

Chapter 272: My Genes Evolve Infinitely

MONSTER

In a short moment, a huge city was swallowed by this green dog. The green dog's body slowly enlarged. The height at the shoulders increased from two meters to close to three meters, and the aura was once again not small compared to before.

After devouring a city, the green dog screamed again and disappeared in place.

Before long, the space was torn apart, and a tall middle-aged man wearing a black armor appeared in the sky of the city.

Looking at the huge deep hole left below, the middle-aged man frowned and his face was very ugly.

'Damn it, who did it? How dare to do such a maddening thing in my lion empire!'

At this moment, the middle-aged man's face changed, he felt a powerful and evil aura coming from a distance, and turned his head to look over.

Afterwards, a icy color flashed in his eyes, tearing the space, disappearing in place, and moving in the direction where the breath came.

In an area almost five thousand kilometers away from the city that was swallowed before, the green dog floated above another city.

At this moment, the green dog opened its mouth and a powerful attraction appeared, swallowing the city and its foundation into green slime.

Just after swallowing the city, a space gap appeared in the sky not far from the green dog, and a middle-aged man wearing a black armor came out.

He looked down for the first time, and after discovering that the city underneath had disappeared, leaving only a deep hole, his face was gloomy and he looked up at the green dog in the sky.

The evil aura on the green dog made the middle-aged man feel a little creepy. He frowned and stared at the green dog. The evil aura on the green dog made the middle-aged man feel alienated, but it was better than normal. The phenomenon of alienation is also dangerous.

‘What the  are you?’

The middle-aged man gritted his teeth and his voice was cold. He knew that if his strength reached such a level, he must have a lot of wisdom, and it was not strange to be able to speak.

However, the middle-aged man’s words did not receive a response, the green dog screamed, and then disappeared in place.

The middle-aged man saw the green dog disappear in place, his pupils shrank and his hair exploded.

He suddenly raised his head, and a huge shield appeared in his hand to block the top of his head.

At this moment, the green dog appeared just above the middle-aged man’s head. Its green eyes carried a cruel and cold light, and its sharp claws slapped towards the huge shield.

boom! !

The middle-aged man only felt a terrifying force coming out. His face turned pale, his arm made a faint creak, and it broke directly. The next moment, his body fell heavily into the deep pit like a meteor.

boom! !

The middle-aged man's body was smashed into the pit, and a deeper pit with a radius of several kilometers was smashed into the city pit with a radius of more than a hundred kilometers.

The green dog looked at the pit and opened his mouth. There was a ray of evil green light surging in front of the mouth. The terrifying aura made the entire Daqixing seem to be shaking, and the hurricane emerged with the powerful light finally condensed by the green dog. , The white clouds in the sky seemed to be avoiding the green dog, and the whole sky was flashing with green light.

The entire Daqixing's war emperor and emperor class powerhouses looked in the direction of the flashing green light with a little astonishment, a little astonished.

At this moment, the green dog paused, and the green energy ball in front of his mouth slowly dissipated.

It glanced at the deep hole, a look of disdain appeared in its eyes, and then it sensed its surroundings and disappeared in place again.

On the wasteland hundreds of thousands of kilometers away from the green dog, a middle-aged man in a black armor suddenly appeared, and he fell to the ground and panted continuously.

The huge shield in his hand was thrown aside, and it was already sunken at this moment. There were more cracks on the battle armor. His body was full of blood. On his right hand, a silver-white charm was slowly cracked and lost.了光。 The light.

It was just an attack just now that the middle-aged man was directly injured seriously. He panted, with a lingering look in his eyes, and his voice was low and hoarse:

‘What the  is that?! The monster's strength may be close to the battle saint, and may even reach the battle saint level. No! You have to inform others... If no one can control the monster, I am afraid Daqixing will be It swallowed.’

He snorted, and there was a ray of red light flowing around his body, and the wounds and broken arms on his body healed.

After recovery, the middle-aged man's breath became much weaker.

He breathed slightly, sat up slowly, took out the phone, and spread the news about the green dog.

After the news came out, the middle-aged man coughed up a mouthful of blood and slowly muttered to himself:

'When the others come over, let's fight the monster together... I hope they move faster, otherwise, I'm afraid I don't know how many cities will be swallowed by it... I don't know where the monster is now?'

