

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1090

“He’s King Qin!”

“King Qin is here!”

Exclamations erupted from the chaotic crowd.

However, the battle was too intense. Both sides were focused on fighting, and no one noticed the exclamations for a while. Eventually, when the exclamations became louder and louder, someone finally noticed it.

“King Qin? That Qin guy is here?”

Amid the crowd, the golden lion looked up in surprise and doubt.

Slap! It slapped another cultivator to death and roared, “Show yourself, Qin! I’ll slap you to death too!”

Its mane bristled as resplendent golden light radiated from its body.

The roar instantly drowned out the sounds of battle. Both sides were stunned as they turned their gazes in that direction.

“King Qin is here?”

“Where is he?”

Everyone looked around.

At that moment, someone suddenly leaped up from the crowd and brandished his qi aura. His long hair and robes fluttered in the wind, and his eyes gleamed with divine light.

He extended his hand, and a spear appeared in his palm.

The ancient spear was bronze in color, but one could tell that it was deadly.

“Your grandpa’s here!” He shouted and threw the spear.

Whoosh!

The spear turned into a stream of light.

Wherever it went, faint ripples appeared in the air, as though the spear would tear reality apart.

Before the battle spear arrived, the golden lion felt tremendous pressure, which made it unable to breathe.

Its body trembled with fear.

'This... this aura, how is it possible? Is he a monster?' It thought.

There was simply no time for it to dodge. The stream of light penetrated its middle head.

Bang! The middle head exploded like a watermelon, causing blood and brain matter to splatter all around.

The lion still had two heads. It howled, got to its feet, and prepared to escape.

"Hmph! Where do you think you're going?"

The figure grunted coldly and sent out a streak of red light. It severed the two heads like chopping carrots.

Thud! Thud!

The two lion heads fell to the ground. Shortly after that, its body also fell to the ground loudly.

A golden lion had died just like that!

All around, there was a deathly silence.

The humans and the primordial scions were all stunned on the spot, looking at the figure hovering imperiously in the air.

It was truly shocking to be able to kill a golden lion in only two moves.

"As expected of King Qin!"

Many people were trembling with excitement.

The Path-Chosen and those who had a grudge against that Qin guy had mixed feelings at that moment.

"That guy... is indeed quite powerful!"

The primordial scions began to be fearful.

"Oh no! I've accidentally blown up one of the heads, so there's only two left. I can only make two plates of braised lion heads!" Tang Hao seemed regretful.

Everyone's faces twitched when they heard that.

'F*ck! He's still thinking about eating! How much does King Qin love to eat?'

The primordial scions were livid.

That guy did not just kill them, but he also wanted to eat them. That was a heinous crime.

“You have a death wish, you pest!”

The massive beasts roared furiously as they charged forward.

There were lions, tigers, elephants, snakes, and all kinds of exotic beasts. They had savage expressions and murderous qi auras.

Their combined qi auras was a terrifying spectacle that would even cause the Path-Chosen to tremble in fear.

However, he was different. He was King Qin!

He hovered in the air, and his gaze was as shocking as lightning.

“Nice timing!”

He roared, and the divine bone in his chest trembled. Immediately, he transformed into the half-dragon, half-human state and punched out at a huge tiger pouncing toward him.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The punches were as fast as lightning.

His qi aura was violent, and his eyes sparkled with a monstrous light. He was more ferocious than a beast.

The tiger was punched away like a sandbag. Its eyes were wide open, full of fear and disbelief.

How could it, a primordial scion, lose to a human in a physical fight?

Then, a barrage of punches overwhelmed it. It spat out blood before its head was blown off.

“Kill him!”

Even after a primordial scion died, more of them rushed forward.

Instantly, Tang Hao was surrounded by giant beasts.

He looked around, but he was not afraid.

“All of you need to die!”

He roared. A golden light appeared from his head as his Natal Soul leaped out. When it opened its eyes, time seemed to slow down.

The effect only lasted for a very short moment, but it was enough for Tang Hao.

He grabbed his golden cauldron and swung it wildly.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Almost at the same time, the huge beasts flew out as if they had been struck by lightning. They were all heavily injured, and some of them even exploded and died.

Hiss!

Seeing that, everyone gasped.

At that moment, Tang Hao's figure flashed and appeared in front of a flying beast. He smashed the cauldron at the beast's head, tore through its defenses, and crushed the head into bits.

After that, he stashed the corpse into his storage ring.

His figure flashed again and appeared in front of another beast. This time, he used his lightning blade and split the beast into two.

His entire body was covered in blood as he charged ferociously into the crowd of beasts as though no one was able to stop him.

The heads of the beasts were either smashed apart, sliced off, or split into two by a single slash.

Globs of fresh blood splattered all over the place like rain.

Everyone was stunned the entire time.

At first, the primordial scions were enraged by the attack, and they kept on charging forward. As more and more of their tribesmen died, they began to feel fear.

They began to retreat.

"That guy... is too terrifying!"

"Is he even human?"

They retreated continuously until they were huddled together in a spot.

"Come at me! Aren't you animals very powerful? You said you wanted to kill and eat me!"

Tang Hao roared and chased after them.

"Mommy! Run!"

The primordial scions jumped up and fled.

At that moment, a group of people suddenly charged out from the crowd toward Tang Hao.

“You villain! Our Yushi family will not rest until you die!”

“Villain! I am an elder of the Jiang family, and I am here to kill you!”

They whipped out their Artifacts and charged toward Tang Hao.

“You have a death wish!”

Without dodging, Tang Hao charged forward and punched out.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The Artifacts were blasted away one by one.

Tang Hao was like a human-shaped monster. No one was able to stop him.
