I heard that Lord Zhandi has gone to the Endless Mountains. Then I am afraid that the beast tide will completely erupt. When the time comes, we will be here. The pressure will be great, maybe there is no rest. Your scout group is the most tiring right now. Keep your spirits up and wait for the murder of the beast.’

Hearing this, Lu Yuan nodded: 'Okay, then let's go to rest first.'

Lu Yuan and several other teams left the city gate one after another and walked out of the city.

Endless mountains.

The sky above the valley is completely dark at this moment.

The dark night enveloped the entire area, and the powerful aura surged. Even some powerful fierce beasts in other areas raised their heads and looked at the location of the dark night, with light flashing in their huge eyes.

In the dark night, Li Xinghai stood in the sky, looking at the strange figure in front of him.

It was a giant dog with dark red fur that was more than ten meters high. At this moment, black tentacles grew on the body of this giant dog.

The tentacles danced and twisted, emitting a wicked dark green light.

And there was a wicked green light in its huge eyes.

Li Xinghai frowned slightly, and said faintly:

'The Flame Dog, I didn't expect it to be you.'

The Flame Dog grinned, and strange flames flashed in his green eyes.

The tentacles on his body danced and twisted, and seemed to be making a confused sound.

'Li Xinghai, I didn't expect it to be me? The last time I took a sword, this time I am going to take revenge.'

He glanced at the weird tentacles dancing on the Balrog Dog and sneered:

'Why, it turns out that it makes you feel like you are doing it again? It's just a bereaved dog.'

‘Roar!!’

The Flame Demon Dog was irritated by Li Xinghai’s attitude, and roared, the dark green flames burned, turned into strange green fireballs, and shot towards Li Xinghai.

The terrifying high temperature caused the darkness to fluctuate slightly, and the powerful force even distorted the space.

Li Xinghai frowned slightly as he felt the mighty power.

The long sword in his hand carried a sharp sword light across the sky.

A series of pitch-black sword qi spread for thousands of meters, forming a fine sword net, enveloping all the green demon fireballs.

The sword net and the green devil fireball collided.

boom!!!

A terrifying roar sounded.

The dark green flames raged, turning into a sea of green fire that stretched for more than ten kilometers in the air.

The mountains below were contaminated by flames, as if melted, leaving behind strange pits.

Whether it is trees or rocks, all are evaporated.

Another trail of dark sword light fell, cutting the ground into a trail of sword marks that were thousands of meters long and bottomless.

That is, the fierce beasts in this area had already escaped when Li Xinghai and the Flame Demon Dog released their breath, otherwise no fierce beast could survive.

Li Xinghai glanced at the direction of the ground, frowned slightly, and flew away from the planet.

The flame demon dog, who was already angry, naturally roared, and the tentacles all over his body danced and chased after him.

One person and one dog rushed out of the atmosphere and came into a cold and silent vacuum.

Li Xinghai's eyes became as black as ink, and there was a thick dark circulation throughout his body. In the end, within more than ten kilometers of his whole body, it all turned into dull darkness.

Li Xinghai seemed to have become the incarnation of darkness and blended into it.

While the Balrog dog raised his head and roared, the terrifying green ripples surged and spread, and his body soared in a vacuum.

From the original only more than ten meters high, it has risen to fifty meters, one hundred meters, and five hundred meters. In the end, it is 2,000 meters high and nearly 3,000 meters long.

It has become a terrifying behemoth.

Especially on the huge body of the Balrog Dog, the black tentacles that seemed to be rooted in him also soared.

There are eyes and mouths on it.

Staring at Li Xinghai, a strange smile appeared on his mouth. He opened his mouth without knowing what to say, and made a strange sound.

A powerful and terrifying breath erupted from one person and one dog, and even a trace of distortion appeared in the vacuum.

The Fire Demon Dog took the lead in attacking. There were strange green flames burning all over his body, and huge fireballs appeared in front of him. The fireballs were tens of meters in size, and the flames burned in a vacuum, but they were not extinguished.

All the green fireballs shot towards the dark darkness.

At the same time, there were dozens of weird tentacles on the body of the Flame Demon Dog, and in each of its eyes, green rays shot towards the darkness.

It was thousands of weird green rays, terrifying.

All the rays shot into the darkness, the darkness surged, and finally became silent.

At this moment, the darkness swelled suddenly and enveloped the Balrog Dog.

At the same time, in the darkness, a series of dark silhouettes emerged, all of them were Li Xinghai holding a long sword.

These Li Xinghai swung his sword straight, and a horrible sword light of more than one hundred thousand meters long passed through the space, dense and terrifying, and enveloped the flame demon dog.

Unwilling to show weakness, the Balrog dog once again shot out powerful green rays and green fireballs.

The green light and the pitch black light collided in a vacuum, and a silent explosion sounded. The battle between the two was extremely terrifying, and all of them were their battlefields for thousands of kilometers.

The entire vacuum was filled with horrible sword light and green flames.

The space was slightly distorted under the sword light and green flames.

.....

In the starry sky, when Li Xinghai was fighting the Flame Dog, in the endless mountain range below.

Li Qinghe, Si Tingyu, and all the warlord and warlord-class powerhouses all looked up at the direction of the starry sky at this moment, and then looked at the remains of the aftermath that were not far away.

