

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1064

“That thing must be delicious!”

Tang Hao muttered. His eyes were sparkling.

Then, he tossed grenades at the flood dragon.

The flood dragon roared and screamed in agony. As it twisted its body in an attempt to dodge the grenades, Ji Wu nearly fell down from it.

The flood dragon was only in its teens. Despite being fed many nutritious materials, it was far from mature, and its strength was limited. The explosions caused severe injuries to its body.

“Stop it, Nameless Qin!”

Ji Wu roared furiously.

That only caused Tang Hao to throw even more grenades at it.

Ji Wu had no choice but to shift one of his supreme treasures to defend the flood dragon, which meant that a hole appeared in his defense.

Tang Hao seized the opportunity and tossed grenades at Ji Wu, which caused him to grunt in pain.

At that moment, Tang Hao put the basket away. He summoned the golden cauldron with his left hand and the Sky Sundering Spear with his right.

“Take this, Ji!”

He roared and threw out the Sky Sundering Spear with all his strength. Then, he swung his golden cauldron at him.

The opponent’s defenses shattered under the combined attacks. Tang Hao charged in and swung the cauldron at Ji Wu’s face.

Ji Wu was scared out of his wits.

At that moment, the ancient jade token on his waist flashed and spread out a light barrier. At the same time, the green snake earring on his ear suddenly lit up. The green snake came to life and bared its fangs at Tang Hao.

“Get out of my way!”

Tang Hao hissed. The divine bone on his chest shook violently. Dragon scales appeared on his skin as it began to glow with golden light. His pupils constricted and turned into a pair of dragon eyes that gleamed with golden light.

He had turned into a terrifyingly monstrous half-human, half-dragon.

The cauldron shattered the snake and the light barrier. Then, it landed solidly on Ji Wu's face.

Bang!

The face collapsed and distorted. Blood spewed out from his mouth and nose.

Ji Wu was dumbfounded. He was the number one prodigy and had never been beaten like that before!

His entire body trembled as he was on the verge of losing his mind!

"Ahhh!"

He threw his head back and roared. The vertical eye between his brows trembled and suddenly opened.

In an instant, the sky darkened, and the clouds stirred. A dazzling light burst out from the vertical eye, bringing with it an aura of death and destruction as it blasted toward Tang Hao.

Tang Hao did not dodge. He planned to take the attack head-on.

The golden cauldron shook and suddenly flew up. The mouth of the cauldron pointed toward the terrifying light.

Five streams of elemental fire shot out and combined into a single torrent that met the beam of light.

Boom!

The flames and the beam of light collided.

The resulting explosion seemed to have drained the surroundings of color. The people below covered their eyes and retreated.

"Hiss!"

Gasps of cold air could be heard from the top of the mountain.

"One has the primordial evil eye, and the other has five types of elemental fire. Those freaks!"

"I think the kid from another continent is the bigger freak of the two. He doesn't have the same luck as Ji Wu, so it's not as easy to reach his current state!"

The spectators exclaimed.

In the air, the golden cauldron continued to spew flames, while the evil eye continued to emit light. The two fighters were caught in a standoff.

“My goodness!”

Not far away, Yao Tian’s face turned pale as he watched. “Those two are utter freaks! How am I going to fight against either of them?” He muttered.

“Ahh!”

Ji Wu howled like mad as he channeled all his strength into his evil eye.

Tang Hao also channeled his strength into the golden cauldron.

The two of them were locked in a stalemate, and neither could do anything to the other.

Suddenly, Tang Hao thought of something, he reached out, and a ball of fire appeared in each of his palms. He had just robbed those from the two Path-Chosen of the Feng family and the Great Sacred Flame Sect.

He tossed the balls of fire into the golden cauldron, which gave it a great power boost. The pillar of fire became even thicker, which instantly shattered the beam of light from the evil eye.

Ji Wu groaned. He closed the vertical eye between his brows, and the light immediately faded away.

Tang Hao grunted coldly. He grabbed the cauldron and charged over.

Bang!

This time, he swung the cauldron to Ji Wu’s other cheek, causing his face to contort and blood to spurt out wildly.

“I thought you’re better than this. Come on!”

As he swung the cauldron, Tang Hao was still cursing.

Ji Wu’s body trembled with anger. He wanted to counterattack, but his opponent’s might dominated him. Despite all his treasures, he could not use any of them at the moment.

“I heard that you have a mountain of treasures, and I’ve been looking forward to looting you! Give them to me now!”

Tang Hao shouted loudly and pulled the ancient jade token on Ji Wu’s waist. Then, he took Ji Wu’s earrings, hairpin, and the treasured coat...

Then, the rings on his fingers.

Ji Wu roared and struggled furiously.

Tang Hao smashed the cauldron at him again, which caused him to spew blood and fly backward.

Standing on the plaza, everyone was stunned.

They could not believe their eyes. How could Ji Wu, the top prodigy of the First Continent, be reduced to such a sorry state?

“How could this be?”

“I don’t believe it! How could Ji Wu lose?”

People in the crowd wailed mournfully. Their faces were ashen.

If even the most powerful prodigy of their First Continent lost, then the First Continent would be completely defeated.

After stripping Ji Wu of his belongings, Tang Hao reached out and wanted to gouge the vertical eye from Ji Wu’s forehead. That was an incredible treasure.

“That’s enough, kid!”

Someone from the mountain peak shouted coldly and brought Ji Wu away.

“Let go of me. I don’t need your protection!” Ji Wu shouted.

He was an eternal monster and the strongest figure in the First Continent. Having someone else protect him would be a disgrace!

“Shut up, kid. I wouldn’t have saved you if not that your master is my friend!”

The voice said and knocked Ji Wu unconscious.

Tang Hao was a little frustrated. He was so close to getting that treasure, but someone had saved Ji Wu in the nick of time. That person was obviously very powerful, and Tang Hao could not do anything about it.

Suddenly, he noticed the scarlet flood dragon. Ji Wu had left it behind.

The flood dragon sensed that Tang Hao was looking at it. It howled and was about to fly upward.

“Don’t run!”

Tang Hao rushed over. He swung the cauldron at the flood dragon’s head, which caused it to fall from the sky.

“Tonight’s dinner shall be braised flood dragon. I’ve eaten a green flood dragon but not a scarlet one! I should taste just as good!”

When the flood dragon heard that, it was so frightened that its eyes glazed over and spat out white foam.

'Oh my god! What kind of savage would eat dragons?'

"Good boy! Go in!"

Tang Hao knocked it unconscious with a cauldron, took out the ancient jade token he had just snatched, and stashed the dragon inside.
