

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1038

After passing through the passage, their field of vision suddenly brightened up.

There were mountains and clouds. It was a demi-world.

Everyone found themselves in the middle of a primitive forest. In the distance, the people could vaguely see towering mountain ranges.

The entire place felt ancient and desolate.

They could hear faint beast roars further in the forest. There were also huge figures like dark clouds in the sky casting immense shadows.

As far as the eye could see, there were fierce beasts everywhere. Moreover, they were all ancient species.

“Look! That’s a golden tyrannosaur! Oh my god! Why is it so big?”

They could see a huge dinosaur-like beast that was hundreds of meters tall lumbering in the distant mountains. Its entire body was covered in shining golden scales.

Tang Hao took a closer look and found that it was different from the one he had seen in Nanping. The one in front of him was a lot more ferocious.

“That’s not an ordinary one. It’s a golden one!”

Someone exclaimed in shock.

Tyrannosaurs were classified into many different kinds. The golden one was the most ancient and the strongest.

From its size, one could tell that it was as strong as a cultivator in the latter period of the State of the Nascent Soul.

Even so, someone in the latter period of the State of the Nascent Soul would not dare to provoke it.

Boom! Boom!

A giant ape came out of the other side of the mountain range. It was also several hundred meters tall. Its body was golden and had a metallic luster. Its eyes were scarlet and looked crazed.

The crowd gasped when they saw it.

Another huge beast!

It did not look any less terrifying than the golden tyrannosaur.

“That’s... that’s the golden demonic ape!”

Someone trembled as he said that name.

Following that, the silhouette of another giant beast could be seen on a mountain peak in another direction. It was a giant spider, and its entire body was clear blue as if it was carved from ice and snow.

“That’s the frost king spider!”

Ferocious beasts continued to appear from all directions.

They seemed to have sensed an intrusion and were gathering from all corners of the demi-world.

The beasts from all over stared at the people. Their gazes were terrifying, and many people were already trembling.

Even the more courageous ones turned pale.

There were too many giant beasts, and each one of them was extremely terrifying.

“There’s no mistake. This is indeed the abode of the True Hegemon of Beasts!”

Everyone had some doubts before, but now, they were all convinced.

Only a Path Severance expert like the True Hegemon of Beasts could gather so many rare and exotic animals.

“Look, there’s a pagoda over there!”

A keen-eyed person pointed at the center of the mountain range and shouted.

Tang Hao focused his gaze and saw that there was indeed a pagoda over there. It towered into the clouds.

“That must be the abode of the True Hegemon of Beasts. The treasures are all there!”

Everyone was excited.

“Let’s go!”

The people from the Skyward Sect moved first. Under the leadership of the elder, they leaped up the trees and stepped on the canopy.

Then, Greenspark Mountain and the Lui family followed.

“Quick!”

The people from the other major factions also followed, not willing to be left behind.

At the same time, the immense beasts roared and rushed over.

The beast roars shook the sky, and the ground trembled violently.

Other than those giant beasts, even more ferocious beasts coming from all directions, including the sky.

A great battle instantly erupted.

“Ahh!” “Ahh!”

Miserable cries continued to be heard. From time to time, the giant beasts would kill or devour the cultivators. There were also swarms of giant mosquitoes that would instantly reduce a person to a skeleton.

The cultivators managed to put up a good fight. The Nascent Soul cultivators tried their best to kill the ferocious beasts.

They did not bother to linger. After all, their target was the pagoda in the distance.

In that chaotic battlefield, Tang Hao took out the cauldron and smashed the head of a giant python. He reached out and grabbed its qi core.

Then, he stashed the corpse away.

As he moved forward, he swung the golden cauldron, smashed the heads of the ferocious beasts, and looted their qi cores.

He was not going to let the corpses go to waste, so he stashed them all.

He had many bags of holding and rings, so he was able to fit them all.

Many people noticed him and were all dumbfounded.

‘He’s blowing up the beasts with a cauldron?’

‘That’s too violent! Where did that freak come from?’

After collecting enough qi cores, Tang Hao continued to rush forward. He dashed past the giant beasts and continued to head toward the pagoda.

Many other people were also rushing toward the pagoda.

When they got closer, they could see that the pagoda was entirely black and consisted of eleven floors. All kinds of exotic beasts were carved on the walls, and “Myriad Beasts” was carved on the front.

Many people were gathered in front of the pagoda. Several blood lions and black tigers were blocking the entrance.

The people from the three major factions had arrived there. They were confronting the primordial scions.

They were glaring at the beasts, but they dared not make their move.

Only the most powerful sects and conferred sects in the First Continent dared to challenge the primordial scions. None of the factions in East End Nation were qualified.

In terms of strength, they were not inferior to the blood lions or the black tigers. In fact, if the three major factions joined forces, they had the edge over the two primordial scion tribes. However, the primordial scion tribes were united. If they offended one, they would offend all of them.

There were also twelve Divine Mountains throughout the First Continent that supported the primordial scions. The terrifying primordial species that lived on the mountains were worthy of worship.

The one closest to the East End Nation was the Eastern Divine Mountain.

“Get lost! All you pests are an eyesore!”

“I’ll slap you all to death if you don’t get lost!”

The primordial scions shouted impatiently.

“You’re going too far!”

Everyone was extremely angry, and their faces flushed red.

The tigers and lions were very smug when they heard that.

“What should we do?”

The crowd discussed in hushed tones, and their expressions turned grim.

If they were to barge in forcefully, they might accidentally injure those primordial scions. The consequences would be unimaginable.

“heh, aren’t they only animals? Can’t we just slaughter them?”

Someone amid the crowd shouted.

The crowd was stunned when they heard that.

The crowd parted, and a young man walked out.

The people in the crowd frowned when they saw him. They did not recognize him. They could sense that his cultivation was not even in the State of the Nascent Soul.

“He’s a lunatic!”

The crowd burst into laughter.

He dared to call the primordial scions “animals” and even threatened to kill them. What else to call him, if not a lunatic?

Only one fate awaited those who dared to stand up against the primordial scions.

The primordial scions were also stunned. Following that, their manes bristled in rage.

“You have a death wish!”

A black tiger roared angrily, pounced forward, and slapped his paw toward Tang Hao.

Tang Hao grinned.

The next moment, he stomped his foot, shot out explosively, and threw a punch.
