

Chapter 215: My Genes Evolve Infinitely

TIANJIAO LIST REWARDS, FAME TROUBLES

Hot recommendation:

With a move of Lu Yuan's thoughts, he connected with Bai Lin through the connection between the Tianjiao List and the Gene War Pattern.

'Bai Lin, do you remember the human who killed you in the El Mechanical Ruins? Do you want revenge? Accept the challenge if you want revenge.'

Lu Yuan waited for Bai Lin's response.

If Bai Lin offered another time, then Lu Yuan could only regretfully refuse.

After all, he was about to leave the land of origin, so he couldn't wait.

But luckily, Lu Yuan's hatred in Bai Lin's heart didn't seem to be low.

In just a few seconds, Bai Lin sent back news of accepting the challenge.

The time is now, rather than agreeing to another time.

As Bai Lin accepted the challenge, a dim golden light shone on the Tianjiao list.

The battle roar suddenly rang.

This voice was so loud that Lu Yuan was a little skeptical, and the entire Baiyun City heard it.

Lu Yuan was startled when he heard this battle cry for the first time.

He looked at the Tianjiao list without knowing it.

Isn't it just a Tianjiao challenge?

You want to make such a big noise?

Lu Yuan remembered what he had said every night and played a leading role for other genetic warriors.

He didn't understand, what way to lead.

In the square, the eyes of the various forces who have been paying attention to the three people of Lu Yuan, when they heard the roar of battle, their eyes lit up, and they were a little excited.

'The roar of challenge is loud! It seems that this human has already chosen his opponent! I don't know who he chose?'

'Whoever he is, we will see it soon.'

'The strength of this human...hehe, the person he chose is really unlucky.'

Everyone looked forward to watching the ring appearing again.

Ye Ye and Xiao Bai looked at Lu Yuan.

Ye Ye asked curiously: 'Who did you choose.'

Lu Yuan smiled: 'Bai Lin.'

Ye Ye tilted her little head: 'I seem to have heard of this name.'

Lu Yuan: '...'

The little white next to him coughed, and said solemnly:

'His Royal Highness, he is the natural king of Hoarfrost at the El Mechanical Ruins last time.'

Every night remembered: 'Oh.'

She looked at Lu Yuan, nodded vigorously, and squeezed her fist: 'Come on.'

Lu Yuan smiled: 'Don't worry.'

Lu Yuan's body disappeared in place, and then appeared on the ring.

At the same time, not far from Lu Yuan, a boy with white hair suddenly appeared with ice crystals on his forehead and on both sides of his cheeks.

It is Bai Lin.

After experiencing the spatial movement method of Origin, Lu Yuan guessed that Bai Lin should have been in an area that did not know how far away from Baiyun City, and then he was moved here.

After the challenge was over, Bai Lin moved back.

Lu Yuan learned from Yeye that, unlike the qualification challenge, if the Tianjiao challenge is dead, it will not leave the place of origin, which is a bit similar to a simulation battle.

Lu Yuan felt that the setting of this Tianjiao ranking and various other rankings was good news for the geniuses above, which can be seen from the fact that they would not leave the place of origin even if the challenge failed.

The will of Origins is encouraging the genius and the strong to challenge the list.

Lu Yuan guessed that this should have something to do with what the ancestor Ye Ye said before.

For Lu Yuan, this is not something he should care about now.

After seeing Bai Lin, the audience below was all whispering at the moment.

‘This is Bai Lin?’

‘The young master of Hoarfrost Star? I heard that he is also a natural king...I remember, isn't this one of the natural kings killed by this human?’

Hearing this, everyone looked weird and looked at each other.

‘This man actually chose Bai Lin? What is this going to do?’

‘It's not enough to kill once. Is it possible to continue to kill once? How much hatred is this?’

The corners of someone's mouth twitched, and the look in Lu Yuan's eyes changed.

No one else refuted it.

Lu Yuan had shown too much strength when he challenged his qualifications.

They are still a little shocked even now.

Few people really think that Bai Lin can win.

On the ring, after Bai Lin saw Lu Yuan, a cloud of ice mist circulated around his body, and it suddenly became colder.

