

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1031

Elder Xu arrived at the Ninth Mountain at dawn.

He paced back and forth at the entrance with an uneasy expression.

Master Tang had said that there was hope, but he was not sure about the chances.

The masters from the Pill Ministry had already said that there was no hope, so it was not very likely that Master Tang could save it.

After pacing around a few times, he was already burning with anxiety. Finally, he heard footsteps coming from the mountain.

“Master Tang! Master Tang! How is it?”

Elder Xu could not care less about his image. He rushed up and asked anxiously.

Wang Er and the others who were behind him also leaned closer with curious expressions.

Tang Hao smiled and said, “Elder Xu, look at what this is!”

As he said that, he waved his hand, and a medicinal herb appeared in his palm. It was sparkling white and was emitting a faint light. Evidently, it was thriving.

“That’s...”

Elder Xu’s body trembled, and his eyes widened in disbelief.

Was that his solarion grass?

It was almost dying the day before. How did it recover in one night? Moreover, it had matured!

He was dumbfounded upon realizing that.

‘How... is that possible?’

‘It’s not only cured but also matured!’

“Is... that really the herb you took from my garden?” He stammered as he looked at the solarion grass and wondered if he was dreaming.

He wondered if Master Tang had given him a new stalk.

Behind Elder Xu, Wang Er and the others also opened their mouths wide in shock.

‘The solarion is not only cured but matured!’

'That is utterly unbelievable!'

Tang Hao could not help but laugh and said, "Of course it's yours. Solarion grass is quite rare. Do you think I can manage to find another one in one night?"

Elder Xu was stunned, and his face immediately turned red.

At the same time, he was very impressed.

The masters from the Pill Ministry had said that there was no way to save the herb, but Master Tang had saved it and also matured it. That was a miraculous feat.

"It's incredible!"

He looked at Tang Hao and muttered.

Master Tang looked young, but his abilities had surpassed those masters from the Pill Ministry. He was incredible.

"I can't thank you enough, Master Tang!"

Elder Xu bowed respectfully.

"You're too polite, Elder Xu!"

Tang Hao waved his hand and said.

Elder Xu stood up straight and took out a bag of holding. He handed it over and said gratefully, "Please accept a small token of appreciation, Master Tang!"

"There's no need!" Tang Hao said.

"This won't do!" Elder Xu said quickly and stuffed the bag of holding in Tang Hao's hands.

"You don't have to do this, Elder Xu. If you really want to thank me, why don't you tell your friends about me? I don't mean to brag, but there's no plant I can't save," Tang Hao said.

Elder Xu was stunned by Tang Hao's audacity.

'There's no plant he can't save?

'How arrogant!'

He would be laughing if someone else had said that. However, he did not doubt Master Tang's claim.

"Wow! Valley Master Tang is so amazing!"

Wang Er and the others exclaimed in admiration.

After hesitating for a while, Elder Xu put away his bag of holding and said, "I won't force you if you don't want to take it. As for business... don't worry, I'll recommend you to the others!"

He put away the herb, thanked Tang Hao, and left.

At noon, a ray of light streaked across the sky of Bramble City and landed at the foot of Goldenglow Mountain. It was a figure.

He was dressed in the robe of a pill maker with four golden dragons embroidered on it.

The disciples of Goldenglow Mountain stared at him with their eyes wide open.

Four dragons!

That was an honorable grandmaster pill maker.

"May... may I ask... who are you looking for?"

One of the gatekeeping disciples walked forward and asked nervously.

The other disciple was already prepared to rush up the mountain.

The pill maker frowned and thought for a moment. "I'm looking for... what's his name again? He's the valley master of that Divine Herbalist Valley. Right, his name is Tang Chuan, Master Tang!"

He finally remembered. "I heard that he's on the Ninth Mountain of Goldenglow Mountain. Am I at the right place?"

The disciple was stunned.

'The honorable pill maker is here to look for Tang Chuan?'

"Hey! I'm asking you a question!"

The pill maker said impatiently.

"He's... over there!"

The disciple pointed to the left. "That's the Ninth Mountain!"

The pill maker looked in the direction where the disciple pointed and left in a hurry. He rushed up the mountain without ringing the bell.

About ten minutes later, another beam of light streaked through Bramble City and headed straight for Goldenglow Mountain. It was a giant scarlet bird with a person sitting on it.

The person jumped down when he arrived at the gate of Goldenglow Mountain. His robe fluttered in the wind, and there were also four dragons on it.

The two gatekeeping disciples were stunned again. Why was there another four-dragon pill maker?

There were not many pill makers in East End Nation, but there were two of them gathered at the same place.

“Who... who are you looking for?” The disciple stuttered.

“Tang Chuan! Master Tang! He lives here, right?” The pill maker said. As he spoke, he raised his head and looked at the gate.

The two disciples gaped in shock.

‘Why is he looking for Tang Chuan again?’

“He’s... that way...”

The disciple raised his hand and pointed at the mountain next to him.

The pill maker rushed up the mountain.

Before the two disciples could regain their senses, another beam of light appeared in the sky. They were anxious. Could it be another high-level pill maker?

Their eyes widened when they saw the figure after he landed. It was another high-level pill maker. This time, it was five dragons!

They immediately gasped in shock.

There were only a few dozen level-five pill makers in the entire East End Nation. Each one of them was famous and influential.

“I’m looking for Master Tang!”

The pill maker cupped his fists and said.

The two Goldenglow Mountain disciples were so shocked that they could not speak. They raised their hands and pointed at the mountain beside them.

Seeing the pill maker rush up the mountain, they wondered if they were dreaming.

Two four-dragon and five-dragon pill makers had come to look for Tang Chuan!

They could not believe it.

‘Isn’t Tang Chuan just a medicine farmer?’

He might be rich, but the disciples looked down upon him.

They could not understand why a mere medicinal farmer attracted so many high-level pill makers to visit him.

Before they could recover from their shock, another flash of light appeared. This time, it was a three-dragon pill maker. As expected, he asked for Master Tang.

Immediately after that, three flashes of light came over. They were two three-dragon and one five-dragon pill makers, and all of them looked for Master Tang.

The jaws of the two disciples dropped. They were dumbstruck the entire time.

They rarely met a high-level pill maker, but they were meeting them one after another. Some of them even came in groups, and all of them had anxious expressions on their faces. Their goal was the same; all of them were looking for Master Tang.

The entire Goldenglow Mountain was in an uproar. Groups of disciples rushed out. The elders and even the sect leader rushed out in a hurry and stood at the gate.

They were dumbfounded when they saw so many high-level pill makers gathered there.
