

Chapter 60: My Genes Evolve Infinitely

MUTATION

The skinny woman tightly held the crying child in her arms, and said with a hoarse voice:

‘My husband is addicted to drugs. When the addiction occurs, he will beat me and the child to vent. If we stay at home, we will be beaten to death. I have no choice but to bring the child out.’

Lu Yuan: ‘.....’

His voice choked.

Looking at the woman with wrinkles on her face, Lu Yuan didn’t know what to say for a while.

The skinny woman looked at Lu Yuan, bent her legs, knelt down, and pleaded:

‘Sir, you are a powerful genetic warrior, can you send me out of this area? If I am alone, there will surely be someone who wants to grab my child later.’

Lu Yuan frowned and pulled the skinny woman up.

‘Okay, I’ll send you out.’

The thin woman’s face showed a surprise color, and she stooped down again and again:

‘Thank you, Sir, thank you!’

Lu Yuan shook his head: ‘Let’s go.’

He walked back and forth again.

Anyway, it was only a short distance away, and for Lu Yuan, he would only take a few steps, so he should exercise more.

Lu Yuan walked a street with a skinny woman.

At the corner of the street on the edge, three punks squatted around the corner and looked around.

One of the gangsters saw Lu Yuan and the skinny woman.

After seeing the child in the arms of the skinny woman, his eyes lit up.

He reached out and patted the two companions beside him, and said:

‘It’s coming alive!’

‘Um?’

The other two people looked over quickly.

After seeing the child in the skinny woman’s arms, the other two grinned.

‘Is anyone daring to bring their children out at this night? Brothers, let’s go up and teach them what are the rules of slums.’

‘There is another man who doesn’t seem to be very easy to deal with. Get ready guys.’

‘rest assured!’

The three gangsters stood up and walked to Lu Yuan and the others.

One of the gangsters has put his hand in his pocket, and there is a bulge there.

The three of them approached, and the skinny woman noticed immediately.

She shook her body, hugged the child tightly, and hid behind Lu Yuan.

just when the three gangsters approached.

Two of the gangsters saw the genetic war pattern on Lu Yuan’s wrist.

Their pupils shrank, showing a look of horror.

Another sturdy boy didn’t notice Lu Yuan’s wrist.

He grinned and walked to Lu Yuan:

‘Little brothers, brothers will borrow something from you.’

Lu Yuan raised an eyebrow and smiled:

‘What to borrow?’

The stout boy was about to speak, one of his companions covered his mouth, and the other companion had a kind smile on his face:

‘Brother, some of us are out of smoking, and want to borrow a fire from you. Is it convenient for you?’

The sturdy young gangster was covered by his partner, and was dissatisfied. He was taken aback when he heard the other partner’s words.

‘I don’t smoke, no fire.’

‘That’s it, then we’re bothering you, brother, you’re good to go.’

The smile on the little bastard’s face was very kind, and he thought it was a good person if he didn’t know it.

They took the stout little ** who was still a little dazed and left.

After left a certain distance, the sturdy young gangster broke free from his peers, and said dissatisfied:

‘You two are ** hairy?!’

The little ** who was covering his mouth before now was covered with sweat on his forehead, and said in a low voice with fear behind his face:

‘Old man, you have to treat our two brothers to a good meal!’

‘What? You guys are holding me and want me to treat me?!’

The old man suddenly became unhappy.

‘You know a fart, that man is a genetic warrior! Didn’t you see his wrist just now?! We saved your life!’

The stout little ** was taken aback, turned his head and looked behind him.

Lu Yuan’s back is a little far away, so naturally he can’t see clearly.

There is still a hint of shock in his eyes:

‘You really mean it?’

‘Of course it is true! What can I lie to you? If you don’t believe me, ask Mazi.’

Another gangster nodded to the gangster who borrowed the fire from Lu Yuan:

‘It’s true, no wonder they dared to come out at night, they turned out to be genetic warriors. Fortunately, we have sharp eyes, otherwise we are afraid that we will be cold there.’

Hearing these two companions say the same, the strong little ** is also a little afraid:

‘Fortunately, you can see clearly, otherwise it will be over.’

When the three gangsters were talking.

There is an alley not far from them.

