

Chapter 222: My Genes Evolve Infinitely

GREAT EVIL

The reward this time is very simple.

There is only one imperial supernatural gene and five Tier 4 rough stones.

However, considering the preciousness of the Emperor-class transcendent genes, in fact, the rewards this time are still rich.

The imperial-level transcendent gene is not like the imperial-level gene weapon, you can choose the type yourself, but it has been fixed.

The royal supernatural gene rewarded by Lu Yuan is called the body of heavenly thunder.

is a powerful gene that can condense the power of thunder into a powerful thunder body, enhance all aspects of its abilities, and attach the power of terrifying thunder when attacking.

is an increase in all aspects, focusing on the attack side, and it has an effect on the genetic warriors of the strong attack system, the far attack system, and even the thunder element system.

is naturally the same for Lu Yuan.

The only thing that made Lu Yuan a little regretful was that he only blessed the power of Thunder.

And Lu Yuan still has a Wind and Thunder Fury that hasn't been burned, which can bless two kinds of power.

Of course, this did not prevent Lu Yuan from auctioning off this supernatural imperial gene in exchange for spirit crystals.

Emperor-level transcendent genes, at least millions of Tier 6 spirit crystals can be auctioned off, which is a lot of wealth.

But... It's just a ranking of the arrogance of the warlord. Does the reward item actually have the emperor-level transcendent gene?

Is this the place of origin encouraging these geniuses on the Tianjiao list to start burning the royal gene after breaking through to the King of War?

But think about it, if you are a real genius, you can actually burn the royal gene at the battle king level. For example, Li Qinghe and Si Tingyu, they have already burned the royal gene.

Except for ranking promotion rewards, there is no change in welfare.

Soon, the transcendent gene and five Tier 4 rough stones appeared in front of Lu Yuan, and Lu Yuan put the things away.

After , Lu Yuan applied for the challenge again, with the goal of 48.

If it was just to complete the previous ring battle, Lu Yuan didn't need to come to the central square at all.

After all, as long as the ring battle begins, no matter where Lu Yuan was before, he can directly teleport to the ring area.

He came here just to facilitate the application for the challenge.

This time, the time of the challenge was directly postponed to 20 days later, but by then Lu Yuan had already left the place of origin, so he could only discuss and wait for the next time he entered the place of origin to complete the challenge.

After , Lu Yuan, Yeye, and Xiaobai left on Ye Tian Mandrill under the gaze of everyone.

White light flashed, and Lu Yuan appeared in the dormitory room.

He stretched his waist and turned his head to look out the window. On the opposite side was another dormitory building, and the sun was rising from the top of the dormitory building.

It happened to be in the morning.

On the small road in front of the dormitory, there were a few students passing by while talking. It seemed that they were planning to go to class.

Lu Yuan was planning to go down for breakfast. At this moment, he remembered the noise made when he was on the Top of the Sky for the first time. After a pause, Lu Yuan silently took out his mobile phone.

Sure enough, there are many missed calls on the phone, more than the last time.

But, luckily, people he knew were calling, because Lu Yuan had blocked calls from strangers before.

Lu Yuan was a little grateful that he had foresight before.

Otherwise, I'm afraid his phone will be blown up.

Lu Yuan did not call back immediately, but first went to Battle.net to see if there was any news about him.

After was on Battle.net, in the news module, the first edition was a photo of Lu Yuan and Ye Jing standing opposite each other on the Tianjiao arena.

‘The reverse challenge of a thousand-year-old rare! The prince of the Tianming Empire actually did something like this to Lu Yuan! 》

Lu Yuan: ‘.....‘

He intends to see who wrote the manuscript and send him something good.

He clicked on the news.

‘Regarding Lu Yuan, I must be familiar with everyone. This Tianjiao, who belongs to our Daqi Xing, is very low-key after being on the Tianjiao list. He has not challenged again for a year. But in the place of origin this time, Lu Yuan finally started a new challenge...‘

The whole process of Lu Yuan's challenge was told in the news.

