

Chapter 297: My Genes Evolve Infinitely

METAMORPHOSIS AGAIN, ARCHBISHOP

Lu Yuan took Li Qinghe and the three to use the space to move back to the rented house.

After fighting for several hours, the three of Li Qinghe were also a little tired, and each went back to their room to rest.

After returning to the room, Lu Yuan's body disappeared.

In the dark night forest, the green flames that contained the evil aura had only the last few places to exist at this moment.

However, the forest was severely damaged. Some areas were scorched by green flames, and the ground showed signs of corrosion.

There are also some areas that are caused by the destruction of the alienated beasts after the rage.

Of course, there are also some areas that are traces of the aftermath of the raging aftermath when the former natural disaster apostle and Lu Yuan fought.

Lu Yuan stood in the air, looking around, a mess, with ashes and smoke everywhere.

This area was the area where the three natural disaster apostles died before. Not long after Lu Yuan appeared, he felt a strong aura of unknown blending into his body.

The Evolution Cube shook, and then the faint blue light flashed, and Lu Yuan felt the sense of sublimation and evolution in his body again.

Lu Yuan was overjoyed, which meant that the Evolution Cube had begun to transform again.

The faint blue light lasted for a long time, and when the faint blue light disappeared, there was a little bit of bright stars flowing in the Evolution Cube, which looked very dazzling, and compared to before, it seemed to contain endless mysteries.

Lu Yuan placed his consciousness in the Evolution Cube. His will was a flower, and he felt as if he appeared in the universe. His gaze looked down at the entire universe, watching the birth of galaxies and the collapse of galaxies.

That is the change of the entire universe.

This feeling only lasted for a moment, and Lu Yuan soon recovered.

There was a look of dazed consternation in his eyes, and he didn't understand the meaning of what he saw before.

What is the connection between Evolution Cube and the universe?

Lu Yuan guessed in his heart, took another look at the Evolution Cube, and found that the previous effect was no longer available at this moment.

Lu Yuan retracted his gaze, and exhaled slightly.

He looked at the new features after the evolution of the evolution cube.

Regarding the evolution of extraordinary genes, there is still no change in the evolution of the items blessed on the gene chain.

At the time of the last transformation, the evolution of the items blessed on the genetic chain has reached the upper limit of the  level.

So far, this upper limit has not been broken.

Lu Yuan was a little disappointed in this, but he also felt it was taken for granted.

Maybe the highest limit is God level?

Or do you want to break the upper limit, and you need other conditions?

Lu Yuan suddenly remembered the locations in the Origin Land he saw when he was connected to the Tianjiao Bang.

Maybe go there to find the answer.

This time, the most important thing is that the upper limit of the evolution of external items has changed.

Now Lu Yuan's upper limit for the evolution of external items has reached the holy level.

At this rate, after one metamorphosis, Lu Yuan would be able to raise the upper limit of the evolution of external items to the  level.

Not to mention that, just now, it means that Lu Yuan can evolve sacred artifacts, and if it is auctioned, the spirit crystals will definitely be obtained.

Lu Yuan exhaled slightly, and his body disappeared in place again.

He came to the place where the space rift had been before.

Of course, now the space rift has dissipated, and the sky is calm again.

Lu Yuan raised his head and looked at the location of the gap in the previous space. There was a wisp of unknown aura in his body blending into it.

The amount is very small, even much less than the three apostles of natural disasters before.

Lu Yuan raised his eyebrows, thinking that this should have been from the previous members of the war emperor-level natural disaster cult.

It seems that the space rift itself does not carry an unknown atmosphere.

Although Lu Yuan was a little disappointed in his heart, because he had guessed before, he didn't think there was any major problem.

After absorbing the unknown aura left by the few war emperors, Lu Yuan looked around and made sure that there were no people from the Scourge Religion group left. Only then did he take a step forward and disappeared in place.

The next moment, Lu Yuan returned to the room, stretched his waist, took a shower, and then lay on the bed to rest.

real world.

A piece of burning green flames, glowing with evil light, on the seemingly barren planet.

There is a huge palace on the top of a tall mountain.

There are green lines circulating on the palace, and there seems to be an incomparable meaning on it. Ordinary people just look at it, I am afraid they will be crazy.

In the center of the palace, there is a hall with four stone pillars and dark green torches burning on the walls.

A handsome elf man in a green robe was sitting cross-legged in a high chair, with green mist escaping from his body.

