

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1231

Whoosh! Whoosh!

In the sky, beams of light flashed.

Suddenly, one of the lights stopped and stood in the air. A silver light appeared in his eyes and he looked down.

There was a vast and boundless mountain range below. There was a majestic mountain peak in the mountain, and it was covered with magnificent buildings. Many floating islands were floating in the air.

Occasionally, there would be cranes flying around, and it was a celestial scene.

This was where the heavenly Luo sect was located.

Above the mountain Gate, there were thirty layers of light screens. However, these light screens could not block the sight. When the treasured eyes were activated, everything inside could be seen clearly.

His ears twitched, and a voice came.

He observed for a moment, then moved to the side and found a place to hide in the mountain range. He continued to activate his clairaudient to monitor the movements of the Luotian sect.

“It’s all because of that Qin bastard. He caused us to be locked up here, unable to take a single step out!”

“Cult Master went out again. I wonder what he’s doing?”

“He must have gone to contact the other sect Masters!”

The sound kept coming, and no movement inside could escape his senses.

He then sat down and continued to monitor the situation. If there was any abnormal activity, he would immediately report it to his main body.

This split soul was like a monitor that monitored the entire Mountain Gate of the highest heaven sect.

And just in case, another wisp of soul fell from tens of thousands of miles away. Once that wisp of soul was discovered, this wisp could be added.

In addition, several split souls were placed in this province to keep watch over the entire province.

In another continent, where the Jiang family was located, many wisps of souls also landed to monitor the situation.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Several wisps of his soul had landed in each province to monitor the area.

Not a single one of the 300 large states was left out. The ten great conferred families, the ten great ancient sects, and the divine mountains were all areas that were heavily monitored. There were several split souls monitoring them layer by layer.

In addition, in some dangerous places, Forbidden Lands, and places that could not be monitored from a distance, a wisp of the soul would be placed there and hidden.

He had also left many split souls in the various seas around the first continent to patrol and monitor the seas.

Without anyone noticing, a surveillance network had been set up all over the first continent.

These split souls were constantly monitoring the surroundings, sending all kinds of information back to the main body.

“Eh? Isn’t this an old acquaintance?”

Tang Hao quickly made a discovery. In the North of the stellarsky continent, his split soul had found Liu heihu.

He was still being chased. He was running in front, and behind him were a vast number of people. Many Dao seeking old monsters were leading teams, and they were chasing after him with gritted teeth.

“Little black meow, don’t run!”

“F * ck your mother! How many times do I have to tell you, my name is not black meow, my name is Black Tiger, the mighty and handsome Black Tiger!” Liu heihu roared in anger.

“Black Tiger? You’re just a sick cat, don’t run if you have the guts!”

Everyone cursed.

“Motherf * cker! It’s all that bastard’s fault!” Liu heihu gritted his teeth.

Then, he shivered and his expression changed.

He had also heard about the recent incident and had almost peed his pants.

That goddamned B * stard had actually come to the first continent. Furthermore, his strength had reached the level of a sect master. It was simply frightening.

“This is too unreasonable!”

He cursed angrily and muttered, “Should I run? Nothing good will come from that guy’s arrival!”

After pondering for a while, he grinned and said, “That bastard just arrived not long ago. He definitely doesn’t know that I’m here. Even if he knew, the first continent is so big. Can he catch me?”

He immediately became proud again.

“Who am I? I’m the wise and powerful black Tiger Lord. How can I make those low-level mistakes again and be caught by that bastard! This is absolutely impossible!”

He muttered and ran away happily.

In the distance, a split soul sat there and looked over. When it saw this scene, it pouted and was somewhat speechless.

“Forget it, I’ll let him go for now and let him continue to be happy for a while!”

Tang Hao laughed.

Then, the other split souls made another discovery.

In the vicinity of the central divine mountain, the figures of the various divine Lords could be seen, gathering on the divine mountain.

He also caught the traces of several sect Masters, all around some dangerous places.

Obviously, these people all felt a sense of danger and wanted to search for opportunities to increase their strength.

Not long after, a wisp of a soul sent a message to him in a southern state. It had found the traces of the heavenly reaching church, the Jiang family, and the Yushi family.

“Five great forces? Even Ji Wu is here? This is interesting!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He connected his consciousness to the wisp of soul and looked up. He could see a giant warship traveling at high speed in the sky tens of thousands of miles away.

Looking at the style of this huge ship, it seemed to belong to a great sect.

On the deck, figures stood. The five sect Masters, Ji Wu, Jiang tianwu, and many others were there. There were also many legendary figures, who were the quasi-sect master elders of the major forces.

“This lineup is a little strong!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

He looked around and saw a translucent figure floating around Ji Wu. It was the saint’s soul. The others stood around him and looked at Dao hun respectfully.

Dao Hun’s lips moved as if he was saying something.

His mind flickered, and his voice immediately rang out.

“That Qin brat is indeed powerful. He’s rare even in my era. It won’t be easy to kill him!”

“Ji brat, you ... Your cultivation is your weakness. As long as you make up for it, you can completely fight him and even kill him! You are blessed by the heavens. No matter how powerful that Qin brat is now, he will not be your opponent in the end!”

“Don’t worry, the place we’re going to this time should have something that can make up for your shortcomings. ”

North Gate one said in a clear voice.

“Many thanks, senior!” Ji Wu Yi bowed and thanked him.

“Ah! No need to be so polite!”

North Gate waved his hand.

The group of sect Masters stood at the side, their expressions extremely respectful, not even daring to breathe loudly.

One must know that this was the soul of a Saint. When he was alive, he was a half-immortal with a peerless power. Even if he was only a soul, he could not be underestimated.

“Senior North Gate, may I ask, where are we going now?”

After hesitating for a moment, the Jiang family’s master asked.

“Have you ever heard of the ancient alien race?” Beimen Yi asked with a smile.

Upon hearing this, everyone was stunned. The master of the Yushi family’s expression changed slightly, and Beimen Yi’s eyes also glanced at him and fell on the teardrop-shaped mark between his eyebrows.

“This is the ancient race, the rain clan! Of course, compared to the ancient rain clan, you guys are still lacking by a lot. And this time, we’re going to the Thunder clan’s territory. ”

“The Thunder clan should have been exterminated a long time ago. However, their territory should still be there. I remember that there are many good things there. If we’re lucky, I think that Green Lotus should still be there.”

“Our target is that Green Lotus!”
