

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1260

“Pa!”

A crisp sound.

The Jiang family’s master gave himself a slap to see if he was dreaming.

It would hurt!

This wasn’t a dream!

But how was that possible?

Those palaces were clearly guarded by restrictions. There was only one way to enter, and that was to break the restrictions. It was impossible to swagger in like this kid.

“It’s too strange!”

He mumbled, his face dazed.

“This ... This is impossible! That’s impossible!” Beimen Yi was also dumbfounded. He couldn’t believe his eyes.

“You see, it’s very simple!”

Tang Hao shrugged at them, as if he had said it all along.

Everyone’s face twitched and turned red.

This was a slap in the face!

Just now, they were still laughing at this kid for not being able to take down a single Palace. But in the blink of an eye, he had already emptied two, and it was so easy and simple.

Many old monsters were so depressed that they wanted to vomit blood. Why was this kid so relaxed, while they had to work so hard and blast for half a day before they could blast open one?

This was too unfair!

“It’s a coincidence! It must be a coincidence!” Beimen Yi shouted, his face ashen.

In his opinion, this kid must have mastered some kind of secret technique that could deceive these restrictions. That was why he could easily enter the hall without triggering the restrictions.

However, it was impossible for this secret technique to be effective against all restrictions. Moreover, it could not hide from the formation.

“Yes, yes! It must be a coincidence!”

Everyone chimed in.

“Is that so?”

Tang Hao smirked, then turned around and walked toward the palace.

He swaggered over and kicked the door open. Then, a gust of wind swept past and the palace was emptied in an instant.

Everyone’s mouth fell open and they were dumbfounded again.

Beimen Yi’s mind went blank. He couldn’t understand what was going on!

“Is three enough? Not enough? Then I’ll have another one!”

“Is four not enough? Alright, I’ll take a few more!”

In the beginning, the crowd would still exclaim in shock, but gradually, they became numb and could only watch the kid empty Palace after Palace.

There was dead silence all around.

Whether it was the humans or the descendants of the untainted land, all of them stopped what they were doing and turned their gazes over.

All of their faces were dumbfounded.

“Now you believe me!”

After emptying countless palaces, Tang Hao finally stopped and turned to look at the others.

The surroundings were still deathly silent.

After a long time, the person from the north gate said in a trembling voice, “You ... You ... How did you do that?”

“Simple! It was too simple! I’m not bragging! This place is like my home. I can go wherever I want. No restriction or formation can stop me!”

Tang Hao smiled, his expression unreadable.

When everyone heard this, they really wanted to curse.

This is your home?

F * ck! This bragging was too much!

However, they couldn’t refute him. This kid really came and went as he pleased. There was no obstacle at all. It was really unbelievable!

“Hurry up! Stop this kid, we can’t let him continue moving!”

An old monster roared.

At this time, everyone suddenly came to a realization.

This kid was too fast. In a short while, more than half of the palace had been emptied by him. If this continued, they would not have a share here.

“Kill this brat!”

Everyone shouted and became murderous. They all took out their treasures and boosted their Dao energy, ready to attack.

“Just you guys?”

Tang Hao’s eyes swept across the room and he could not help but laugh.

Clang clang clang!

With the armor on his body, he took out his halberd and prepared to face the enemy.

At this moment, there was a sound from the side.

There were the cries of birds, Tigers, and flood Dragons. All kinds of sounds interweaved together, making it a little noisy and noisy.

“What’s that sound?”

Everyone was stunned and turned around to look.

In that direction, there was a flood rushing over. In front of it were more than a dozen beast souls, including Luan birds and flood Dragons. All of them had a shocking aura.

Behind them were treasures. There were swords, pots, and battle armors. There were all kinds of treasures.

Their appearance was also different, some were bright and dazzling, while others were dim and tattered.

These treasures gathered into a torrent and followed behind the beast souls, rolling straight toward the sacred mountain.

“That’s a tool soul!”

“Heavens! That aura ... Could it be a Supreme level treasure?”

After seeing it clearly, everyone revealed a shocked expression.

In this torrent, there were more than a dozen treasures that were the most eye-catching. The auras that they emitted were all Supreme level treasures!

More than a dozen Supreme treasures!

This was a shocking treasure that could drive any old monster crazy!

It should be known that in the entire Qi Yuan planet, there were only about 20 Supreme treasures on the surface, and now there were about 10 of them.

The group of old monsters ‘breathing suddenly turned rapid, and their eyes were filled with extreme greed.

“Hahaha! The heavens are really helping me!”

The warrior immortal laughed out loud. “I was just worried that I didn’t have a place to get one, and now it’s delivered to my door!”

He was overjoyed. In terms of strength, he was not much weaker than the cult Master, but he did not have a Supreme treasure, so he could not be called a true Cult Master.

As long as he could get one, he could become a true sect master.

He was not the only one. Flame immortal and the other old monsters of similar strength were also eager to make a move, eyeing this batch of Supreme treasures.

As for the great sects, they would not let them go.

“Be good! So many Supreme treasures!”

Tang Hao looked up and was left speechless.

However, on second thought, he felt relieved.

This was Kunwu, where Supreme treasures were only considered decent and not top-grade treasures. He had seen many top-grade treasures in the eldest young master’s memories.

However, who would complain about having more treasures? Tang Hao’s heart was also burning with desire as he set his eyes on these Supreme treasures.

“Good treasure!”

“Great!” Tang Hao praised as he glanced at the treasures.

Then, he continued to look around, trying to see if there were any other treasures.

After scanning the room, his eyes suddenly froze as he stared at a certain spot.

It was a bow!

A bronze bow!

“This is ...”

His entire body trembled, and a look of disbelief appeared on his face.

“I can’t be wrong, it’s this! This is the bow!”

He mumbled to himself as if he was in a trance. He was so excited that his entire body was trembling.

He couldn’t be mistaken; he had seen this bow before. It was one of the five great paragons, Paragon Chao Qing’s treasure.

Tang Hao had completely forgotten about the Supreme treasure. Compared to this treasure, the other Supreme treasures were not even worth mentioning. In fact, they could only be considered trash.

A Paragon treasure was definitely a tribulation tool, an existence that surpassed a Supreme treasure!
