

Chapter 121 Family Outing

Before Shen Yu'an could respond to Su Meng's invitation, Kaikai immediately protested.

"Why bring him along? Isn't it good enough for you, me and Godma to go?"

He glared at Shen Yu'an through the rear mirror, and those eyes that looked just like Shen Yu'an's were filled with contempt.

Shen Yu'an looked away from the rear mirror and focused on driving, as if he hadn't heard anything the mother and son behind him had said.

Su Meng glanced at the cold faced Shen Yu'an in the rear mirror, then whispered into Kaikai's ears, "Let's get him to come along and help to carry things, ok?"

Kaikai thought about how his mother always had to carry a large bag full of all the things they would need during the trip every time they went out. His mother would always be so tired from carrying the bag that her shoulder would always ache and swell up. He looked at the much larger sized Shen Yu'an and accepted Su Meng's

So just like Su Meng, he whispered into her ear, "Ok, he can come along and carry stuff for us, then Mama doesn't have to suffer."

Su Meng was so touched by Kaikai's sweet words, she patted his head and complimented him, "Oh my, my son is the most filial!"

Su Yankai broke into a smile after being complimented. He didn't have that grown up air around him now, but had the childish air that a five year old should have.

Since that man was still of some use to him, Su Yankai decided it was fine to bring him along to play.

Su Meng leaned forward to ask Shen Yu'an again, "Mr Shen, are you free over the weekend to accompany us to the amusement park?"

Shen Yu'an glanced at Kaikai in the mirror, who was already checking up the amusement park on his phone, and saw that Kaikai didn't look unhappy at all, so he nodded and said, “Sure, I’m free this weekend.”

Chapter 121 Family Outing

He had agreed to work overtime with the company’s technical team before he knocked off, but they could settle this themselves.

He had trained those programmers for so long already, so they should know what to do by now and shouldn’t always need the boss to be around.

Su Yankai tugged at Su Meng excitedly with his phone in hand and pointed to the various rides on the screen, “Mama, these rides at this amusement park look fun. This one, this one, and this one, I want to go for these!”

Su Meng looked at the ride names – Flying Over the Horizon, Thunder Mountain Splash, and other exciting sounding names – and couldn’t help but remind her son, “Kaikai, your mother is afraid of heights.”

Su Yankai pouted and said disappointedly, “Then I’ll get Godma to play with me.”

Chapter 121 Family Outing

Su Meng awkwardly said, "Have you forgotten? Your Godma is even more afraid of heights than I am."

Some time back they had gone on a roller coaster together. She had only felt weak in her legs after the ride, but Yuan Xinlei had been so frightened she vomited.

Su Yankai pulled a face and looked especially disappointed. "Does that mean I can't go for these rides then?"

"I could go with you."

They happened to reach a red light, so Shen Yu'an turned around and said this.

Su Meng did want the father and son to have more interaction with each other, so she threw in a good word for Shen Yu'an, "That's right, Mr Shen is coming along with us tomorrow and he can go with you on these rides. Babe, what do you think?"

Su Yankai looked at the ride write up on the phone screen, then looked at the man in front of him who looked almost like himself but much larger and hesitated for a few seconds before finally reluctantly saying, "Then we can only go with that."

But after he continued talking about the rides he wanted to ride the next day with Su Meng, he slowly couldn't stop himself from looking at all those rides with exciting names.

The mother and son talked about it all the way home, and when they alighted, Su Meng waved her phone at Shen Yu'an from outside the car, "I'll call you tonight once we've confirmed the timing for tomorrow then."

Shen Yu'an nodded and watched as the mother and son walked into the block where they stayed, as he excitedly put out a V sign for victory in the car.

Chapter 122 Paparazzi

After they got home, Su Meng went to the kitchen to cook and took this chance to call Yuan Xinlei.

The phone rang for a long time before it was picked up. Yuan Xinlei sounded quite tired over the phone, "Hello? Mengmeng? What's up?"

Su Meng found this a little strange. "Why is your voice so weak? Are you sick?"

Yuan Xinlei coughed on the other side of the phone and her voice remained low. "Yeah, I've caught a cold."

When she heard that Yuan Xinlei had caught a cold, Su Meng felt bad about asking her to go out with them the next day, so she showed concerned instead, "Then you have to remember to see a doctor, ok? Or you want me to go over now and bring you to see a doctor?"

"Oh no no, it's just a cold. You still have to take care of my godson," Yuan Xinlei immediately refused her offer.

Su Meng nagged a little at Yuan Xinlei

Chapter 122 Paparazzi

before finally hanging up the phone.

She went out to find Kaikai excitedly scribbling his plan for the next day and said, "Babe, your Godma is sick, so she can't go to the amusement park with us tomorrow."

Kaikai was a little disappointed, but sensibly showed concern toward Yuan Xinlei. "Let's visit Godma after we come back from the amusement park tomorrow then."

Su Meng didn't feel good about leaving Yuan Xinlei all by herself either, so she nodded, "Ok."

That night she discussed the timing for the next day with Su Yankai, then texted Shen Yu'an once they had arranged everything.

