

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1205

Whoosh! Whoosh!

A brilliant light swept over from the horizon.

“Look, that’s the 13th elder of the mountain moving sect! He’s here with a group of elite disciples, and many of them have already opened their apertures!”

The crowd of onlookers burst out in exclamations.

“There are disciples who have opened their apertures. They will definitely be able to kill those guys!”

Everyone was discussing.

On the first level, the Enlightenment stage was the strongest.

As for those guys, they were all in the great circle of the Golden core stage. After coming to the first level, they were suppressed to the great circle of the Golden core stage.

They cultivated their bodies, and only with a strong physical body could they have the advantage in the great void realm. However, they were definitely no match for the elites of the large sects in the Enlightenment period!

However, to their surprise, the group of mountain moving sect members charged over valiantly and fought for a while before being defeated and slaughtered like vegetables.

That group of people was unusually fierce and powerful. It was as if each of them had a piece of spiritual bone.

But how was this possible? spiritual bones were extremely precious. Even a force like the mountain moving sect did not have many spiritual bones. How could a small force have so many spiritual bones?

Even if it was the first continent’s super sect, it was unlikely!

Not long after this group of people was wiped out, more people came. The mountain moving sect moved. All the elders and disciples who could come came, including geniuses who had opened three or four apertures.

However, they were still wiped out.

Even if those people were not a match for three or four apertures geniuses individually, they had a lot of people, and they were especially rogue. They never fought one-on-one, but would swarm up and beat them to death.

“Motherf * cker, you guys are too shameless! One-on-one, I want a one-on-one fight!”

The geniuses roared in humiliation.

“Pick, my ass!”

“Face? What is face? can it be eaten? Fellow brothers, beat him up, beat him to death!”

Ahhhh!

A series of screams pierced the sky.

Those geniuses were beaten up and destroyed.

“Heavens! He was too shameless! They’re a bunch of hooligans and beasts!”

Everyone was shocked.

“You ... Just you wait! The mountain moving sect will not let you off!” The mountain moving sect’s sect master was also beaten up. He shouted in humiliation and was about to go crazy.

He was the sect Master of the Mountain moving sect, a figure whose name shook the entire ninth continent. He had never been beaten up like this!

“You talk too much! Beat him up!”

Shabby Taoist master shouted and led a group of elders to continue beating the sect master. Then, he sent the sect master away.

“Heavens! They really killed the sect Master of the Mountain moving sect!”

The crowd was speechless again, frightened by the courage of this group of people.

To dare to kill a magnate in the great void realm, this was extremely audacious!

This was the second time they had seen such bold people. The first time had been Tang Ritian, but these two were different. Tang Ritian was a peerless genius and the number one expert of the ninth continent, while these people were just from a small, nameless sect.

The mountain moving sect’s anger would definitely burn this nameless sect into ashes!

However, the Taoist masters were all very happy and started to pick up the fragments.

In the crowd, there were also people who sneakily picked up the fragments.

“What are you doing? Put it down!”

The Taoist masters were furious. They couldn’t tolerate this!

“Slaughter them! Kill them all!”

When they were in high spirits, they directly charged forward.

Many people were involved in the chaotic battle, and the situation expanded.

“Killing one is killing, killing two is also killing, why not kill all of them!”

As they killed, the Taoist masters didn't care anymore. They killed everyone they caught and exploded them.

The crowd was instantly enraged. They thought to themselves, "do these bastards really think they're easy to bully? although this group of people is powerful, they're not to be trifled with."

"Kill these bastards!"

"Hurry up! Go and call for reinforcements. We must kill them today and let them know the immensity of the heavens and earth!"

As they rushed forward, they called for their friends.

The Taoist masters were immediately overwhelmed by the crowd. Seeing that they couldn't hold on any longer, they began to call for help.

"Hurry up! Go back and get people, we must overturn this place today!"

After the Taoist priest left, he began to call for people.

Soon, the Kunlun's field was in an uproar.

"Damn, they really think our Kun Lun is easy to bully! Brothers, this is our Kun Lun's first battle. We can't lose face! We must show our power and kill them!"

"Kill! Kill all of them!"

The remaining Taoist masters from Mao mountain, Huashan, Kongtong, and Tianshan were all here.

Even the heavenly Masters from Mount Longhu had come.

Everyone was filled with killing intent as they rushed into the great void realm.

“It doesn’t matter who it is, as long as it’s not our people, kill them all! To death! We’ll kill as many as we can!”

After entering the great void realm, everyone killed anyone they saw.

The other party had also pulled in countless people, and all the major powers in the ninth continent were in an uproar because of this.

“Have you heard? there are more freaks in the great void realm. It’s not one, but a group. I think they’re called Kun Lun or something. They’re especially awesome. They even defeated the mountain moving sect. Now, they’re fighting against all the other forces!”

“So arrogant? Let’s go and kill some of their prestige!”

The elders and disciples of the major forces all ascended to the great void realm.

The two sides continued to kill each other. It was a complete chaotic battle. You kill me, I kill you. After they die, everything will be fine. Then, we can fight again in the great void realm.

Everyone’s eyes were red from the killing, and they only wanted to beat the other party into submission.

The primitive mountain, Treasure Gathering mountain, and the DI family were all involved and led the fight against the cultivators of Kunlun.

This battle swept across the entire ninth domain and lasted for a few days.

Kun Lun’s people became more and more courageous as they fought, and their numbers increased. From a few hundred at the start, to a few thousand, and finally, there were over ten thousand people.

As for his opponents, the more they fought, the more shocked they became.

Just what kind of power was this Kun Lun?

Was this really a nameless force?

How could such a small force have so many disciples, so many consummate level cultivators, and so many experts with incomparably powerful physical bodies?

This was clearly a super force!

However, how could there be a super force called Kun Lun in the ninth continent?

In the great void realm, the chaotic battle continued. In reality, the ninth continent was in an uproar. This matter was reported in all the major newspapers and quickly spread throughout the ninth continent.

Everyone was enthusiastically discussing this mysterious faction called Kun Lun, and countless people were searching everywhere for information about this Kun Lun.

However, after a few days, he found nothing.

Everyone could not help but be extremely confused. In their hearts, this Kun Lun had become even more mysterious.

Several days later, the forces such as the primitive mountain finally got scared and retreated.

“Hahaha! A bunch of cowards!”

The Taoist masters laughed triumphantly and continued to push around. Everywhere they passed, chaos ensued. Everyone packed up their blankets and began to flee again.

The Great Escape once again took place in the ninth domain.

“Damn it, that little devil left, and I thought the world was at peace. In the end, another group of Devils came, and they’re as brutal as that little devil, damn the heavens! Do you still want me to live!”

Everyone cursed as they fled, so depressed that they vomited blood.
