

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1138

“Jade Drop Cavern?”

Tang Hao stared blankly at the giant whale.

There was a cave abode in this whale’s stomach? This was really strange!

However, this whale was indeed a little huge, comparable to a large island. It was not difficult to hide a cave abode inside.

The giant whale rushed out of the sea, opened its mouth, and let out a high-pitched, ear-piercing screech.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Wan Qingzi took the lead and charged in through the gap in his mouth. Feng Boya and the others followed closely behind and entered in a line.

“Why don’t we go in and take a look?”

Tang Hao thought for a moment, then rushed out from his hiding place.

He was interested in the Jade Drop Cavern, and he was even more interested in what kind of treasure the Jade Drop Bell was.

He dove down, entering through the giant whale’s mouth. The inside wasn’t as wet as he imagined, but rather modified, as if he entered in to inside of a mountain.

Boom! Boom!

From the front of the tunnel came a series of explosions mixed with shouts.

It sounded like Wan Qingzi and the others were attacking something.

Tang Hao immediately stopped, doing his best to restrain his aura to avoid being discovered.

“Use more strength!”

“Damn it, what is this? Why is it so hard!”

Just like that, an hour passed.

“Finally! Damn it, I’m so tired!”

“Let’s go, let’s go! Let’s go in quickly, we must find that Jade Drop Bell!”

Wan Qingzi and the others finally broke through the formation and rushed in. When they were far away, Tang Hao carefully flew over.

When he reached the end of the tunnel, the world opened up before him. A huge space appeared before him, filled with seawater. It looked like a giant lake, and there was an island in the middle of the lake.

The light was dim, and the surroundings were eerie.

Wan Qingzi and the rest had already rushed onto the island and started searching.

“Ah-!”

“Damn it! It’s a restriction!”

Screams and cries of alarm sounded from time to time, followed by loud booms.

The island seemed to be filled with restrictions and formations. After the group of people entered the island, they did not stop to rest. They either broke the restrictions or blasted the formations. All of them were exhausted.

“Elder Jade Drop, you bastard, why did you set up so many formations!”

They cursed and swore, feeling extremely depressed.

This place was like a super fortress. There were formations and restrictions everywhere, layer after layer, guarding it tightly. They had dug quite a few cave abodes, but they had never seen anything like this.

The group of people charged forward.

Tang Hao, on the other hand, was curled up on the other side of the passageway, comfortably waiting.

He was prepared to wait for the group to dig out the treasure before snatching it.

The rumbling continued for half a day.

“No sign of it! Wan Qing, where’s the Jade Drop Bell?”

The group broke all the restrictions and spirit designs on the island and searched through them again. They found quite a few things, but the Jade Drop Bell was not there.

Without the Jade Drop Bell, there was no way they could deal with that kid.

“This... is strange! It should be here. We even found Elder Jade Drop’s corpse, so how could there not be a Jade Drop Bell!”

Wan Qingzi asked doubtfully.

The Jade Drop Bell was a priceless ancient treasure. It was famous and was Taoist Jade Drop's treasure. Taoist Jade Drop's cultivation level had stopped at the peak of Path Seeking, and he had passed away in his cave abode.

Logically speaking, the Jade Drop Bell should also be there.

"Let's keep looking!"

Wan Qingzi growled.

The group started to look around again. They even entered the lake to search the bottom.

"Hey! Look, doesn't that stone look like a big bell?"

Suddenly, Feng Boya pointed at a protruding rock on the top of a mountain.

Everyone looked over and were stunned.

"You don't say, they really look alike!"

"That's right! This is it!"

Wan Qingzi was overjoyed and rushed forward impatiently. He struck out with his palm and blasted out a powerful qi force.

Bang!

The rock trembled, and its outer shell shattered. A jade-colored ancient bell immediately appeared from within.

The ancient bell shook, rushing into the sky, green light shining brilliantly.

The dazzling light illuminated the entire space.

"Hahaha! Jade Drop Bell in hand, that brat is dead for sure!" Wan Qingzi laughed loudly, wild with joy.

The Jade Drop Bell could suppress one's soul. As long as this bell was used, that brat's Void Spirit would be crippled. At that time, his Divine Void Banner could be used again.

He could now summon three revenant gods, and together with the eight of them, that would be eleven Path Seeking experts. It would be enough to break through the formation and raze Ritian Valley to the ground.

And that brat could not escape from them.

He laughed as he charged up, reaching for the bell.

Feng Boya and the rest also revealed looks of joy and laughed.

As long as they could obtain this bell, their hard work would not be in vain.

However, at this moment, a ray of light shot out from the side. It was as fast as lightning and arrived before Wan Qingzi.

The light swept up the bell and flew upwards. In the blink of an eye, it imprinted itself on the bell and refined it.

The ten-foot-tall bell instantly shrunk to the size of a palm.

The light wrapped around the bell and headed for the exit.

All of this happened too quickly. Wan Qingzi and the others did not even have time to react. With a flash of light, the huge bell disappeared.

The laughter came to an abrupt halt.

The smile on Wan Qingzi's face froze. His outstretched hand also froze.

At that moment, his mind went blank.

How could this be?

Why was there someone here?

A few seconds later, he finally realized what was going on. He was so angry that his whole body was shaking. Someone actually dared to intercept his treasure. How audacious!

"Where are you, thief? Stop right there! Hurry up and return the treasure!"

He roared loudly and chased after her madly.

At this moment, Feng Boya and the others reacted as well. They charged forward.

However, the light was too fast. By the time they caught up to it, it had already left the whale's stomach and disappeared.

"Chase! Continue chasing! Even if that thief escapes to the ends of the earth, we have to catch him!"
Wan Qingzi roared angrily, her expression extremely sinister.

The others did not look too good either.

They had spent so much effort to discover the treasure, but before they could even get their hands on it, it had been snatched away by someone. How frustrating was that!

"Someone actually dared to touch our belonging! How dare they!"

“Don’t let me catch him, or I’ll make his life a living hell!”

They cursed as they charged out of the belly of the whale. Their soul senses spread out as they frantically searched the seabed.

“No!”

“Not here either!”

They looked around and found nothing.

“Go up!”

Wan Qingzi seemed to have discovered something. With a loud shout, he charged upwards.

At that moment, they were at the bottom of the sea. Several minutes later, they rushed out of the sea. Looking around, they discovered that there was a streak of light fleeing nearby.

“Where do you think you’re going!”

Wan Qingzi roared and chased after him.

His aura surged as he unleashed his fastest speed. When he closed the distance between them, he summoned the Divine Void Banner and summoned two revenants to pounce on him.
