

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1288

The sounds of fighting gradually disappeared.

The world was deathly silent.

Everyone stopped and looked up at the sky.

“What’s that ...?”

Their expressions were somewhat blank.

In the dark sky, the ball of light was as bright as the stars. The dazzling Milky Way fell from the nine Heavens and surrounded the ball of light.

This scene looked somewhat dreamy.

“It smells so good! What is this smell?”

Many people sniffed hard, revealing intoxicated and infatuated expressions.

“That’s ... A Dao fruit! His Dao fruit is ripe!”

Many of the Dao seeking old monsters narrowed their eyes and looked carefully. When they saw that it was a Dao fruit, they couldn’t help but exclaim in shock.

Qin Wang’s Dao fruit had actually ripened!

He was going to break through to the realm of Dao severance in front of everyone in the world!

How bold was this! What an amazing spirit!

Waves of shock rose in their hearts as they were extremely shocked.

But then, they were even more puzzled. This Dao platform, this Dao fruit, and the strange phenomenon of the long river falling from the sky were all so strange that they had never heard of it before.

They couldn't even tell what kind of Dao fruit it was from the aura it emitted!

The only thing they knew was that it was definitely not an ordinary Dao fruit, and the aura it emitted made their hearts palpitate.

Beside the first mountain, the group of Dao-slaying perfected Lords were also dumbfounded.

They had all severed Dao before, so they knew better than anyone about this. However, they had never seen such a situation.

"This Dao pillar is the lifeblood Dao pillar? Why is it green? it doesn't look like the one in the legends!"

"Where are the Dao patterns? Why isn't there a single Dao pattern?"

They were extremely bewildered.

There were different grades of Dao pillars. At the nascent Soul Stage, the more nascent souls one formed, the higher the chance of forming a better Dao pillar during Dao seeking.

Of course, there were also secret techniques that could directly form a special Dao pillar.

Different Dao pillars would produce different Dao fruits. They were usually divided into nine grades. Grade one had one Dao pattern, grade two had two Dao patterns, and so on. Grade nine had nine Dao patterns.

Above the nine grades, there was another grade, which was the tenth grade, the Supreme Dao fruit.

This kind of Dao fruit was extremely rare. Generally speaking, it could only bear fruit on a heaven-defying object like the life Dao pillar.

There were a total of ten Dao patterns on the Supreme Dao fruit.

As far as they knew, this kid cultivated a life Dao pillar, so it should be a Supreme Dao fruit with ten circles of Dao patterns on it. However, this Dao fruit clearly didn't have any Dao patterns.

'How ... How is this possible?'

How could there not be a Dao pattern that represented the grade on the Dao fruit? this was completely beyond their knowledge.

And this strange phenomenon, they had never heard of it.

"Don't care what's going on, just kill him!" Someone shouted.

"It's useless. The Dao fruit has ripened and he has already attracted the power of heaven and earth. We can't get close to him at all. Don't you see that the Dao-severing perfected Lords beside him can't move anymore!"

Some old monsters shook their heads.

The four Dao-severing perfected Lords around Tang Hao were shocked at first, then they became anxious.

In the beginning, they were fixed in place by a strange force and couldn't move. The entire void seemed to have frozen.

However, this did not last for long. When this force disappeared, another vast heaven's might came pouring down from the sky, pressing down on them so hard that they could not move at all. They were almost about to vomit blood.

"Quickly retreat!"

They bit the tip of their tongues and spat out blood essence. They instantly broke free from the restraints and retreated.

After they stood still, they still had lingering fear in their hearts and were extremely shocked.

In the sky, the Dao fruit's radiance became more and more brilliant. It turned from clear light to golden light, and the Dao fruit also completely turned golden.

Above the nine Heavens, more and more milky-white light rays descended, and the long river became wider and wider.

At the same time, a vast heavenly might spread out, filling the entire world.

"What ... What is this?"

The descendants of the chaos were also extremely confused.

They had lived for a long time, but they had never heard of such a thing.

"You guys are too ignorant!"

At this moment, on the first mountain peak, the old locust tree shook its branches and leaves and spoke.

The group of true monarchs were startled and somewhat angry. This old demonic tree's tone was really asking for a beating.

"Why don't you tell me what this is?" They held back their anger and asked.

The old locust tree laughed. "You only know that there are nine grades of Dao fruit. You don't know that there is a tenth grade above it, the Supreme Dao fruit. There are even existences that surpass the Supreme Dao fruit."

"How is that possible? Isn't the Supreme Dao fruit the highest?"

"Of course! Above Supremes were celestial-grade Dao fruits! This kind of Dao fruit was born by seizing the Fortune of heaven and earth. Once it ripened, it would attract a heavenly phenomenon. The phenomenon in front of us is called the celestial River descending to the nine Heavens, and it is one of the many phenomena. "

The old locust tree said.

“Immortal-grade Dao fruit?”

Hearing this, everyone was shocked.

The word “immortal” was no small matter. Anything that was tainted with the word “immortal” was extraordinary.

“How did this kid bear such a Dao fruit?”

They were both shocked and jealous.

“Immortal-grade Dao fruit? Damn, isn’t this equivalent to the eleventh grade?! My Dao fruit is only at the seventh-grade, four grades short!”

“Hey! “What is this? mine is only rank-6! It’s a difference of five grades!”

They said gloomily.

As time passed, the heaven’s might became stronger and stronger.

Tang Hao stood there with his eyes closed. He did not move an inch.

He was waiting, waiting for heaven’s might to reach its peak.

A moment later, he suddenly opened his eyes. With the Dao pillar above his head, he reached out and grabbed at the void above him. In an instant, the void distorted, and the power of heaven and earth surged and condensed into a blade.

“Transform the world into a blade, slash!”

His eyes shone with golden light as he shouted.

The blade immediately fell, slashing toward the platform.

At that moment, everyone's eyes widened as they stared at the Dao fruit.

In their line of sight, the knife fell, easily cutting the branch, cutting off the fruit of the way, and rolling on the platform.

"Beheaded! Chopped! He's succeeded!"

The crowd below burst out in exclamations.

Everyone was extremely excited, their faces flushed red.

Today, they had witnessed the birth of a Dao-severing expert with their own eyes. Moreover, it was a Dao-severing expert in his twenties.

Those from the great sects, aristocratic families, and the descendants of the untainted land changed their expressions drastically.

This kid had successfully severed his Dao and his strength was going to skyrocket. How could they suppress him?

At this time, on the platform, the Dao fruit trembled slightly and flew up suddenly, emitting a piercing golden light. In the golden light, the Dao fruit gradually changed from its original round shape to a pointed tip on both ends, like a boat.

The power of heaven and earth rushed into Tang Hao's body and gushed toward the sea of the path.