Generally speaking, it is still very objective. Of course, between the lines, Lu Yuan can still see that the author of this manuscript is obviously biased towards Lu Yuan.

After all, they are all members of Daqixing's own family. Writing reports about their own genius must be biased.

Lu Yuan is quite understanding, after all, it is politically correct.

For example, Lu Yuan has only fought for a few games, and he has blown Lu Yuan into a super genius evildoer who can compete with the top three in the Tianjiao list.

Although Lu Yuan knew it, it wasn't flattering.

But no one else has seen his true strength. It is obviously a bit exaggerated to say so without seeing his true strength.

Below the report, there were hundreds of thousands of comments, which was very lively.

Lu Yuan looked at a few of them at random.

'When Lu Yuan and Xiangwu challenged, I was there at the time. I can only say that Lu Yuan is awesome! Xiangwu can be said to be one of the Tianjiao with the strongest life-saving ability on the Tianjiao list. Tian Jiao killed him with no more than one hand, and Lu Yuan only took a few breaths to kill Xiang Wu, absolutely crushing strength!'

'This report is still not pertinent enough. Lu Yuan's strength is very strong, but it is still a bit exaggerated to say that it can be compared with Aimen and the others? They are all monsters with royal genes. I think Lu Yuan Being in the top ten is considered very strong.'

'Our Daqixing has taken off! If Lu Yuan can really get the first place, then Daqixing must be famous!'

'By the way, I only noticed that every time Lu Yuan went to challenge, was he with the night princess of the Tianming Empire? What is the relationship between the two? Is it a couple? But I heard that Lu Yuan seems to be with the nine princesses of the Red Maple Empire. Does it matter? It's really enviable.'

‘.....‘

Lu Yuan looked at it, and most of them were still a little excited.

After all, the human strength of Daqixing is not particularly strong, it can only be said to be above the middle.

There is no advantage in front of some top races. No one has been on a list like the Tianjiao list for several years.

Now that Lu Yuan can be on the list, and he has the hope of hitting the top of the Tianjiao list, it makes Daqixing a big face.

They are naturally a little happily looking forward to it.

Some of them are fanatical and think that Lu Yuan can hit the first place. Of course, there are also more sensible people who think that Lu Yuan can hit the top ten is already strong enough.

There are still a few people who are dominated by jealousy and even think that there is something shady in Lu Yuan's ability to make it to the current list.

Hmm... Such people are everywhere...

Lu Yuan couldn't help but sigh. He always felt that no one could do what he couldn't do. It was a conspiracy theory that someone else could do it.

Obviously, I have given up working hard to make progress, but I always hope to drag others into the quagmire with them, so that others also give up the idea of going up, so that I can accept my incompetence and decadence with peace of mind.

Being jealous of this thing can easily corrupt a person's mind.

For these people, Lu Yuan doesn't feel angry, just feels a bit pitiful.

When a person starts to make excuses for his failure, that has already begun to fall.

Lu Yuan didn't want to be such a person, nor would he be influenced by such a person.

After reading some news about him, Lu Yuan turned off Battle.net and called Li Qinghe back.

The call was connected soon.

Li Qinghe's lazy voice came from the phone:

'Brother fate, did you just come out of the place of origin?'

'Well, sister Qinghe, do you know that my ranking on the Tianjiao list has changed?'

'Hee hee, yes, not bad, I rushed to 53rd place in such a short time, how about it? Are there any confidence in rushing to the first place?'

Lu Yuan smiled: 'I don't know yet, let's do it step by step. By the way, sister Qinghe, there is a kind of spirit fruit called blood essence fruit in my previous reward. After using it, it can improve all aspects of my abilities. ,Do you need it?'

'Blood sperm fruit? This reward is pretty good, but I have used it for my sister. Back then, my sister was also at the top of the Tianjiao list, okay? The highest rushed to 9th.'

