

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1119

“Wow! Dressed in a treasure robe and riding a flood dragon, as expected of a super expert!”

“Indeed, he is a true master!”

The group of people in the valley raised their heads and looked at the beam of scarlet light. They sighed enviously.

“Hey, hold on. What did he say his name was?”

The Primeval Mountain shouted.

Basked in the awe-inspiring qi aura of the super expert, he was at a loss for words. He thought that he did not hear the name clearly.

“Um... I think his surname is Tang. Right, it's Tang Hao!” The Treasure Trove Mountain sect leader said.

“Tang Hao? What a good name!” The Primeval Mountain sect leader exclaimed. “Look, Taihao and Shaohao are famous families from ancient times. His name carries an ancient meaning.”

“That's right!” Everyone also exclaimed.

At that moment, the Di family patriarch seemed to have thought of something. “Huh, do you think that the character for 'Hao' is quite special?”

“What's so special about it?” The Primeval Mountain sect leader said.

“The character 'Hao' is made of the 'Ri' character at the top and 'Tian' at the bottom. Isn't that 'Ritian'?”

Everyone was stunned when they heard that.

“Ritian...? That can't be!”

The Primeval Mountain sect leader was tongue-tied.

“Haha, that can't be! It's just a coincidence!” The Treasure Trove Mountain sect leader said in disbelief.

How could that domineering expert be Tang Ritian? That was a total joke!

Tang Ritian might be powerful and domineering, but he was from the younger generation. Moreover, how could he have reached the peak of the State of the Nascent Soul in only a year?

That was impossible!

“That's right. It can't be!”

The Hillrazer Sect leader and the others shook their heads.

However, they began to be suspicious.

That was too much of a coincidence!

The super expert's name was Tang Hao, and the character "Hao" was made up of "Ri" and "Tian." That was the first coincidence.

The second coincidence was that the person was first seen in Nanping City, and he had occupied Ritian Valley, where Tang Ritian used to live.

The third coincidence was that the person had a bitter grudge with Broken Sword Mountain.

Back then, Tang Ritian bore a grudge with all the factions in the Ninth Continent, but the grudge with Broken Sword Mountain was the greatest.

In the valley, no one spoke for a long time.

Those people remained there, stunned on the spot.

"No... it can't be him, right?"

After a long time, the Primeval Mountain sect leader smiled wryly.

"That might be the case..." the Di family patriarch laughed dryly.

It turned out that the nameless expert was Tang Ritian, the legendary figure who had caused shockwaves throughout the Ninth Continent, and the idol of the younger generation!

He was also once their enemy!

However, that was too ridiculous.

In only a year, he had undergone such major transformations and had even surpassed all of them.

"As expected of a legend!"

The Treasure Trove Mountain sect leader sighed dejectedly.

It was quite demoralizing to have a young man in his twenties surpass him. It felt as though he had wasted most of his life.

"Sigh, he's too big of a freak!"

The Di family patriarch was also quite crestfallen.

"I've known that the kid is inhuman! See what I mean? He's not human at all!" The Primeval Mountain sect leader shouted madly.

"He probably went to the First Continent and made it big there. He probably won the Coronation Battle too! Our Ninth Continent has produced an incredible monster!" The Hillrazer Sect leader lamented.

When they looked at the ruins of Broken Sword Mountain again, they felt a sense of relief.

If they had not buried the hatchet with that kid, their respective factions would be the next to fall.

"Let's go. Shocking things are going to happen again!"

After a long time, they left one by one.

After that night, the news spread.

Gu Jianzi was dead, and Broken Sword Mountain was destroyed. Even Wan Qingzi, the previous sect leader, could not defeat the super expert, and the entire sect had to flee.

The news shocked the entire central region.

What was more shocking was that said nameless expert was actually Tang Ritian, a legend from the Ninth Continent.

Tang Ritian had returned!

Upon his return, he destroyed Broken Sword Mountain and created another legend!

Moreover, his real name was not Tang Ritian but Tang Hao.

The entire central region was in an uproar.

Everyone was losing their mind!

Tang Ritian returned as a peerless super expert. Not even the Path Seeking sect leader of Broken Sword Mountain was his match. That was ridiculous.

"He's too awesome! That's why he's my idol!"

"Where is Tang Ritian? I want to find him so that he'll take me in as his disciple!"

The younger generation was the most excited.

"Damn! Are you serious? What a freak!" The old men in the central generation were stunned by the news.

When the old man with the club heard that, he did not know how to react either.

Soon, the news spread to the southern region and made big waves.

“Where is Tang Ritian? I want to pay him a visit!”

“Quick, bring out our best treasures from the vault. I want to pay him a personal visit!”

The sect leader of Martial Mountain, the Yue family patriarch, and the others could not sit still. They were extremely nervous.

Back then, they had participated in the battle at Ritian Valley to kill Tang Ritian. They might have sent an envoy to deliver the nameless expert some gifts, but that was not going to be enough. They had to visit him personally and bring better gifts.

They had to curry favor with Tang Ritian and repair their relationship. Otherwise, they might follow in the footsteps of Broken Sword Mountain.

The other faction leaders also brought out the best treasures from their vaults and set out to Ritian Valley personally.

As for other factions like the Ye and Qing kingdoms, they mobilized their factions and fled through the night.

It was a restless night.

In the wee hours of the morning, they heard another piece of news.

The Rainmaker Tribe had been exterminated!

The new tribe leader was killed. The previous leader came out of seclusion but was heavily injured by a halberd attack. The entire tribe had to flee.

Everyone was shocked again.

Another Path Seeking cultivator was defeated!

In the next few days, the people received news that factions in the northern, eastern, and western regions were exterminated one after another. Finally, it was the southern region. The Ye and Qing kingdoms were annihilated.

At this point, every faction that had offended Tang Ritian was wiped out.

“Tang Ritian! Tang Ritian!”

The figure gained more fans throughout the Ninth Continent.

“No, his name isn’t Tang Ritian but Tang Hao. Damn! I’ll have to change my name again. I’ve already changed it from Nameless to Ritian!”

“Heh, you don’t have to change that. Ritian sounds cooler!”

People of the younger generation argued with each other over their names, and they were divided into Team Hao and Team Ritian.

Tang Hao’s reputation reached its peak once more.
