

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1104

There was dead silence.

Everyone was stunned.

They watched as the immense bird split into half in the sky. Its blood spurted all over and dyed the sky red.

Meanwhile, the figure stood there with his halberd. Behind him was a terrifying demonic flood dragon, and he looked like a primordial demon.

“What... what’s that?”

Someone asked in a trembling voice while pointing at the flood dragon’s soul.

Even from that distance, they could tell that the flood dragon soul was incredibly terrifying. They almost could not breathe when looking at it.

The primordial scions’ fear was more intense. The weaker ones were already shaking.

“That halberd is...”

The faction leaders started at the halberd with extreme disbelief.

“That’s right. I can’t be wrong! That halberd is... an ultimate treasure!”

The Deathless Sect leader shouted excitedly, and his eyes sparkled with greed.

There were only twenty-something ultimate treasures in the entire First Continent, and each of them was incomparably precious. None of the factions owned two ultimate treasures.

The last ultimate treasure appeared thousands of years ago. They were exceedingly rare.

However, a new ultimate treasure had appeared!

They had to get it!

That was what all the faction leaders thought. They looked at each other and noticed the peculiar changes in each other’s expressions.

There were so many people and primordial scions, and everyone wanted the treasure. It would not be an easy fight.

The patriarch of the Jiang family pondered for a while and said, “I relinquish my claim to the ultimate treasure. All I want is that kid’s life and my family’s treasures!”

He understood that obtaining the ultimate treasure was not going to be easy. Right now, all the great sects and conferred families had one ultimate treasure each. Any faction with two would be targeted.

There might even be a war.

Once the war started, it did not matter if a single faction had three or four ultimate treasures. The other factions would besiege them until they were annihilated.

To the Jiang family patriarch, the ultimate treasure was not as important as taking that kid's life.

The other faction leaders looked at each other but did not say anything. They were in tacit agreement.

The Jiang family patriarch stepped forward and roared at Tang Hao viciously, "I'll claim your worthless life today, you brat. This is for humiliating me the other day!"

Tang Hao brandished his Halberd of Desolation and smiled coldly. "We don't know who's going to die today, Old Man Jiang!" He said disdainfully.

The patriarch was stunned. Then, he burst out laughing.

"Oh, Nameless Qin, I think you're confused here! Do you think you can fight against me just because you have an ultimate treasure and a Path technique?"

"I was careless last time and fell for your Path technique. Even so, you can't kill me because we're not on the same level!"

"To me, you were once as weak as an ant. Now, you're still as weak as an ant! I'll show you the true strength of a faction leader today!"

As he spoke, the Jiang family patriarch brandished his qi aura, which turned into a huge light pillar and shot into the sky.

How profound his cultivation base must be!

Within the pillar of light, the Jiang family patriarch's clothes fluttered in the wind. His eyes were like twin suns that emitted a brilliant light and fired a beam at Tang Hao.

Tang Hao was surprised. He quickly blocked it with his halberd.

Boom! Boom! Tang Hao was forced backward. He could feel his blood boiling.

"How dare you act so arrogantly in front of me, you ant!"

The Jiang family patriarch sneered and walked over. His eyes became brighter and brighter as they continued to shoot beams continuously toward Tang Hao.

Tang Hao had already retreated more than thirty meters after ten attacks. He landed on the ground and seemed quite pathetic.

He was only at the peak of the State of the Nascent Soul, while his opponent was at the peak of the State of Path Seeking and also a faction leader. Every faction leader was a prominent prodigy when they were younger.

With outstanding talents and considerable influence, he knew many cultivation techniques. He was one of the most powerful characters in the First Continent and even the entire world.

In terms of strength, Tang Hao was still no match for him.

However, Tang Hao had a trump card up his sleeve.

He pushed himself up with his halberd. He still wanted to fight.

“How tenacious!”

The Jiang family patriarch towered over him. His eyes were filled with killing intent. “I’ve toyed with you enough. It’s time for you to die!”

He roared coldly, and the brilliance in his eyes became more intense than ever.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

He fired two beams of divine light.

“Sigh, what a pity that the kid had to die!”

“He should be honored that it took a patriarch of a conferred family to kill him!”

Everyone lamented.

Even the Jiang family patriarch seemed relieved.

The final two beam attacks were full-strength. That kid could not have blocked them!

Boom! Boom!

The beams hit their target.

The earth began to shake, and swirling dust and debris blocked his vision.

“That kid should be dead, right? I’ll capture his soul and bring him back for torture!”

The Jiang family patriarch prepared to rush forward.

At that moment, he was shocked by an ear-piercing howl from within the cloud of dust.

Bzzt! Bzzt!

That was the sound of electricity.

An incomparably majestic and terrifying aura spread out.

The people could see a monstrous object appear. It lifted its body from the ground, and when it stood up, it was as tall as the mountains.

Where the patriarch was standing, the monstrous figure was already taller than him.

The figure stood there like a giant god.

It glared at the Jiang family patriarch with its blood-colored eyes like a god towering above its people.

“What... what’s that?”

The Jiang family patriarch looked at the figure in front of him in a daze.

When his eyes landed on the ball of lightning in front of the figure’s chest, he was scared out of his wits.

That was tribulation lightning, the most terrifying lightning in the world!

How could this be?

How could that monster be powered by tribulation lightning?

The patriarch roared in his heart.

At the same time, he retreated rapidly.

Even he could not withstand tribulation lightning.

However, it was too late. The Barbarian God raised its hand and slammed down at an unbelievable speed.

Bang!

The patriarch cried out miserably. He shot out like a cannonball and crashed on the ground.

The monster’s palm was imbued with tribulation lightning. The patriarch groaned in agony, and the light on his treasure coat dimmed.

Bang! The patriarch created a crater on the ground.

Before he could get up, the Barbarian God slammed its palms madly.

The ground continued to sink while the patriarch roared in pain.

Everyone fell silent once more.

They stood there in a daze.

What was that... thing? An immense monster powered by tribulation lightning? How did those two things combine together? How could the kid wield that terrifying monster?

The primordial scions were also dumbstruck. They opened their eyes wide.

There was nothing but extreme shock in their eyes.

First was the ultimate treasure, then was the immense monster. That kid was too terrifying!