On the garbage dump in the alley, two wild dogs are digging for food.

At this moment, in the shadow of the alley, a black shadow drilled out, and instantly penetrated into one of the black wild dogs that had lost a lot of hair.

The black wild dog froze suddenly, and black mist spilled out of his body.

The hairs of another wild dog exploded all over, arched, staring at his original companion, grinning, and let out a threatening low growl.

Click, click...

The skeleton of the black wild dog made noises continuously.

Its originally thin body quickly collided as if it had been on hormones.

The black hair became long and hard, the muscles grew, the body swelled, and the eyes were dark.

Soon, the changes of the black wild dog stopped.

It has grown to a height of one meter and seven meters at the shoulders.

looks like a giant.

A black mist circulates on the body of the mutated black wild dog.

He turned his head and glanced at the dingo who bowed slightly and growled.

The wild dog was glanced at by the mutant wild dog, and suddenly whimpered, trying to escape with his tail clamped.

However, the mutant wild dog turned into a black shadow and appeared in front of the wild dog for an instant.

Its sharp giant claws patted it directly on the wild dog's head.

Boom!

The wild dog's brain splashed all over, and his limbs twitched and fell to the ground.

The three small gangsters outside the alley were all taken aback when they heard the sound coming from inside.

'what sound?'

The stout boy poked his head to see what was in the alley.

Just then, an afterimage flashed past and rushed out of the alley.

Before the three gangsters could see clearly, the sturdy gangster's body was slapped and flew out.

His body hit the wall five meters away, and cracks appeared on the wall.

The other two gangsters looked at the mutant wild dog that suddenly appeared, their eyes widened and dumbfounded.

'What the hell?!'

They screamed and ran away instinctively.

Lu Yuan didn't care about the three punks who suddenly appeared and left.

He actually thinks that the three gangsters are still very polite.

Except for the first one, the tone is not so good.

just borrowed fire, Lu Yuan didn't plan to do anything to them.

Just after they walked some distance, a scream suddenly came from behind them.

Lu Yuan was taken aback, turned around and looked back.

just saw two small gangsters running frantically outside a dim alley.

And a huge black dog is standing outside the alley.

The big dog is one meter and seven shoulders tall and looks terrifying.

Lu Yuan couldn't help being taken aback.

'A fierce beast?! How can a fierce beast sneak into the city?'

Lu Yuan was a little frightened, let alone the skinny woman beside Lu Yuan.

Seeing the giant dog, her legs softened and she almost collapsed to the ground.

Her voice was shrill with fear:

'What it is!?'

The giant dog felt Lu Yuan's gaze and turned to look at Lu Yuan.

It seemed to feel the threat of Lu Yuan~www.mtlnovel.com~ and gave up the two little ** who were closer to it, leaned down, grinning and let out a dull low growl.

Lu Yuan frowned, and said to the skinny woman:

'You go back a little bit.'

The skinny woman nodded repeatedly and ran back while holding the child.

On Lu Yuan's body, a battle armor appeared, and a beetle claw epee also appeared in his hand.

On his skin, a dark color appeared, and there were a few lines on his face.

The body of black iron revolves.

'Wow!!!'

The giant dog kicked its limbs on the ground and rushed towards the landing edge.

Lu Yuan stepped his legs on the ground, and greeted him with his sword.

Under the gaze of the two still alive punks and the skinny woman, one person and one dog collided together.

The heavy sword collided with the sharp giant claws, making a clanging sound.

Juli followed their feet into the ground.

A trace of cracks appeared on the ground where one person and one dog were.

The next moment, the giant dog roared, and the huge body measuring one meter tall leaped into the sky and hit a wall.

Boom!

This is not a hard alloy wall, just an ordinary stone wall.

This one hit a hole directly on the wall.

The two gangsters and the skinny woman both stared with shocked eyes.

One of the gangsters was hiding behind the corner, looking at the deep hole on the wall, and said in shock:

‘Is this the power of a genetic warrior? Is this still a human?!’

‘It’s no wonder that the genetic warrior has such a high status, and this power is too terrifying. Even such a big monster can fly at once!’

Lu Yuan rushed out again after knocking the giant dog away, and before the giant dog stood up, he pierced the giant dog with a sword.
