

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1296

“Oh? Old man Mi Tian, do you have any ideas?”

Everyone looked at the Supreme of the heavenly sect.

“Of course!” The senior immortal smiled smugly. “Don’t forget that there’s more than one demon in this world. There’s another one!”

The perfected cultivators were stunned.

“You mean ... That kid from the heavenly reaching great sect?” Very quickly, someone reacted.

They had all heard of the boy named Ji Wu. He was talented and had amazing luck. He was a monster.

“That’s right!” True Lord Mi Tian laughed. “This Ji kid is the pride of our transcending heaven sect.”

The group of true Lords frowned.

“This kid is indeed a bit powerful, but I heard that he has been suppressed by that kid surnamed Tang. Can we rely on him?” The true Lord of the Yao family said.

The Yao family also had a genius, but he was not as good as Ji Wu and that boy surnamed Tang.

“That was in the past, but it’s different now,” true Lord Mi Tian snorted.

“Oh? Did he sever his Dao?”

True Monarch Yao said.

“Woof! Cutting Dao is nothing!” True Lord Mi Tian said disdainfully, “not long ago, the kid I taught obtained a heaven and earth origin core from the immortal mountain and refined it.”

“What? Heaven Earth origin core!”

The perfected cultivators were shocked.

As true Lords, they were very knowledgeable and had naturally heard of a divine item like the heaven Earth origin embryo.

“Hiss! This kid ... His luck is really amazing! You can even obtain such a divine item!”

They sighed one after another, their tones somewhat envious.

True Lord Mi Tian became more and more proud. “During this period of time, that Ji brat has completely integrated with the origin embryo of heaven and earth. With his current strength, he can definitely rival that little demon.”

“You all know the benefits of the origin core of heaven and earth. It’s only a matter of time before I surpass that little demon.”

“That’s true!”

The group of perfected cultivators nodded and heaved a sigh of relief, their expressions becoming much more relaxed.

“Not only that, but he also sent a message back a few days ago saying that he found traces of the nineteenth continent,” true Lord Mi Tian added.

Hearing this, the perfected cultivators were shocked again.

The 19th continent that had disappeared had always been the biggest secret on Qi Yuan planet. For thousands of years, countless people had been searching for it, but no one had been able to find it.

Now, that Ji brat actually found it?

“Is this true?”

The group of perfected cultivators took in a breath of cold air again and revealed shocked expressions.

First, it was a divine item like the heaven and earth origin embryo, and then it was the disappearance of the 19th continent. These two pieces of news were more sensational than the other.

This kind of luck was simply shocking!

“Where are the nineteen continents?”

They asked impatiently.

“Here ...” True Lord Mi Tian was about to speak when he suddenly stopped as if he had thought of something.

He turned around, his eyes shining as he looked around vigilantly.

“Old man Mi Tian, what’s wrong?”

The others asked in surprise.

True Lord Mi Tian said carefully, “I’m telling you, that kid is very strange. He might be listening in on us right now!”

The crowd was stunned, and then they all laughed.

“Hahaha! Old man Mi Tian, you’re overthinking things! How is this possible?”

“I’ve also heard that that kid is a bit cunning. In the past, our people were often caught when they went out, but that was because they were useless and didn’t even know that they were followed by that kid. I was very careful when I came here, so I couldn’t have been followed.”

“This ... Maybe I’m overthinking it!”

Old man Mi Tian released his soul sense and scanned the surroundings, but after finding nothing, he relaxed a little.

“Just in case, let’s be more cautious!”

He thought for a moment, then waved his hand and set up layers of arrays to cover this place.

Ten thousand miles away, in a Valley, a wisp of a soul sat cross-legged.

He frowned slightly and tutted. “This group of old guys is really cautious!”

The layers of arrays were soundproof and blocked his vision, so he couldn’t detect anything.

“The nineteenth continent? This is interesting!”

He raised his eyebrows, showing his interest.

There were many legends about the nineteenth continent. Some said that it had been destroyed and sunk to the bottom of the sea, while others said that it had been hidden. There were many different opinions.

But no matter what, it was mentioned that there were countless treasures on the 19th continent.

“I have to go. Even if I can’t get the treasure, I can’t let Ji Wu go.”

Tang Hao quickly made up his mind.

He had to go. Ji Wu’s fate energy was too strong, and he had a heaven and earth original embryo. If he was allowed to continue, the trouble would only get bigger.

It would be best if he could kill Ji Wu and get rid of all future troubles.

He continued to monitor them, and after more than an hour, the group of perfected cultivators removed the formation and went back.

“These old fogeys really think they can shake me off?”

Tang Hao grunted.

His main body stood up in the sun Sky Valley and shuttled through the void a few times. Soon, he arrived at the first continent. He slashed out many split souls and sent them to the entire Qi Yuan star.

Now that he had reached the Dao severing stage, the strength of his spirit had increased dramatically, and he could sever even more Dao pursuing level split souls.

It was enough to release dozens of Soul Fragments on each continent, and a few more in each sea to form a complete monitoring network.

For the next few days, the group of true Lords didn't move and just stayed in the sect to cultivate.

On this day, they took action at the same time. They came out of the sect and gathered in one place. The yin and yang perfected Lord took out a sword and slashed it heavily, tearing the void.

The group of people entered one after another and disappeared.

All of this was seen by Tang Hao. He immediately activated all of his split souls and paid close attention.

Soon, in the sea between the seventh and sixth continents, a split soul found their traces.

A crack appeared in the void above the sea, and the group of people came out.

“Where is this place?”

“The seventh continent is right next to us!”

“So far ... It should be enough! I don't believe that kid can still find us! That's really strange!”

The group of people's eyes lit up as they looked around.

A few of them released their soul consciousness and swept out in all directions, scanning the area within a radius of a few thousand miles.

“This ... I'm still a little worried. That Ji brat said that we have to be more careful than careful. We can't be careless and give that brat an opportunity to take advantage of us.”

True Lord Mi Tian said hesitantly.

Even though he had checked his surroundings and found nothing suspicious, he still felt a little uneasy.

After all, from Ji kid's description, that kid was too strange.

“Alright then, we'll wear it a few more times!”

The two elements Supreme pondered for a while and nodded.

He activated the sword again and tore a hole in the void.

They traveled four times in a row before they stopped and successfully arrived at their destination, a Sea area in between the 17th and 18th continents.

“Guys, look! The void Ocean is up ahead!”

True Lord Mi Tian raised his hand and pointed at the vast sea in front of him. “According to the news sent back by that Ji brat, the 19th continent that disappeared is over there.”
