

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1070

Everyone shook their heads and let out a long sigh.

The eternal monster from the Second Continent had come at a bad time. If they had met Jiang Tianwu or Yao Tian, he would not have died so miserably.

Then, everyone started to run.

“Hurry up and run! What are you waiting for?”

They packed up their belongings and began to flee.

At that moment, a ray of light shone down from the sky and landed between Tang Hao’s brows. The fourth star lit up around his Mark of the Void.

Tang Hao touched the space between his eyebrows and muttered, “How lucky!”

“There are three more stars to go. One is from the Second Continent, and the other is Yan Wudi, but I don’t know where he’s from. The last one is that Yao guy. F*ck, that guy is a rabbit. He runs very fast.”

Tang Hao was quite frustrated when he thought of that Yao guy.

That guy was too slippery. He would run away whenever he saw that the situation was disadvantageous for him. He did not have the dignity of an eternal monster at all.

After that, he began to run in a certain direction.

A moment later, he arrived in front of a valley. The valley was filled with white bones and miasma. It was the nest of the primordial demonic ape.

As he approached, a shocking roar came from the valley, then the ground shook violently, and an incomparably huge demonic ape rushed out.

It was a hundred meters tall, and it had a monstrous qi aura. It was the ape overlord beast.

The demonic ape was furious. It grabbed a hundred-foot-long bone and threw it out.

If it were in the past, Tang Hao would only be able to run away. However, he was already much more powerful than before.

He grunted coldly, clenched his right hand into a fist, and punched out.

Bang!

The bone shattered.

The demonic ape stopped moving, and its scarlet eyes narrowed warily.

Tang Hao let out a long howl and brandished his qi aura. Then, he charged out explosively.

Bang!

The man and the ape exchanged a punch.

Although there was a huge difference in size between the two, the force of the punches was evenly matched.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Punching sounds like muffled thunder rang out endlessly.

The man and the ape were engaged in an intense battle.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The ground shook violently, and the mountain peaks shattered.

People continued to gather and watch from afar. They were shocked by what they saw.

How powerful and courageous must one be to challenge the overlord beast alone?

As the news spread, more and more people came. Almost half of the First Region's people came to witness the battle.

The fierce battle between the man and the ape lasted for several hours.

Finally, the demonic ape collapsed in exhaustion.

Tang Hao was also covered in blood and wounds. After all, he was in the Void Realm, and he could not wield Artifacts. It was not as easy to kill that terrifying beast.

However, his wounds healed very quickly.

He caught his breath and finished off the demonic ape.

He cut open its head and dug out a dark gold shard.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao held the shard and grinned.

He sat down to rest for a while and recovered more than half of his strength. Then, he began to cut up the demonic ape. He roasted it with a big bonfire and ate it.

The meat of the ape was very nourishing to the soul.

The people in the distance swallowed their saliva when they saw that. They were extremely envious.

Usually, they ate only ordinary beasts. They had never eaten an overlord beast before.

The demonic ape was too big. Tang Hao ate for an entire day before he finished it. He rubbed his stomach and burped contentedly.

He felt a warm current course through his body. His soul was greatly strengthened.

“Let’s go! Next!”

Tang Hao stood up, picked his teeth, and rushed to the next overlord beast’s nest.

“He’s going to clean out the second level!”

Everyone cried out in surprise.

The second overlord beast was a whale that lived in the largest lake on the second level. He jumped into the lake and started fighting it.

In an instant, the lake water roiled, and huge waves surged into the sky.

The whale could control lightning. In its anger, the sky darkened, and tens of thousands of lightning bolts gathered and turned that area into a living hell of lightning.

After fighting for a long time, Tang Hao finally finished off that whale overlord beast.

Then, he began to eat again.

Everyone was extremely depressed. That kid was not only enjoying himself, but he also deliberately fanned the fragrance to tempt them.

“How despicable!”

“That filthy brat!”

They cursed for a while, but none of them dared to make a move.

The third overlord beast was a giant spider, the fourth was a white snarler, the fifth was a python, and so on...

Tang Hao defeated all of them.

The overlord beasts were all extremely powerful, and each one was very difficult to deal with. However, Tang Hao had the power of the Nirvana Sutra, so he could fight long battles. He could wear out every one of them.

When the last overlord beast fell, the second level was in an uproar.

“He single-handedly defeated the ten overlord beasts! That kid is the greatest overlord beast!”

“What a freak!”

Everyone exclaimed.

After eating the last overlord beast, Tang Hao patted his stomach and stood up.

“What’s that guy doing? Is he going to challenge the supreme overlord beast?”

Everyone stared at him closely.

At that moment, Tang Hao looked at the sky and shouted, “I want to exchange!”

Then, the clouds split open, and a beam of golden light shone down.

After taking the catalog, Tang Hao flipped through it.

There were many first-tier cultivation techniques, such as the Nirvana Sutra and the Eclipse spell. Tang Hao browsed through the catalog and found it hard to choose.

Most of the techniques cost five pieces, but some cost more than that.

“Emperor Yu’s Step?”

Tang Hao’s eyes landed on a name.

From the name, he could tell that it was a footwork technique.

“That doesn’t sound bad!”

Tang Hao murmured.

The Fleetfoot Stride was only a second-tier cultivation technique, so it could not be compared to the first-tier cultivation technique.

He saw that the Emperor Yu’s Step cost seven pieces of dark gold shards.

“Alright. I’ll get this one!”

Tang Hao thought for a while and decided to get the Emperor Yu’s Step. Then, he would use the remaining three shards to exchange for several second-tier cultivation techniques.

After obtaining the technique, he returned to the small town and left the Void Realm.

Everyone was disappointed. They had thought that he was going to challenge the supreme overlord beast.

“Ha, that’s the supreme overlord beast you’re talking about. He’s not going to kill it alone, not unless he has a death wish!”

“Let’s go. There’s nothing to see here!”

After a while, everyone dispersed.

Half a month later, Tang Hao appeared at the entrance of the second level again.

He moved as fast as lightning. The people who saw him were shocked.

“He’s... he’s going to... oh my god! He’s going to challenge the supreme overlord beast!”

They ran around excitedly to spread the news. In a short while, the news spread throughout the First Region. Then, it spread to the real world, causing a huge commotion.

“He’s as gutsy as ever!”

“Hmph! He’s overestimating himself! What does he have to challenge a dragon?”

The sect leaders had mixed opinions when they heard the news.

They went to the Void Realm and headed to the second level to spectate.
