

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1042

The blood lions and black tigers widened their eyes in shock.

The humans were also dumbfounded.

Then, there was a burst of laughter.

“Haha! Is that guy tired of living?”

“How stupid can he be!”

The human cultivators and primordial scions laughed out loud.

They thought that the kid was committing suicide. That was the blood of a primordial roc. Even primordial scions would not dare to casually swallow it, let alone a mere human.

They waited for the kid’s body to explode.

“That kid knew that he could not escape, so he wanted to commit suicide, right?”

Someone mocked.

“Serves him right!”

Everyone nodded smugly. They felt that they had been avenged somehow.

They had worked hard to ascend the floors, but they had not obtained a single treasure. They also tried to chase the kid, but all that was in vain. They had been holding in their resentment for a long time.

They were delighted when they saw the kid trembling all over and kneeling on the ground with a pained expression on his face.

The leaders of the blood lion and the black tiger tribe looked at each other and rushed forward together. Once the kid exploded, they would fight each other for the drop of roc blood.

Everyone secretly held their breath and took out their Artifacts, waiting to snatch the treasures.

At that moment, they heard a resounding dragon’s roar.

“What’s going on?”

“Where did the dragon roar come from?”

Everyone was immediately shocked. When they looked ahead of them, their bodies trembled violently.

The kid's body emitted endless golden light. Within the golden light, the silhouette of a huge dragon circled and rose up.

"What... What's that?"

Everyone raised their heads and stared at the dragon in a daze. The shock in their hearts was incomparable.

Before they could recover, they heard a screech. Another golden light rushed out from the kid's body and transformed into a golden-winged roc.

The roc spread its wings and soared into the sky. Its qi aura was violent, as though a primordial demon had descended upon the world.

The huge dragon was hovering in the sky, and its divine might was awe-inspiring. The roc charged toward it like a shooting star, carrying a monstrous baleful might.

The dragon and the roc began to fight. Their roars resounded across the sky.

Everyone was completely stunned. Their eyes and mouths were wide open.

That scene was truly too shocking!

The dragon and the roc were legendary creatures. Their silhouettes were fighting each other!

Soon, they began to be puzzled.

The silhouette of the golden-winged roc came from the drop of blood. What about the dragon?

Did the kid have a treasure of a dragon in his body?

They could not help but gasp in shock.

They all lowered their heads and looked at the kid.

He was lying on the ground, trembling violently as if he was in extreme pain. However, he did not explode and die as they had expected.

They could sense that two terrifying forces were fighting within the kid's body, as though the kid's body was a battlefield.

"It's a dragon bone!"

Suddenly, someone pointed at his chest and shouted.

The golden light was the strongest there, and the silhouette of a bone could be seen.

Hiss!

Everyone gasped.

They originally thought that the kid was only someone who could move very fast. They did not expect that his body contained a dragon bone.

That guy definitely had a great background!

“Hey! Do you guys think... he’s that person from before?” Someone gulped and said with much difficulty.

As he spoke, he looked carefully and even glanced at the primordial scions.

Everyone’s body trembled in shock.

They knew who he was talking about. It was none other than that guy who dared to kill and eat primordial scions!

“Oh my god! He does look like him!”

The people’s faces contorted in shock. Some of their faces also turned pale as a sheet.

That guy was really too frightening!

“Wh... what are... you afraid of?” The Lui family elder stammered, “He’s... he’s... only a kid!”

“That’s... that’s true!” The Skyward Sect elder echoed, “It doesn’t matter who he is. He’ll have to die here.”

The other people thought for a while and became more courageous.

Meanwhile, the primordial scions were overjoyed.

“Hahaha! He has a dragon bone! What luck!”

“A drop of roc blood and a dragon bone. Each tribe can get one item. We don’t need to fight!”

They laughed happily.

“I want the roc blood!” The blood lion leader said.

“I’ll take the dragon bone then!”

The two discussed.

Then, they slowly walked over and looked at the kid warily.

Two violent forces were fighting fiercely in that kid's body. They had to be careful not to be caught in the blast.

They carefully approached the kid step by step.

"Attack!"

The leader of the blood lions roared. It suddenly raised its paw and slapped down.

The leader of the black tiger also raised its paw.

Everyone's hearts were in their throats as they saw the lion and the tiger strike the kid.

"He's finally going to die!"

They were all excited.

Once the kid died, they would be able to snatch his treasure.

They did not care for the kid's identity. After all, the primordial scions killed him.

However, at that moment, a shocking change occurred.

Bang! An unparalleled power suddenly erupted from that kid's body. It was like an overwhelming force that surged in all directions.

With two muffled groans, the lion and tiger were sent flying.

The ripples of qi seemed solid as they swept over like a wave. Wherever it passed, primordial scions and human cultivators were sent flying as if they had been struck by lightning.

"What's going on?"

Everyone was stunned.

They got to their feet and looked forward in a daze.

The silhouettes in the sky had disappeared, though the kid was still lying on the ground.

However, the golden light on it became more and more brilliant. It was like a small sun.

The next moment, he raised his head and let out a howl.

A golden pillar of light rose from his body and pierced straight into the clouds.

He staggered to his feet amid the golden light. His seemingly frail body was exuding a fierce flame. When he looked up, there was a glint of blood light in his eyes.

There was no clarity in his eyes. There was only madness and arrogance.

He stood there menacingly as though he were a primordial roc reborn.
