

Chapter 27: My Genes Evolve Infinitely

SANDSTONE UNDERGROUND PALACE, SNEAK ATTACK

‘This is it. Sandstone Underground Palace.’

Luyuan’s location at this moment is no longer a gray stone forest.

His current location is a dry and cracked wilderness area.

In front of him, there is a hole leading to the ground.

The hollow is only about four or five meters wide. There is a section of stairs spreading down. There is a torch hanging on the wall of the aisle at intervals and burning continuously.

Below is the largest underground labyrinth in the Sandstone City area, the Sandstone Underground Palace.

The strength of the fierce beasts in ranges from weak to strong, and there are a lot of them.

Not only that, if you are lucky, maybe you can come across the ruins in the underground palace, there are some precious treasures inside.

Of course, the main reason why Lu Yuan came here is because the road to the sandstone underground palace is very complicated.

Before he provoke the consortium after all, now his strength is not strong enough, in such a complex area, his own retreat will be more.

There are dozens of underground passages to the sandstone underground palace, and this is one of them.

The entrance outside the underground palace is very lively, there are many genetic warriors staying outside.

‘Go to the northern area of the underground palace to hunt and kill the lizards, there is no warrior of the control system! The gain is even!’

‘Detoxification potion! Sale of detoxification potion! You know the effects of black scorpion venom, and there is an antidote potion, so I don’t panic! The quantity is limited, so I want to buy it as soon as possible!’

‘Normal quality short knife, hurry up if you want it! 180 Lingjing no bargaining!’

There are all kinds of shouts, and the outside of the entrance is about to become a small market.

But Lu Yuan can understand it.

Sandstone Underground Palace is one of the areas with the largest number of genetic warriors in Sandstone City.

There are always various business opportunities where there are people.

Lu Yuan glanced over, and found that most of the genetic warriors who were going to enter the underground palace were formed by a few people together.

For a lone person like Lu Yuan, he only saw three or four.

Every lone traveler wears leather armor or armor, holds weapons in his hands, is fully equipped, and looks extraordinary.

The sandstone underground palace is not an area like the gray stone forest, and the degree of danger is far higher than that of the gray stone forest.

can walk alone here, most of them have two brushes.

Otherwise, it’s just to die.

Lu Yuan was alone, naturally, it also attracted some people’s attention.

Some genetic warriors looked at him, and quickly looked away.

Lu Yuan didn’t care either, stepped into the passage and went down the stairs.

In addition to Lu Yuan, there is a team of four cats, and a pair of two elves and two cats.

The two teams were alone with Lu Yuan, and they were very quiet along the way.

Lu Yuan glanced over the two teams from time to time, and found that they were looking at each other from time to time.

Everyone is vigilant.

After walked down a distance, the screams outside could no longer be heard.

Only the footsteps of armor boots falling on the ground in the passage.

The atmosphere is silent.

After a while, everyone came to the end of the stairs.

That is a small open space with a radius of about fifty meters.

There are four passages on one side of the clearing.

Lu Yuan swept his gaze, didn't care about the opinions of the other two teams, and walked directly to the rightmost passage.

Until Lu Yuan left, the respective members of the other two teams made eye contact and went into the other two passages one after another.

After Lu Yuan entered the rightmost passage, he ran into a few fork roads not long after. Lu Yuan didn't recognize the road, so he found a direction casually.

The deeper the underground palace, the wider the passage of the underground palace.

After walking for some distance, the tunnel of the underground palace has changed from a few meters to the current more than 20 meters wide.

However, after Lu Yuan had walked for so long, he hadn't even touched a fierce beast.

Lu Yuan was not surprised either.

After all, this is still an area close to the entrance. Even if there are many roads in the maze, I am afraid that someone has walked through it.

The road behind is still long, and Lu Yuan is not in a hurry.

has passed a few fork roads, the passage where Luyuan is now is about 30 meters wide.

He looked around and still found no trace of the beast.

Lu Yuan raised his eyebrows and moved on.

Just when he passed a pile of rubble, a head-sized stone above the rubble suddenly flew up and hit Lu Yuan's head at a very fast speed.

Lu Yuan felt the strong wind coming from behind his head, and was startled, his feet pressed * the ground, and his body moved laterally for a certain distance.

Suddenly, a stone flew over Lu Yuan's head.

Lu Yuan's pupils shrank.

'Where did the stone attack come from?'

He had seen his surroundings just now, but he hadn't noticed the existence of the beast.

He turned his head and looked in the direction where the stone was flying.

Then his eyes widened.

