

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1237

Tang Hao swallowed the Qi.

After it entered his stomach, Tang Hao directed it to his dantian's sea of Dao.

In the sea of the path, the primordial Dao was like waves, rolling and surging. A golden platform floated in the middle. It was bright all over, shaped like a lotus platform, and it shone with mysterious patterns of the Dao.

There was also a crack in one corner.

Tang Hao directed the stream of Qi toward the platform and entered through the crack.

In an instant, the platform shook slightly.

Tang Hao's heart was in his throat. This was a Dao platform. It was extremely precious and was the foundation of one's cultivation. If anything happened to it, he would be finished.

Tang Hao waited for a while and breathed a sigh of relief when he saw that the platform was fine.

After a while, a faint green light bloomed on the platform and gradually became stronger. At the same time, the crack also bloomed with a green light.

Upon a closer look, one could see that the crack was slowly being repaired.

"It's indeed useful!"

Tang Hao was excited. "The third generation master is quite reliable!"

The speed of the repair was very slow. After about half a day, the crack was completely repaired.

When the cracks were repaired, the Dao platform also changed. It was no longer golden, but green. The upper part looked more like a lotus platform, but the Dao patterns on it did not change at all.

At the crack, the missing corner of the Dao pattern was also fixed. The entire Dao platform was flawless and perfect.

It had the noble and somewhat demonic aura of a nascent soul cultivator, as well as the elegant and tranquil aura of the Azure Lotus.

The moment the Dao pattern was completed, the Dao platform trembled and released a shocking divine light.

The divine essence rushed out of his body, broke through the array he had set up, and rushed into the sky.

“We’re finished!”

Tang Hao’s heart skipped a beat.

He quickly raised his head to take a look. As expected, the sky above his head had darkened. Hong long long, there was lightning accumulating. Moreover, it was not ordinary lightning, but golden lightning that could destroy the world.

“Again? Wretched heavens, are you done yet?”

“Shut up!” Tang Hao roared.

This was the Third World-ending lightning tribulation!

In the previous two lightning tribulations, he had lost all of his underwear and became a pauper. Now that he had finally gained some wealth, was he going to have another one?

If it really came, he would vomit blood.

Fortunately, the lightning stopped after rolling for a while. It was as if the heavens were stunned and didn’t know if they should send down the world-ending lightning tribulation.

The last time this Natal Dao pillar had been formed, it had already experienced a lightning tribulation, so it had been acknowledged by the heavens and earth. However, this time, when the Dao pillar had been repaired, it had leaked its aura, which had attracted the lightning tribulation.

After a long time, the lightning tribulation finally dispersed.

“Hu!”

Tang Hao heaved a sigh of relief. He felt like he had just survived a disaster.

If this lightning tribulation really came, not only would he have to pay with his pants down, but the Dao pillar would also be destroyed, and all his hard work would be in vain.

He quickly controlled the Dao platform and restrained his aura.

“This Green Lotus is good stuff!”

Tang Hao exclaimed in admiration as he looked at the green Lotus in front of him.

This thing was worthy of being a divine item. The Lotus seed contained an astonishing amount of spiritual energy, and this Lotus platform was even more magical. It could even repair a heaven-defying item like the life Dao platform.

He could also feel that after being repaired by the green Lotus platform, his life Dao pillar seemed to have undergone some subtle changes.

“I have to plant it. In the future, this will be a divine item of my Kunlun Sect! As for the six lotus seeds ...”

Tang Hao thought about it and decided to keep it for now.

Now that he was at the great circle of perfection, he was still far from severing his Dao. These lotus seeds were of no use to him. In the future, he could give them to the people in the sect to raise their cultivation and create a few Dao seeking great circle.

Star pupil, Taoist master Qian Ji, and the others could all use it.

Tang Hao put everything away and started to think about which type of Dao he should cultivate.

“I’m very good at fire techniques and Thunder techniques. These are also the DAOs that most old monsters choose the most. Compared to the illusory great DAOs, they are much easier to cultivate.”

“However, in terms of power, I’m afraid it can’t compare to great DAOs like the time reincarnation Dao and the Dao of withering.”

This was a difficult choice.

After a long while, Tang Hao smiled. “How difficult can it be? I’ve even formed my Natal spiritual infant, and I’ve even endured the world-ending lightning tribulation twice. What’s there to be afraid of?”

“The first Dao will be the time reincarnation Dao!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He suddenly felt a sense of heroism.

The Dao of time reincarnation was one of the Supreme great Dao. Once one comprehended the origin and bore the Dao fruit, one’s power would be boundless.

After making up his mind, Tang Hao was not in a hurry to comprehend it. After all, it was quite difficult to fully comprehend a great Dao. It required a lot of time. He calmed his mind and closed his eyes again.

Soon, his mind connected with the other split souls.

He found out that the group of people had not left the Supreme sect in the past few days. Instead, they had been working on a large array and throwing in countless natural treasures.

Once the formation was activated, it absorbed all the spiritual energy in the vicinity.

All the spirit Qi was absorbed by the formation, transformed, and poured into Ji Wu’s body, raising his cultivation to the complete earthly sovereign.

Then, the group of people did it again. This time, it was led by the Jiang family. They transported a large number of natural treasures and raised Jiang tianwu's cultivation to the consummate level.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard the news. His expression turned grave.

"That old man is indeed a little troublesome! The knowledge and experience of a half-immortal is truly terrifying!"

Tang Hao narrowed his eyes.

He instructed the split souls nearby to keep a close eye on the situation. Then, he collected his thoughts and started to comprehend the reincarnation doctrine.

After three days, the group of people finally made a move again. They came out of the Supreme sect on a big boat.

This ship was not the one from before.

After this group of people came out, they looked around vigilantly and released their soul sense to thoroughly search the area.

"There's no trace of that guy!"

After a search, they were finally at ease.

"It's fine even if that guy comes. We've changed to a big warship this time. It's a treasure of our transcending heaven sect. It can travel through the void. As long as we wear it a few times, that guy won't be able to find us even if he has the ability to reach the heavens!"

An elder of a great sect laughed.

"I actually hope that guy will follow us. That way, I can wash away my previous humiliation!"

At the bow of the ship, Ji Wu shouted coldly.

Beimen Yi floated beside him and smiled. "Ji brat, let's not be in a hurry. Let's go get some handy treasures first! Only then will we have absolute confidence!"

"Don't worry, you'll be able to take revenge very soon! That stinky brat, let him live for a few more days!"

"Yes! Senior!"

Ji Wu replied respectfully.

"Let's go! This time, we're going to that side!"

The north gate shouted as he pointed to the North.

Then, the ship moved and sped away. It shuttled through the void and disappeared.
