

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1158

“Brat, where are you running off to!”

The toad demon and ape demon chased after him.

Tang Hao turned around and ran for his life.

“Hey! Isn’t that the newcomer from the Ninth Continent? Why are those two old demons chasing him?”

This movement immediately attracted the attention of others.

Most of the people from the eighth continent came here, searching everywhere, hunting vicious beasts.

“That’s true! These two old demons never get up early without benefits. Could it be that this newcomer has something good on him?” Someone guessed.

“That makes sense! If this newcomer doesn’t have any outstanding qualities, how could he have been recruited by Elder Wang and brought to the Ruins of Immortality? This person definitely has something good on him.”

The people of the Eighth Continent thought for a moment and were all moved.

“Go! Snatch the treasure!”

The group jumped up and joined the group.

“What are you doing?”

The two demons were shocked and shouted angrily.

“Hahaha! Stinky toad, this kid must have some good treasures on him! You’re not a kind person. If you have treasures, everyone should fight over them!”

“Exactly! Let’s snatch it together!”

The group from the Eighth Continent laughed loudly.

The two of them were so angry that they almost vomited blood. They were about to catch this brat, but who knew that these bastards would suddenly appear?

“D*mn! Toad, Old Ape, you guys can’t do it! You can’t even catch up to a junior. Watch us!”

The group gathered their strength and began chasing after Tang Hao.

They were extremely confident. How could a junior at the early Dao Querying Realm possibly outrun them?

However, after chasing for seven to eight minutes, they were confused. What was going on? Why was that guy so fast? Something was wrong!

After chasing for a while longer, their faces turned red, and they felt extremely embarrassed.

“Stop chasing! Smash him to death!”

They gritted their teeth and took out their treasures to smash at him.

Tang Hao kept dodging, but he was still hit several times. His body staggered and his speed dropped.

“It’s almost done!”

The group of people were overjoyed and smashed even harder.

“No, if this continues, they’ll catch up sooner or later!” Tang Hao’s expression turned serious.

There were too many people chasing after him, and they were all very powerful. All of them were late-stage Path Seeking Realm cultivators, and all of them were old monsters who had lived for more than a thousand years. Not only did they have deep cultivation, but they also had many tricks up their sleeves.

He looked around and suddenly saw a valley not far away. There was an extremely terrifying aura coming from the valley.

Ambushing Master had once said that in this Beast Realm, there was a terrifying vicious beast that even they feared. There was definitely one there.

He turned around and immediately rushed towards the valley.

The group of old freaks behind him were stunned, and when they looked in that direction, their expressions instantly changed.

“Quick! Stop him!”

“We can’t let him go and alert that demonic roc!”

The old monsters shouted as they attacked with their full strength.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

In that short instant, Tang Hao received several hits. With a swooshing sound, he couldn’t help but spit out a mouthful of blood. He forcefully held on and continued to charge forward. With a swing of his arm, a basket of Sky Piercing Lightning smashed over.

“Quick, intercept that thing!”

The group of old monsters moved to intercept him.

However, it was already too late. The quaking thunder crashed into the valley and exploded.

In the next moment, a long howl that shook the heavens resounded from within the valley. Accompanied by the sound of flapping wings, an enormous object flew out. It was enormous like a mountain, its feathers pitch black and suffused with a metallic sheen.

This was an enormous roc. When its wings spread out, it was like a falling cloud, covering the heavens.

Terrifying black gales swirled around it.

Its eyes were red and burning with fury.

“It’s... it’s over, retreat!”

The group of old freaks stiffened, and fear appeared on their faces before they retreated explosively.

This demonic roc was the hegemon of this place. It was unknown how many years it had lived, but its strength was incomparably terrifying. Every time it entered, they would intentionally avoid this place, not daring to provoke this demonic roc.

The demonic roc screeched as it flapped its wings, causing black-colored astral winds to gush forth.

The group of old monsters hurriedly blocked.

“Senior, please forgive us! We will leave now!”

The toad demon and the old ape shouted and hurriedly retreated.

“Let’s go!”

The group from the Eighth Continent retreated as they blocked.

Tang Hao seized this opportunity and prepared to escape.

At that moment, the demonic roc locked onto him. With a flap of its wings, it was about to attack him.

When Tang Hao saw this, his expression changed. He was heavily injured right now, so it was very difficult for him to dodge this demonic roc’s attack.

“Wait!”

At this moment, he suddenly realized something and shouted towards the sky.

The demonic roc paused and looked at him in confusion.

“Senior, we’re actually relatives!”

Tang Hao shouted.

The demonic roc was stunned.

Not far away, the group of people and the two demons who were retreating were stunned too.

Their eyes were wide open, and their mouths were agape.

What nonsense is this kid talking about!

Relatives?

Isn't this kid human? What kind of relative is he?

"How shameless! Who would believe that!"

Everyone sneered. Who would believe such a lame lie!

This demonic roc was not stupid. Although it did not take human form, it had high intelligence and was no different from a human.

The demonic roc sized up Tang Hao for a while, then flew into a rage. It could tell that this was a person, not a relative!

"Wait! Senior, listen to me, it's true! Look, what is this!"

As he spoke, Tang Hao released a trace of roc's aura.

That demonic roc was frightened. This was the aura of an ancient Golden Winged Roc, but this aura seemed a bit weak. This was obviously a human, not a Golden Winged Roc.

"Senior, this is actually what happened. It's true that I'm human, but I'm also considered half a roc's descendant. In the past, I once encountered the soul of a roc senior. He tested me and passed his essence blood to me."

"He also exhorted me to treat the Roc Race kindly in the future, so I've always considered myself half a Roc Race member. When I see a Roc I feel especially close to them."

Tang Hao made up nonsense. His face wasn't red, and his heart wasn't beating.

"I was really helpless when I was being chased by a traitor this time, so I chose to disturb Senior just now. Please forgive me for offending you earlier!"

Tang Hao bowed deeply.

Not far away, the group of people was stunned.

Then, they wanted to curse out loud. You were just a normal human, yet you only obtained a drop of blood essence, so how did you become half a Peng Race member? You still dared to use your connections, you really are shameless!

The Demon Roc hesitated. It tilted its head and looked at Tang Hao in confusion.

At this time, Tang Hao added, "Senior, that senior even specially taught us the Roc language. If you don't believe me, listen!"

Then, Tang Hao said a few words.

When the demonic roc heard this, all of its doubts instantly vanished, and it replied in bird language as well.

The two of them chatted, and the more they talked, the happier they became. The demonic roc even revealed a look of joy.

Seeing this, the group of people in the distance were stunned again.