As soon as the middle-aged man's voice fell, a harsh sound that seemed to be scratched on the glass sounded from behind the middle-aged man.

'Hehe~ Are you looking for me?'

The middle-aged man became stiff, turned his head abruptly, looked behind him, and then he saw the green dog standing behind him, with a hint of cold and playful light in his green eyes.

The middle-aged man's eyes widened, and a look of horror appeared in his eyes. Just when something was about to move, the green dog's paws patted out and patted the middle-aged man's head. His head burst on the spot, a headless corpse. After shaking, slowly fell to the ground.

The green dog opened his mouth and revealed a weird smile: 'Zhan Emperor's corpse, don't know how it tastes?'

It opened its hideous mouth and gnawed, even the green dog did not let go of the battle armor on the middle-aged man and the huge shield on the side.

After swallowing the corpse, the green dog glanced at the phone beside him, his paws flipped, and a humanized color of thinking appeared in his green eyes.

Afterwards, it cracked the corners of its mouth, revealing a hint of coldness, swallowed the phone, and its body slowly turned into a green mist and disappeared in place.

Not long after the Green Dog disappeared, the space was torn apart, and four strong auras, armed with genetic weapons, came out.

Among them were Adams of the Algabe family, and Wells Andrews of the Andre family of the Lion Empire. He was a tall man with long golden hair, an incomparably powerful breath, and a lion king-like majesty.

There is also a glamorous woman with long red hair. She is Ge Hong, the war emperor of the Ge family.

Finally, there is an old man with white hair and white robe named Behara.

The four war emperors appeared on the wasteland, turned their heads and looked around, all of them frowned slightly.

Wells frowned slightly, a solemn look appeared on his face:

‘Where is the Kutcher? He said he encountered an alienated beast that is suspected of reaching or close to the saint of war? Is the owner of the horrible atmosphere just now? He asked us to contact the entire Daqixing powerhouse to siege that alienation. Fierce beast, where did the others go?’

Others also showed doubts.

At this moment, Adams’s face suddenly changed, and he snarled, ‘Be careful!’

A purple vine protruded from the void, encircled Ge Hong's waist, and pulled her back.

At the next moment, a fierce paw covered with green lin armor suddenly appeared in the void.

The paw almost fell on Ge Hong's body and swept past her.

Seeing the green melon seeds, everyone's complexion changed, and then they all reflected.

Wells roared, his eyes turned into golden vertical pupils, and a golden giant lion phantom appeared on his body.

The giant lion phantom raised its head and roared, the space vibrated, and a green dog with a hideous-looking face and a shoulder height of three meters appeared in the air.

After seeing the green dog, everyone's pupils shrank, and a hint of shock appeared. They hadn't noticed the green dog at all before.

They all understood this situation and couldn't hesitate. Don't hesitate to shout, and there were flashes of white light on their bodies, surrounding Adams, Ge Hong, Wells and himself. For a while, their auras were all skyrocketing.

Then with a wave of the staff in Doeyuan's hand, a white shield of light appeared on their bodies.

Ge Hong also waved the staff in his hand, a stream of flames condensed, a ray of red light appeared on their bodies, and their aura skyrocketed again. At the same time, the flames rose, rushing out of them for only five or six meters. The tall huge hound, all the flame hounds rushed to the green dog the first time they appeared.

At the same time, Adams waved the staff in his hand, and Tianluo Wisteria shot out from the air. Unlike Amy's Tianluo Wisteria, his Tianluo Wisteria had a noble purple-gold pattern on it, bound to the green dog.

The green dog roared, and evil green mist emerged all over the body. The flame hound was corroded as soon as it was close to the green mist. The original red flame swayed, making a sneer, and finally turned into green. A green fire hound full of evil aura.

The Green Fire Hound turned around and rushed towards Ge Hong, tearing up all the Tianluo Wisteria on the way.

Ge Hong's pupils shrank, revealing a hint of shock: 'I can't control it!'

The expressions of the other three also changed drastically, and some couldn't believe that this strange green dog could even corrode and assimilate flame summons.

