

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1185

Tang Hao took back the map and looked at it. Then, he put it away and flew away.

Monkey stood there, looking at the departing figure with a complicated expression.

Then, he frowned and looked confused.

Why was this guy looking for the Ape Ancestor?

Although he was powerful, he was still far from the level of the Ape Ancestor. One had to know that the Ape Ancestor had lived for more than a thousand years and had reached the late-stage Path Seeking Realm!

Could it be that his strength had already reached that level?

The moment this thought appeared in his mind, he laughed and immediately rejected it.

How was this possible!

No matter how freakish this guy was, it was impossible for him to reach the late-stage of Path Seeking in his twenties!

However, when he thought back to the battle at the Ritian Valley, his exceptional style, Monkey hesitated again and became less certain.

This Tang Ritian had created too many miracles. Perhaps this time, he had created another miracle!

He stood there for a long time, his heart filled with emotions.

In the end, he sighed and carried the iron rod as he said to the ox demon, "Old Bull, let's go!"

The cow demon was also stunned. It kept looking in the direction that the figure had left.

"Brother... Brother A[e, why do you think that fellow is looking for your old ancestor? He doesn't look like he's looking for him to drink, but more like he's looking for trouble and fighting."

"Who knows!"

Monkey said melancholically.

The two chatted as they left.

On the other side, Tang Hao followed the monkey's marking and arrived at a sea region in the northern part of the Eastern Sea.

"It should be here!"

Tang Hao stopped and looked up. He saw a vast sea, but he didn't even see an island.

After flying around in a circle, Tang Hao stopped. His eyes narrowed, emitting a golden light that transformed into a pair of dragon eyes.

When he looked again, Tang Hao saw an island not far ahead. It was completely covered in layers of formations. The outermost layer was an illusion array, camouflaging the entire island.

"I wonder if that old ape is there..."

Tang Hao muttered.

In the previous battle, the old ape had been injured by his halberd strike. He probably had not recovered from his injuries and was probably hiding in his lair to recuperate.

"Who cares! Let's break it first!"

Tang Hao snorted. There were many formations, but they couldn't stop him!

His eyes opened slightly, and his first eye lit up. A violent wind suddenly appeared, and dark clouds rolled over. When his second eye lit up, heavy rain poured down, enveloping the entire sea region.

"F*ck, what's going on! It was just the sun, why is it suddenly raining!"

At the four corners of the sea, a few demons raised their heads to look at the sky and cried out in alarm.

The weather on the sea had always changed, but it was truly strange that it changed so quickly.

"Break apart!"

Tang Hao stood in midair, wind and rain swirling around him.

Boom! Boom!

The ocean below surged, raising heaven overflowing waves.

The huge wave was swept up by the wind and slammed towards the artifact formations.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The giant wave crashed into a translucent barrier of light and was blocked. However, the barrier also trembled slightly. When the giant wave came crashing down, the barrier could no longer withstand it and shattered.

"Huh? What happened?"

On the island, on the belly of a mountain, the old ape was sitting cross-legged and meditating. When he heard the commotion outside, his expression changed and he opened his eyes.

He frowned, confused.

This was his home, and he had never been discovered. Why would someone come knocking on his door?

“Hmph! I want to see which reckless fellow it is!”

The Elder Ape’s expression turned cold, revealing a hint of ruthlessness.

As his own cave abode, this island had already been turned into a super fortress by him. Three to five people of the same level might not even be able to break into this place, so he was definitely safe here.

He sneered and released his soul awareness to probe outside.

It did not matter if he did not look, but once he did, his entire body shook as if he had been struck by lightning. Then, his eyes widened, and his mouth opened so wide that his jaw almost fell off.

F*ck! Isn’t that little monster outside?

He was scared out of his wits.

“Aiya! What should I do? What should I do?”

He jumped up and paced around anxiously.

“F*ck, this is weird. How did this kid find this place? This shouldn’t be happening!”

“It’s over! It’s over! This kid is a pervert, we can’t stop him!”

The old ape paced back and forth in the cave, scratching his ears and cheeks anxiously.

Boom boom boom!

Outside, huge waves surged in from all directions, attacking the island’s spirit design. In a short while, another spirit design was broken.

“Old Ape, open the door! I know you’re inside!”

“If you have the ability to chase after me, open the door!”

The voice was like a curse that penetrated the spirit design and entered.

“It’s over! It’s really over! This island is going to be overturned by this brat!” The old ape had a bitter expression and wanted to cry.

He was filled with regret. If he had known that this kid was so perverted, he would not have dared to chase after him even if he had ten guts!

Great, now that the old toad was dead, this brat had come knocking on his door again. He was going to be the next!

“No! I can’t let this guy catch me. If I get caught, I’ll be skinned alive!”

“Run! Run! Run!”

The Elder Ape hurriedly packed his things and was about to pack up and run away.

“D*mn! There’s still a pool of monkey wine over there, and the Golden Gilded Fruit over there is almost ripe. There’s still a lot of Vermillion Fruits over there!” The old ape suddenly stopped at the entrance of the cave.

He had also planted many spirit fruits on this island, all of which he had obtained when he was searching for treasures. They were all his precious treasures!

“No! I can’t leave them for that kid! I have to move them all away!”

Gritting his teeth, he rushed out to collect the treasure.

However, as soon as he rushed out, he heard a loud boom. A huge wave rushed in from the outside and destroyed the last layer of light.

Amidst the enormous waves, a figure charged over murderously. His eyes emanated a golden glow while he held a divine halberd in his hand, and his imposing aura was extraordinarily terrifying.

“Oh my!”

The Elder Ape let out a strange cry. He was so scared that his guts felt like they were about to burst.

At this time, the Monkey Wine and the Golden Gilded Fruit were thrown to the back of his mind. No matter how good the treasures were, it was not important!

At that moment, only the word ‘escape’ was left in his mind.

“Brat, I’ll remember this!”

With a loud roar, he turned around and ran away, disappearing without a trace.

Tang Hao missed. He couldn’t help but grin, somewhat depressed.

“These old monsters sure are good at escaping!” he muttered.

Then, he dispelled the wind and rain and circled the island.

“Wow! This is the legendary Monkey Wine. Xiao Hong, come out quickly. We’re drinking!”

“My God! This is a Golden Gilded Fruit? Xiao Hong, come, eat a few!”

“F*ck! There’s such a huge vermilion fruit tree? We’ve hit the jackpot!”

With more and more treasures being discovered, Tang Hao was overjoyed.

The Scarlet Rain Dragon ate and drank non-stop. It was so happy that it went crazy. His cultivation level also skyrocketed. It was as if he was sitting on a rocket. He broke through to the Nascent Soul realm in an instant.

After swallowing these treasures, his cultivation level rose to the mid-stage of the Nascent Soul realm.