Li Qinghe's tone was a hint of pride: 'Now, brother, you are still a lot worse than sister. Keep going, hahaha!'

said, she laughed herself.

The corners of Lu Yuan's mouth twitched, and he smiled: 'Um...I think I should be able to pass 9th. Sister Qinghe will reward me by then?'

Lu Yuan doesn't mean anything special, just think the reward is great.

Li Qinghe's smile stopped abruptly, and he curled his lips: 'Sister, I have something to do, I'm going to be busy.'

said she hung up the phone.

Lu Yuan looked dumbfounded, and just talked about rewards. As for?

He shook his head, called Xue Wang back, Grote and a few friends, and then went downstairs.

In the living room downstairs, Si Tingfeng, McGonagall and Yang Ping are all here, having breakfast together.

Seeing Lu Yuan come down, the three of them all smiled.

Si Tingfeng grinned and said: 'Oh, isn't this the pride of our Daqixing, the 53rd Tianjiao Lu Yuan Lu Gongzi?'

McGonagall pulled the chair beside him easily, and said with a smile: 'Come on, please sit down, Lord Lu.'

Yang Ping laughed there like a fool.

Lu Yuan rolled his eyes helplessly, and sat down on the chair.

'You three do this too?'

Si Tingfeng smiled on his face: 'Seriously, with A Yuan's strength, I am not surprised to be able to reach 53rd place. But I didn't expect it to be so fast.'

Lu Yuan suddenly thought of Ye Jing, and exclaimed:

'This is thanks to Prince Ye Jing.'

McGonagall looked weird: 'It's not because of your relationship with the night princess that people deliberately helped you, right?'

Lu Yuan: '.....'

He wanted to say that the other party wanted to deal with him.

But after thinking about it, Lu Yuan still didn't say, but just smiled: 'Maybe.'

McGonagall gave a thumbs up: 'Awesome! I am worthy of you in dealing with women.'

Lu Yuan looked dazed, he is still a pure boy, okay?

Where is this awesome?

At this time, Si Tingfeng gave a light cough and said:

‘By the way, here, I have something to say.’

Lu Yuan and the three people looked at Si Tingfeng.

Si Tingfeng smiled and said, ‘I will graduate soon, and I will probably leave the genius camp tomorrow.’

Hearing this, the three of Lu Yuan were taken aback.

McGonagall’s face changed slightly: ‘So fast?’

As a student of the genius camp, because there is no fixed course and the time is loose, even graduation is calculated based on the entrance time of the college.

Six academic years after enrollment are over, it is time for graduation.

Si Tingfeng was obviously the genius camp he joined at this time six years ago.

Lu Yuan felt a little embarrassed. It has been half a year since he joined the genius camp, almost two years ago.

When he first joined the genius camp, he was only Tier 1. He didn’t expect that he was already a warlord now. After about three or four months, he could break through to the warlord.

Time flies so fast.

Even Yang Ping is already preparing to sprint the warlord.

Following Si Tingfeng’s announcement, the atmosphere fell silent.

McGonagall patted Si Tingfeng on the shoulder, and smiled bitterly:

‘Listen to Feng Senpai, where do you plan to go after graduation?’

Those who graduate from the general genius camp are at least Zhan Zun.

Powerful people of this level, whether they go to the military, the night watchman, or the various big consortiums and big families, can all be regarded as guests, and if they go to various genetic warrior academies, based on their cultivation skills, They are all director-level leaders.

There are even many seniors and sisters who will form their own adventure groups after graduation to go adventures in the land of origin or in the wilderness area.

But Si Tingfeng is the prince after all, so he must have fewer choices.

Si Tingfeng smiled and said, 'I plan to stay in the imperial capital. I will probably go to the Red Maple Guardian to take up the post, right? I may also join the Night Watchman. I'm not sure yet.'

'Hey, hey, you have to cheer for you, listen to the wind, and try to be a big boss. I will graduate next year, and I will join you when that time comes.'

McGonagall smiled and said.

'Go away, won't you go back to take over the family affairs?'

