

Chapter 74: My Genes Evolve Infinitely

PLAN, FIRELIGHT

Go into the land of origin and try to find the boss-level fierce beast.

Maybe one more kill will get a rough stone.

I'm lucky after all.

If it doesn't work, just go to the Battle.net Mall to check it out, maybe there are rough stones on it for sale.

Lu Yuan thought helplessly.

Only then did Lu Yuan realize that the sky outside the window had become a lot dim, and the street lights had been lit on the roadside.

He checked the time, it was already 6:24 in the evening.

Luyuan began to absorb the rough stone from 12 noon, and it took more than six hours.

Lingjing he only needs a few breaths to absorb it. One can imagine how difficult it is for the rough stone to absorb it.

But compared to other genetic warriors, Lu Yuan was still many times faster.

At night, Lu Yuan did not continue to absorb the remaining rough stone.

That dark shadow may appear at night.

He is not in the place of origin now. If he is addicted to absorbing rough stones, he will not be able to avoid it even if a dark shadow appears at that time. It is too dangerous.

I'll continue tomorrow.

Lu Yuan thought for a while and opened the battle.net.

He first went to the Battle.net mall to search for the information on the genetic rough stone.

is not for sale.

Lu Yuan is not surprised.

After all, the rough stone is too precious, no matter who it is, as long as it is a genetic warrior, it needs this thing, if there is one, it will definitely be robbed in the first place.

Even if most of the genetic warriors have excess rough stones, they will probably be auctioned at auction houses to get higher returns.

However, it will take more than ten days for the Sand Rock City Auction House to start, and it may not be there at that time. Lu Yuan can only consider hunting the boss fierce beast.

Although Lu Yuan hunted and killed the leader of the ancient sea giant crocodile, his family knew his own affairs, and his strength was still very different from the leader of the ancient sea giant crocodile.

was able to kill the leader of the ancient sea giant crocodile because of his luck. Another part was that the leader of the ancient sea giant crocodile was slow, which gave Lu Yuan a chance to kill it.

If you look for the boss of the fierce beast again, Lu Yuan prefers to look for the slower speed, preferably the leader of the fierce beast who is not too strong in defense.

If it is an elemental system, maybe it is better. After all, as long as he can survive the stage of the boss fierce beast using combat skills before exploding, when its spiritual power is exhausted, Lu Yuan has a chance.

Lu Yuan thought while clicking on the post on the sandstone city area in Battle.net.

He wanted to see if there was any news about the boss-level beasts.

Although most of the boss beasts were discovered by the elite and powerful in Sandstone City, they have their own circle and can team up to hunt them together, and they will not send information to the battle network.

Even if you want to send it, it will be sent after the hunt.

However, there may be bosses and beasts that ordinary soldiers inadvertently see, and they may post messages to sell their addresses for money.

Lu Yuan was finally disappointed.

He searched all the posts, but could not find any posts about the location of the boss.

can only go in and find it by himself.

Sand Rock City is so large, I don't know when to find it.

And he might not be able to hunt down the beast leader he found.

I was lucky to be able to meet the leader of the ancient sea giant crocodile last time.

Lu Yuan rubbed his forehead, feeling a little headache.

But this is something that can't be helped.

It's been a while since Wang Xiangxiang's tempering degree reached 100%, but it hasn't broken through yet.

It is conceivable that the difficulty of breaking through is not low.

Lu Yuan is already considering whether to cooperate with others at that time.

For example, Liu Xi's Tianfu Consortium is a good choice.

The Tianfu Consortium should also have its own elite fighters. If you form a team, it will be much easier to hunt down the boss monsters.

Lu Yuan thought for a while, still plan to try it for himself first, if it doesn't work, let's talk about it then.

Now let's increase my strength a little bit.

Lu Yuan took out the ring of torrents placed in the space of the war pattern, and absorbed the ring of torrents into his body with a thought.

Suddenly, Lu Yuan felt his spirit cool down and became more acute.

At the same time, his strength and defense have also been slightly improved.

Boss-level genetic armament has brought a lot of improvement to people.

The most important thing is that there is also a water arrow combat technique in the Ring of Torrent.

