

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1187

The ship stopped in front of the mountain range. The nine-colored fog in front of him was rolling and constantly changing. "Take out all the precious clothes, armors, and defensive treasures!" Sir system said. As he spoke, he waved his hand and a purple robe flew out and he put it on. Then, a few shields flew out and covered himself tightly. Old Daoist Liu also took out a treasured clothing, a tortoise shell, and his signature hoe on his shoulder. "Kid, look at brother Liu later. This hoe of mine is a godly hoe. It's the best at digging for treasures! Daoist Liu patted his chest and boasted. Liu Moran and heartless sword immortal also put on their treasured clothing and summoned their shields. Tang Hao hesitated. It was not that he did not have any treasured clothing, but he had too many. He had killed five thousand-year-old monsters, and each of them had many treasures. He had quite a few treasured clothing. After some thought, he still took out the black pot first. At this moment, a streak of light flew over from the distance. It was a White Ship. Six figures stood on the ship. "Aiyo! Isn't this old man Wang? What a coincidence!" A white-robed old man called out from afar, but his tone was a little off. "Damn it, this old bastard!" Sir system cursed under its breath, its expression a little ugly. "Yo! Why are there five people? I've never seen this person before. Is he a newcomer? Eh? What kind of treasure was this? Why does it look like a pot?" The old man studied Tang Hao. When his gaze fell on the pot, he was stunned. "You didn't see it wrong. It's a pot, a fully automatic water-adding and temperature-adjusting pot!" Tang Hao said. The six people on the boat were all stunned as they looked at the pot. Wait a minute, a fully automatic water heating pot? What the hell was this? Also, this wok was actually a true treasure? Oh my God! Which wastrel refined this? why did he have to refine a pot out of all the good materials? He was still a F * cking black pot! They were stunned for a long time. When they came back to their senses, they burst into laughter. "Hahaha! Old man Wang, your taste is still so unique. You're always recruiting weirdos. Look, an old farmer carrying a hoe, a guy who's neither a man nor a woman, a mute, and now a weirdo carrying a black pot!" They laughed so hard that their bodies swayed back and forth, their faces full of mockery. Sir system's face turned ashen. After laughing for a while, the old man continued, "Old man Wang, look. I recently recruited a new person. How is it? he's much more normal than you, right? he's also very strong. He's so much stronger than you, a weird newcomer!" As he said this, he pointed to a person behind him, his nostrils raised, and he revealed a somewhat proud expression. The person he was pointing at was a middle-aged man with a thin and cold face. He was wearing a green armor and looked extraordinary. Upon hearing this, Sir system and the rest's expressions became a little strange. "Just him?" The corners of Sir system's mouth twitched as it sneered. "Yo! You're still not convinced! Fine, why don't we let them compete? I wonder if you guys dare to do it!" The white-robed old man sneered. The man in green armor sneered and took a step forward. His body was filled with a shocking fighting spirit. His gaze was as sharp as a sword, piercing through Tang Hao with disdain. He had absolute confidence in his own strength. Although he had just advanced to the late-stage, he was no weaker than an ordinary thousand-year-old monster. This kind of weirdo didn't have much ability at first glance. How could he be his opponent? Sir system's expression became more and more strange. Daoist Liu covered his mouth and almost burst out laughing. Hahaha! This group of idiots was too naive! He was too ignorant! He actually wanted to challenge a monster like brat Tang! At this moment, a few more lights flashed over, and large ships appeared. They came from various states, and they were all old acquaintances. "Old man Wang has recruited another weirdo!" "Carrying a black wok and treating it like a treasure, what a weirdo!" When they saw Tang Hao, they were all shocked. Then, they started to jeer. "Fight! Hurry up and call!" "Yeah! This isn't a duel between the two of you, but a duel between the ninth and eleventh continents!" In a short while, more than a dozen large ships arrived and stopped in all directions. They were all boisterous and the atmosphere was extremely lively. "Whoosh!" Another ray of light broke through the air and landed in front of them. On it was the eighth continent's old Daoist Ji

Ling and his group. When they landed and took a look, they were so scared that they shivered. Oh my God! That little rascal is here too! However, after they understood the situation, their expressions turned strange. "Hahaha! A bunch of idiots!" They laughed secretly, but did not say anything. They just put on a posture of watching a good show. Following that, a group of people from the seventh continent also arrived. After landing, they were also so frightened that they shivered. "Mother! It's that little monster!" They almost jumped up and ran away, but after understanding the situation, they stayed and watched the show. After a while, more beams of light came. Many of them recognized Tang Hao. Even old demon Tuntian and the spiritual Emperor were there. They had a tacit understanding and did not say a word. After some consideration, Sir system nodded and said to Tang Hao, "So, are you going to fight?" "Fight!" Tang Hao was straightforward. "Woof! I couldn't tell that you've got balls!" The green-armored man flew out and stood in the air. He looked down at Tang Hao with a proud expression. The armor on his body glowed brightly, and golden light shot out from his eyes. He had an awe-inspiring divine might, like an ancient divine general. "I only need three moves to deal with someone like you!" His nostrils rose, and he extended three fingers in an insolent manner. Tang Hao rolled his eyes. "I only need one move to deal with someone like you!" As he spoke, he stomped his foot and shot out, throwing a punch. "Hahaha! One move?" The man in green armor laughed as if he had heard a joke. The crowd burst into laughter. "Could this person be a madman?" Everyone burst into laughter. But very soon, they could no longer laugh, and their expressions froze. The green-armored man's eyes widened, revealing a look of extreme shock. The figure in front suddenly exploded with an earth-shattering aura. It didn't seem like a person at all, but more like a dragon! He opened his mouth and wanted to cry out, but his voice was stuck in his throat and could not come out. He blocked it in a hurry, and with a bang, the defensive light curtain was directly smashed open. Following that, even the shield was shattered. This punch was unstoppable! All of his defensive methods were crushed like dried weeds and smashed into his chest. His face twisted, and his body shot out like a cannonball. He even spat out a mouthful of blood. "I'll keep your little life, and I'll take your things!" "Hmph!" Tang Hao reached out and stripped him naked. Armor, rings, jade pendants, crown-everything was stripped off. Then, with a bang, the man fell onto the large ship, naked.