Shen Yu'an was extremely excited since this was the first time he was going out to play with his own son. He lay on the bed but couldn't fall asleep, and finally felt sleepy after coding for more than an hour.

The next day at 6am, Shen Yu'an appeared punctually at Su Meng's block.

Both mother and son yawned several times as they made their way downstairs. Su Meng was going to put the bag she had packed the night before into the trunk when she realized the trunk was already filled with things.

There was a first aid box filled with all sorts of medication, many boxes of mineral water, and several boxes of tidbits.

Su Meng was so shocked by this she immediately woke up. She pointed at the things and looked at Shen Yu'an, "When did you prepare all these things?"

Shen Yu'an's expression didn't even change. "I prepared them last night. Take a look and tell me if anything's missing, we're still early and we still have time to get more things."

After reaching home the night before, he had gone online to check on what was needed for an outing like this, and sent his secretary out to buy everything once he had formed a shopping list.

Chapter 122 Paparazzi

The secretary had gone one round around the entire city before he had gotten everything on the list.

Su Meng shook her head vigorously. "Enough, enough, all these things are enough."

The things in trunk weren't just enough for them to go to the amusement park to play. They were probably even enough for them to go camping in the next province.

When she thought about the Florida water and the few bottles of mineral water in her own bag, she suddenly felt pathetic.

Shen Yu'an was really a rich man indeed!

When Shen Yu'an heard her response, he decided that he had to give his secretary a bonus when Monday rolled around.

Kaikai was getting impatient in the car and wound down the window to wave at them and hurry them into the car. "Mama, are you done putting the things down? Hurry up, otherwise there'll be a long queue at the entrance of the amusement park."

Chapter 122 Paparazzi

Su Meng put her small bag into the trunk, then got into the back of the car.

Shen Yu'an was just like a driver, and you couldn't tell he was the richest man in the country at all as he quietly got into the driver's seat.

The Land Rover slowly drove out of the estate, and a grey Buick followed closely behind them.

There were two excited men inside the Buick. "Can't believe that woman was right! If we get a scoop after following Shen Yu'an today, we're going to strike it big!"

Chapter 123 Thank You Papa

Inside the Land Rover, Shen Yu'an pulled out a heated lunchbox from somewhere in the car and passed it to Su Meng. "It's very early and I doubt you two had the time to eat breakfast. I got one of my house maids to prepare this."

Su Meng had no idea what button he pressed, but two boards slid out from the car and created a simple dining table over Su Meng's seat.

The breakfast in the heated lunchbox was not bad. The upper layer had generously filled egg dumplings and buns, while the lower layer was filled with a fragrant and tasty pork porridge.

Shen Yu'an even pulled out a plate of peeled lychees and bright red cherries from the fridge.

Su Meng wanted to say that Shen Yu'an had bothered too many people just to prepare everything, but when faced with the food on the table, she couldn't get a single word out.

She looked a little touched as she looked

Chapter 123 Thank You Papa

at Shen Yu'an, "You've been very thoughtful."

Su Yankai rarely took the initiative to speak to Shen Yu'an, but he said, "Thank you Papa."

These words were like a bolt of lightning and shocked the two adults in the car silly.

Su Meng was taking a mouthful of porridge and was so taken aback that the porridge went into her windpipe, and she was coughing nonstop while clutching her chest.

Shen Yu'an froze for several seconds when he heard the words 'Papa', and didn't know how to react at all.

He thought that he might have to wait at least half a year or more to hear Yankai call him 'Papa', judging from how much Yankai kept his distance from him.

He hadn't thought that just one breakfast was all it took for Yankai to call him Papa on his own.

Chapter 123 Thank You Papa

He felt both excited and bad for his son at the same time. He felt that this child was too easy to please – so it looked like he hadn't been living that well with Su Meng after all, and he had to make it up to him in the future.

After being stunned for a while, he snapped out of it when he heard Su Meng's violent coughing. At the same time, he also figured that Su Meng must have worked hard to make Yankai accept him as his father so quickly.

He pulled out a handkerchief and passed it to Su Meng, "Use it to wipe your tears."

Su Meng was surprised that such a cold looking man like Shen Yu'an actually carried a handkerchief on him.

The handkerchief was a dark blue checkered design but made from silk, so it was as soft as water, and completely different from Shen Yu'an's personality.

She hesitated for a while before taking the handkerchief to wipe the tears spilling out from the corner of her eyes.

Chapter 123 Thank You Papa

The handkerchief seemed to be something that Shen Yu'an always carried with him. It had a warmth that belonged to Shen Yu'an, and a faint cypress fragrance.

The cypress fragrance did match Shen Yu'an's cold sort of aura.

Su Yankai looked worriedly at Su Meng, who had coughed so hard that her whole face was red. "Mama, did I say it wrongly?"

Yankai's question dragged Su Meng's subconscious back all the way to the present. She clutched that extremely soft handkerchief and shook her head.

Yesterday she had just explained to Yankai that children were born as a result of their parents being in love, so she couldn't suddenly lie and change what she had told him before.

