

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1046

“Ten... ten... ten streaks of nascent qi!”

Someone trembled and shouted at the top of his lungs.

“Am I dreaming?”

Many people rubbed their eyes and looked at Tang Hao repeatedly.

No matter how many times they rubbed their eyes, there were still ten streaks!

Ten different anomalies mixed together and flashed dazzlingly.

“How is that possible?”

The sect leaders found it hard to believe.

Gathering seven streaks of nascent qi in two months?

What kind of joke was that? That was simply impossible!

However, they had just witnessed the impossible. What made them even more shocked was that among the ten streaks of nascent qi, two of them were unique.

Jiang Tianwu stood rooted to the ground, completely petrified.

The eternal monsters from the Great Allheaven Sect and the Yao family were also shocked.

On the square, Tang Hao kept the anomalies and looked around. He muttered, “Just look at your face. It’s only ten streaks, and you’re already so flustered.”

Everyone wanted to blurt out curses when they heard that.

‘F*ck! What do you mean, only ten streaks? That’s nascent qi, not cabbages!’

The young prodigies were especially depressed. Their facial muscles twitched horrendously.

That b*stard deserved a beating!

At the same time, they could not figure out how that guy managed to gather seven streaks in two months. In other words, he was able to gather a streak every eight or nine days.

Putting aside the huge amount of resources required to gather nascent qi, it was impossible to comprehend a technique in that short amount of time!

Jiang Tianwu finally came to his senses. His face was flushed red.

He was feeling all smug about himself just a moment ago, and he did not expect to be outdone. He thought that he had three more streaks than that kid, but it turned out that the kid had three more streaks than him.

Three streaks of nascent qi was a massive power gap.

He touched the qilin bone on his chest and felt better. With the bone, he stood a chance in the upcoming fight.

“I still have the bone, Qin. You’re no match for me!” He roared.

The qilin bone in his chest vibrated and emitted a dazzling silver light. In the next moment, he dashed forward and threw a punch.

Lightning and flames surrounded his fist.

“So what if you have a qilin bone? That’s nothing!”

Tang Hao sneered. He stomped his foot, dashed forward, and threw a punch.

The divine bone in his chest vibrated and emitted a dazzling golden light.

Roar!

The sky shook. The silhouette of a dragon outlined the punch.

Everyone’s eyes widened. They were shocked beyond words.

“Dragon bone! That’s a dragon bone!”

They knew that the bone was powerful, but they did not know that it was a dragon bone.

Boom!

The two fists collided, and an endless brilliance exploded.

Shockwaves rippled from the collision, leveling the taverns and buildings all around them.

A figure groaned and retreated from the light. That was none other than Jiang Tianwu. Before he could steady himself, his opponent had already arrived in front of him and punched out with his fists.

Jiang Tianwu was forced to retreat continually while groaning in agony.

“How could that be?”

Everyone cried out in disbelief.

They thought that Jiang Tianwu would crush that kid, but it turned out to be the other way around. That kid was crushing Jiang Tianwu.

The Jiang family patriarch trembled in extreme anger, and his face was ashen.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Tang Hao kept throwing punch after punch, not giving his opponent a chance to catch his breath.

His cultivation was superior, and his divine bone was stronger. Jiang Tianwu was no match for him in the Void Realm. It was only a matter of time before Jiang Tianwu was crushed.

The more he fought, the crazier he became. A sinister light gradually flashed in his eyes.

Boom!

Tang Hao threw another punch. The people could hear a soft crack; Jiang Tianwu's wrist was broken.

"Go to hell!"

Tang Hao roared. His eyes shone with a golden light as he threw another punch.

Jiang Tianwu's arm crumpled and exploded. The punch continued to hit Jiang Tianwu's chest.

In an instant, Jiang Tianwu's chest caved in. He spat out a mouthful of blood and fell backward.

Tang Hao chased after him. His fists were like hammers as he punched out.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

With each punch, Jiang Tianwu's body trembled violently as he spat out mouthfuls of blood.

"Oh my god!"

Everyone felt a chill run down their spines as they watched. Many of them could not bear to watch that.

Jiang Tianwu was one of the three eternal monsters of the First Continent, yet he was reduced to such a pathetic state. That was not a duel; it was a total thrashing.

That Qin guy was too powerful!

He had ten streaks of nascent qi and a dragon bone!

Even Ji Wu might not be his match in the Void Realm.

Things might be different in the real world. After all, cultivators could not use their Artifacts in the Void Realm, and they had to rely on their own strength.

The battle continued.

Tang Hao had lost count of the number of punches he had thrown. There was not a single patch of untouched skin on Jiang Tianwu's chest. He had spat out multiple mouthfuls of blood, and he was already on the verge of death.

Boom!

Tang Hao threw another punch, and Jiang Tianwu's body exploded into bits.

Suddenly, it became terrifyingly quiet.

No one made a sound.

Everyone's faces were wracked with shock.

Amid the dead silence, the sky shook, the clouds split open, and a golden pillar of light descended.

The pillar of light shone on Tang Hao's forehead. Around the number six, the second point of light lit up dazzlingly.

"That kid is amazing!" Some sect leaders exclaimed.

"Amazing? He's a total freak! Look at his chest. The golden light is no longer limited to that bone, and it has already spread to its surroundings. That's the second form," the elderly sect leader of the Yin Yang Sect said.

When the other sect leaders heard that, their bodies shook violently in disbelief.

"Second form? How is that possible?"

"I wonder what that kid ate to nourish it into its second form!"

"No wonder the kid from the Jiang family was beaten so badly. It was an unfair fight anyway!"

Tang Hao lifted his hand and touched the mark on his forehead. "I've finally received another one. Five more to go!" He muttered.

As he spoke, his gaze swept around and suddenly stared at a person.

He stomped his foot and dashed out. "Let's fight, Yao!" He roared.

Yao Tian's face trembled, and he started to panic.

'F*ck, you're too big of a freak! I'm not going to fight you in the Void Realm! If you want to fight, let's fight in the real world.'

“Ahem!” He coughed lightly and said pretentiously, “I refuse to fight! You must be tired after that fight, and it’d be unfair to you if you fought twice in a row. I’m not going to claim my victory so easily!”

“I don’t mind!” Tang Hao said.

‘F*ck your mother! I mind!’ Yao Tian cursed in his heart.

“Ahem! I am a person with morals and principles. I can’t possibly do that! Otherwise, I won’t be able to live with my conscience.” Yaotian said sincerely.

The people were amused when they heard that.

“I can take a short rest, and you can wait for me. Is that better?” Tang Hao said.

“Ffff... no, no, no, I mean, that won’t do. I’m in a hurry to do something else now, and I have to leave immediately! What about if we meet up in the real world to fight?”

“Do you think I’m stupid?” Tang Hao said rudely, “I’m not going to fight against an overpowered hacker like you in the real world!”

“Hacker?” Yao Tian was stunned.

“I mean, you’re cheating!”

Yao Tian was stunned again. He thought to himself, ‘F*ck, you call me a cheater, then what about you?’

Everyone’s expressions became more and more curious. The other young prodigies were even more depressed.. They wanted to say that both of them were hackers.
