

Chapter 61: My Genes Evolve Ininitely

INHERITED

嗤!!

The heavy sword entered the body, the giant dog roared again and again, struggling on all fours.

The sharp claws landed on Lu Yuan's body, as if it had touched hard metal, and even sparks.

However, it was unable to cause any damage to Lu Yuan.

In the wound of the giant dog, the dark blood kept flowing out, like a small black fountain.

Lu Yuan frowned.

The blood color of this fierce beast looks a bit strange.

Just then, a sharp chirp sounded.

Lu Yuan saw a plume of dark mist emerging from the giant dog's body.

The fog became thicker and thicker, and finally turned into a group of black shadows and rushed out of the giant dog's body.

Lu Yuan saw the dark shadow, his pupils shrank, he retracted his epee back, and looked at the air vigilantly.

'It turned out to be this dark shadow?'

Lu Yuan originally thought that this was a fierce beast that sneaked into the city from the wilderness, but now it seems that it doesn't?

seems to have something to do with that dark shadow?

The black shadow in the air distorted and screamed, and finally turned into a cloud of black mist and collapsed.

After the black shadow left, the body of the giant dog turned into a ball of coke and spilled on the ground as if a flame had burned.

Lu Yuan looked around and confirmed that the dark shadow had disappeared before putting away the heavy sword.

He looked at the coke on the ground, and then at the black mist, his brows furrowed.

The dark shadow seemed to have entered the human body and caused sudden death, but I did not expect that there is a new trick now.

The strength of the giant dog just now is almost equivalent to a normal-level fierce beast with a tempering degree of 50%.

If this is caused by the dark shadow, it means that its ability may have been improved again.

Lu Yuan feels a bit uncomfortable.

Speaking of which, Pete, who was looking for the dark shadow news before, was because the black rat gang wanted to fight with the wild dogs, and there was no reply to Lu Yuan since then.

It's just that the two gangs have not gotten together these days.

After all, gang fire is not such a big thing, it will definitely spread in the slums.

Lu Yuan was wondering if he was deceived?

Why don't you find a chance to go to the black mouse gang to see?

He thought about the matter, then turned his head and looked around.

The two gangsters in the distance looked at the coke on the ground, some of them hadn't recovered, some were in a daze.

Lu Yuan didn't care about them, turned his head and looked behind him.

The thin woman was standing in the distance holding her baby.

Lu Yuan walked over, and the skinny woman walked over quickly:

'grown ups!'

She looks more restrained than before.

After all, although the skinny woman knew that Lu Yuan was a genetic warrior before, but Lu Yuan only dealt with two punks, how strong this skinny woman was.

Now that the skinny woman saw that Lu Yuan could defeat even such a big monster, she naturally became more nervous when facing Lu Yuan.

Lu Yuan smiled: 'Let's go.'

'Good, good!'

Lu Yuan left with the skinny woman.

Those two gangsters came back to their senses.

Mazi looked at Lu Yuan's back, and said:

'That genetic warrior is too powerful!'

'Yes, killing such a big monster is as simple as eating and drinking.'

'Right! Old man!'

The two gangsters thought of their companions.

They ran to the sturdy little  who was lying on the wall and checked.

They glanced at each other and shook their heads with pain.

'died.'

'Hey, take it home and have a good burial.'

Although the two are sad, they are not unacceptable.

Joining a gang means that you will fight with other gangs at any time, and death is commonplace.

I just didn't expect to die under the claws of monsters.

Lu Yuan walked along with the skinny woman.

On the street not far away, the roadside became bustling again.

Lu Yuan stopped.

‘I will send you here, the next road should not be dangerous.’

The skinny woman hugged the child and bends down deeply towards Lu Yuan:

‘Thank you, my lord, for taking me out, otherwise no one will know if our mother and son died on the street tonight.’

Lu Yuan shook his head: ‘With a little effort, well, you can go.’

The skinny woman nodded, turned and walked towards the bustling street.

Lu Yuan looked at the thin woman’s thin back, some weak footsteps, and the washed white clothes, rubbed his forehead, and said:

‘wait a moment.’

