

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1025

Silence!

The entire area was so silent that it was creepy!

Everyone's faces were filled with shock.

They could not believe their eyes. That kid had killed two elites from the Great Allheaven Sect and the Feng family so easily.

Moreover, it was a single palm strike that exploded them.

What made them even more shocked was that the kid had actually killed Princess Feng Feng once again with a single palm strike. His methods were so cruel that they made people's hair stand on end.

That was the second time!

He had indirectly caused Princess Feng's death previously, but this time, he had killed her with his own hands!

"Is he... crazy? Does he have a death wish?"

Someone gulped and said with much difficulty.

He had killed Princess Feng twice in a row. What was he, if not a complete lunatic?

"Animal!"

"He's not a man!"

The next moment, there was an uproar all around.

Everyone gritted their teeth and cursed angrily.

The thousands of disciples of the Feng family were already on the verge of losing their minds.

"How dare you! You have a death wish!"

Their expressions were savage, and their eyes were burning with fury.

Never had the Nine Heavens Feng family been provoked like that before.

"Kill!"

They shouted in unison and brandished their qi auras.

Most of them were in the middle or latter periods of the State of the Golden Core, and many of them were in the peak. There were even some in the Proto-State. The combined force of their qi aura was a spectacular sight.

Anyone else would have long since gone weak in the knees.

However, Tang Hao did not. Back in the Ninth Region, he had faced an even greater opposing force. The people in front of him did not intimidate him at all.

Instead, he seemed to be quite excited. With a stomp of his foot, he shot out explosively, taking the initiative to attack.

The Feng family disciples were shocked. They did not expect that the kid would make the first move.

By the time they reacted, Tang Hao had already charged into the formation. He struck out with his palm and made several people explode.

Wherever he went, bodies exploded into clouds of bloody mist one after another.

The nine-chakra golden core in his body hummed and trembled. Qi surged into his limbs and bones.

Rainbringer's divine bone in front of his chest emitted a dazzling brilliance as bright as the light of the stars.

No one was a match for his palm strikes, no matter if they were in the middle period, the latter period, the peak, or even the Proto-State.

The people from the Feng family members were all stunned by the killing. They were all in a daze.

The people who watched the carnage were even more dumbfounded.

"Oh my god..."

"Am I dreaming?"

They could not tell if what they were seeing was true.

How could there be such a ridiculous scene?

Those people were not a motley crew. They were the elite disciples of the Nine Heavens Feng family. How could they be slaughtered as if that kid was chopping vegetables?

That was a complete walkover!

The difference in strength between the two sides was simply too great!

"Who exactly... is that guy?"

Everyone's faces went pale as they tried to process the shock.

That was no nobody. The kid was an unrivaled prodigy!

What puzzled them was that they had never heard of such a character before.

The several thousand disciples of the Feng family were thrown into chaos.

They cried out in panic and fled in all directions. All that killing was indeed true terror.

A figure continued to advance amid the crowd. His clothes were stained with blood, and his black hair danced wildly in the wind. His qi aura was abnormally terrifying.

The killing intent on his ice-cold face was almost palpable.

His gaze could cause one's blood to freeze.

His body flashed like a phantom. Wherever he went, people exploded in a blood-red mist.

"Oh my god! It's too terrifying!"

"That murderous aura... how many people has he killed? He's a supervillain!"

Everyone's hearts trembled, and they cried out in grief.

At that moment, they all wanted to curse.

'Where's that nobody that I was promised?'

They only dared to go there in large groups because they thought that the opponent was a pushover. However, they discovered that their opponent was not only an unrivaled prodigy but a murderous supervillain!

In a short while, thousands of Feng family disciples had fled or died. Only that figure was left on the battlefield.

The surroundings were deathly silent. All eyes were focused on that figure.

People looked at him in horror, fear, or confusion.

Tang Hao lifted his head and looked around him.

He took a deep breath and said coldly, "You want to kill me, right? Come on!"

Everyone's facial muscles twitched as they cursed in their hearts.

'F*ck! You're so terrifying! Who dares to kill you?'

“Is that all the First Region has?” Tang Hao said mockingly.

Everyone was stunned.

‘The First Region?’

‘Could that guy have come from another Region?’

‘That’s right. We’ve never had a supervillain in the First Region before!’

“I didn’t want to cause any trouble, but you’re the ones who want to kill me! I’ll turn the First Region upside down today!” Tang Hao said coldly.

When everyone heard that, their facial muscles twitched again.

‘Damn! Turn the First Region upside down?’

‘How arrogant can that kid get?’

“Don’t be so full of yourself, you filthy brat!”

“Do you think you can do that alone? Dream on!”

They all yelled.

“Is that so?”

Tang Hao laughed coldly and suddenly moved. He appeared in front of a person and slapped him.

Poof!

That person’s head exploded.

Everyone turned pale with fright. They cried out in panic and prepared to run away.

That guy was too terrifying! They were definitely not a match for him!

“Run!”

“Quick! Inform those major sects and conferred families. Tell them to bring their prodigies here!”

The crowd fled in all directions, and the news spread like wildfire.

“A terrifying supervillain from another region is attacking us. He slaughtered several thousand people from the Feng family and killed Princess Feng twice! He even said that he’s going to slaughter all of us!”

Hearing the news, countless people were shocked.

Such a thing had never happened in the First Region before.

Their first reaction was anger. They were in the First Region and the First Continent. How could they allow someone from another region to run rampant over them?

“Let’s go up the Void Realm! We’ll kill that supervillain and show him the true might of the First Region!”

They formed into groups of two or three and moved in the opposite direction of the fleeing crowd.

Soon, they saw the supervillain behind the fleeing crowd. Instantly, they trembled and turned around.

“F*ck! That’s too scary! is that guy even human?”

“Too savage! Too cruel! How could someone like him exist in this world?”

They cried out in alarm as they ran.

More and more people joined the fleeing crowd.

As those people left, the news spread throughout the First Continent.

In the three hundred nations, the various factions were shaken.

The primordial sects, the conferred families, and various other major sects and tribes were alarmed.

“How dare an outsider be so arrogant? The Great Allheaven Sect shall gather our forces and slaughter him!”

“Turn the First Region upside down? Hmph! What arrogance! I’d like to see what the kid can do!”

In those factions, countless young prodigies gathered and went to the Void Realm.
