

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1247

Tang Hao sat cross-legged in the valley.

His eyes were closed and he was comprehending the time reincarnation doctrine.

After a long time, he opened his eyes and frowned.

He had still underestimated the reincarnation doctrine. Furthermore, the path-understanding tree was not by his side. He had left it at Kunlun for his disciples to comprehend techniques and condense nascent Qi.

As a result, the progress was even slower.

“The cycle of time ... Such a great Dao is truly profound and abstruse. It’s difficult to comprehend it and bear Dao fruits!”

Tang Hao shook his head and sighed.

Then, he stretched out his hand and grabbed an ape from the side. He raised his hand gently and pointed out a finger.

At the tip of his finger, a mysterious power was condensed.

This was the power of reincarnation.

Upon coming into contact with this power, the ape rapidly aged. It was originally young and strong, but in the blink of an eye, it had rotted and aged.

For a long time, it remained in this state and did not recover.

Tang Hao pointed at it again, and it quickly returned to its youthful appearance. Then, it continued to transform, its body gradually shrinking until it turned into a young ape.

This was reverse Samsara. Tang Hao had not been able to do it in the past, but now that he had some insight, he understood this move.

Tang Hao only stopped after a few rounds of testing.

Just as he was about to continue his comprehension, one of the Jades on his body suddenly trembled.

He picked it up and looked at it. His eyebrows raised slightly, and he revealed a little surprise.

This was left for him by the system. Every time it moved, it was definitely the system looking for him. It was also not far away, so it was a reminder to him that he was almost there.

Sure enough, not long after, a sound was heard from the sky in the distance. A large ship was speeding over, and there were a few people standing at the bow of the ship. Wasn't the person leading the ship Sir system?

Tang Hao rose to his feet and waved his hand. Formation flags flew out from all directions of the valley, dispelling the formation.

"Yo! Kid, you're quite spirited!"

Sir system looked from afar and shouted.

Daoist Liu carried his signature hoe and stood behind the old man, mumbling, "This stinky brat is becoming more and more abnormal. I heard that he killed another sect master!"

Tang Hao leaped and flew over to the ship.

"Long time no see, everyone!"

He cupped his hands and smiled.

Sir system sized him up and took a breath of cold air. "Good kid, you're already a Paragon! No wonder you turned Yushi's house upside down!"

As he spoke, he could not help but smile bitterly.

This kid's realm had risen too quickly. It was so fast that he found it hard to believe.

When he first met this kid in the great void realm, he was clearly still in the foundation establishment stage.

It hadn't been long since they had recruited this kid into their group. But now, this kid was already at the consummate level, while they were still at the late stage, just a little bit away from the consummate level.

"This kid ..."

Old Daoist Liu grimaced in pain. His stomach ached and his teeth ached.

"Little brother Tang isn't an ordinary person. He's not someone we can compare with!" Liu Moran sat at the side and chuckled.

"That's true!"

Daoist Liu said resentfully.

After some small talk, Tang Hao asked, "My Lord, where are you going this time?"

"This time, the place we're going to has a huge background. It's the legendary divine Island, Kun Wu!" Sir system said with a serious expression.

"Kunwu divine Island?"

Tang Hao's expression changed.

The name sounded extraordinary.

“This Kunwu is from the ancient ... No, it should be the ancient times. In any case, it is the most ancient force and is somewhat related to the legendary great God Kunwu.”

“You also know that the great gods of that generation, whether it was the great void God who created the great void realm or this great God Kunwu, were all mythical figures. This Kunwu naturally also has a bit of mythical color.”

“There have been many legends about Kunwu Island. However, it’s only a legend after all. It’s illusory and there are no clues. For thousands of years, many people have been searching for Kunwu Island, but they have never found any clues. ”

“However, just a few days ago, there was news from the 15th continent that someone found an Island suspected to be Kunwu. Some people went in but were completely annihilated.”

“The news has already spread in the circle of old monsters, causing a great commotion. After we heard about it, we came to find you and wanted to go and check it out.”

Sir system explained the whole story.

“The 15th continent!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

“That’s right!” Sir system nodded and said.

“There must be a lot of people going!” Tang Hao furrowed his brows.

The news had not yet reached the first continent, and the great sects had not made any moves. However, such sensational news should spread very soon.

At that time, those great sects would probably go, and those from the second continent, as well as those martial Immortals and flame Immortals, would definitely go. All the old monsters on the entire Qi Yuan planet would not be able to resist.

He had too many enemies, so this trip would be a little dangerous.

Ji Wu's strength had skyrocketed, and he could already fight to a draw with him. With the help of the half-immortal soul, his strength could even suppress him. If he had not relied on the Dao platform last time, it would have been difficult to break out.

And if they met again, the opponent would definitely be on guard against the ability of his Dao pillars, and it would be difficult to obtain any miraculous effects.

Furthermore, there was also Yushi's Dao-severing true Lord. If he went, it would be troublesome.

Tang Hao thought of many things in an instant.

"Kid, are you going or not?"

Sir system asked.

"This ..."

Tang Hao hesitated for a long time, then nodded. He could not miss such an opportunity.

"But I can't go with you!" "I'm sure you understand!" Tang Hao said.

"Naturally! We didn't want to go with you, we just came to tell you that if we really go with you, we'll be killed by those sect Masters!"

Sir system laughed.

After a pause, he said, "kid, be careful. You have too many enemies now. So many sect Masters, and I heard that the martial immortal and the flame immortal have made enemies with you. You are the enemy of the whole world in the circle of old monsters."

"I'm fine!" Tang Hao smiled. If we really have enemies all over the world, then so what!"

His tone carried a bit of heroic spirit.

When he had been in the ninth continent, he had also made enemies with the entire world. When he had come to the first continent, it had been the same. He had been hunted down by many forces in the first continent. Now, he was still alive and well.

“You little brat ...” Sir system shook his head and smiled bitterly.

Daoist Liu laughed and said, “kid, I, Daoist Liu, have only admired a few people in my life. You’re one of them!” Take care! Please don’t die!”

“Don’t worry!”

“Alright, we’ll be leaving then!”

Sir system and the others waved their hands and urged the big boat to change direction and sail back.

Tang Hao stood in the air and watched them leave.

After a long time, he retracted his gaze and revealed a thoughtful expression.

“This time, I have to plan well and make preparations!”

Tang Hao mumbled. He waved his hand again, and the Thunder firmament battleship flew out.

He jumped on it and activated the ship. He then traveled through the void and headed for the 15th continent.
