

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1266

Ninth continent, Southern domain.

Somewhere high up in the sky, the air suddenly rippled, and a figure stepped out.

He was wearing a white bone armor, and there was a golden bone on his chest that was emitting a hazy brilliance.

“We’re here!”

He muttered as he looked down.

Then, with a few clanking sounds, the battle armor disintegrated and flew back into the ring.

He changed into a simple white robe and changed his appearance. Then, he landed and headed to the nearest city.

“I’ve been away for a few months. I don’t know what happened during this time! Did the Taoist priest and the others cause any trouble?”

Tang Hao grinned when he thought about that.

When he had left the ninth continent, the Daoist priest and the others had already caused a huge ruckus. The great void realm and the southern region had been in chaos. In the past few months, it had probably become even more serious.

After entering the city and asking around, it was indeed so.

“Shame! The Alliance Army suffered another crushing defeat!”

“The mysterious super force looks down on Kunlun-”

Such reports filled all the major newspapers and made the front-page headlines.

From this, one could see how popular Kun Lun had been recently.

Tang Hao bought a huge stack of newspapers and read them one by one.

The ninth continent had been very lively during this time.

In the great void realm, the forces like the primitive mountain were unwilling to admit defeat and vowed to take revenge. They gathered all the forces in the ninth continent and formed an alliance, launching attacks several times.

In the first level of the ninth domain, there was a fierce battle every day.

You kill me, I kill you. It's fine if you die, we'll fight again on the platform.

Every time, it would end with the defeat of the forces such as the primitive mountain, which made them more and more ashamed and resentful.

In reality, they had long discovered the traces of the Taoist masters and had sent large groups of people to the southern mountain range to search and track them.

However, the Taoist masters were too slippery, and they had yet to catch a single one.

On the other hand, the people from the large sects were often tricked. If they were not tricked, they would be knocked unconscious by a bludgeon, stripped of their things, and then thrown into the grass.

The Taoist masters continued to commit crimes everywhere. One by one, the treasure vaults of the sects were emptied, and countless cultivators were knocked unconscious by bludgeons. Everything was looted.

Not only were the newspapers full of news about Kun Lun, even the people in the restaurant were discussing it.

"I lost again! Are those people all trash?!"

“The people of Kun Lun are too despicable, they’re simply a bunch of pests! He’s The Public Enemy of the ninth continent!”

At the mention of Kun Lun, everyone gritted their teeth in anger.

Tang Hao could only laugh when he heard that.

After sitting in the restaurant for a while, a commotion suddenly broke out on the street. Someone ran over and shouted, “Good news! Good news! Those bastards have finally been caught!”

“We’ve finally caught him? Where was he? I’m going to take a look!”

“Hahaha! The heavens really have eyes!”

The entire Street was in an uproar.

“We did catch them. They’re in the Cangwu Kingdom. We’ve trapped them with a formation. I heard that the primitive mountain is going to use them as bait to lure more people.”

The man shouted.

“That’s great!”

“Go! Let’s go and take a look!”

Everyone was overjoyed and cheered.

Then, they set off impatiently for the Cangwu nation.

Tang Hao was surprised when he heard the news.

“Let’s go and take a look!”

Tang Hao stood up after some thought.

With Zi Yue, Ku Zhu, and Ling Yue, the three thousand-year-old monsters, in charge of Kunlun, they could easily solve this matter. However, for safety's sake, he still decided to go and take a look.

Cangwu nation was bustling with activity at the moment.

As soon as the news spread, people came from all directions. Most of them were here to watch the show, and some were here to collect debts.

Near the White moon Mountain, it was even more crowded. The three inner and three outer layers were filled with people.

On the top of the mountains, there were flags of both the primitive mountain and the DI family.

Under the battle flag stood groups of people.

“Hahaha! Little thieves, just give up! With your cultivation, you can't break this array. Stay here obediently and I'd like to see how many people will come to save you!”

The Lord of the primitive mountain laughed.

At this moment, he was feeling carefree and exalted.

On the other mountains, the DI family master and the others were also laughing heartily.

They looked at the valley in front of them with smug expressions.

This time, they were fully prepared. They would definitely not fail again.

Kun Lun's strength wasn't bad, but they weren't bad either. Each sect had a Dao pursuing expert that was enough to suppress the opponent.

“We’re not in a hurry. Let’s wait slowly!”

They began to wait patiently.

Half a day passed, but there was no movement.

A day had passed, and there was still no movement.

More and more people gathered around, but there was no sign of anyone from Kun Lun.

“The way I see it, there’s an 80% chance that he’s already here and is just waiting in the crowd! We can’t just wait like this, we have to goad them!”

“Good idea!”

The primitive Mountain Master and the others gathered together and discussed in low voices.

Very quickly, they had a plan.

“What Kun Lun, you’re just a bunch of cowards! Don’t be fooled by their ferocity in the great void realm. In fact, they are all as timid as mice. ”

“That’s right, they’re a group of sinister villains who only know how to hit people in the back. They’re not men! If you’re a man, then come out and we’ll face each other. ”

They looked around and shouted.

“Hahaha!”

The crowd burst into laughter.

“Well said! That’s a bunch of cowards!” The crowd was even more boisterous.

“The disciples are all like this. I think the sect master of Kunlun is the same. He’s a coward, like a woman!” The DI family master laughed out loud and mocked.

The laughter from all around grew louder.

Everyone also realized that the DI family master and the others were goading the Kun Lun people to show up.

They looked around with a sneer.

Tang Hao stood in the crowd with a strange expression on his face.

He was prepared to come and take a look, but now, he couldn’t help it.

“Is Kun Lun’s sect master here yet?” the DI family master shouted again. If you’re here, then come out. Let’s fight one-on-one and see who’s stronger!”

“Alright!”

“Okay!” Tang Hao replied without thinking.

In an instant, the laughter that filled the air stopped.

Everyone was stunned. They didn’t expect that such a provocation would really provoke the person out.

The DI family master was also stunned, and then he revealed a look of ecstasy.

“Alright! If you really come, I’ll beat you up!” He laughed out loud and turned around, looking in the direction of the voice.

When he focused his eyes, his body trembled as if he was struck by lightning.

The smile on his face froze.

When everyone looked over, they were also stunned, their faces full of astonishment.

In that direction, a handsome figure with black hair and white clothes was walking over. They all recognized this face. It was the legend of the ninth continent, the peerless genius, Tang Ritian.

At the same time, he was the number one expert of the ninth continent, a Supreme expert.