But when she heard Kaikai call Shen Yu'an 'Papa' and call her 'Mama', it was as if the three of them were a family. She couldn't stop her ears from turning red, "You didn't say it wrongly. Mr Shen is indeed your Papa."

Chapter 123 Thank You Papa

After she had said these embarrassing words, she bent down and continued looking at her porridge, as if there was some delightfully delicious item inside, and didn't dare to look at Shen Yu'an's face.

Shen Yu'an also felt something strange in his heart. He did want to acknowledge his son, but he had never thought of becoming husband and wife with Su Meng.

Besides, Su Meng didn't even want to be husband and wife with him on paper.

But he couldn't help but smile when he saw how ridiculously red Su Meng's ears had become.

Chapter 124 Separating Angrily

It was very early in the morning, so there wasn't much traffic. It didn't take them long to reach the entrance of the amusement park.

It was the weekend, so even though it was barely 7am, the entrance was already packed with people.

Su Meng carried Kaikai out of the car and exclaimed when she saw the people, "Why are there so many people?!"

The next thing she knew, she felt stares from all directions and all her hair stood on end as goose pimples covered her back.

She looked at the luxury car behind her and the bodyguards that stood out from among the crowd and knew whose fault this was.

A luxury car and more than a dozen bodyguards in the crowd was way too eye catching. One look and you'd know that either some wealthy person was here or some celebrity had arrived.

She couldn't stand the stares of the people, so she carried Kaikai and hid behind Shen Yu'an and whispered, "Your bodyguards are too obvious, so you'd better tell them to leave. Otherwise someone is definitely going to recognize you and you can forget about having fun today."

Shen Yu'an was already prepared for this. He took a black face mask and black cap from the bodyguard and put one set on, then passed the same things to Su Meng.

With the mask and cap on, most of his face was covered and it was impossible to tell who he was.

"You guys should wear these too."

Su Meng felt that wearing these things would make it even more obvious. She held onto the mask and cap without wearing them and continued to try persuading him, "Your bodyguards are attracting a lot of attention!"

Shen Yu'an waved his hand and looked fairly domineering as he said, "You can just pretend they're normal visitors to the amusement park, don't be too bothered by them. You guys should wear the cap and mask too."

There were so many people at the amusement park and his son was so tiny. He didn't know what he would do if he really lost his son in this crowd.

Bringing bodyguards along was a popular suggestion he found when he was looking through things to look out for when bringing children out to play.

Otherwise he didn't fancy bringing so many bodyguards with him either.

But this woman didn't understand this thoughtful and caring action of his.

Su Meng wordlessly looked at the black mask and cap in her hands and suddenly regretted inviting Shen Yu'an along to the amusement park.

Why had she been so stupid and hoped to foster a father and son bond between him and Kaikai?

Chapter 124 Separating Angrily

She had come to the amusement park to have fun, but now there were so many bodyguards and she even had to wear a mask and a cap. It was really tough to be a rich person!

This was really not for her!

She threw the mask and cap back at Shen Yu'an and carried Kaikai quickly towards the crowd. "Forget it, we'll go separate ways."

There were a lot of people at the entrance, so the two of them disappeared into the crowd in a blink of an eye right in front of Shen Yu'an.

Shen Yu'an frowned slightly and put his hands on his waist and spun around in frustration. "Why doesn't this woman understand!"

The bodyguard behind him came up, "Sir, do you need us to look for Madam and Young Master?"

Shen Yu'an waved his hands, the eyes above the mask looking extremely cold.

Chapter 124 Separating Angrily

“Go look behind the ticketing queue.”

Su Meng had carried Kaikai into the crowd and started making her way towards the ticketing counter.

Kaikai asked her in confusion, “Mama, we’re not playing with that man?”

Su Meng replied in a cross voice, “Your father is being too difficult. He has bodyguards and all these masks and caps, we might as well play by ourselves.”

Kaikai saw that Su Meng was angry, so he went along with her, “Ok, whatever Mama says.”

But just Su Meng had lined up to buy tickets, he used Su Meng’s phone to text Shen Yu’an: We’re at ticketing counter 3.

This Papa was too useless and only knew how to make Mama angry. He didn’t know how to pacify his wife, and now his son had to help him out.

So five minutes later, when a Shen Yu’an in a mask and sunglasses appeared in front of Su Meng, she thought she was hallucinating from the heat of the sun.

Chapter 124 Separating Angrily

Chapter 125 Special Service

Shen Yu'an looked at how both mother and son were all red faced from being burnt by the sun and felt both angry and bad for them. He didn't think too much about whether Yankai would reject him or not.

He stretched his long arms out and pulled Yankai into his arms. "Why did you run off like that?"

Su Meng suddenly realized her arms were empty and a weight had been lifted off her. She looked at the furious looking Shen Yu'an in front of her and was a bit stunned. "What are you doing here?"

Shen Yu'an was so angry he laughed. "If I'm not here, then where would I be?"

He looked at the queue that seemed never-ending and scoffed. "And how long do you intend to carry my son in the heat and queue for a ticket?"