In a pile of rubble in the corner of the wall, at this moment pieces of rubble are floating.

Then all the rubble gathered together to form a stone man about one meter tall.

'?'

'There are such creatures?'

Lu Yuan is a little dazed.

At this moment, there was another whistling sound in the back of his head.

He quickly avoided again.

A stone the size of a human head flew past, and finally landed on the stone man's right hand.

The stone man raised his two sandbag-sized stone fists and screamed.

Lu Yuan couldn't understand exactly how the stone man pronounced it.

But he didn't have time to think about it. At this moment, the Stone Man had already waved his fist and rushed towards him.

The heavy steps of the stone man fell on the ground, making a bang.

Lu Yuan frowned, and the long sword appeared, looking at the stone man with some solemnity.

The stone man quickly came to Lu Yuan's body, waving his right fist and hitting Lu Yuan.

his fist brought a roaring wind, and his momentum was amazing.

Its speed is not slow, but compared with Lu Yuan, it is still a little bit worse.

Lu Yuan dodged the Golem's fist sideways, and then the long sword slashed towards the joint of its head.

锵!

The long sword collided with the stone, making a clanging sound.

Then the long sword left a deep gap in the stone, and the giant force made the stone man's body back a few steps.

Lu Yuan saw this and understood the strength of this stone man.

is much stronger than the graystone beetle, but weaker than the black-patterned graystone beetle.

If calculated according to the genetic warrior, it is almost as strong as a trainee-level warrior with a tempering degree of about 40% without recording the extraordinary gene.

Such strength is not a threat to Lu Yuan now.

The only trouble is that this stone man is a bit insidious, and it turns into a gravel pile to sneak attack!

It is completely invisible from the outside.

The stone is also unsightly.

After confirming his strength, Lu Yuan launched a fierce attack with a sword.

Before long, he smashed the head of the stone man.

After smashing the head of the stone man, its body does not seem to be connected as before.

directly turned into rubble and scattered on the ground.

The white light flashed, and three spirit crystals condensed out of the gravel.

is much more than the Greystone Beetle.

Lu Yuan showed a smile and picked it up.

In addition to Lingjing, Lu Yuan also saw a white pebble-like round bead stone.

Lu Yuan raised his eyebrows and picked it up.

The information reached Lu Yuan's mind.

Little Stone Man's Heart: Materials of ordinary quality can be used to refine genetic weapons and genetic medicine.

The heart of the little stone man...

So this thing is Xiaoshiren?

Lu Yuan glanced at the gravel on the ground, revealing a trace of surprise.

When he was watching the introduction to the sandstone underground palace, he also saw the type of fierce beast inside, and he knew the little stone man.

is just about the habits of the beasts, there is no specific introduction in the post.

Lu Yuan didn't expect Xiaoshiren to be so insidious.

Fortunately, his strength is not bad, otherwise I am afraid that he would have been confused.

After receiving this lesson, Lu Yuan decided that in the next exploration, he must always open the body of the black iron, UU reading www.uukānshu.com to ensure his defense capabilities.

so as not to be overcast by the fierce beast that does not know where.

Then he has nowhere to cry.

If it were someone else, it would be unrealistic to want to use combat skills all the time.

After all, this kind of continuous defensive combat skills requires continuous consumption of spiritual power, and when it is turned on, the spiritual power can't stand it at all.

But Lu Yuan is different.

He absorbs spirit crystals quickly, can replenish spiritual power at all times, and he has been driving the body of black iron without any pressure.

Turning on the body of black iron, Lu Yuan continued to go deep into the underground palace.

This time he started to pay attention to the gravel pile on the side of the road.

Before long, he saw two piles of gravel not far away.

Lu Yuan raised his eyebrows and walked over slowly.

Sure enough, when he approached, the two stones on top of the gravel pile flew towards Luyuan.

'Huh! You still want to attack me now?'

Lu Yuan easily escaped the small stone men's sneak attack, and then killed the two small stone men.

Each little stone man dropped three spirit crystals.

But only one little stone man dropped his heart.

Obviously this material is not dropped by every Little Rockman.

Lu Yuan continued to deepen.

Not long after he left, he suddenly heard the sound of fighting coming from the passage ahead.

Lu Yuan raised his eyebrows, frowned slightly and glanced at the passage ahead.

If he can, Lu Yuan doesn't want to be nosy. If he meets a big boss he can't afford, it will be very troublesome.

But there are no other detours here, only this one.

He has no place to hide.

In desperation, Lu Yuan could only take a step further, planning to see the situation.
