

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1275

“Y-y-you ...”

Flame immortal’s eyes widened, and he was a little incoherent.

This was a Dao ring!

This kid had borne a Dao fruit?

“F * ck!” He, who had always been gentle and refined, couldn’t help but curse at this moment.

He had cultivated painstakingly for so many years to bear a Dao fruit, but this kid had only used a few months, and it was simply a godly speed.

“You what you, do you need to be so shocked! It’s just a Dao fruit, isn’t it quite simple!”

Tang Hao said disdainfully.

The flame immortal’s face twitched and he almost vomited blood.

F * ck! From this kid’s tone, it seemed as if bearing a Dao fruit was as easy as planting cabbages.

“Alright, enough nonsense! Hurry up and call! I still have something urgent to attend to!”

Tang Hao reached for his red bow and was about to attack.

“Stop, stop, stop ...”

Yan Xian shouted as cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

He was slightly panicking. The reason why he was so confident earlier was because he was certain that this brat was only at the great circle of Dao seeking. Even if he had a tribulation weapon, he would still have the power to fight.

In this place, the longer one stayed, the greater the price one had to pay. He was prepared to drag out the time to make this kid compromise, but he never expected that this kid would actually bear a Dao fruit and step into the half-step Dao severance realm.

How could he block a half-step Dao crusher with a divine bow?

“Qin Wang, let’s talk this out. Don’t be rash!”

Tang Hao rolled his eyes. “That’s not what you said just now.”

“I ...”

The flame immortal was speechless, and his face was filled with ridicule.

“King of Qin, I didn’t mean to offend you. It’s just that this Dao fire is too important to me. I wonder if you can part with it? I’m willing to exchange it with other treasures.”

He said after a moment of thought, his tone becoming much more humble.

“I’m sorry, I’m not interested. ”

Tang Hao said coldly.

As he spoke, he stretched out his hand and the star plucking hand appeared, grabbing the bird that was trying to escape. He then took out the Golden cauldron and kept it.

“Why don’t you let me finish first?” Yan Xian asked. “It’s not too late to make a decision after you understand what treasure it is!”

“Alright! Tell me!”

Tang Hao was a little disdainful. He did not believe that this guy could come up with anything that would move him.

“King Qin, do you know the origin of the Dao fire?” Yan Xian asked with a smile.

“I’ve heard of it!” Tang Hao was surprised.

“There have always been two theories about the origin of the flames of the way,” Yan Xian said. “One is that they were born naturally by seizing the good fortune of heaven and earth. The other is that the ancient true fire disintegrated and scattered in all directions, giving birth to all kinds of different flames of the way.”

“The world has been arguing about which one it is ...”

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow when he heard that. “You sound like you know which one it is?”

“Of course!” The flame immortal smiled. “This Dao fire was born from the disintegration of an ancient true fire and it was scattered to different places.”

“The ancient true fire is born by seizing the Fortune of the heavens and earth. It is extremely powerful and is a Supreme divine item! The Dao fire is nothing compared to it. ”

“True fire can disintegrate into Dao fire, and vice versa. Dao fire can also merge into true fire. I have an ancient technique like that! I wonder if the King of Qin is interested?”

Tang Hao’s expression changed slightly. A wondrous technique for refining true flames was a priceless treasure.

He was a little moved. He muttered to himself and shouted, “How about this, you give me the cultivation technique first and let me see if it’s real or fake. If it’s real, I’ll share half with you. If it’s fake, don’t blame me for being impolite!”

As he spoke, his tone sank, revealing a bit of killing intent.

“This ...” Flame immortal hesitated for a moment before nodding. “Alright!” I don’t think you, the King of Qin, would go so far as to lie to me!”

He took out a Jade slip and threw it over.

Tang Hao took it and quickly looked through it.

“Yes, it’s true!”

He nodded and put away the Jade slip.

Then, he activated the Golden cauldron and released the bird. With a swing of his halberd, he split the bird in half.

“Many thanks! We’ll meet again!”

The flame immortal took out a gourd and put away the Dao fire, then cupped his hands at Tang Hao.

“No, it should be” see you again “!” Turning around, he muttered in a low voice, his face full of disdain.

It was better not to see such a monster again. Moreover, the two of them would probably never meet again. He was about to sever his Dao. Once he succeeded, it would be time to leave this place.

The starry sky was vast and boundless. Even if this kid severed his Dao in the future, he would not encounter it again.

Tang Hao only let his guard down after he watched him leave.

His figure moved and continued to advance towards the depths.

A moment later, a five-colored light appeared on the peak of a mountain.

“Over there!”

Tang Hao knew that it must be Ji Wu.

He immediately increased his speed and dashed toward the mountain.

At the same time, he squinted his eyes and used his precious eyes to take a closer look.

After he saw it clearly, he was stunned. On the top of the mountain, there was a stone, a colorful stone that was shining with divine light.

The five-colored light soared into the sky and was extremely dazzling.

Tang Hao could feel the astonishing spiritual Qi emanating from the stone from a distance.

“What is this?”

Tang Hao was shocked and confused.

Then, he shifted his gaze and noticed a figure sitting cross-legged next to the stone. He was wearing battle armor and had his eyes closed, his hands pressed on the stone.

This man was Ji Wu!

“He’s refining this divine stone!”

Tang Hao’s expression changed. He didn’t know what it was, but he knew that it was no ordinary item. It would be troublesome if it was refined.

His body shook and his aura exploded. He grabbed the halberd and shot forward.

On the peak of the mountain, Ji Wu’s expression changed. He suddenly opened his eyes and looked down. He was shocked. What is he doing here?”

He knew that this Qin fellow was very powerful. He had been caught by this fellow the last few times he had come out to search for treasures. Therefore, he was extremely careful this time. He had acted alone, so how could he have been caught?

“Why is it this kid again? You’re really like a ghost that can’t leave!”

A wisp of smoke rose from his body and turned into a human figure.

When North Gate looked down, his expression changed drastically.

“Ji brat, it’s fine! We’ve already laid down layers of formations, and he won’t be able to break through them for a while. Continue refining, and once you’ve refined this divine stone and turned it into an origin core, you won’t have to be afraid of him!”

“At that time, killing him will be as easy as turning your hand!”

Bemen Yi shouted.

“Yes, senior!”

Ji Wu gritted his teeth, closed his eyes again, and continued to refine the five-colored stone in front of him.

At that moment, Tang Hao arrived with a swoosh and swung his halberd.

Bang!

A layer of light flickered and blocked the halberd.

“Break!”

“Die!” Tang Hao roared and swung the halberd.

Peng Peng Peng!

The halberd light danced wildly, pouring down like a storm. The light screen trembled continuously, and finally, with a bang, it exploded. However, immediately after, another layer of light screen appeared below.