A warlord-level expert looked at the sword mark that was out of sight, exclaimed and said:

‘Xinghai Zhandi is still so powerful.’

‘That was Master Xinghai who smashed into the endless mountain range alone and killed many emperor-level beasts who didn’t dare to raise their heads, can it not be strong?’

A man grinned, his eyes flashing with excitement.

Li Qinghe raised her eyebrows slightly, her expression a little dignified:

‘Everyone, isn’t the time to talk about this now? They’re here.’

Si Ting Yu’s golden red dragon eyes were slightly erected, and his eyes swept around.

The other people’s faces also condensed.

Not far away, strong auras emerged and surrounded them.

Looking around, there are fierce beasts.

These fierce beasts all have weird black tentacles, and the black tentacles are twisted and weird.

Even if it was the guard army war king who had encountered alienated beasts before, seeing this scene, my heart felt a little chilly.

The sturdy, dark-skinned, war-emperor-level powerhouse with gloves volunteered to join the elite team to eliminate the source of alienation.

But after seeing the terrifying tentacles, his face couldn’t help but change:

‘Fuck?! There are so many fierce beasts with such ghosts?!’

Before, he had suffered from the battle royal beasts with long tentacles. Thinking of his combat power, he could be regarded as a very powerful existence in the battle king.

But it almost capsized in the gutter. One can imagine how fierce this alienated beast with tentacles is.

Seeing so many alienated beasts, he suddenly became vigilant.

‘Roar!!’

‘Woohoo!!’

The terrifying beasts roared at the crowd.

Everyone’s expressions condensed, and they also greeted them.

As soon as the collision, the terrifying roar resounded through the world.

Under the terrifying power of the warlord and warlord-level powerhouses, the endless mountain range kept shaking, and the peaks of the mountains were attacked and shattered into fragments.

Deep pits with a radius of several kilometers continue to appear.

The earth seemed to be turned over.

These powerful men hit the air from the ground, roaring and roaring constantly.

The whole sky is full of surging aura.

The dark night that Li Xinghai condensed before has not yet dissipated, and this aura of light has become the light source in the dark night.

Li Qinghe has black rays flashing all over her body, her pretty face is indifferent, and she holds an epee in her hand.

Around her, there are four powerful beasts of the king level.

Two flame demon dogs, two violent demon apes.

The bodies of these four fierce beasts were all covered with tentacles, and the eyes of the tentacles stared at Li Qinghe with weird eyes.

Li Qinghe glanced over the four powerful beasts, curled his lips, and sneered:

‘Only four kings? Look down on me too much, right?’

She stepped out one step at a time, and her body disappeared in place. The next moment, countless dark sword lights suddenly burst out of the void, enveloping one of the flame demon dogs.

Emperor-level combat skills, shadow instant slash!

This is an extraordinary gene of Space and Darkness that even Li Xinghai hasn't mastered.

A series of sword lights with extremely sharp destructive power, made the flame demon dog let out a terrifying roar.

Dark-green rays of light circulated throughout its body, flames and green rays surging, blocking the sword light.

However, both of the warlord class, the flames and green rays were easily torn apart.

Countless sword lights drowned the Flame Demon Dog, suddenly bursting out a terrifying sword aura.

The next moment, the Balrog Dog was divided into small pieces.

The blood foam slowly fell from the air, and the strange green mist screamed and rushed towards Li Qinghe.

Li Qinghe raised his eyebrows slightly, and his body disappeared in place.

Swords of light flooded the green mist.

The next moment, the green mist was annihilated.

Seeing this, the remaining three fierce beasts let out an angry roar, and there was a strange green in their blood-red eyes.

'Kill her!! Kill this human!'

In the roar of ~www.mtlnovel.com~, the remaining Balrog dog opened its mouth and spouted green fireballs, and the tentacles also emitted green rays.

And two violent demon apes had green flames appearing all over their bodies, and they rushed towards Lu Qinghe.

Their tentacles also shoot out green rays.

Countless dense green lights blocked almost all the space.

Li Qinghe's face did not change at all, her body sank into the void and disappeared.

The next time it appeared, it was already behind a violent demon ape, and the sword light flashed again.

When Li Qinghe suppressed the four king-level fierce beasts, Si Tingyu was also facing the attack of the four king-level fierce beasts in the air not far away.

The four king-level fierce beasts are all flame demon dogs, constantly shooting green light and fireballs.

And Si Tingyu's face was serious and he was wearing heavy gold-red armor, and he held a three-meter-long huge spear in both hands.

A majestic light flashed in her golden red eyes, and a dragon roar sounded from the void.

Then the surface of her body showed bright scales like golden red gems.

Her whole person seemed to have turned into a dragon girl.

The next moment, Si Tingyu stepped on the air with the soles of her feet, the air burst and turned into a wave of air, and her whole body rushed towards one of the flame demon dogs.

Countless green fireballs and rays fell on her, but she didn't notice it, and rushed past her.

Rushing in front of a fire demon dog, a shot penetrated the fire demon dog.

The other three Balrog dogs: '???'

Noting Si Tingyu's gaze, they roared, and while attacking Si Tingyu, they kept backing away.

Compared to them, Si Tingyu seemed more like humanoid beasts, making them afraid to be close.