Su Meng looked at how red Kaikai's face had become and felt a little guilty. But when she thought about those grim faced bodyguards that followed behind Shen Yu'an, her voice hardened again.

Chapter 125 Special Service

“Better than being stared at by your bodyguards like we’re monkeys in a zoo!”

Shen Yu’an couldn’t be bothered to waste time talking to Su Meng, so he carried Yankai in his arms and walked off.

Su Meng anxiously ran after him in fright, “Where are you bringing Kaikai to?”

Shen Yu’an was much taller than Su Meng, his legs were very long and he was taking large strides from being angry, so it only took a few steps for him to create quite a distance between himself and Su Meng.

When Kaikai saw that Su Meng was going to be swallowed up by the crowd, he anxiously patted Shen Yu’an’s shoulder, “Walk slower! Mama can’t catch up!”

Shen Yu’an was still fairly cooperative when it came to his son, so he slowed down.

Kaikai saw Su Meng barely managing to pass through the crowd to get to them and immediately felt bad for her. He scrunched his face up and glared at Shen Yu’an,

Chapter 125 Special Service

“Papa, you’re a gentleman, so you have to be gentler towards Mama and take care of her, otherwise, how long is it going to take Mama to forgive you?”

This was the first time Shen Yu’an was so close to his own son. He just felt that his son was so small and so soft, and made him so curious about his son. Even his son’s berating sounded adorable to him.

When he heard his own five year old son use the word ‘gentleman’, he became curious. His eyes were filled with gentleness as he poked fun at Yankai, “Then are you a gentleman?”

Yankai straightened up and became half a head taller than Shen Yu’an as he sat on Shen Yu’an’s arm. He turned his nose up slightly and said with some arrogance, “Of course, I’m a gentleman. I’ve helped Mama a lot, for example, I was helping Mama to look for a boyf...”

Su Meng finally managed to push through the crowd and grabbed Shen Yu’an’s arm and effectively cut Kaikai off. “Shen Yu’an, where are you bringing my son to?”

Chapter 125 Special Service

Yankai also suddenly realized what he was about to let slip earlier after being cut off. He quickly covered his mouth and buried himself back into Shen Yu'an's arms.

Papa and Mama were on their way to reconciliation, so if Papa knew that he had tried to introduce a boyfriend to Mama, then the two of them were sure to quarrel!

So he had to guard this secret very carefully.

Shen Yu'an watched his son nestle in his arms like a little silkworm in its cocoon, so even though they were both perspiring from the heat, he felt so sweet and warm inside that all the anger he had from Su Meng running off without him disappeared and he even felt happy now.

So he could now answer Su Meng's questioning calmly. "Didn't you two want to go to the amusement park to play? Let's get tickets then!"

"But the ticketing counter is over there. If you don't buy tickets from there, then where else are you going to get tickets from?" Su Meng couldn't help but ask when she saw Shen Yu'an walking in the opposite direction from the ticketing counter.

Chapter 125 Special Service

Shen Yu'an's voice remained calm as he continued walking while carrying Yankai, but this time he walked a lot more slowly. "Come along."

Su Meng thought about how Su Yankai was still being carried by Shen Yu'an and went along after clenching her teeth.

Shen Yu'an led the way with a dozen bodyguards behind them. The whole party went through a small door and reached a wide and quiet hall.

A staff member led them into a small meeting room and handed a catalog of all the rides in the amusement park to them. "You can choose all the rides you wish to take from this catalog."

Su Meng looked at the catalog and was a little stunned. Was this a special VIP service reserved for only the very rich?

Chapter 126 Choosing Rides

Su Meng was still stunned as she thought about how everyone else was squeezing outside at the ticketing booth, then compared it to how they were now seated in a nice room with air conditioning and a staff member allowing them to pick any rides they wanted from a catalog.

She weakly said, "Aren't we supposed to get tickets first?"

Shen Yu'an took off his mask and cap as he calmly glanced at her. But he didn't answer her question and hurried her instead, "Choose the rides you guys want."

Su Yankai was very excited when he saw the catalog. He sat in Shen Yu'an's lap and took out the schedule he made the day before from his bag and bent over to choose the rides very seriously.

The staff member by the side smiled and gently replied Su Meng, "Miss, the entrance fees will be calculated together with the ride fees, so don't worry about it."

Su Meng didn't stupidly ask about how much the ride fees would be. Compared to the entrance fees, the ride fees would definitely be some astronomical figure, so she wasn't going to make herself look dumb.

Chapter 126 Choosing Rides

So she bent her head and started selecting the rides with Kaikai.

The two of them were done in less than five minutes.

The staff member flipped through the catalog and confirmed all the rides selected with Su Meng, then gently reminded her, "Madam, most visitors can play 12 to 15 rides in a day, but I see that you've chosen a little fewer than 10, so you might end quite early today."

Su Meng was a little confused. "I checked online and everyone says that because of the long queues to wait for the ride, even 10 rides in a day is fairly ambitious. I've also allocated time for lunch, that's why I've only chosen these."

"Madam, you're a VIP guest of our amusement park, so you can use our VIP pass and you don't need to queue. That's why I've suggested that you choose more rides."

