

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1145

After passing through the passageway, a vast space appeared before him.

“Look, what a huge palace!”

Everyone swept their gazes over, and their gazes finally descended onto the same place.

There was a towering mountain range in that direction. There was a purple mountain that was thirty thousand meters tall, reaching into the clouds. There was a palace at the top of the mountain.

The palace was golden in color, and there was a dazzling glow on it. It was obvious that there were treasures inside.

“That’s the treasure light. The treasure must be there!”

Everyone was excited and rushed forward.

Tang Hao squeezed into the crowd and also rushed over.

The fog in the mountain range was dense. Once those people charged into the fog, they disappeared without a trace. Quite a number of people noticed this situation and hesitated for a moment. However, they ultimately could not resist charging in.

As soon as he entered the fog, the space around him changed, and he found himself in a dark space.

Looking left and right, they were all walls that were endless.

“What is this place?”

“Where’s the palace?”

There were people everywhere. After sizing them up, they would cry out from time to time.

“It must be the trick that Senior Star Plucker set up! We can only reach the palace after we break through!” someone said.

Everyone stopped making noise and revealed vigilant expressions as they slowly flew forward.

After a while, there was a turn ahead. The group bent over, and after flying for a while, there was another turn, and then another fork. The group parted ways, each taking one side.

After turning several corners, they ran into a group of people. They were the people who had split up earlier.

“Why are you guys here?”

When the two sides met, they were both stunned.

A moment later, they realized that this was a huge maze.

“What should we do now?”

Everyone was in a dilemma. Ordinary formations could be broken directly, but such a maze was the most troublesome. Furthermore, this was a maze set up by a Dao Severing Perfected True Lord, so it was even harder to break.

Someone tried to fly up, but there was no end to it.

Someone tried to hit the wall. When the Qi energy hit it, the wall rippled like water, but it was unbreakable. Even a Path Seeking expert could do nothing about it.

There were also people who left traces here and began to explore the maze, trying to find a way out.

Tang Hao followed the crowd and moved around. At the same time, he observed the structure of the maze and gradually formed a map in his mind.

However, after one round, he realized that the maze could move and change its structure. This increased the difficulty.

“Interesting!”

Tang Hao laughed meaningfully.

He was quite accomplished in the art of spirit designs, so he was naturally very interested in such an interesting spirit design.

He immediately turned around again, studying this formation.

At that moment, in a dark corner of the maze, a figure crawled out. He was dressed in black and had a mask on. He held an old stick in his hand.

“So many fat sheep for the slaughter!”

He looked around, emitting a green light.

“Wahaha! I, Liu Heihu, am indeed a genius. I can even think of such a brilliant idea...”

He carried the cudgel on his shoulder and smiled proudly.

This person was none other than Liu Heihu!

He shifted his gaze and saw someone. He leaned over and knocked on the person.

With a thud, that person fell.

“Haha! The first fat sheep! Let me see what treasures there are!”

Liu Heihu was so excited that his whole body was shaking. He squatted down and quickly stripped the man naked. He did not even leave his underwear before throwing him out of the maze.

Then, he caught sight of another person. He knocked him out with a stick and looted him skillfully. All his actions were done in one go like flowing water.

“Babies! Babies! Come into my pocket!”

Liu Heihu became more and more excited. He carried the cudgel and carried it around.

Dong dong dong dong!

The muffled sounds of sticks hitting the ground echoed throughout the maze. One by one, the cultivators collapsed and were robbed clean. They were stripped naked and thrown out of the maze.

Be it the Golden Pill Formation Stage Cultivators or the Nascent Soul Stage Cultivators, none of them could escape from his demonic claws. They were all knocked out by the stick.

He had even knocked out one of the Path Seeking old monsters, who had found countless treasures.

“Wahaha! We’re rich!”

Liu Heihu squatted beside Old Monster Wen Dao, holding his storage ring as a smile blossomed on his face.

“I, Liu Heihu, am indeed blessed by the heavens! In just a few short months, I went from a poor man to a tycoon with treasures as huge as mountains. My cultivation has also improved greatly. I’m really lucky!”

“That Tang guy, on the other hand, has become half a cripple. Hmph! Serves him right! Who told you to steal my treasure and throw the blame on me? You’ve done too many bad things, so your retribution has come!”

“Tang, you’d better not come in. If you do, I’ll kill you. I’ll take revenge for everything that happened in the past. I’ll let you know how powerful I am!”

Liu Heihu stood up and shouted fiercely, he was full of confidence.

Following this, he tossed that Path Seeking old monster aside, carried the cudgel and walked away happily.

“Go ahead. Even if you die, don’t even think about escaping!”

Liu Heihu felt extremely satisfied when he saw the group of people running around in circles in the maze.

Thonk thonk thonk!

He wandered around and knocked on anyone he saw.

After a while, he set his eyes on another group of people. All of them had Dao Querying cultivation levels. It was Wan Qingzi and the others.

“Wow! A large group of fat sheep!” Liu Heihu hid in the dark, drooling as he watched.

“No! There are too many questions, and it’s not easy to make a move! If I make a move rashly, I’ll definitely fail! Right, just separate them.”

Liu Heihu reached out and took out a formation disc. With a light activation, the wall in front of him changed.

“What happened?”

Wan Qingzi and the rest turned pale with fright. Before they could react, a wall suddenly appeared from the side, separating them.

Just like that, this group of people was separated one by one, and everyone was trapped in a separate space.

“Good opportunity!”

Liu Heihu instantly erupted with power. He reached out a hand, and a giant golden palm appeared, slapping over with incomparable might.

The expression of the Path Seeking expert trapped there changed. He quickly turned around and used his artifact to block the attack.

Bang!

The old monster’s defense was shattered, and the huge palm pressed down, causing him to stagger and spit out a mouthful of blood.

At this moment, Liu Heihu quickly appeared behind him, holding the cudgel with both hands and bringing it down on him.

Thonk!

The Path Seeking Realm old monster, who had once dominated the ninth continent, fell to the ground with his eyes turning white.

“Haha! This is awesome!”

Liu Heihu laughed and squatted down to start robbing.

“I love robbing, I’m in a good mood!”

As he searched, he hummed a song, he was in an exceptionally good mood.

However, as he searched, he suddenly heard a series of explosions. The wall beside him collapsed, revealing the figures around him.

These people looked around and all turned to look at him.

Liu Heihu’s expression froze, and he froze.
