

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1246

After flying for a long time, Tang Hao finally found a place to land.

“It’s a pity that the precious Bell is gone!”

Tang Hao sighed. His heart ached.

“After all, they’re a titled noble family with deep foundations. They even have Dao-severing cultivators, but they’re not their match for now! I’ll leave the clock there for now, but I’ll get it back sooner or later.”

He consoled himself.

Then, he grinned and was overjoyed.

Although they had lost the precious Bell, they had ransacked Yushi’s house, emptied their elixir and treasure vaults, and robbed them of countless treasures.

The collection of a conferred family was truly a rich one.

There were boxes of elixirs, magical artifacts, spiritual materials, medicinal herbs, and sets of formations. There were all kinds of rare treasures. It was uncountable.

“I’m rich!”

Tang Hao was overjoyed as he counted the treasures.

With so many treasures, it was enough to let Kun Lun’s strength rise to another level.

“Fellow Daoist! We’re rich!”

“Waa! So many treasures, it’s so cool!”

The split souls sorted out the treasures together, all of them extremely excited.

After sorting out the treasures, they left one after another and flew in all directions. They set up a surveillance network again to monitor the entire first continent.

Soon, the news of what happened in Yushi's house spread to the Supreme sects.

"Hiss! It's too tragic!"

After hearing the news, sect master Tongtian, master Jiang, and the others all gasped and shuddered.

The elders were massacred, and hundreds of them were killed or injured. The Treasury was emptied, and even the Guardians were alarmed. The Yushi clan was forced into a desperate situation. Although the divine rain Bell was preserved, its Foundation had been shaken and its vitality was greatly damaged. It would take hundreds of years for it to recover.

"This kid is indeed a bit powerful!"

Even Beimen Yi sighed.

Following the bell, he travelled through the void and broke into Yushi's clan, fighting against an entire clan by himself. His courage was truly shocking!

"Hurry back! Tell the people in the clan to strengthen the defense and add a few more layers of arrays. Add as many layers as you can and stay alert at all times."

The people of the Jiang family couldn't sit still any longer. They hurriedly sent people back to strengthen the defense of the family.

Yushi's family was in a terrible state. They had to be on guard. That kid was as cunning as a Fox and had many tricks up his sleeve. If he managed to sneak into the family, the consequences would be unimaginable.

The other two forces also sent people back.

When the news spread to the other great sects and clans, it caused an even greater commotion.

“The clan head has fallen, and the clan has been bathed in blood. It’s really too tragic!”

“Hurry up! Quickly go take a look at the Treasury and strengthen the defenses. Bring out all the formations that can be used and cover every area of the clan with a few!”

After the shock, it was panic.

In every force, there was a trend of setting up formations. Inside and outside, in every corner, there had to be three layers of formations inside and three layers outside.

Apart from the patriarch and the sect master, no one else was allowed to enter, not even a fly.

Among these forces, the atmosphere was even more solemn and somber. Everyone was in a state of panic.

When the news spread, the first continent was in an uproar again.

“The Yushi clan’s patriarch is dead? He was even killed in the clan and killed hundreds of elders? F * ck! It must be fake! I know that Qin Wang is powerful, but I don’t think he’s that powerful!”

“Where did you hear that from? that’s a little too much!”

In the beginning, the crowd still didn’t believe it.

After all, this news was a little too outrageous!

All the elders of the ancestral hall had come out, and even the Guardians had been alarmed. However, the only opponent was the King of Qin. Were the elders of the Yushi clan all useless?

After all, that was the rain god clan, one of the ten great conferred clans.

However, this news was absolutely true, leaving them with no room for doubt.

“This King of Qin ... Is really something!”

Everyone sighed.

The last time the King of Qin appeared, the various sects made frequent moves. They thought that the King of Qin was going to be in trouble. After all, he was only one person. How could he be the opponent of so many great sects?

However, he didn't expect that the King of Qin was completely fine, and instead, it was Yushi's family that suffered.

“Yushi's family is so miserable. They've suffered a great loss!”

“Exactly! Hey! That Qin Wang is truly the nemesis of the sect master. Last time, it was the Jiang clan's clan master, and now it's the Yushi clan's clan master. There are already two of them, I wonder who's next!”

“It's hard to say. This time, the King of Qin made a big scene and forced the Yushi family into a desperate situation. They're a titled noble family, but they have a Dao-severing cultivator. I heard that he's out now, and he's furious! I'm afraid that Qin Wang is in trouble!”

For a time, this matter caused an uproar.

Meanwhile, Tang Hao was in a Valley. He was comprehending the time reincarnation Dao while monitoring his surroundings.

Every day, all sorts of information would be sent to him. He knew exactly which sect master was there and what actions the great sects were taking.

He knew about the situation in Yushi's house. The Guardian had come out, but he hadn't made any moves yet.

He focused on monitoring the heavenly sect. After all, his biggest enemies were Ji Wu and the half-immortal soul.

However, after waiting for more than ten days, they still did not come out.

“They’re definitely on guard Against Me!”

Tang Hao naturally understood their intentions.

He waited for a few more days, and when there was still no movement from them, Tang Hao set his sights on the other sect Masters.

Those sect Masters also went to explore all kinds of dangerous places in groups of three or five. Without the guidance of a half-immortal soul, they didn’t gain as much as the sects in the sky, but they still gained a lot.

Every time they were about to get their hands on the treasure, Tang Hao would make his Grand appearance and run away after snatching the treasure, leaving the sect Masters dumbfounded.

“Why is that kid here?”

“F * ck! This kid again? This is too strange!”

If it happened once or twice, they would think that it was an accident. However, if it happened three or four times, they would be completely dumbfounded.

“Motherf * cker! It’s this kid again! I’ve really seen a ghost!”

“I’m so angry! Little brat, return my baby!”

The sect Masters were so angry that they spat out blood.

They had worked so hard, and sometimes even risked their lives. They had put in great effort, but every time at a critical moment, that kid would make a dazzling appearance.

It was simply strange!

They couldn't figure out how the kid was tracking them.

Their eyes and ears were all over the sky, and they could appear and disappear like ghosts. Such means made them a little terrified.

They were like birds startled by the mere twang of a bow. As soon as there was any movement, they would be frightened to the point of being on edge.

"Damn it, I quit! Isn't this just working for that kid!"

In the end, those sect Masters all gave up and returned to the sect. They didn't leave the door and began to concentrate on cultivation. They also began to strive for the realm of Dao severance.

They finally realized that the earlier they broke through to the Dao severance realm, the more useful it would be than any other treasure.

If they could sever their Dao earlier than that brat, they would have a chance to take revenge.

Tang Hao had nothing to do since they did not take action. He focused on cultivating. Both sides ceased their activities, and the first continent became peaceful again.