Chapter 126 Choosing Rides

When he heard this, Kaikai was so excited his face was all red. "Then I'm going to continue choosing more rides!"

Shen Yu'an gleefully smiled when he saw the conflicted expression on Su Meng's face. "Now you know how much time you'll save when you come along with me, right?"

But at least this woman wasn't that stupid. She knew how to text him even after walking off.

Su Meng wrinkled her nose and regretted inviting Shen Yu'an along again, but she held it in and continued choosing rides with Yankai.

She had even specially chosen exciting rides like the house of horrors and the pirate ship to make Shen Yu'an embarrass himself, thinking that she definitely had to make him embarrass himself.

After all the rides had been selected, the staff member brought them straight into the park, but when they reached the gantry, Su Meng saw the bodyguards that continued to follow them and reached a hand out to stop Shen Yu'an.

Chapter 126 Choosing Rides

She looked at him without any expression. "Yankai and I just want to have fun and we don't want to be watched over like monkeys, don't bring these bodyguards along."

Shen Yu'an impatiently replied, "I'm bringing them along for Yankai's safety. Why are you so hung up on this?"

Su Meng tried to argue with him, "Even without bodyguards, I will keep an eye on Yankai and I will not lose him. We're here to have fun, but your bodyguards attract too much attention and I don't like being watched by so many people."

Shen Yu'an snapped back, "Then you don't go, I'll go with Yankai."

He was used to being the boss and didn't like having to repeat himself. This response made Su Meng's face freeze over and she was really angry now.

Chapter 126 Choosing Rides

She laughed coldly, “You ask Yankai then, is he willing to follow you in without me around?”

Shen Yu’an immediately looked at Yankai, who was holding his hand. “Son, you’ll follow Papa around the park, right?”

Su Yankai couldn’t really understand why his parents were quarrelling over these bodyguards again.

He sighed like a tiny adult, “Papa, why don’t you tell these bodyguards to wait here, then arrange for two staff members to accompany me?”

It was actually a very simple matter, and they both just had to take one step back. But now both Shen Yu’an and Su Meng had lost the level of reasoning they usually had at work, and it felt more like they were both just trying to go against each other for no good reason.

The staff member by their side cut in at this point, “CEO Shen, our park can arrange for two staff members to accompany this young man here for the day.”

Su Meng and Shen Yu’an both exchanged glances and scoffed. They both agreed to compromise and reluctantly accepted this proposal.

The family of three finally went into the amusement park with three staff members.

Chapter 127 Bullying Shen Yu'an

After entering the park, Su Meng held onto Kaikai without letting go, as if to prove that she meant it when she said she would keep an eye on Kaikai.

Shen Yu'an saw that Yankai was equally upset that he was constantly being held onto by Su Meng, and felt that Su Meng had cut off this rare chance that he had gotten to interact with his son.

He stuffed both hands in his pockets, and even though the mask covered most of his face, his entire body was shouting how unhappy he was.

The three of them were one party, but they were constantly a few arms length apart, as if they didn't know each other.

Su Yankai couldn't resist turning back to look at Shen Yu'an even though Su Meng was holding onto this hand.

Shen Yu'an noticed it and smiled back.

Then he remembered that his son couldn't see him smiling through this cap and mask.

Chapter 127 Bullying Shen Yu'an

So he chose to wave.

Su Yankai then turned to look at Su Meng huffing away beside him and sighed helplessly.

He really couldn't figure out these two adults.

Mama said she liked Papa, but why was she always angry with him?

And this Papa was also useless. Why didn't he know how to pacify Mama?

Su Yankai figured he still had to help them out.

Something came to mind as he tugged on Su Meng's hand, "Mama, I want to play bumper cars."

Su Meng didn't mind, and Shen Yu'an had no opinions, obviously. So they walked over to the bumper car area.

The bumper car area was extremely empty, and there was nobody else besides the three of them.

Chapter 127 Bullying Shen Yu'an

Shen Yu'an finally had the chance to remove his cap and mask.

Su Yankai was too young to take a car of his own and had to be accompanied by an adult, so naturally he was accompanied by Su Meng.

The two of them were very small sized, so even after they both got into the bumper car, there was still plenty of space.

But Shen Yu'an was tall and had very long legs, so he looked fairly pitiful being squashed into the tiny bumper car.

Su Yankai immediately pointed at him and laughed when he saw Shen Yu'an's pitiful state. "Mama, look at Papa, he looks like he's stuck inside a tortoise shell, hahaha!"

In fact, the bumper car area was lower in the middle and higher on the sides and was purposely designed to resemble a cartoonish look. Upon closer look, it did look like an overturned tortoise shell.

Shen Yu'an couldn't even move at all inside the car, making him look especially hilarious.

After hearing the childish words of Su Yankai, everyone present wanted to laugh, but they couldn't because Shen Yu'an was their boss today and they were all red in the face from trying to suppress their laughter.

Su Meng on the other hand, purposely laughed very loudly and gleefully, and her laughter echoed nonstop, causing Shen Yu'an's face to darken.