The skinny woman who had just walked a few steps was taken aback, then turned to look at Lu Yuan:

‘My lord, what’s the matter?’

Lu Yuan was silent, and sighed, ‘Do you have a mobile phone?’

The skinny woman nodded: ‘Yes.’

She hurriedly held the crying child who was asleep in one hand, and took out the phone from her trouser pocket in the other.

The screen of the phone is a bit broken, and I don’t know how many times I have dropped it.

‘Tell me your bank account number.’

The skinny woman was a little unclear, but she quickly told Lu Yuan of her bank account.

Lu Yuan operated on his mobile phone for a while, transferring 100,000 to the skinny woman.

The screen of the skinny woman’s broken cell phone lit up.

She glanced at the transfer record, her eyes widened, and she froze in place.

‘Big, my lord...you...‘

She watched the transfer of 100,000, and she was a little incoherent for a while, her pale face flushed.

‘Looking at you, you shouldn’t have much money with you, and you still have a child. I hope this money can help you through the difficulties. You don’t need to keep the money in your heart. This little money is nothing to me.‘

The thin woman opened her mouth, but made no sound.

Her eyes were red, and her tears kept streaming down.

Then she knelt down again:

‘My lord, thank you so much!’

This is not a street with almost no people in a slum area. There are people coming and going not far away. Seeing this scene, I can’t help but watch it curiously.

Lu Yuan twitched the corner of his mouth, and quickly pulled the skinny woman up.

He glanced at the sleeping child and smiled:

‘Go. I’m going back too.‘

The skinny woman cried and nodded, turned and left, gradually disappearing into the crowd.

Lu Yuan shook his head and turned back to the slum area.

To be honest, there are too many people living in slums that are unsatisfactory.

Lu Yuan can’t help one by one, but if you see it, please help if you can.

Especially when he saw the white clothes washed on the woman, Lu Yuan remembered his previous self.

She is even more difficult to live than herself.

Lu Yuan couldn’t help but smile:

‘Sister Qinghe helped me at the time, but now it’s my turn to help others. Is this a kind of inheritance?’

‘But...100,000.’

Lu Yuan’s face trembled.

Although he has several million in deposits, 100,000 yuan is still a pain for him.

After all, I was too poor before.

I’m so unlucky today, I have encountered so many things.

Fortunately, Lu Yuan didn’t encounter anything else along the way.

He returned to his home smoothly.

When I returned to the room, it was already eleven o’clock.

The light gate of the place of origin has shining again.

Luyuan can enter the place of origin again.

His consciousness entered the light gate, his vision went black, and he appeared again, already outside the previous residential area.

Because he was leaving the place of origin~www.mtlnovel.com~, he checked out early.

Out of the residential area, he only withdrew from the land of origin.

Lu Yuan glanced at the structure at the door, did not continue to stay here, and walked out of the city.

Although he still has 101 drops of Moonstone Essence that he has not absorbed yet, he has no plans to continue staying in Sandstone City.

After all, the ruins are already a few days ago in the place of origin.

After so long, everyone knows that Lu Yuan must have gone out once.

If you kill Lu Yuan again, you won’t get the last harvest.

The probability of hunters looking at him will be much smaller.

Moreover, he can absorb these 101 drops of Moonstone Essence in two days.

If nothing happens, he can increase his tempering degree to more than 90% in two days.

At that time, he will be equipped with his moonstone emblem, beetle claw epee and black iron body.

The only boss-level fierce beasts that can pose a fatal threat to him in the entire Sandstone City.

Even if he was targeted by a hunter, Lu Yuan didn't panic.

Maybe you can make a fortune against killing?

Hunters are generally very rich.

Lu Yuan remembered the cat trio last time.

They contributed a lot of spiritual crystal materials to Lu Yuan.

.....

When Luyuan entered the Origin Land, it was in a seemingly ordinary room in the slum.

Li Qinghe leaned back on the only leather sofa and raised his legs.

She held a cigarette between her fingers, inhaled, spit out the smoke, looked at the six people standing in front of her, and said lightly:

'Now that the shadow is getting stronger and the situation is getting worse, how is your investigation done?'