At this moment, facing the high chair, the tall iron door suddenly opened. Outside the door, a woman wearing a green robe with blood runes embroidered on the cuffs, with a beautiful face and a pair of small blood horns on her forehead, walked. Came in.

As she entered the door, the elf man opened his eyes, and the dark green torches on the wall suddenly formed a pillar of fire, illuminating the originally dim hall.

The glamorous woman knelt on one knee and said:

‘Archbishop, the rift into the Origin is closed.’

A green light flashed in the eyes of the elf man, silently looking at the woman below.

Cold sweat appeared on the woman’s forehead, and she bowed her head silently.

After the air was silent, the elf man’s gentle voice sounded:

‘Do you know the reason?’

‘Unable to judge, it was closed from there.’

‘Where are the three Bridges?’

The glamorous woman’s head is lower and deeper: ‘...it didn’t come out. But before, we have confirmed that the fissure is indeed the place of origin. The follow-up plan should be that the three of them did not do a good job, and there was a problem.’

Hearing this, the elf man nodded silently.

‘In this case, the goal is achieved.’

‘Yes, Archbishop.’

The glamorous woman smiled.

The elf man nodded slightly: ‘If this is the case, let’s start the next step.’

‘Yes!’

The elf man waved his hand slightly, and the glamorous woman got up, bowed back, and closed the door.

In the corridor, the glamorous woman sighed slightly and turned to leave.

Soon, the glamorous woman returned to her office.

At this moment, the door of the room was knocked, and the glamorous woman raised her head with a cold voice:

‘Come in.’

The door opened, and a short, dark-skinned man wearing a green robe with white lines embroidered on his cuffs walked in:

‘grown ups.’

‘What’s the matter?’

The glamorous woman said casually.

‘That’s it. We received a message from a believer that a nail was pulled out. The opponent seems to be a very powerful saint.’

‘Huh? Which area?’

‘The Baiyun Star Field is located in Daqixing.’

A green ball of light emerged from the man’s hand.

A picture above the light group appeared in the sky. It was a dark area. In the darkness, a scrawny green dog was fighting with a handsome-looking boy. Numerous shadow clones appeared, various combat skills surged, and the picture was somewhat Blurred, there were jumps from time to time, and before long, in the light of stars, the picture disappeared.

The glamorous woman looked at the disappearing scene, fell silent, and narrowed her eyes:

‘The Gaston Demon Dog, who reached the Holy Rank, died? It’s interesting. On Daqi Xing? What kind of planet is that planet? There is such a strong one. What about the local believers?’

‘My lord, this is a place that makes people wonder. The Daqixing is a medium power in the Baiyun Star Region. Although there are many war emperors, there has never been a strong warlord. The local believers are three. The first-level cultist Yul, whose strength was in the early days of the war, took an alienated beast egg to Daqixing. The goal was to alienate Daqixing... After receiving this stream of information, I contacted Yul and found out He can’t be contacted anymore, I am afraid he is dead. And who is the saint that Gaston Dog encountered, we still have no information, and it does not match the human war saints we have collected before.’

Upon hearing the words, the glamorous woman leaned on the exquisite carved sofa, squinted her eyes, and thought slightly.

Then she slowly said: ‘If this is the case, let people go to Daqixing to investigate the origin of the saint, and then make plans. Um... let the capital go north.’

‘Master of Beijing...Yes, I see.’

The man nodded.

‘Go ahead.’

The glamorous woman waved, and the man hurriedly left and closed the door.

The upper layer of Origin, Dark Night City.

Lu Yuan opened his eyes and glanced out the window habitually.

The sky outside the window is dim, and from time to time there will be a series of subtle spatial fissures, which soon healed.

Lu Yuan was stunned for a moment, and then he remembered that he seemed to be in the upper strata of Origin Land now.

He swept his mind to the Gene War Pattern, and felt the 1.22 million meritorious service, the corners of Lu Yuan's mouth raised, and a smile appeared.

After that, Lu Yuan went to wash up and left the room.

In the hall, Li Qinghe was sitting on the sofa, looking down at something.

Lu Yuan walked over and took a look, the corners of his mouth twitched slightly, and he found that Li Qinghe was playing a small game with his mobile phone.

Although the mobile phone has no signal and cannot make calls in the place of origin, it is okay to play a little game.

Li Qinghe played very seriously, and only reacted after Lu Yuan approached. She glanced at Lu Yuan, and then smiled and said:

‘Brother Yuan, come and sit next to me.’