Si Tingfeng rolled his eyes.

McGonagall spread his hands indifferently: 'Why is there such a hurry? My old man can live for more than two thousand years at least. What should I do when I go back? It's better to go around by myself.'

Hearing this, Si Tingfeng stopped saying more, and said with a smile:

'In that case, I will follow my brother after graduation.'

'Properly!'

Yang Ping looked envious: 'Unfortunately, it will take me a long time to graduate, otherwise I will definitely be with you.'

McGonagall patted Yang Ping on the shoulder and said with a smirk: 'Xiaopingzi, you should first see when you can break through to the warlord. Look at Ayuan. You are already warlord. Go on, the warlord. You are afraid that you are still a war master.'

Yang Ping glanced at McGonagall contemptuously: 'It seems like you can break through to the King of War if you are the King of War... Senior McGonagall, don't you have a high cultivation base for Brother McGonagall?'

McGonagall and Si Tingfeng are embarrassed.

To be honest, the two of them are indeed not as good as Lu Yuan. As seniors, this is very uncomfortable.

The four of them talked and laughed and finished their breakfast. McGonagall suggested that because Mr. Tingfeng was leaving tomorrow, they would gather together today.

So the four left the genius camp and went to the Imperial Capital for a stroll.

Finally drank a big bottle of wine outside, and it was already late at night when he returned to the dormitory.

Based on the cultivation base of Lu Yuan's people, ordinary wine is no different from boiling water for them, but they are not drunk.

Early the next morning, after seeing Si Tingfeng away, the three of Lu Yuan were a little sad.

After all, there will be less people in the dormitory in the future.

Then the three of them went to work on their own.

Lu Yuan naturally went to Si Tingyu, and he would continue to practice Bengtianzhan.

Si Tingyu dormitory, Lu Yuan came to the underground training room and saw Si Tingyu fighting with Si Tingxue and Rebecca.

Si Tingxue and Rebecca both froze and fired, and they cooperated quite tacitly. The frost slowed down, the flames broke out, and the power of the two even mixed together, forming a peculiar change, and the power was much stronger.

However, facing Si Tingyu who had already broken through to the battle emperor level, their strength was like a child.

Although Si Tingyu suppressed the cultivation base to the same level as the two, and used a limited number of combat skills, he still pressed the two to fight.

This is the gap between combat experience and the use of combat skills and spiritual power.

Feeling Lu Yuan come down, the three of them stopped and all turned to look at Lu Yuan.

Lu Yuan smiled and said, 'Did you bother you?'

Si listened to the rain and shook his head, and said with a smile: 'It's just time for you to come, and we are over. The two of them have a lot of consumption and can rest.'

Lu Yuan looked at Si Tingxue and Rebecca ~www.mtlnovel.com~ Both of them had sweat on their foreheads, and they kept breathing.

The originally loose martial arts uniforms were tightly attached to the two beautiful bodies.

Lu Yuan glanced at it and compared it to himself.

Hmm... The ice cube hasn't grown at all, and the legs are so beautiful... Rebecca is so big that she can compare with her instructor.

Si Tingxue's eyes suddenly became cold, looking at Lu Yuan, she said coldly:

'Are you thinking about something disgusting?'

Lu Yuan: '?'

Has this guy burned mind reading? Pooh! My thoughts are not disgusting, just a normal appreciation of beautiful things.

Lu Yuan looked serious and said, 'Listening to Xue, I always think you have a deep misunderstanding of me! Am I that kind of person?'

Rebecca on the side of nodded slightly, eyes full of purity, smiled and hugged Si Tingxue's arm, her chest was squeezed into a ball: 'Yes, Xiaoxue, don't you always treat A Yuan so fiercely.'

Si Tingxue glanced down and then vaguely glanced at herself, her icy blue eyes were a bit more hollow, and she wanted to pull her hands out a little stiff, not wanting to talk to Rebecca.

Damn... Is this something that humans can grow ? !

This is too evil, right ? !