He stared at Lu Yuan with a mockery on his face:

‘Unexpectedly, your luck at the time made you unrecognizable. Do you think you can fight me?’

Bai Lin felt that if there were not so many powerful mechanical lords, and he had only burned three genes, and one gene had not been tempered, how could he be so embarrassed?

Even so, it wasn’t the human being’s hands on him at the time.

Bai Lin didn’t think that the human in front of him would be his opponent.

When Lu Yuan heard this, he smiled slightly: ‘Don’t rush to say something like this, just call it before you say it.’

Bai Lin took a deep breath, his whole body surged, and wisps of ice mist spilled out.

There are four ice wolves condensed around him, and the ice wolf is four meters high. It looks like ice crystals, but the aura is extremely powerful.

With just this hand, Bai Lin is stronger than Shui Ji.

And Shui Ji was still at the intermediate level of Zhan Zun, and Bai Lin probably only broke through to Zhan Zun for a long time.

In the end, the natural king has great potential. The higher the cultivation base, the more genes are burned, and the greater the gap with ordinary genetic warriors.

Bai Lin waved his staff, two ice wolves stayed beside Bai Lin to guard him, and the remaining two ice wolves roared towards Lu Yuan.

Bai Lin looked at Lu Yuan who was locked by the ice wolf, with a sneer on his face, as if he saw Lu Yuan being torn apart.

However, the next moment, Lu Yuan's body suddenly disappeared in place, Bai Lin was taken aback, and then he felt a terrifying force coming from behind him.

Cold sweat broke out from behind Bai Lin, and a flash of horror flashed in his eyes. He vaguely saw a flash of sword light passing by, and heard the roar of the ice wolf, after which his consciousness disappeared.

Seeing Bai Lin's body turned into white light and disappeared, there was no fluctuation in Lu Yuan's heart.

With the ability to transmit space, it was too easy to kill an elemental warrior who was originally a small body.

What's more, the hard power of this elemental warrior is not as good as Lu Yuan, and the gap is still huge.

There was no sense of accomplishment in Lu Yuan's heart.

With the death of Bai Lin, Lu Yuan ranked 98th.

98, land fate, human beings, Zhan Zun.

The challenge was over, the ring disappeared, and Lu Yuan returned to his original position.

At the same time, he received the message of the Will of Origin in his mind, which was his reward.

The reward for being on the list for the first time and reaching 98 is a Tier 4 imperial genetic weapon that he can choose and ten pieces of Tier 4 rough stone needed to break through to the King of War.

As long as Lu Yuan is in the 98th place, he can get a 10% discount on consumption in the city of origin, such as Baiyun City, and 50% off the consumption in the martial arts hall. In some areas, he has priority. Auction houses A 9% intermediary fee is charged for auction items.

Lu Yuan's eyes sparkled when he saw the reward.

Didn't expect the rewards of this Tianjiao list to be so rich?

The preciousness of the fourth-order imperial level genetic weapons is similar to that of the third-order king-level genetic weapons. Under normal circumstances, there will be no fourth-order genetic weapons that exceed the imperial level.

One can imagine how precious it is.

Lu Yuan chose the epee.

And ten fourth-order rough stones are also good things.

This saves Lu Yuan from collecting rough stones or other treasures that quickly break the genetic lock.

Although Lu Yuan currently has a lot of spirit crystals, if you want to buy them, you can definitely buy them. After all, auction houses have never lacked such auction items.

But it's always more fragrant than I have to spend money to buy, isn't it?

Just ten yuan is a bit too little.

Lu Yuan felt that there were already 18 warlords who broke through to the warlord.

Then he is now all the royal-level genes, so he would have to have thirty or forty or even more.

These ten dollars are not enough.

However, Lu Yuan felt that since he had the first time, he would continue to rank in the future, he would definitely receive more rough rewards.

There is still not a short time before Lu Yuan breaks through, and it is not in a hurry.

As for the rewards later, Lu Yuan is almost permanently stationed in the martial arts center, and if he spends a 50% discount, he can save a fortune.

