

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1146

How could this be?

Liu Heihu was completely stunned.

He froze, and his hand was still on the old monster's chest. He was about to pull the shirt off.

The gazes from the surroundings swept over and landed on him. They were surprised at first, then turned cold, causing his hair to stand on end.

These were all Path Seeking old monsters!

Damn it, why was the formation broken!

Liu Heihu cursed under his breath and started to panic. This situation was not looking good.

"Haha! That... misunderstanding, it's all a misunderstanding!" He stood up, touched his head, and laughed.

"I happened to pass by and saw him collapsed here. I was curious, so I came to take a look. It really has nothing to do with me!" he tried his best to explain.

However, the gazes became increasingly sinister.

Liu Heihu smiled awkwardly and turned to run.

"Don't run!"

"Stop!"

Wan Qingzi and the others roared and chased after him. At the same time, they took out their treasures and attacked.

"Oh my!"

Liu Heihu turned around, let out a strange cry, and ran even faster.

As he ran, he took out the array disc and fiddled with it. He wanted to restore the spirit design, but no matter how he fiddled with it, there was no reaction.

At that moment, the explosions continued. The walls around them collapsed one after another, revealing figures.

These people stood where they were, confused.

“How could this be? Could someone have broken the spirit design? This is impossible! This is a spirit design set up by a Dao Severing master. How could someone have broken it?”

Liu Heihu was bewildered.

He changed directions and charged towards the center of the formation. That was the core of the formation. If someone could break the formation, they must have found that side.

When he reached the center, he saw a person squatting on the ground, digging at something.

Liu Heihu was stunned. He had not expected that someone would really find the core of the formation and break it.

“Stop!”

Seeing the guy stand up with a round disk array in his hand, he panicked and yelled.

However, it was already too late. The formation disk shattered with a bang, and the surrounding space instantly warped and changed before returning to the mountain range from before.

Liu Heihu’s face twitched. He was so angry that he vomited blood. A perfectly fine ancient spirit design was gone just like that!

Who exactly is this bastard! He’s too detestable!

“Haha! The formation is broken! We’re out!”

“Quick! Go to the palace!”

Only then did everyone react. They cheered and were about to charge towards the palace.

“Eh? Why is the palace gone? What happened?”

A series of exclamations followed, and everyone was stunned.

The original palace was empty. There was nothing there, and the purple mountain had become ordinary.

When Wan Qingzi and the others saw this, their expressions changed.

“No! There’s something wrong with this whole thing. The change in the maze that separated us was definitely not a coincidence. Someone did it on purpose. Someone is controlling the formation”

“That’s right, it’s that boy in black. It’s him. I saw him take out something that looked like a formation disk array. It must be him controlling the formation.”

“This is a trap, it’s all his doing!”

Wan Qingzi quickly came to a realization. His gaze was like lightning as it swept towards the black-clothed brat not far away.

As for the guy who had broken the disk array and broken the formation, he only glanced at him before looking away.

This guy should be a formation master. Since he broke the formation, it couldn't be that he was the one behind it, so that black-clothed brat was the most suspicious.

Following his shout, everyone's eyes swept over and landed on the man in black.

"Isn't this a newly opened cave abode? How can he control the formation?"

Some people were confused.

"Hey! Are you dumb? You still don't understand? The treasure light, the cave abode, they're all fake. This guy dug a hole for us to jump in so that he could rob us! Didn't you realize that there were many people missing? They must have been killed by him!"

Someone snapped.

"Who is that guy? How dare he!"

Everyone was shocked.

"Could it be that Tang guy?" someone guessed.

"Hey! How is that possible? That Tang guy is half crippled now, so he must be hiding. Why would he do something like that? Don't you think his outfit looks familiar? He's Liu Heihu!"

Suddenly, someone shouted.

"Liu Heihu? F*ck! So it's this bastard!"

"Liu Heihu, you bastard, return my treasure!"

At that instant, the crowd burst into an uproar as they cursed furiously.

Liu Heihu was now a famous bandit in the ninth continent. Countless people had been robbed by him, and of course, some were used as scapegoats.

"Liu Heihu? So it's this thief!"

Wan Qingzi exclaimed.

Ever since he came out of seclusion, he had heard of this Black Tiger Bandit's reputation. He was an extremely daring fellow who was almost on par with that Tang brat.

Now that he saw it, not only was he bold, but his strength was also astonishing. To be able to defeat Old Ghost Luo, he was also a little monstrous.

“Haha! That’s right, I’m Liu Heihu!”

At this moment, Liu Heihu patted his chest and laughed loudly. “Since you’re here, don’t even think about leaving today!”

“Ha! Little thief! Are you crazy? You want to keep us here by yourself?”

Wan Qingzi scoffed with a disdainful expression.

The other old Path Seeking experts burst out laughing too. A mere kid dared to say that he would make them stay. What a joke.

“Do you really think this is a cave abode? Let me tell you, you’re all wrong!”

Liu Heihu sneered and suddenly raised his hand. A huge star appeared in the sky. It was completely red and emitted a terrifying aura.

“Here, I am the ruler!”

With a soft shout, Liu Heihu swiped his finger, and that star descended, blasting towards Wan Qingzi and the others.

Then, stars appeared in the sky one after another, densely packed, impossible to count.

Hiss!

Everyone looked up and gasped, revealing a look of shock.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

These stars descended with shocking momentum.

Boom boom boom!

The stars fell and exploded, bursting with dazzling brilliance.

Ah, ah!

Miserable cries rang out. Countless people were sent flying as they spat out blood. Even the Path Seeking experts did not have it easy. They used all their strength to block the stars.

“Haha! Amazing!”

Liu Heihu laughed loudly, his expression somewhat arrogant.

“Of course the cave abode exists, but I’ve dug it out long ago. I’ve also obtained the treasure. The place we’re at is inside a treasure called the Star Plucker’s Map!”

“I’m the strongest here! If you want to live, hurry up and call me Master. Give me the treasure obediently.”