Land Fate is the power of water arrow warfare.

Even if he was hit from the front, he would be seriously injured.

This is also a hole card.

Strength increased again, and Lu Yuan showed a smile.

Soon, it was ten o'clock, and Lu Yuan entered the place of origin again.

In the forest of the ancient sea oasis, the body of the land edge emerges.

He looked around and moved towards the depths of the ancient sea oasis.

Want to find the boss beast, the core area of Guhai Oasis has a better chance.

After Luyuan entered the land of origin, the real world.

The deep night enveloped the city of Xili.

Other areas are brightly lit, with neon lights shining, like a city that never sleeps.

In the slum area, only the street lights on the side of the road flashed the lights at dusk, and the streets were sparsely people and extremely quiet.

The chain restaurants, canteens, and small supermarkets that open during the day in the slums are closed directly after nightfall, otherwise they will definitely be robbed by gangsters.

In the community, there are very few tenants with lights on.

For tenants living in slums, their incomes are low and life is very difficult. Even if it is only a small amount of electricity, they will not waste it.

What's more, most residents in slums can only do some physical work, and they are very tired after the end of the day. If they don't take a good rest, it will affect the work of the next day.

In a very ordinary community, two wild dogs grinned and snarled for half of the carrion on the side of the road.

At this moment, they seemed to feel something terrifying. They jumped up at the same time, looked around vigilantly, and then ignored the food on the ground, wailing and fleeing with their tails sandwiched between them.

At the same time, the bug that was still tweeting at this moment seemed to have been pressed the mute button and lost its voice.

The whole community fell into dead silence.

The central two-story building of a tall building in the community, under the moonlight, suddenly a wisp of black mist spilled out.

The surrounding air became one or two degrees lower.

In the black mist, a series of weird black shadows swim, like ghosts and charms.

All the tenants in these two floors are in their sleep, and a series of weird shadows merge into their bodies in their sleep.

Everyone made a low muffled sound, frowning, covering their chests, constantly twisting.

Even so, they still did not wake up.

At the same time, two dark shadows suddenly appeared at the gate of the community.

A tall and sturdy brown-haired man is Framing. At this moment, Framing is wearing heavy gray armor. He holds a huge shield high up to a person in his left hand and a one-handed hammer with spikes in his right hand. It looks very hideous.

The other is a slender, handsome, dark-haired young man.

The young man with black hair wears black leather armor and carries a big bow on his back.

The two of them looked at the black mist that spilled in the distance, their expressions extremely solemn.

Flaming has an ugly face:

‘This alien thing has grown to this point! This time we must follow the vine~www.mtnovel.com~ to find out the people behind the scenes!’

The black-haired young man said:

‘I’m fast, I’ll go there first, Daming, you inform the lord.’

Flaming glanced at the black-haired young man and nodded:

‘Ahong, be careful, for such a mysterious alienation phenomenon, the level of this alienation is definitely not low! Don’t be overcast.’

‘Don’t worry, I know it in my heart.’

The black-haired young man Lin Hong bent his feet and stepped on the ground, his body turned into an afterimage. In just an instant, he appeared on the top of a big tree a hundred meters away. In another instant, his body disappeared towards the tall building. Electric shot away.

Flaming quickly took out a black mobile phone and pressed a series of numbers.

Li Qinghe’s projection appeared in the air.

‘what happened?’

‘My lord, we found alienation here.’

said, he glanced at the black mist on the two floors, his face was ugly:

‘The scale is not small.’

Li Qinghe narrowed his eyes slightly, and said faintly:

‘address.’

‘Black Oak Street Mingzhi Community.’

‘almost there.’

‘Okay!! I’ll pass first...’

Boom!!!

Flaming hadn’t finished speaking, when there was a deafening roar, and the flames emerged.

Flaming’s face changed, and he quickly raised his head to look in the direction of the higher-ups.

At the two-story high-rise building where the black mist was surging before, at this moment, flames continued to spurt out.

The black fog before has dissipated invisible.

The high temperature, the flame, illuminating the somewhat ferocious face of Flaming.

‘Damn... Ahong!’

He hurried to the tall buildings.