For other consumption, Lu Yuan seems to rent a room. Usually, he doesn't drink alcohol alone. He might just eat a meal. A 10% discount won't save much. It's better than nothing.

In terms of the highest value, it must be the auction house's intermediary fee that has become 9%.

Even though it was only 1% less, for Lu Yuan, tens of millions of Tier 5 spirit crystals would have been saved.

Of course, even if it was 9%, Lu Yuan had no plans to auction the treasure right now.

You have to rush until you can't rush, and the agency fee will definitely be lower by then.

If you rush to the first place, then the agency fee will be waived directly.

Lu Yuan himself made the list for this, and could save hundreds of millions of Tier 5 spirit crystals.

At this moment, an orange light group and ten spirit stones suddenly appeared, floating in front of Lu Yuan.

Lu Yuan could feel the blazing gaze coming from around.

Orange, this is an emperor-level genetic weapon!

Lu Yuan calmly put the things away, then looked at Ye Ye and Xiao Bai.

'nailed it.'

Ye Ye and Xiao Bai were also a little surprised that Lu Yuan had killed Bai Lin in seconds before, and when they heard Lu Yuan's words, they came back to their senses.

Looking at Lu Yuan every night, smiled and said:

'You seem to be stronger than me.'

Lu Yuan smiled and said, 'I was not as strong as you before. You have been helping me. I can help you if I have something to do in the future.'

Every night smiled: 'I didn't help you.'

Xiao Bai looked at Ye Ye, then at Lu Yuan.

I don't know why, she always feels that the atmosphere between the two of them seems to be a bit problematic.

Every night he said:

'Since it's over, let's leave here. There are more and more people.'

Lu Yuan nodded.

The battle cry of the previous challenge attracted many genetic warriors.

Ye Ye summoned Ye Tian Mandrill, and the three left the central square.

After that, the three of Lu Yuan wandered around Baiyun City a few times, and Lu Yuan had a few more discussions with Ye Ye, which was regarded as a duel exercise with her before the challenge.

On the second day, Lu Yuan's time came.

He bids farewell to Ye Ye and Xiao Bai, and leaves the place of origin.

Lu Yuan then took out the Tier 4 imperial epee he had obtained before and checked it.

Sky Breaking Epee (100%): Tier 4 imperial genetic weapon.

A genetic weapon with a tempering degree of 100%.

Lu Yuan tried to bless him. If he reduced the number of genetic weapons he currently blessed by two, he could directly bless him.

However, although the four genetic weapons blessed by Lu Yuan were all Tier 3, they were evolved to the Emperor level by Lu Yuan. They were not bad compared to Tier 4 King-level genetic weapons. If they quit, the evolutionary effect would disappear.

Lu Yuan didn't plan to withdraw now, but after a period of tempering, he just waited for his strength to improve before blessing.

Early the next morning, Lu Yuan went downstairs to the living room. McGonagall was sitting on the sofa and chatting with Yang Ping.

Seeing Lu Yuan come down, both of them looked over sharply, their eyes were indescribably weird.

Lu Yuan was a little hairy when viewed by the two:

‘Why are you looking at me like that?’

Yang Ping looked strange and said:

‘You don’t know? Battle.net is crazy now! You are ranked 98th in the Tianjiao list. The whole Battle.net is talking about this.’

McGonagall on the side also nodded, he looked at Lu Yuan:

‘A Yuan, I am really curious sometimes, are you still a human being? How come you are so strong?’

Lu Yuan was taken aback, took out his mobile phone, and planned to take a look at Battle.net.

As soon as he took out the phone, Lu Yuan was full of black lines.

His phone calls were blown up, dozens of calls from Li Qinghe, and some other Lu Yuan classmates, such as Wang Xiangxiang, also called. In addition to them, a large number of unknown numbers that have not been remarked called.

Not only that, even Guangxin has 99+ unread messages.

Good guy, he didn’t look at the phone all night. Isn’t it too exaggerated?

Lu Yuan opened the Battle.net and took a look a little dazedly.

Then he discovered that the entire Battle.net was indeed telling the news.

