

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1236

Tang Hao opened his eyes in the valley.

“Not bad!”

He nodded slightly and revealed a satisfied expression.

Finally, his cultivation level reached the great circle of perfection, the peak of Dao pursuing realm. He was unable to advance any further. If he wanted to advance any further, he would have to charge towards Dao severing.

Dao seeking was difficult, but Dao severing was even more difficult!

This was also why there were many perfected Dao seeking cultivators in the first continent. Other than the sect Masters, there were many more in the first continent, but Dao severing was almost extinct.

Of course, part of the reason was that after reaching Dao severance, many people would find the astrolabe and leave the planet. But the biggest reason was that Dao severance was difficult.

To break through to Dao seeking, one only needed to channel the power of heaven and earth into one's body and then withstand the heavenly demon tribulation.

However, cutting off Dao was completely different. It required one to touch the origin of Dao.

There were 3000 great DAOs in the world, and only those who touched the origin of the Dao had the chance to break through to the realm of Dao severance.

The first step was to comprehend the origin of the great Dao and bear the Dao fruit on the Dao platform.

The second step was to comprehend the origin. When the Dao fruit ripened, he would draw in the power of heaven and earth and turn it into a blade to cut the Dao fruit. Then, he would reach the realm of Dao severance.

Cutting off a Dao fruit was the realm of cutting off one Dao.

Cutting down two was the second Dao realm.

And so on, the more Dao fruits one cut off, the higher one's realm was, and the more powerful one's strength would be.

That bei fenglie, the 18th generation golden cauldron master, was at the three Dao severing stage.

After severing three Dao, one would have a chance to become immortal. That was why he called himself severing three Dao, which was close to becoming immortal.

Severing the Dao was difficult. Severing one Dao was already difficult, severing two or three Dao was even more difficult. In the realm of severing the Dao, one would be considered a top expert.

"Cut the Dao ..."

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He looked emotional.

Finally, he was also about to reach this step.

He raised his head and looked at the sky.

Although one could only travel freely through the starry sky after becoming an immortal, with the astrolabe, severing one's Dao was enough. Many ancestors went to the starry sky after severing their Dao.

There, there was an even wider world.

"After severing my Dao, I might be able to go see ... See what's in the boundless starry sky ..."

"That giant God Dragon count ... And that mysterious Emperor NVWA's Palace should not be on the Qi Yuan star. We might be able to find some clues in the starry sky."

Tang Hao looked up at the sky, lost in thought.

After a while, he came back to his senses and muttered to himself.

“Cut Dao, cut Dao ... What Dao should I cut first?”

“There are 3000 great DAOs. Flame, Thunder, ices...There’s also slaughter, madness, and reincarnation. All of these are DAOs. As long as you can comprehend the origin, you can bear the fruit of Dao.”

“The Dao fruit will form on the Dao platform. When the time comes, it will be cut from the Dao platform. My Dao platform is a little broken. It should be fine, right?”

Tang Hao’s balls ached when he thought about his own platform.

His Dao platform was very special!

Other people’s Dao pillars weren’t as beautiful, but at least they were in good condition. However, his Dao pillar was broken and had a crack.

What was even more bizarre was that even though it was broken, the Dao platform was perfectly fine. It was working very well.

He didn’t even know if this Dao platform could bear Dao fruits.

Would there be any problems when he cut the Dao?

If something really went wrong and caused his Dao severance to fail, it would be too late for him to cry.

“No, I have to fix this!”

“But, this is a Dao pillar. How can I fix it?”

Tang Hao was confused.

“Dao-repairing platform? F * ck, kid, you’ve been crippled?” The eighteenth generation master was surprised.

“Pei Pei Pei! You’re the one who’s been crippled!”

Tang Hao said unhappily.

“Then why are you asking me how to fix the Dao pillars?” The eighteenth generation master was puzzled.

When he entered Tang Hao’s body and saw the damaged Dao pillar, he was stunned.

“Wait ... This is a Dao pillar? You’re not lying to me, are you?”

“Cha! It really was a Dao pillar! It was too magical! It can still be used even after it’s broken!”

The eighteenth generation master clicked his tongue in wonder.

“Then do you know how to do it or not?”

“I won ‘t!”

The eighteenth generation master shook his head, his tone unusually determined.

“Go, go, go!”

Tang Hao chased him away.

“Dao pillars? Aiya! 19th generation leader, you’ve been crippled?” The 17th generation leader also asked the same question.

Tang Hao explained again.

“Amazing! It was too magical! I’ve heard of a life Dao pillar, but I’ve never seen anyone create one because they’ve all died from the world-ending lightning tribulation.”

“That’s why I don’t know how to fix it! Go and ask that sixteen.”

When the sixteenth generation master came out, he was stunned.

“Little nineteen, why have you been crippled? Let me see if you’re alright!”

Tang Hao was speechless. He felt exhausted.

He was clearly fine, but did he look like he had been crippled?

“Dao-repairing platform? This matter is too difficult. Moreover, this isn’t an ordinary Dao pillar. It won’t be easy! You should ask old fifteen!”

The 16th generation leader shook his head and left.

He asked them one by one and explained to them one by one, but none of them knew.

Even the fifth master, Zhu rongyu, didn’t know.

“F * ck! Didn’t you give me the secret technique to condense my Natal infant?” Tang Hao rolled his eyes.

“Back then, I didn’t think that you would actually know how to do it, and that you would succeed.” Zhu Rong Yu chuckled.

“Aren’t you scamming me!”

Tang Hao could not help but roll his eyes.

“I’m sorry! According to what I know, once a Natal infant reaches Dao seeking, it either survives the lightning tribulation and forms a perfect Dao pillar or is killed by the lightning tribulation. It’s not like your situation.”

Zhu Rong Yu said.

“However, you can ask the people in front of you. They are much more senior than me and know more.”

After she finished speaking, she threw him a flirtatious look and went back in.

Tang Hao could only continue to call him that. The fourth generation master did not know, so he called him the third generation master.

With a flash of Scarlet light, a Scarlet Dragon rushed out and transformed into a man. It was the third generation master, Cang Yueli.

“Your situation is very interesting, very interesting!”

The third generation master muttered to himself.

After a while, he raised his hand and pointed at the green Lotus in front of Tang Hao.””This might be useful. Try it!”

With that, he turned into a Red Dragon and returned to the cauldron.

Tang Hao was stunned.

“Al! Why don’t you tell me how you’re going to make up for it?”

He called out, but there was no more movement inside.

“F * ck! All of you are a fraud!”

Tang Hao was a little depressed.

Then, he began to stir the green Lotus.

“This Dao platform looks like a lotus platform, and this one is also a Lotus platform, but the colors are different. The Dao platform is gold, and this one is green. Are the two related?”

“How about ... I first refine this Green Lotus platform and then let the Dao platform absorb it?”

Tang Hao pondered for a while and came up with a plan.

He didn't hesitate and immediately got to work. He picked up the Golden cauldron and started to refine the Lotus platform.

After refining for a few days, he finally melted the Lotus platform and produced a blue Qi.
