

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1178

“Trying to snatch my treasure? Not a chance!”

Tang Hao was furious. A golden light flashed above his head, and the Dao platform flew out. The patterns on it lit up, and the surrounding space froze for a moment.

In a short moment, he collected the entire dragon corpse.

With a slashing sound, that great halberd descended, only striking the tail, cutting off a small piece.

When the sword slashed over, it only cut off a scale.

The Soul Emperor was stunned. As he looked at the scale, his face suddenly turned red. He was so angry that his entire body was trembling and his lungs were about to explode.

As the Soul Emperor, when had he ever felt so stifled before?

As the East Sea Demon Lord looked at the small tail fin in his palm, his face flushed red as he twitched non-stop. F*ck! Such a huge dragon was like a small mountain, yet he only managed to cut off such a small piece?

He gritted his teeth in anger.

Every time I run into this kid, nothing good happens!

“You don’t want it? Then give it back to me!”

Tang Hao glanced at Soul Emperor and mumbled, “You, how can you be like this? I was kind enough to give you a scale, but you didn’t want it. Sigh! What a waste of my good intentions!”

As he spoke, he raised his hand and pulled the scale over, placing it into his bosom.

The Soul Emperor’s body trembled even more violently. He gritted his teeth so hard that they almost shattered.

Outrageous! Outrageous!

He roared madly inside as his face twitched. His expression became extremely hideous.

“Hey! Old whale, do you want that thing or not? Don’t give it back to me!”

Tang Hao then looked at the East Sea Demon Lord.

“F*ck your mother!” The East Sea Demon Lord couldn’t take it anymore and finally cursed.

This brat was too despicable. Not only did he steal something, he even mocked him!

Not far away, the corners of Heaven Devouring Elder's mouth twitched. He thought to himself, This brat is too talkative. His taunting skills are too powerful.

Then, his eyes narrowed, and his expression darkened.

In all directions, when all the old monsters came back to their senses, their gazes all fell on Tang Hao, their faces incomparably gloomy.

This guy actually took the whole dragon corpse for himself!

This was something they could not tolerate!

"Who is this guy?"

"He's really at the mid-stage? That's not possible! Is he hiding his cultivation level? Also, why haven't I seen him before? There was no such person in the Ninth Continent before?"

The group of old monsters discussed.

At the same time, they dispersed to boost their Dao Energy.

Apart from them, the group of old demon kings also came out from the lake, staring at Tang Hao with hostility. Even the old lion king and old crane king stopped fighting and looked over.

"His name... I'm sure you've all heard of him!"

Heaven Devouring Elder said.

"Oh? Could it be that he's a celebrity?" The Soul Emperor sneered.

"Of course. Haven't you heard of the Qin Emperor?"

Heaven Devouring Elder said.

"What? Qin Emperor?"

In an instant, cries of alarm sounded from all directions. The old freaks' faces paled, and they were even more in disbelief.

The Ninth King of all times! The Qin Emperor!

How could they not have heard of this name before? This was a peerless monster that only appeared once every few thousand years!

In the past, the Qin Emperor had dominated the first continent and commanded the winds and clouds. He had even killed a sect master!

But wasn't he already dead?!

Could this guy be the Qin Emperor?

How was this possible?

According to the legends, the Qin Emperor was only in his twenties. Even though he was a monster, his cultivation level was only at the perfected Nascent Soul realm. Back then, he had relied on other means to kill the Sect Master.

But this guy before him was clearly a genuine mid-stage Path Seeking cultivator!

From the peak stage of the Nascent Soul stage to the mid-stage Path Seeking stage in just a few months? This... what kind of joke was this!?

"Impossible!"

The Soul Emperor's tone became slightly sluggish.

When he was young, he was considered a genius. It had only taken him three hundred years to reach the advanced Path Seeking Realm, which was considered fast compared to the other old monsters.

However, compared to this guy, there was no comparison at all.

"He's the Qin Emperor! He's from the ninth continent!" Old Heaven Devouring Elder said.

"He really is! Heavens! This is unbelievable!"

The group of old monsters cried out in alarm.

The group of old demon kings were stunned as well.

This boy before him was actually the legendary number one monstrous genius of the human race!

"Hmph! So what if you're the Qin Emperor? If you don't hand over the treasure, you can forget about leaving today!"

"That's right, hand over the flood dragon corpse and share a piece with each of us!"

The group of old monsters shouted fiercely again.

Tang Hao rolled his eyes. "Do you think you can take out something that's already in my pocket?"

"Hmph! Still being stubborn. If you don't take it out, we'll beat you until you do!"

The group of old monsters activated their supreme treasures in succession with the intention of attacking.

At this moment, a loud roar exploded.

“Kid, run!”

However, Ambushing Master roared. He was caught in the middle of the crowd, and with a swing of his arm, rays of black light flew out and exploded.

Tang Hao was startled. His eyes widened. F*ck! Wasn't this Yin Yang Lightning? He had snatched quite a few before and was very familiar with it. It was just that this power was much greater than what he had snatched before.

“Sir, where did you get the Yin Yang Lightning?”

“F*ck! Kid, why aren't you running? I've already taken out all my treasures! If you don't run, I won't be able to do anything!” The uncle roared and threw out a few more Yin Yang Lightning.

“I'll smash, I'll smash, I'll smash you...”

As he smashed, he shouted excitedly.

“Thanks!”

Tang Hao shouted and turned to run.

“Old Wang, stop! F*ck your mom, don't hit me!”

“Hurry up and chase that kid. Don't let him escape!”

In an instant, the crowd was in chaos. A portion of them were roaring angrily, their faces covered in dust from the explosion, while another portion chased after Tang Hao.

After Tang Hao had escaped for some distance, he took out the Stormcloud Dreadnought and dove into the void.

“What kind of warship is this? It can even fly through the void!”

“What are you waiting for? Chase him! I can track that boy. Even if he runs to the ends of the earth, I can catch him!”

The group took out their warships and sped away.

A moment later, above a mountain range somewhere in the sixth continent, ripples appeared in the air as the Thunder Firmament battleship emerged.

On the big ship, Tang Hao looked around and let out a sigh of relief.

The old guys would not be able to catch up for the time being, so he could take a breather.

After resting for a while, he activated the warship and continued to shuttle through the void.

Just like that, he continued to move forward. He only stopped after twenty or so times.

He put away the ship and landed on the ground to ask. Only then did he know that this was the thirteenth continent.

“I wonder if those old monsters can catch up. Even if they can’t, I can’t go back! They will definitely send people to the ninth continent.”

“So many old monsters, we can’t beat them!”

Tang Hao pondered for a long time before deciding to stay on the 13th continent.

He found a cave dwelling and set up layers of formations around it. Then, he took out the rain dragon corpse from his ring.

Initially, he had wanted to roast it and eat it so that he could increase his cultivation. However, after giving it some thought, he realized that it would be a waste. After all, this was the corpse of a half-transformed dragon.

Moreover, it had previously devoured a drop of True Dragon essence blood, even more so eating many heavenly treasures.

This way, it would be a waste to eat it directly.

After pondering for a long time, he thought of his golden cauldron.

“I heard that this cauldron can refine mountains, seas, and stars. I wonder if it can refine this dragon corpse?”

Tang Hao took out the Golden Cauldron and summoned the 18th-generation Lord.
