

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1235

“Brat, don’t run!”

The group of people gritted their teeth and gave chase.

However, the guy in front of them was too fast. In the blink of an eye, he had widened the distance between them. They could only watch as the guy ran through the entrance and disappeared.

They stopped.

Once that kid went out, he would definitely escape without a trace. They would definitely not be able to catch up.

“This damn brat ...”

They cursed in anger, their faces ashen.

The sect Masters were so angry that they were trembling. Even Beimen Yi’s face was gloomy.

The treasure that should have been in their hands had flown away and been intercepted by someone else. Anyone would be mad with anger.

Moreover, it was a ten-thousand-year-old green Lotus, a peerless divine item! This loss was too great!

Not to mention, the one who had stolen the treasure was that damned brat. Once the green Lotus fell into his hands, his strength would rise again and rush to Dao seeking Great Perfection, truly on par with them.

Right now, in terms of one-on-one combat, they could still barely suppress that brat. However, once that brat’s strength reached the consummate level, they would most likely not be his match.

Then, they were confused.

“Why is that kid here?”

The Jiang family’s master asked in confusion.

His brows were tightly furrowed, but he could not figure it out no matter what.

They were all very cautious. With their realms, if something was done to their bodies, they would definitely notice it.

As for following him, it was also impossible.

If that kid was following them, they would definitely notice.

The others were also puzzled.

“That’s right. That kid has countless wisps of his soul. If he used them to follow us, we might not be able to detect it. After all, we didn’t think that he would follow us, so we didn’t take any precautions.”

After pondering for a long time, the Yushi clan head said,”

“Yes, yes! That’s definitely it. We were too careless and were tricked by that kid. That kid is really cunning!”

The other sect Masters immediately agreed.

After cursing at the exit, the group of people looked at each other and smiled bitterly, looking a little embarrassed.

They had come to seek treasures to deal with that brat, but they had never expected to be ruthlessly tricked by that brat again. They had lost all their face.

“Al! Everyone, let’s not be too discouraged, that brat won’t be smug for long. We’ll make him spit out everything he’s eaten. ”

Sect leader Tongtian said.

“That’s right!” Beimen Yi also spoke up, “Ji boy, don’t be discouraged. I admit that the kid has some tricks up his sleeve and is quite a character. However, in my eyes, he’s nothing. He’s just a young kid!”

“With me here, you don’t have to worry about that kid! Actually, this Thunder World isn’t much. I know many places like this and there are many secrets about it. I know all of them!”

“That kid ... Is just a Grasshopper. He is jumping around happily now, but he will be crushed to death by me sooner or later!”

As he spoke, Beimen Yi sneered, his face showing a bit of contempt.

Who was he?

He was a mighty half-immortal, a Saint, and a powerful figure in the ancient times. In his eyes, a Dao pursuing realm kid was no different from an ant.

In the past, he could kill the kid with a breath.

Even now, when he was just a soul, he still had many ways to deal with that kid.

When everyone heard this, they were relieved.

That’s right! With this senior here, there was no need to worry about that brat. No matter how powerful that brat was, how could he be a match for a half-immortal? they would be able to crush that brat to death sooner or later.

“Don’t worry,” Beimen Yi said confidently, “I’ll kill that kid even if I have to bet my dignity as a half-immortal!” I believe ... It won’t be long. ”

Everyone was excited, and their faces were red as if they had been injected with chicken blood.

With the help of a half fairy, there was nothing they couldn’t do in this world.

That little brat?

Hehe! This was nothing at all! It was too easy, too simple!

Beimen Yi pondered for a moment, then laughed proudly. "I still have many ways to improve my strength, so it's not a problem, but ... To be cautious, I should choose a safer method."

"I have an ancient formation that can absorb the spiritual Qi from heaven and earth and turn it into Dao energy. It's just a little troublesome!"

"With cultivation, you won't be afraid of that kid anymore. At that time, we'll go explore around and find a few handy treasures. Then, killing that kid will be as easy as blowing off dust."

As he spoke, he smiled and his face was full of pride.

"Many thanks, senior!"

Ji Wu Yi bowed and thanked him. He looked a little excited.

"That's great!"

"Senior! I'm so grateful to you!"

The people from the Supreme sects were getting more and more excited.

The people from the other great sects were a little envious. If they obtained the soul of the Saint, the strength of the great sects in the heaven reaching realm would probably increase by a large margin and surpass them.

After discussing for a while more, they searched the world thoroughly before leaving.

At this time, Tang Hao was driving the Thunder firmament battleship. He was running wildly, shuttling through the void, afraid that he would be caught.

He didn't know how many times he had passed before he stopped. He asked and found out that he had arrived at the northern part of the first continent.

"We shouldn't be able to catch up!"

Tang Hao breathed a sigh of relief. He found a barren mountain and set up layers of formations.

"Cool!"

He sat down and took out his loot. He felt refreshed.

The feeling of snatching someone else's treasure was simply too satisfying.

Moreover, he was snatching his enemy's things. This kind of feeling was simply awesome, and it also gave him a special sense of accomplishment.

After taking a look at the treasure, he closed his eyes and connected his mind to the split souls in the South. After searching for a while, he found the group of people.

They had already come out of the Thunder World. They did not go anywhere else, but instead headed straight for the great sect.

Tang Hao watched them until they entered the sect, then he pulled his attention back.

"It seems that they won't be moving for a while. I'll level up first."

Tang Hao picked up the green Lotus and carefully removed the Lotus seed head. He opened it and saw seven lotus seeds inside. They were the size of longan fruits, glistening with a green light and exuding a refreshing fragrance.

With a light sniff, one would feel light and comfortable all over.

"As expected of a ten thousand year old green Lotus!"

“Amazing!” Tang Hao praised.

“I’ll swallow one first!”

Tang Hao picked up a lotus seed with his fingers.

His current cultivation level was not far from the great fulfilment, and one lotus seed was really a waste. Fortunately, his God’s bones could still be absorbed, so the medicinal effects would not be wasted.

He threw the Lotus seed into the air and swallowed it.

Then, he sat cross-legged and began to meditate to absorb the medicinal power of the Lotus seed.

BOOM!

As soon as the Lotus seed entered his stomach, waves of medicinal power surged out and madly rushed to his limbs and bones.

Tang Hao continued to absorb, and his aura rose sharply. In a short while, his aura reached its peak, finally reaching the great circle of Dao seeking!
