

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1198

In the sky, a huge ship was speeding. On the ship, many figures stood still, each of them exuding a shocking aura. Especially the few people at the front, their auras were as deep as the abyss, terrifying to the extreme. They looked into the distance with murderous expressions. "That's the ninth continent!" Soon, a piece of land appeared in front of them. Everyone's spirits were lifted. "Don't fight with me. Let me fight with that kid first. I'd like to see if his Dragon Bone or my ancient divine ape bone is more powerful!" At the bow of the ship, the martial immortal shouted. "Of course!" Old demon Tuntian said respectfully. No one said a word. Even the old monsters from the second continent didn't say a word. They had naturally heard of the martial immortal, who was comparable to the sect master. The ship accelerated and soon approached the sun Sky Valley. In the valley, Tang Hao was meditating, trying to comprehend a cultivation technique. Suddenly, he seemed to have sensed something. He opened his eyes and looked up at the sky. The pair of eyes shrank and turned into a pair of dragon eyes. Their sharp gaze pierced through the clouds and saw the huge ship flying over. The old monsters on it were also in his sight. In an instant, his mind trembled and he revealed a look of shock. There were more than forty old monsters, especially the front row. Their momentum was particularly strong, and this formation was really a bit shocking. "Eh? Old demon Tuntian, the old whale, and the others are here too. It must be their doing. They failed to trick me last time, and now they've gathered so many people to deal with me again." Tang Hao's expression turned serious. With his current strength, old demon Tuntian and the others were no match for him. However, it was obvious that there were even more powerful figures this time. Furthermore, there were so many of them. Even if there were layers of formations in the valley, he would not be able to stop them. Just as he was about to get up and leave to hide, he suddenly thought of something and glanced at the top of the mountain. Seeing the old locust tree, he immediately felt at ease. At this time, the giant ship had already arrived above the sun Sky Valley. Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh, many figures flew out and landed in the sun Sky Valley. Old demon Tuntian waved his hand and threw out rays of light. They were array flags that covered the entire Sun Sky Valley and sealed the entire space. "Look, what's that?" In Nanping City, someone noticed the abnormality in the sky and exclaimed. "Old monsters again! Someone's coming!" "Hurry up and run!" Nanping City was in chaos, and everyone began to pack their things and run. "Motherf*cker, again! It's really a sin!" Those shopkeepers cursed and swore, feeling extremely depressed. Last time, Wan qingzi and the others from Broken Sword Mountain had attacked, causing them to run away in a panic. Now, a group of old monsters had appeared out of nowhere and were attacking again. "So many people, who are they? Don't tell me it's an old monster from another continent!" Everyone was even more confused. They didn't have time to think about it as they were all busy running. No matter who these people were, they were definitely Dao pursuing realm old monsters. Forty over Dao pursuing realm old monsters, this was simply too terrifying! This lineup was scary! "Hahaha!" A burst of laughter rang out, rolling like muffled Thunder and reverberating between heaven and earth. In the distance, the cultivators who were running away felt a sharp pain in their eardrums. They immediately covered their ears and revealed painful expressions. At the same time, they were shocked. "It's too scary! What level of old monster is this!" They were extremely shocked. From such a distance, a burst of laughter could make their eardrums hurt and their qi and blood churned. This kind of strength was simply too terrifying, completely beyond their knowledge. "Kid, get out here! Let me see how capable you are!" The martial immortal took the lead and fell down like a meteor towards the sun Sky Valley. His skin had turned Scarlet Gold, suffused with the luster of gold and iron. Roar! A deafening roar! A divine ape's shadow rose from his body and roared towards the sky. This was the immemorial divine ape. It was the most ancient and the most powerful of all the ape tribes. Its physical body was strong and could tear apart Dragons and flood Dragons. It was extremely ferocious. "Ancient spiritual ape!" In the valley, Tang Hao was slightly shocked. His expression became even more serious. This person was also in the third form. Moreover, this ancient spiritual ape was only slightly inferior to winged rain-Dragon. In terms of physical strength, it might even surpass winged rain-Dragon. Bang! The figure fell and hit the first light screen. The light curtain was broken, and the figure continued to advance. In the blink of an eye, he had broken through the second layer with unstoppable momentum. "Kid, get out here! Let's fight! Otherwise, I'll tear off all your shells! Then I'll raze your Valley to the ground!" The martial immortal shouted. "Hmph!" "Hmph!" Tang Hao grunted angrily. He then shot up into the sky. "You want to tear down my Sun Sky Valley? No way! Let me test you!" The godly bones in his chest shook, and his skin turned golden with a layer of fine dragon scales. "Owwuuu!" A deafening dragon roar! A flying rain-Dragon's Shadow rose from his body and roared towards the sky. Then, his dragon eyes brightened. In an instant, the wind rose, the clouds moved, the sky changed color, and a heavy rain poured down. "Come!" He shouted and punched out. With this punch, the rain around him gathered to form a giant fist that punched out. "Hahaha! Good!" The martial immortal laughed as he clenched his right fist and punched. Bang! The two fists collided heavily, and the two forces collided, causing a violent shock wave. With the point of collision as the center, circles of ripples spread out madly. Tang Hao's body trembled slightly. He grunted and fell back. The martial immortal did the same, but his expression did not change. Tang Hao was at a disadvantage in this punch. The martial immortal stopped and said in surprise, "kid, you're quite powerful!" As the rumors say, he's really unparalleled!" In his heart, he was a little shocked. Although he had the upper hand in this punch, it wasn't much. This kid was only at the late stage of Dao seeking, while he was already at the great circle of Dao seeking. If this brat's cultivation had reached his level, he would be able to fight to a draw with him, and might even surpass him. "An ancient flying rain-Dragon! It's really extraordinary!" He let out a huge sigh. "Your immemorial divine ape is also not bad!" Tang Hao stopped and flicked his wrist. "Hahaha! Was it? Then let's do it again! I haven't felt so good in a long time!" The martial immortal laughed and attacked again. Peng Peng Peng! The two people's fists and feet collided, and an intense battle began. Every time they clashed, a blinding light would burst out, and circles of translucent ripples would spread out. In the air, those old monsters stood still and looked at this scene, all of them revealing a bit of shock. "That kid can actually fight a martial immortal like this, he's really a monster!" "Two monsters!" The old monsters exclaimed in admiration. "Little brat, we're almost done fighting. It's time to get down to business! I've come here today for that halberd. Hand it over obediently and I'll leave immediately!" After the exchange of blows, the martial immortal retreated and shouted. "If you don't hand it over, then don't blame me for being impolite!" As he spoke, his face darkened and the killing intent in his eyes increased.
