

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1248

Whoosh! Whoosh!

In the sky above the vast ocean, rays of light swept over.

Some rode on cranes, some rode on ships, and some rode on sea beasts. Some rode on sea beasts, while others rode on the waves.

These figures all had extraordinary auras. Some of them were dressed in fluttering Daoist robes, looking like Immortals, while others were intimidating and imposing.

All of them were late stage Dao seeking thousand-year-old monsters. There were even quite a few who were at the great circle of Dao seeking.

Their destination was the same.

The news that an Island suspected to be in Kunwu had appeared had spread long ago, shaking the entire circle of old monsters on the Qi Yuan planet.

Qiyuan star was huge, but it was not big for the circle of old monsters. Once there was any big movement, it would spread very quickly, not to mention a relic like Kunwu divine Island that was close to a legend.

The entire circle of old monsters was boiling.

Whether it was the first continent, the second continent, or the other 16 continents, all the old monsters were excited. Even some old monsters who had not been born for a long time came out and rushed to the sea near the 15th continent.

Because of Kunwu's birth, this Sea region had become a Land of Storms.

In a certain area of the sea, a huge wave rose up on the surface of the sea. A huge figure was swimming in the water, moving quickly.

And the direction he was heading in was the fifteenth continent.

It was a giant whale, its size unbelievably huge. As it swam, it set off huge waves, and its momentum was terrifying.

There were many mysterious patterns on its back.

He moved forward quickly, occasionally letting out a long cry that shook the world.

Hearing this long cry, all the creatures in the sea area trembled.

Some of the cultivators wandering on the sea were also shocked.

“Overlord! The Overlord of the sea has arrived!”

“Look, my God! It’s a huge whale!”

Many people saw the huge wave from afar and cried out in shock.

Following that, the surface of the sea beneath their feet exploded without any warning, setting off huge waves that smashed them into pieces and exploded.

Hmph!

The giant whale snorted and continued to move forward.

Soon, he was close to his destination.

“We’re almost there!”

He mumbled to himself as his body suddenly charged upwards.

With a loud crash, he leaped out. His huge body suddenly shrank, and he suddenly turned into a burly man.

The huge waves came and held him.

He stood on the tip of the waves, holding a large halberd in his hand, and looked forward with his eyes like torches.

“The birth of Kunwu is truly a great opportunity. If I can obtain even a little of this opportunity, I can rush to the great fulfillment as I wish and have hope of severing my Dao in this life.”

As he muttered to himself, his face revealed some excitement and excitement.

“More importantly, if I can find an opportunity to improve my strength, I can deal with that kid. That kid ... Is too terrifying! He’s so young, but he’s already a Cult Master level figure.”

As he spoke, his expression became serious and he revealed a bit of worry.

He had naturally heard of what had happened in the first continent recently. Another sect master had died, and Yushi’s family had suffered heavy losses. All of this had been caused by that kid.

“This kid is truly monstrous!”

He let out a huge sigh before snorting lightly. “However, I’m from the void whale clan. I’m born with the ability to traverse the void. He can’t do anything to me.”

“Besides, he’s made so many enemies, even Dao severing Almighty experts. He’s going to die sooner or later!”

After he finished speaking, he snorted again and continued to rush over.

Not long after, he suddenly stopped and sniffed hard, revealing a suspicious look. “Hmm? What is this smell?”

A moment later, his entire body trembled, and he revealed a look of excitement.

“This is the smell of Spirit Water! Let me see where it’s from!”

His eyes narrowed and he looked around. He saw that a battle was happening in the distance. A xiuzhe was fighting with a sea beast.

Looking at their auras, both of them were at the late stage of Dao seeking.

“Beast, why aren’t you obediently submitting!”

That xiuzhe was controlling a Black Flag. Black water poured out from it and turned into flood Dragons that pounced at the sea beast in the sea.

“This is ... The three one mysterious water! Hahaha! The heavens are really helping me! With this spiritual water, my strength will increase by a few points!”

“These two ... Should be heading to Kunwu. One human and one demon, no wonder they fought. I was like the Mantis stalking the cicada, unaware of the Oriole behind, and easily obtained the spiritual water!”

He didn’t go over immediately. Instead, he dived into the water and waited. He was waiting for both sides to exhaust their strength as much as possible so that he could kill two birds with one stone.

After waiting for a moment, the two sides fought more and more fiercely, and he was also more and more happy.

When it was almost time, his figure moved and suddenly disappeared. He shuttled through the void, and when he reappeared in the next moment, he was already behind the cultivator.

He rushed out of the void, raised his halberd, and slashed.

Seeing that the halberd was about to hit him, he was ecstatic.

However, at this moment, the xiuzhe suddenly turned around. His mouth pulled open and he smiled at him.

He was stunned and suddenly had a bad feeling.

“Long time no see, old whale!”

A familiar voice came out of the xiuzhe’s mouth.

When he heard this voice, his entire body trembled, and he was so shocked that his soul almost flew away. How could he not remember this voice? it was that damn, incomparably terrifying brat.

Not good! This was a trap!

He finally came to his senses and was scared out of his wits.

How did this kid know that I would pass by here? Furthermore, he had put in so much effort to put on such a show?

At the same time, he was extremely puzzled.

In his opinion, this was simply impossible!

But at this time, there was no time to think. He retracted his body and activated his Divine Art, wanting to escape.

“Hmph! Want to leave? No way! Today, I’m going to kill you, old whale, and refine your void bone into my treasure!”

Tang Hao grunted angrily and struck out with his palm.

Bang!

Following that, a miserable cry rang out. The old whale’s entire body seemed to have been struck by lightning, and he was sent flying while spitting out blood.

“Don’t ... Don’t kill me!”

He cried out in panic and begged.

“Not kill you? Do you remember how many times you’ve tried to harm me? the first time was in the sun Sky Valley, and you wanted to kill me and take my treasures. You were the one who sent me into the well at the ancient Dao lakes ....”

Tang Hao stepped into the air. His face was cold and his killing intent was shocking.

With a wave of his hand, the Golden cauldron flew out and directly enveloped the old whale. He wanted to refine it alive and refine a piece of precious void bone. Then, he would forge it into a void Supreme treasure that belonged to him.

Once the void treasure was formed, he would be able to obtain the divine ability of the void whale clan, allowing him to travel through the void as he pleased.

This trip to Kunwu had also increased his confidence.

“Ah, Yingluo!”

“Quickly let me out!”

From the cauldron, shrill screams and pleas could be heard.

However, it gradually became lighter, and soon, there was no more sound.

The demon Lord of the East Sea had been refined, leaving only a golden bone.
