

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1150

News of what happened at Luming Mountain quickly spread!

Tang Ritian was not crippled. He succeeded in his Path Seeking Realm and killed Wan Qingzi and a dozen Path Seeking Realm experts!

Such explosive news shocked everyone in the ninth continent!

“No way! Did he really succeed? Was it all an act?”

“Oh my god! He’s only in his twenties, and he’s asking for trouble!”

The Ninth Continent was in an uproar.

Not long after, an even more explosive piece of news came. The mysterious demon appeared in the Ritian Valley and attacked Tang Ritian in an attempt to snatch the supreme treasure. This demon was even stronger than Tang Ritian.

“East Sea Demon Lord? I’ve never heard of him! Where is the East Sea? I remember that the sea in the eastern region is called Full Sea!”

“Stronger than Tang Ritian, how strong is he?”

Everyone was bewildered.

To their knowledge, an early-stage Path Seeking old monster was the strongest. Tang Ritian had killed so many Dao Querying old monsters, so he should be the number one expert of the ninth continent. They did not expect an even more powerful person to appear.

“The East Sea Demon Lord? I think I’ve heard of him before. It’s a legend from a long time ago. He must be an antique from a thousand years ago! When I was born, he had already disappeared for a few hundred years. It should be six or seven hundred years now.”

“At that time, he would be a supreme overlord. Now, he should have the strength of the late-stage Path Seeking Realm!”

“The East Sea is just a bit further over the sea. It’s a very big sea between the ninth continent and the eighth continent. There are many demons there, and there’s no lack of experts.”

A Nascent Soul Stage old monster who had lived for four to five hundred years suddenly remembered.

When this news spread, it shocked the world. Who would have thought that the old monster from a thousand years ago was still alive and had been lured out?

In an instant, the entire world was discussing the demon expert and Tang Ritian. As for Liu Heihu who had set up the trap and robbed many people, not many people paid attention to him.

Because compared to those two, this black tiger thief was a bit unremarkable.

“Sigh! How did things turn out like this?”

Somewhere in the central region, on a mountain peak sat a lonely figure.

He raised his head to look at the sky, a hint of sadness on his face.

He could not understand. Liu Heihu was a monster, and he thought that he was cunning and devious enough, but why did he always fall into the hands of that Tang bastard?

Come to think of it, ever since they had first met at East Peak Mountain, he had been miserable every time. Not only had he been robbed clean, but he had also been scapegoated.

Because of these scapegoats, he was hunted down every day like a street rat.

Thinking about it now, he felt a little miserable!

He had thought that with the bastard gone, he would be able to live a happy life again, but the bastard had returned. He had returned to his previous miserable state.

“Sigh! I, Liu Heihu, was born at the wrong time!”

He sighed, his heart filled with sorrow.

“Hmph! Tang, you can be arrogant now! One day, I will take revenge!” He gritted his teeth and muttered hatefully.

However, not long after he said that, he was discouraged again. “Damn, that guy is too perverted. I’ve already asked, how am I supposed to take revenge?!”

He was starting to despair.

Liu Heihu suddenly stood up and said angrily, “I can’t f*cking provoke you, but can’t I hide?! No matter where I go, I, the Black Tiger, will live prosper!”

“If he doesn’t leave, I’ll leave! I want to leave the ninth continent and go somewhere far away from him. No one will know where I am. Oh right, to the first continent. That place is very far from here, and no one will know where I am!”

“I’ve decided. I’m going to the first continent! Start over!”

Liu Heihu laughed, and his spirits were lifted.

He immediately set off for the seaside and boarded a ship heading for the first continent.

“Ah! Beautiful first continent, beautiful life, here I come!”

Standing at the bow of the ship, Liu Heihu mumbled to himself. His eyes were filled with anticipation for the future.

At this time, Tang Hao headed north and arrived at the Middle Region. He had originally wanted to go to Primeval Mountain to ask Kong Mingzi for information, but halfway there, he heard about the origin of the East Sea Demon Lord.

“A person from a thousand years ago? Indeed!”

Tang Hao muttered.

After sitting in the restaurant for a while and finding out everything about the East Sea Demon Lord, Tang Hao got up and prepared to leave.

At this moment, a figure flashed over from the side. He pulled out the chair in front of him and sat down without hesitation. He picked up the wine pot on the table and gulped down a few mouthfuls.

Tang Hao was startled. He looked over and found the person in front of him familiar.

A moment later, he exclaimed and remembered. Wasn't this the Ambushing Master he had met in the Void realm?

Why was he here?

And this aura... Something was not right!

After sizing up the Ambushing Master, Tang Hao's expression changed slightly, becoming serious.

The strength of this Ambushing Master was unfathomable!

“Kid, have a seat!”

Ambushing Master glanced at Tang Hao, then slapped the table and shouted.

Tang Hao frowned and sat back down.

The two sat facing each other and studied each other.

“Sir, I really couldn't tell before that you were an extraordinary expert! I used to think that you were just a wretched old man who liked to beat people up! Sorry! Sorry!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands and smiled.

The old man also laughed. “Kid, you're really impolite!”

“No way! No way! I've always been a straightforward person!” Tang Hao laughed.

The master said, "I didn't realize before that you were such a monstrous kid. You managed to succeed in the Path Seeking Realm in just over twenty years. I'm really ashamed!"

"I'm flattered!"

Tang Hao cupped his hands again.

Then, both of them fell silent.

Tang Hao sized him up, considering his intentions.

At the same time, he was secretly alert and prepared to attack at any time.

A thousand-year-old monster had just appeared, and now there was another one. He had to be cautious.

The two of them were so close to each other. If this person suddenly attacked, he would not be able to defend himself.

"Kid, don't be nervous! I'm not interested in that thing of yours. That's a halberd. I don't like it!" The Ambushing Master picked up the wine pot and drank a few mouthfuls before waving at Tang Hao.

"Then why are you here?" Tang Hao asked.

"Hey! Of course I'm here to look for you and recruit you!"

Ambushing Master grinned.

"Join?" Tang Hao stared blankly.

"That's right! Kid, now that you're so powerful, you can be considered someone on my level. You're qualified! If I don't come, there will be others who will come to recruit you."

The master said.

"Others? Are there a lot of people at your level?" Tang Hao frowned.

"Well, it's not a lot, but it's not a small amount either! There aren't many in our ninth continent, but you have to know that at our level, the continents were no longer so important. We still have to add those from other continents."

"Think about it, if every continent had a dozen or so, wouldn't that be a lot!"

Ambushing Master said.