Lu Yuan sat down beside Li Qinghe, Li Qinghe immediately put his legs on Lu Yuan's lap and found a comfortable position to lie down.

Lu Yuan looked speechless. At this moment, the door of the room opened and Lu Yuan saw Si Tingyu walk out.

After seeing Lu Yuan, Si Tingyu smiled slightly, nodded to Lu Yuan, and walked over.

After walking over, she saw Li Qinghe lying on the sofa.

Si Tingyu glanced at Li Qinghe, then smiled:

‘A Yuan, you spoil her too much.’

Li Qinghe didn't look away from the phone, just smirked and said:

‘Does Daxieyu want to try it too? Come on, I don’t mind anyway. Brother Yuan’s legs are very comfortable.’

Lu Yuan was taken aback and looked at Si Tingyu.

Si Ting Yu Qiao’s face blushed slightly, and then she sat on the sofa opposite them solemnly, and said lightly:

‘I’m not so childish.’

‘cut’

Li Qinghe silently leaned her small feet against a certain part of Lu Yuan.

Lu Yuan froze, and quickly grabbed Li Qinghe’s foot.

Si Tingyu glanced slightly, then looked away as if he hadn’t seen it.

She looked at Lu Yuan and said:

‘A Yuan, you now have more than one million merits, what are your plans next, continue to accumulate merits, or practice first?’

Hearing this, Li Qinghe also glanced at Lu Yuan, and then closed his gaze back, shaking both feet restlessly.

Lu Yuan stroked her legs behind her, sliding up slowly, and suddenly she froze.

Lu Yuan thought for a while and said:

‘How about you mentor?’

Si Tingyu thought for a while: ‘This time we have also gained about 50,000 merits, which is much more than before. We plan to practice for a while first.’

Among these fifty thousand feats, part of Li Qinghe’s trio was 10,000 from the gap in Lu Yuan’s calming space, and the other 40,000 were previously Lu Yuan kept letting fierce beasts in, so that they could easily kill and gain.

Although compared with Lu Yuan, this merit is very small, but as the Emperor of War, fifty thousand merits are actually a lot.

You know, killing a royal-level alienated fierce beast normally can only give you dozens to hundreds of feats.

This would have to kill more than 500 imperial level alienated fierce beasts.

‘Where is Sister Qinghe?’

Lu Yuan looked at Li Qinghe.

Li Qinghe opened the mouth and said: ‘The three of us are all together. The meaning of ‘Big Fierce Rain‘ is the meaning of sister. Brother Yuan, come and play for me.’

Li Qinghe frowned slightly, and handed the phone to Lu Yuan.

Lu Yuan reluctantly took it, and then said:

‘In this case, I will practice for a while.’

Li Qinghe said with some envy: ‘You have so many merits, after you absorb them all, I am afraid that your strength will be greatly improved.’

‘No way, who makes me talented?’

Lu Yuan smiled.

At this time, the door of the room opened again, and Frosty Moon walked out.

She smiled and said:

‘A Yuan’s talent is indeed the best I have ever seen, and it won’t be long before it will be the emperor or even the saint of war.’

Having said that, Si Tingyu said:

‘Well... after we use up our merits, we won’t go hunting the beasts with you. With your strength, we are too slow.’

Li Qinghe and Shuangyue also nodded.

‘Well, Daoyuyu is right. I originally thought that I could take you to fly, but I didn’t expect to be taken by you.’

Li Qinghe spoke with some dissatisfaction.

Lu Yuan was taken aback for a moment, then smiled and said, ‘Let’s talk about it when you use up your merits, don’t make a decision now.’

Lu Yuan planned to evolve some better genetic weapons and one-time charms for them if there are extra spirit crystals at that time, so that they have more hole cards, even if he is not there, they will be safe.

Hearing what Lu Yuan said, the three of Li Qinghe thought for a while, and felt that it would take a certain amount of time, so they nodded and didn’t say much.

‘Then shall we make up for the Celestial City now? Go back and redeem the merits.’

Li Qinghe was looking forward to it.

Lu Yuan smiled and was about to speak when the door of the room knocked.

All four of Lu Yuan were taken aback and looked in the direction of the door.

Shuangyue walked over and opened the door. Outside the door was a beautiful night charm with a strong aura. It should be a war emperor.

After seeing Ye Mei, Shuangyue was a little confused: 'Hello, are you?'

Ye Mei Zhan Emperor smiled slightly: 'Hello, I come to Master Lu Yuan by the order of Master Gladys.'
