

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1263

The old monsters were dumbfounded.

He had thought that even if the kid obtained the Tribulation artifact, he wouldn't be acknowledged and wouldn't be able to control it. But he didn't expect that in the blink of an eye, the artifact Spirit would admit it.

This was too F * cking casual! Was this still a tribulation weapon?!

They had the urge to vomit blood.

Then, their expressions changed drastically.

"Hurry up! Do it!"

"Let's attack together and kill him! We can't let him control the Tribulation artifact!"

They were all anxious and roared, revealing a ferocious killing intent on their faces.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The Supreme treasures were activated once again, and beams of light shot into the sky, shaking the void.

"Stinky brat, even if you get the Tribulation tool, you're still going to die!"

True Monarch Yu Ling roared in anger.

Between his eyebrows, the water drop mark brightened. At the same time, the Dao ring on his back also shone with a dazzling light.

Clang clang clang!

The divine rain Bell flew out, and a clone of the rain deity appeared, howling towards the sky.

The ancient sword buzzed and trembled, and a shocking sword Qi burst out.

He used the power of one person to activate two Supreme treasures and attacked.

“I have to kill him before he can completely control the Tribulation artifact!” Beimen Yi shouted.

Ji wuche picked up his golden spear and attacked with all his might.

Everyone moved. They gritted their teeth and burst out with all their strength. They all understood that once this kid successfully controlled the Tribulation weapon, they would be in big trouble.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

One figure after another, one light after another, attacked from all directions.

In the center, the figure held the bow and stood still. Even his eyes were closed, as if he was comprehending something.

When the light reached him, he finally moved.

He opened his eyes, and they shone with a piercing golden light.

His eyes were like two blazing Suns, dazzling and divine.

A disdainful and overbearing aura burst out from his body.

Weng Weng Weng!

The bow trembled violently, and an even more dazzling divine light burst out.

Facing the countless rays of light coming at him, his expression was calm. He only raised his hand and pulled the bowstring.

A Golden Arrow was formed on the string.

The arrow was so dazzling that the light it emitted caused the world to lose its color. At the same time, an extremely terrifying pressure spread out, suppressing the entire void.

At that moment, that figure and that Golden Arrow became the center of the world.

“Heavens! What a terrifying power!”

“This is a tribulation tool?”

Feeling this power, all the old monsters exclaimed in shock.

Their faces were contorted from extreme shock and fear.

“So what if you cut your Dao! I’ll destroy it with one arrow!”

Tang Hao shouted.

He loosened his grip and shot out an arrow.

As the arrow shot out, the wind and clouds swirled and the void cracked. The momentum was terrifying.

The ancient sword was the first to rush over. When it collided with the arrow light, the sword Qi instantly collapsed. Then, with a clang, the ancient sword was forcibly blown apart, exploding into pieces.

True Lord Yu Ling’s eyes widened, and his eyeballs were about to pop out.

Oh my God!

An arrow that could destroy a Supreme treasure, what kind of terrifying power was this!

His entire body trembled in shock, and his face was completely twisted.

The arrow was unstoppable. It continued to shoot forward and pierced through the rain deity's clone.

This giant that was a thousand feet tall was pierced through by the arrow and turned into dust.

Then, the beams of light were all destroyed by the arrow light.

"What ... What kind of power is this? Ji brat, quickly retreat! You can't stop it!" Beimen Yi cried out in shock, his face filled with extreme fear.

He shouted repeatedly, urging Ji Wu to escape.

Ji Wu's face turned pale and he was shocked.

This arrow was too terrifying!

Even if he had two Supreme treasures, what was the use?

A tribulation weapon was enough to completely crush him!

"I'm not willing!" He roared madly, and his expression became ferocious.

Previously, he had suffered setbacks time and time again at the hands of this fellow. It was not easy for him to have a chance to turn things around, but he did not expect that his opponent would obtain a tribulation weapon and crush him again.

"Let's go!"

Beimen Yi shouted and pulled Ji Wu back.

However, it was already too late. The arrow had already arrived.

Bang!

There was a loud bang.

Then, there was a cry of pain.

Ah!

Ji Wu spat out blood and flew back. The Golden spear in his hand fell out, and his Supreme armor was shattered. Half of his body exploded, and he looked miserable.

Hiss!

The old monsters who were watching from a distance gasped and felt their scalps go numb.

The arrow did not stop there. It continued to shoot out towards true Lord Yu Ling.

“Don’t be scared!”

True Monarch Yu Ling cried out in fear and wanted to Dodge, but his entire body seemed to be fixed in place, and he couldn’t move at all. He could only watch as the arrow shot towards him.

Ah!

There was another shrill scream.

Half of true Lord Yu Ling’s body was shattered, leaving only the other half of his body. He turned into a streak of light and fled frantically. He didn’t even bother to retrieve the divine rain Bell.

In the blink of an eye, he had escaped without a trace.

The arrow light continued to shoot toward the martial immortal.

“F * ck! And it’s so fierce?”

The martial immortal cursed. He was so scared that his face was twitching.

“Little brat, I’ll F * ck you! Ah, Yingluo!”

The martial immortal cried out in pain as he was forced back by the arrow.

However, the arrow did not have much power at this point. It only forced him back and dissipated.

The surroundings suddenly fell silent, deathly still.

All the old monsters and the descendants of the chaos were frozen on the spot, their faces blank.

One arrow, just one arrow, seriously injured a Dao-slaying Supreme and so many old monsters!

The power of this arrow was truly terrifying!

“This bow ... Is too powerful! We can’t fight them head-on, let’s go! Ji brat, where there’s life, there’s hope! We’ll think of a way to deal with him in the future!”

Beimen Yi shouted.

When he saw Tang Hao raise his hand, draw the bow again, and aim the arrow at them, he was so scared that he picked up Ji Wu and fled.

“Hmph!”

Tang Hao snorted. He turned the arrow and pointed it at a sect master.

“Die!”

He let out a soft breath and shot out an arrow.

“Don’t be scared!”

The cult Master screamed in fear and wanted to escape. However, before he could escape, he was caught up and crushed into powder by an arrow. His divine soul and Dao pillar were also shattered, and he died completely.

Then, Tang Hao drew his bow again and pointed it at another sect master.

The sect master trembled and almost peed his pants.

He turned around and ran away.

Whoosh!

The arrow light caught up and exploded him.

“Mother of God!”

“Let’s go!”

Everyone cried out in panic. They were almost scared to tears by this terrifying scene.

That was the sect master!

They were people who could shake the entire Qi Yuan planet with just a stomp of their feet, but now, one of them had been blown up by an arrow. It was as easy as slaughtering chickens and dogs. It was too terrifying.