When Su Meng noticed how Shen Yu'an's face had darkened from his suffering, she laughed even harder.

Shen Yu'an was the CEO of a huge company, so his staff feared him and other people revered him, and it had been a long time since he embarrassed himself. Worse still, it was in front of his son, who had just started warming up to him.

He kept an angry face on as he spun the steering wheel and rammed right into Su Meng's car without warning.

This sudden attack nearly knocked Su Meng and her son out of the car.

Su Meng's laughter instantly turned into a scream.

But Su Yankai didn't get a shock at all, and instead he kept pestering Su Meng to ram him back, "Mama, let's ram into Papa's car too. It's two against one, so we can't lose!"

Su Meng clenched her teeth and said, "Alright! Watch me do him in!"

She held Su Yankai's hands, and four hands gripped the steering wheel as they made their way towards Shen Yu'an's car.

Shen Yu'an didn't take care of how much strength he used earlier and got a fright himself when he saw how he nearly threw the two of them out of their car with that knock.

He was afraid of hurting Su Yankai and so when faced with Su Meng and Su Yankai's oncoming fierce attack, he looked like he had been put in a spot.

Chapter 127 Bullying Shen Yu'an

But then when he saw the excited smile on Su Yankai and heard the happy laughter of the mother and son in the other car, his heart relaxed and his lips couldn't stop themselves from curling upwards.

As for Su Meng, when she thought about how she could use this bumper car to ram the CEO of Solare Technologies silly and he couldn't defend himself, the sense of achievement in her heart welled up and there was a constant smile on her face.

Even the staff members watching from outside the area couldn't help but smile and laugh along.

Chapter 128 Watching a Joke

After coming out from the bumper car area, Su Yankai used one hand to hold Su Meng's hand, and the other to hold Shen Yu'an's hand, jumping up and down between them.

Su Meng no longer had that terse look on her face, and even though she still didn't want to talk to Shen Yu'an, the air between the two of them wasn't as stiff as when they first walked into the park.

She saw how Su Yankai was sweating so much, so she reached into her pocket to get some tissue, but a soft handkerchief came out instead.

That was the handkerchief Shen Yu'an passed to her so that she could wipe her face.

When she thought about how Shen Yu'an had been gentle and thoughtful, Su Meng's heart softened.

Then she thought about how she had hoped to help Shen Yu'an and Kaikai form a stronger father and son bond through this outing. Since the whole issue with the bodyguards had been settled, she didn't have to harp on these small details anymore.

She squatted down to wipe away Su Yankai's perspiration, and Shen Yu'an also stopped walking.

Su Meng suddenly looked up and asked him, "What are we playing next?"

Her eyes were already large and black and round, so when she looked up at Shen Yu'an, her eyes looked even bigger and more alert than usual, and he could see everything down her shirt clearly.

Shen Yu'an shifted his gaze away unnaturally and even the sunglasses on his face couldn't hide his discomfort. He replied calmly, "I'm alright with anything, you two can decide."

Su Yankai thought his father was still shy, so he decided to pull out his trump card. "Let's go to the pirate ship together then!"

The moment she heard which ride it was, the acrophobic Su Meng immediately shook her head violently. "I'm afraid of heights, I think you can go on the ship with your Papa."

Su Yankai refused to give up and whined as he tugged at Su Meng's arm. "Mama, go with us~~~ Wasn't it fun when three of us played together just now? Let's go together~~togetherrrrr~~"

Shen Yu'an, as a first time dad, had no defenses against Su Yankai's coy whining, so he helped his son out.

But his method of persuasion was a bit tougher, "The pirate ship reaches a maximum of 30 feet, so that's only about three stories high. You live on the fifth floor and your office is on the twelfth floor, but you're afraid of this height?"

Su Meng looked over at the ride, where there was plenty of screaming and cheering, and started feeling persuaded. She replied hesitantly, "I'll give it a go then."

This was a popular ride and there were a lot of people lining up for it.

Chapter 128 Watching a Joke

When Su Meng saw how many people there were and how they were going to cut the queue, she felt uncomfortable and stopped walking.

Shen Yu'an noticed the change in her behavior and how she was biting her lips and looking at the crowd hesitantly, and guessed what she was thinking about immediately.

He coldly reminded her, "I bought VIP tickets, so of course I'm going to get VIP service."

When Su Meng heard this, she straightened her thoughts out.

These words also motivated her to continue to work harder.

Evidently, wealthy people could live however they wanted. It sounded just like something she had read online before – the life of the wealthy was more comfortable and relaxing than you could ever imagine.

The staff members brought them through the special passageway and they reached the pirate ship platform.

The visitors on the previous ride weren't done yet and were still swinging wildly in the boat.

The screams and shouts were even clearer and louder now, and Su Meng could clearly see the terror in some of the visitors' eyes.

The screaming made her feel weak in the knees. She squeezed Kaikai's hand, "Babe, maybe Mama will give this one a miss..."

But the screaming was too loud and Su Yankai couldn't hear what she said at all. He looked at Su Meng in confusion and asked very loudly, "Mama, what did you say?"

