

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1124

“Those are... divine bones!”

Tang Hao swept his gaze over the corpse and saw the most dazzling light.

It was a golden bone!

Tang Hao’s breathing became more and more hurried. He took a step forward and was about to step forward to collect the divine bones.

At this moment, the Lightning Spirits hovering around him became agitated. They surged forward and blocked his path, as if they were protecting this skeleton.

Tang Hao was slightly startled, then sighed. “As expected from an Ultimate Lightning Beast!”

These Lightning Spirits had long lost consciousness, but out of instinct, they still protected this Nemean Lion bone.

He extended his hand, and the Octoterra Halberd appeared, slashing out.

Since these Lightning Spirits were blocking his way, then he could only charge over.

This halberd strike immediately stirred up a hornet’s nest. Those Lightning Spirits became restless, revealing crazy expressions. They all threw themselves at him, all types of beast roars filling the entire abyss.

Lightning spirits continuously poured out from various parts of the abyss, heading in this direction.

Most of these Lightning Spirits were at the Nascent Soul stage, and there were quite a few that were at the Path Seeking stage. When they surged up together, even Tang Hao felt a little troubled.

He stepped into the air. Golden Cauldron, Purple Rain Dragon Shears, Octoterra Halberd... All kinds of treasures were unleashed, blasting in all directions.

Boom boom boom!

Loud noises rang out continuously. Lightning Spirits were torn asunder one after another, but even more rushed over, making him a bit exhausted.

“No! There are too many!”

Tang Hao’s expression became graver.

He began to rush forward, forcefully opening up a path. He rushed towards the Nemean Lion’s remains and grabbed towards that divine bone.

The moment he held the divine bone in his hand, the Nemean Lion's remains trembled, and in an instant, golden light shone brilliantly.

Accompanied by an earth-shattering roar, the golden light condensed into a giant beast. With a monstrous might, it pounced towards Tang Hao.

Tang Hao was instantly shocked. Then, on his chest, that Rainbringer Divine Bone shook and also burst out with dazzling golden light. Roar-! A heaven-shaking dragon roar sounded, and Rainbringer's shadow rushed out.

In the next moment, his blood boiled, and the shadow of a giant roc rose from his body. Together with Rainbringer, they charged forward.

A dragon and a roc collided with that Nemean Lion.

In an instant, golden light shone brightly as a roar shook the sky.

These three phantoms were all remnant souls, but the power they possessed was quite terrifying.

The Lightning Spirits all withdrew far away, lowering their bodies, revealing fearful expressions.

Among these three, any one of them was a top life form, causing them to instinctively feel fear.

After fighting for a long time, the Nemean Lion finally retreated. It turned into a streak of golden light and reentered the divine bone. The divine bone also calmed down and stopped trembling. It withdrew its brilliance.

The dragon and roc circled around once before they both scurried back.

Whoosh!

Tang Hao finally let out a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, this Nemean Lion only had a fragment of its original soul left. If it was like Rainbringer from before and still had a complete soul, then he could only run.

Holding that divine bone, he carefully examined it. Tang Hao was overjoyed.

Then, he opened the Yellow Dragon Ring and put the entire Nemean Lion bone inside.

He did not let go of the other bones. He looted the entire Thundering Abyss. He did not even know how many bones he had collected. He had even collected more than twenty Spirit Bones.

Previously, along with the ones Liu Heihu had dug up, which were seven or eight pieces, and that added up to thirty pieces.

After obtaining so many treasures, Tang Hao was satisfied. He didn't leave, instead staying in the abyss, taking out the Nemean Lion bone and starting to refine the lightning reservoir.

Several days later, lightning suddenly exploded in the sky.

Rumble!

Lightning rained down on the abyss, and many of them struck the ground.

“What the f*ck! What’s going on!”

“Damn it, why are there so many lightning bolts!”

The group of people who were happily digging in the pit were stunned. They were caught off guard by the lightning strikes and dodged everywhere.

They looked up at the sky and cursed. They were all extremely depressed.

The lightning here was not usually so much.

After a while, the situation became even crazier. Lightning flashed violently in the sky, and bolts of lightning struck down densely. Ninety percent entered the Thundering Abyss, and ten percent struck the marsh.

However, this small ten percent was enough to scare them.

“What’s going on? Is it that senior? What did he do?”

Everyone looked into the Thundering Abyss in bewilderment.

Suddenly, a figure rushed out from the Thundering Abyss. Above his head floated a huge golden pool-like object that emitted a dazzling divine splendor.

The lightning struck down and was absorbed by the reservoir. The water in the pool churned.

Hiss!

Everyone sucked in a cold breath as shock filled their faces.

This was that senior!

While they were in a daze, that figure carried that pool into the heavens.

Boom! Boom!

The lightning in the sky became even crazier, turning into a lightning prison.

Thousands and tens of thousands of lightning bolts struck at the same time, but they could not hurt the figure at all. They were all absorbed by the pool.

The golden light in the pool became more and more resplendent, vaguely turning into a strange beast, swirling about.

“That... Could that be a Nemean Lion?”

One of the old men shuddered as if he had been struck by lightning.

His eyes widened in shock.

“This... This senior didn’t obtain a Nemean Lion bone, right? Also, what is that?”

The others were equally shocked.

“Who is he?”

They stood there, staring at the shocking scene in the sky.

Even when the lightning faded and the figure disappeared into the distance, they still had not returned to their senses.

“Tang, you bastard! Just you wait, I won’t let you off!” Liu Heihu said angrily as he squatted in a corner.

After leaving Thunder Cliff Mountain, Tang Hao directly returned to the southern region.

With the lightning reservoir upgrade completed, he was prepared to cultivate in peace so that he could break through to the Path Seeking Realm.

What was Path Seeking?

Path Seeking, Path Seeking, was naturally asking about the Seeking the Great Path of Heaven and Earth. It had already begun to touch upon the existence of the Path.

In order to seek the Dao, one had to first reach Great Perfection. Then, they would communicate with the Heavens and Earth, merging their essence, energy, and spirit with the Heavens and Earth. Then, they would draw upon the power of the Heavens and Earth to enter their bodies, transforming their bodies and changing their marrow.

He would reconstruct his Dantian acupoint, open up his Dao Sea, and create a Dao platform.

At this point, he’d finally attained the Path Seeking Realm.

Compared to Golden Core and Nascent Soul, Path Seeking was a completely different realm. There was a huge gap between them, and it was because of this that he could defeat Path Seeking with his Nascent Soul.

Compared to breaking through from Golden Core to Nascent Soul, there were not many ways to break through to Path Seeking. There was no need for enlightenment or Nascent Soul Qi.

However, Path Seeking was extremely difficult. Firstly, it was difficult to communicate with the world. Many people would not be able to take this step in their entire lives.

Opening up the Dao Sea, forging a Dao platform was difficult as well, because during this period, there would be heavenly devils entering the body, disturbing the mind. This was also known as the heavenly devil tribulation.

These two tests had barricaded the dreams of countless people.

Tang Hao was prepared to comprehend the Dao and take the first step before considering advancing to Heavenly Demon Tribulation.

Two days later, he returned to Ritian Valley. The moment he landed, he saw someone standing in front of the valley.