Bieyuan immediately shot out a white light and fell on the green flame hound, and then the green flame giant hound showed an indeterminate light, which eventually expanded and burst apart.

The roar sounded, the flame surging, spreading in all directions, Beihara condensed layers of light shields, confining the flames in an area of several kilometers, otherwise, the flames that erupted are enough to destroy nearby thousands of kilometers. area.

After the flame subsided, traces of corrosion appeared on the ground, which sank directly.

The green dog in the center of the flame burst was unharmed.

Seeing this scene, the complexions of all four Adams changed.

'Be careful, this guy is not easy... Ge Hong, you inform all the war emperors of the other war emperors, the Red Maple Empire, and the Mingguang Empire. If you don't want such monsters to appear in their empire in the future, let their war emperors Come here too!'

Wells spoke in a low voice.

Ge Hong nodded solemnly:

'good!'

At this moment, the green dog suddenly opened its mouth and made a sharp noise:

‘Hehehe~ It turns out that you are so weak... Then I’m not welcome.’

While speaking, its body suddenly appeared beside Behara, the speed was so fast that it seemed to teleport.

Its claws slapped towards Behara, and fell heavily on the white light shield on Behara.

The white light shield only supported it for a moment, and then it turned into a light spot and dissipated.

At this moment, Tianluo wisteria protruded from the void, blocking the paws that patted the other original.

laugh!

Tianluo Wisteria was torn to pieces only after blocking it for a moment, and then a ball of flames appeared behind Tianluo Wisteria, turning into a flame shield to resist.

When the flame shield shattered, Beeyuan finally had a chance to react, and his body turned into a cloud of white light and disappeared.

At the same time, Wells roared, his body appeared above the green dog in an instant, and the epee in his hand was raised and slashed towards the green dog.

The green dog failed with a single blow, opened his mouth, and slapped the cut epee with his backhand.

Cang! !

There was a sound of golden and iron symphony, Wells’ face changed, his body flew upside down, he coughed out a mouthful of blood, his hands trembled, and even his epee was a little unsteady.

Seeing this scene, the three of Adams felt a chill. You must know that Wells's strength is extremely powerful, even in the battle of the emperor, it is considered a powerful part, just a head-on blow, is it injured?

This alienated fierce beast was so powerful that it frightened them.

After one shot flew Wells, the green dog disappeared in place, and appeared in front of Wells the next moment.

It opened to highlight a cloud of green mist.

Almost at the same time, with a wave of Beehara's staff, Wells appeared on his body with a light shield with mysterious lines. He himself felt a fatal threat, his pupils contracted, and his armor flashed with golden light. A golden shield of light emerged and stood in front of him.

The green mist carried a strong corrosive aura, corroding the white light shield and the golden light shield almost instantly.

There was a trace of green mist remaining on Wells' golden armor.

There were wisps of corroded sound in his golden battle armor, and Wells's face turned pale and he let out a bit of painful snorting, then the battle armor on his body disappeared, and a ball of light flew out of his body.

As soon as the light ball flew out, it gradually disappeared.

That was the genetic weapon of the battle armor, which was directly corroded, and Wells' chest was a little bloody, just a little touch of the green mist, even the body of the emperor could not bear it, even the genes of the emperor. Armaments are also corroded.

The others were a little speechless for a while~www.mtlnovel.com~ After silence, Don't change his face, and shouted to the other three people: 'Go! Get out! Just rely on us, it's not at all. Its opponent!'

He didn't even dare to say directly that this alienated fierce beast had a lot of wisdom, lest it be blocked by it after being discovered.

The expressions of the three of Wells changed.

Wells opened his mouth and said, 'If we leave, what about other cities? No one can stop this monster!'

'If we die, then Da Qixing is over! After the war emperors of other empires come over, all the war emperors will work together, and there may be a chance to kill it at that time. It is impossible to do this only with the four of us. a little.'

Don't tell me the original transmission, the reason is beyond refutation.

Ge Hong's eyes flashed, and then the voice transmission said: 'I have notified the other war emperors. If we don't hold it, will it hide at that time? If we hide, then we will have assembled everything. The Emperor of War, it is also difficult to find it, let alone kill it. It is impossible for us to gather together all the time.'

Upon hearing this, they fell silent.