Many people looked over, and there were a few other children in line as well. As an adult, Su Meng felt too embarrassed to say that she didn't dare to take the ride.

Her mouth froze and she waved her hands, "Nothing, nothing."

Chapter 128 Watching a Joke

Shen Yu'an saw through her frozen smile and her averting eyes. He thought to himself – Su Meng was usually a tough cookie in front of him, but she was actually so afraid of heights that she didn't even dare to take a pirate ship ride.

After thinking about how Su Meng had been so uncompromising several times throughout the day, he began to feel rather excited about being able to laugh at her later.

This was also a good opportunity to show how manly he was in front of his son. He was going to make his son understand that it was more fun for a boy to hang out with his father.

And if Kaikai took the initiative to follow him home after spending more time with him, that would be best...

Chapter 129 Accidentally Holding Hands

As the ship swung less and less, the screaming and shouting of the people onboard grew quieter and quieter, and finally the ride came to an end.

The people on the ship came down with faces filled with excitement, and the next batch included Su Meng and family.

Su Meng's palm was sweating from her nervousness. After Su Yankai and his father got in, she got in beside Su Yankai with a stiff expression on her face.

On her seat, she could feel how her heart was beating like there was a little deer dancing inside, and her entire body was extremely stiff.

Suddenly Su Yankai yelped and clutched his stomach as he writhed on his seat, "Mama, my stomach hurts."

Su Yankai's yelping caught the attention of everyone on the ship as well as the staff members.

Su Meng forgot about her nervousness and anxiously hugged her son as she asked, “Babe, which part of your stomach hurts?”

As a first time father going out with his son for the first time and running into a situation like that, Shen Yu’an had also lost the usual logical and calm demeanor he normally had.

He stood up and yelled at the staff members, “Where’s the doctor in the park for emergency cases? Call him over now!”

A staff member quickly ran out to get the doctor.

He figured the park doctor wasn’t going to be some amazing doctor either, so he pulled his phone out to give a call to his family’s private doctor.

When Su Yankai heard that his father was actually going to call the hospital, he quickly said, “Papa, don’t call the hospital. I just have a tummyache and I need the toilet.”

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief when they heard this.

Chapter 129 Accidentally Holding Hands

After Su Meng breathed a sigh of relief, she was actually secretly excited. She picked up Su Yankai's hand and got ready to get out of the ship. "Ok babe, Mama will bring you to the washroom then."

Her son had a stomachache at just the right time. She could take this chance to avoid taking this ride.

Shen Yu'an was also worried and got up to leave the ship.

But then Su Yankai was a real daredevil. He jumped down from his own seat, clambered onto the platform and held onto the clothes of one of the staff members.

He did these series of actions so quickly, Su Meng and Shen Yu'an didn't get the chance to stop him at all.

After he got off the ship, Su Yankai waved at his parents and smiled obediently, "Papa, Mama, this lady here will bring me to the washroom, you two can go ahead and have fun."

Then he dragged the staff member away

with him.

The staff member operating the ride itself had no idea who Shen Yu'an really was and thought that this family were ordinary park visitors. Seeing that Su Meng and Shen Yu'an were still standing at their seats, he shouted, "Can the two guests at the end of the ship please sit down, we're going to start the ride soon."

The rest of the visitors on the ship also hurried the operator, "Hurry up and start the ride!"

Su Meng had no choice but to sit together with Shen Yu'an.

The two of them were in the same row, but there was enough space between the two of them for a third person.

Initially Su Meng was annoyed that she had to take this ride with Shen Yu'an, but once the safety bar came down, she was so nervous she felt difficulty in breathing.

The ride started slowly, and it swung at a very low angle, so Su Meng could still take it.

Chapter 129 Accidentally Holding Hands

But after a couple more swings, the angle became wider and wider.

Su Meng was seated at the tail end, which was the seat where the ship swung at the widest angle. When the ship went up, she felt as if she was going to fly out and she started screaming in panic.

Her two hands started flailing as they tried to reach for the handle in front, but she was too nervous and ended up grabbing Shen Yu'an's arm instead.

Shen Yu'an knew that Su Meng was terrified of heights and would be even more terrified on this ride, and he had happily taken the ride with her in hope of getting to laugh at her.

But when the ride really started, the screaming beside him grew louder and more frantic, and he felt that taking this ride was actually a torture because his eardrums were going to burst from this woman's screaming.

Chapter 129 Accidentally Holding Hands

When Su Meng's hand suddenly grabbed him, he got a shock and he turned to look at her.

The ship was coming down and Su Meng didn't feel like she was going to fall anymore and noticed Shen Yu'an looking at her. Her mouth opened to say something when the ship went up again and she couldn't do anything else but start screaming again.

"AHHHHHH!! MAMA!!!!!!"

When he heard this 'Mama' from her, Shen Yu'an grabbed her hand...

Su Meng thought Shen Yu'an was going to push her hand aside and started crying from her fear, "No no no....AHHHH!!"

Chapter 130 I Don't Want A Present from You

Shen Yu'an calmly held onto her hand and placed it on the handlebar, and didn't let go of her hand.