Even the first major version of the news column was about Lu Yuan’s entry into the Tianjiao list.

Luyuan is full of black lines.

This propagation speed is too fast.

But think about it, after all, it is the ranking of Tianjiao. People who go to Baiyun City will almost always look up, and it is hard not to be noticed.

Moreover, Lu Yuan didn't believe that when he challenged before, there was no Da Qixing's eyeliner in the square.

Thinking of this, Lu Yuan was relieved.

Anyway, you know it, and it doesn't affect him very much.

Seeing Lu Yuan watching Battle.net, McGonagall grinned:

'A Yuan, you now know how famous you are now, right?'

Lu Yuan was a little helpless: 'To be honest, I don't want to be famous.'

Just after he finished speaking, another phone call came. Lu Yuan saw that there was no remark, so he hung up.

Who knows where the call is coming from?

Lu Yuan directly set the phone to not receive calls from strangers.

Yang Ping couldn't understand Lu Yuan's troubles. If he wanted to change to him, he didn't know how happy he was now, but he could only think about it directly in his heart, and looked at Lu Yuan with some envy:

'Brother Yuan is too strong, that's the ranking of Tianjiao! There are so many young people in the entire Baiyun Star Region! In the few years when Daqixing can be on the list, there will not be one.'

McGonagall nodded in agreement: 'A Yuan is awesome!'

Lu Yuan rolled his eyes at the two and called Li Qinghe.

'Hey, Sister Qinghe.'

Li Qinghe's somewhat excited voice sounded:

'I heard that you were on the Tianjiao list?'

'Well, I just went there yesterday.'

'It's great! As expected of Li Qinghe's good brother~~ Hehehe, I didn't expect my old lady to pick up a younger brother so strong outside, I'm really amazing!'

Li Qinghe was so excited that his old mother jumped out.

Lu Yuan was serious: 'Sister Qinghe is certainly the best.'

'Well, that's right, hahaha! When you come back this weekend, sister, I will surprise you again.'

Lu Yuan immediately became energetic when he heard this.

'I can come back now!'

'.....roll!'

Li Qinghe hung up angrily.

Lu Yuan was a little disappointed. Then Lu Yuan looked at the telegraph ~www.mtlnovel.com~ and found a few familiar ones, such as the Guardsman Grote, and Wang Xiangxiang and other classmates who answered the call.

Then he went to the group to reply a few more, and it took almost an hour to end.

Lu Yuan felt a headache, which was more tiring than fighting.

When Lu Yuan was busy, McGonagall and Yang Ping had already gone to practice.

Lu Yuan finished his reply, left the dormitory and went to Si Tingyu's dormitory.

On the way, all the classmates I met would come over with a surprised look as soon as they saw Lu Yuan and talk to Lu Yuan about his entry into the Tianjiao list.

For the first time, Lu Yuan found out that if people were too famous, they were a bit distressed.

Fortunately, the road to Si Tingyu's dormitory is very short.

Lu Yuan soon arrived in Si Tingyu's dormitory.

The smart housekeeper opened the door and Lu Yuan entered the dormitory. Si Tingyu was sitting on the sofa. Wearing a simple white shirt and slim jeans, she outlined a perfect hot figure.

Seeing Lu Yuan, Si Tingyu smiled and said, 'I heard that you are on the list of Tianjiao? Qinghe called me just now to brag about her luck. It would be great if she picked up a younger brother.'

Lu Yuan: '...'

Good guy, so that woman didn't just say in front of him?

Lu Yuan was a little speechless.

Seeing Lu Yuan's speechless face, Si Tingyu chuckled lightly, looking at Lu Yuan with golden red eyes, and said:

'Tingxue hasn't come out of the place of origin. If you know this news, I'm afraid I will work harder.'

Lu Yuan was a little helpless: 'Don't be exhausted when she comes.'

Si Tingyu shook his head: 'She is such a child, you can communicate with her more, otherwise she may really be exhausted.'

Lu Yuan nodded: 'Okay.'

'Then then, we can say business.'

Si Tingyu smiled and said.