Perhaps it was because the man next to her had a very calm expression, or perhaps because he was holding her hand very confidently, but Su Meng actually felt less nervous than before.

They continued holding hands until the ride stopped.

Shen Yu'an let go of Su Meng's hand and saw that Su Meng didn't get up even though the safety bar had gone up. He thought she had been scared silly and reached out to carry her, but ended up shocking her.

Su Meng grabbed his hand and looked at him with her teary and round eyes, "What are you trying to do?"

Shen Yu'an's voice came through the mask, "What do you think I'm trying to do? I'm afraid that your legs have gone weak from fear and can't walk, so I was going to carry you off the ride."

Chapter 130 I Don't Want A Present from You

Su Meng glared at him and managed to get up. "You're the one whose legs have gone weak!"

Shen Yu'an stuck his hand out as if to say 'this way please'.

Su Meng lifted a leg to get off the ride, but her knees suddenly gave way and she nearly fell right out of the ride.

Just when she thought she was really going to die this time and closed her eyes in fright, there was suddenly a strong force around her waist that helped her stand upright again.

Shen Yu'an glared at her in annoyance but his hand remained around her waist. He helped her out of the ride regardless of how she struggled.

Su Meng only felt that the part of her body where Shen Yu'an touched her was going to catch fire soon, and the heat made her struggle. "Let go of me, I can walk by myself."

Shen Yu'an only held her tighter and his tone of voice became a little cold, “Stop struggling! I’m just being kind on account of Yankai. I’m more afraid that you’d take advantage of me and end up in some scandal with me!”

Su Meng was so angry she stepped him hard on the foot, and pushed him aside when he was still reeling from the pain.

She angrily glared at Shen Yu’an and clenched her teeth. “Who the heck wants to have a scandal with you?!”

Shen Yu’an gasped from being stepped on so hard and squeezed out these words through his teeth, “You don’t know what’s good for you!”

Su Yankai never imagined that after he had created this rare chance for his parents to interact on their own, the two of them had started quarrelling again after they got out of the ride.

He really didn’t understand this world of adults.

Su Meng refused to go for any rides that

Chapter 130 I Don't Want A Present from You

sounded even the slightest bit exciting after that, stopping any thoughts that Su Yankai had about them.

There were some rides that weren't so exciting and the three of them went for it together. But Su Meng would only talk to Su Yankai, and even if she met Shen Yu'an's eyes, she would roll her eyes at him.

Shen Yu'an was so irritated with Su Meng's eye rolling that he ended up laughing.

The sun rose higher and higher in the sky and it was nearly noon time. They were all quite tired, so the staff members brought them to a themed restaurant within the park.

The theme of the restaurant was an animated film that was very popular in the country recently, Sheepy Sheep, so the entire restaurant was decorated with the sheep from this film.

After the three of them got into a private room, Shen Yu'an could finally remove his cap and mask, revealing his handsome face.

The staff member who had been following them around got so shocked at seeing his face that she covered the mouths and looked at the three in front of her.

Shen Yu'an...and his wife, and son.

Good heavens, if this news got out, that would shock the entire nation for sure.

The richest man in the country had secretly married and had a child, his son was already five and he and his wife didn't seem on the best terms.

If she leaked this news out, then she could probably forget about continuing a career in this line.

She felt super uncomfortable. Knowing a secret that she couldn't tell anyone else was a terrible torture.

The three at the table had no idea what this staff member was thinking about, and just sat there silently after making their order.

Chapter 130 | Don't Want A Present from You

Su Meng and Su Yankai were too tired to talk, while Shen Yu'an had no idea what to say.

Shen Yu'an thought of how he saw many children holding Sheepy Sheep toys when they first entered the restaurant, and thought all kids would like these toys.

He bent down and gently asked Su Yankai, "Son, do you want Papa to buy you a Sheepy Sheep? Papa can buy you whichever one you want."

Su Yankai had spent an entire morning with Shen Yu'an and was now more comfortable with being himself in front of Shen Yu'an. But he was also slowly revealing his choosy and poisonous tongued side.

He made a face at Shen Yu'an and had a face full of disdain. "No way, those are things that only children would like."

As if he wasn't a child.

Shen Yu'an was happy even when his son rolled his eyes at him. He felt that his son was different from the rest, and even liked different toys from other children.

Chapter 130 I Don't Want A Present from You

"Then what sort of toys do you want? Papa will buy them for you."

Su Yankai looked back questioningly at Su Meng beside him.

Su Meng's face darkened a little and shook her head, "Babe, you can't."

Su Yankai was a little disappointed, but he shook his head at Shen Yu'an. "Mama says no, so you don't have to buy anything. Thank you Papa."

Su Yankai's reply was very polite, but Shen Yu'an was unhappy about it.

He frowned at Su Meng, "As Yankai's father, I just want to buy him a gift. Why don't you let him accept it?"

Su Meng raised an eyebrow and wasn't going to give in to him. "Thank you for the concern towards Su Yankai, but he has more than enough toys, so you don't have to buy him anything."
