

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1300

In the dark sky, rays of light flashed past.

“No, I didn’t!”

The group of perfected cultivators searched around, but they found nothing.

Their faces turned ashen, and they were extremely ashamed and angry.

“He couldn’t have escaped from here, right?” Said the two elements Supreme.

“Impossible!” Ji Wufei came over and said, “there are so many treasures here. How could he leave? he must be hiding somewhere to refine that elixir.”

“Then what should we do? That kid is quite cunning. If he hides, it will be very difficult for us to find him in a short time!”

The perfected cultivators looked troubled.

“Stop looking! By the time we find him, he’ll have already refined the pill. ” Ji Wu pondered for a moment and said, “let’s continue to search for treasures. Since there was a divine elixir that could turn into a spirit here, there will be a second one. There might be better treasures!”

“That makes sense!”

The true Lords said in realization.

They continued to search for treasures.

On the other side of the nineteenth continent, Tang Hao opened his eyes in an underground cave.

He had completely refined that pill. A part of it had been converted into Dao energy to help him reach the great circle of one severing. The rest had been absorbed by the divine bone of the winged Dragon.

At the great circle of severing one, his cultivation level could no longer be improved. Only by severing a new Dao fruit could he improve again.

“One execution perfection ... I’m not afraid of those guys, but it’s still difficult to get rid of them!”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows.

Ji Wu alone was enough to fight him to a draw, not to mention the group of old perfected cultivators. There were fifteen of them. Tang Hao was not afraid of fighting them alone, but when they joined forces, he would have to be wary.

“There are countless treasures here. Let’s keep searching. Maybe we can find something!”

Tang Hao thought for a moment, then stood up.

He returned to the surface, released his split soul, and continued to collect treasures.

As he flew, the things on the ground surged towards him like a dragon and were kept into his ring.

On the other side, Ji Wu and his people were also collecting treasures.

Some Supremes summoned a group of ghosts, and some summoned puppets. They scattered around to help collect treasures.

Both sides exerted all their strength and did everything they could to snatch more and better treasures.

This was like a competition. Whoever got the best treasure first would have a huge advantage in the later confrontation. They could even use the treasures they found here to completely crush the other party.

Just like that, four to six hours passed.

Tang Hao had no idea how many treasures he had collected, but not many of them were useful to him.

After a while, the ground in front of him suddenly dropped and formed a cliff. As far as the eye could see, it was a huge pit, and in the pit, there was a tall figure standing.

It was ten thousand feet tall and as imposing as a mountain, giving people a sense of great oppression.

“What is this?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

With the nine-colored crystal Mist blocking his view, he couldn't see clearly.

Subconsciously, he thought that it was that giant God Dragon count, but after thinking about it carefully, he denied this thought. He had seen a true giant God Dragon count before, and it was several times bigger than this.

With doubts in his heart, he swept forward.

After he had a clear look, he could not help but be stunned. The giant in front of him was somewhat familiar. It was very similar to the remains of the God of Berserkers that he had obtained in the ancient barbarian tribe.

“This is ... The God of barbarian?”

Tang Hao's eyes brightened. This was a good material for refining giant gods.

After the giant God Self-destructed, he had not made any more because he had not found the right materials.

The God of Berserkers in front of him was even bigger than the one he had seen before, and its aura was even stronger. It was undoubtedly the best material. Once it was successfully made, it would definitely have great power.

He smiled delightedly and flew around the Barbarian God.

The God of barbarian stood upright and raised his head to look at the sky. Even though he had been dead for tens of thousands of years, there was still a shocking aura on his body that made Tang Hao feel suffocated.

“Fight! Battle! Battle!”

As he stared at him, he could hear a series of angry roars.

The fighting spirit broke through the clouds and made one’s blood boil.

Hiss!

Tang Hao sucked in a breath of cold air. He was shocked.

After so many years, there was still a trace of power left in the God of barbarian. One could only imagine how powerful he was back then.

“Senior, I’m sorry!”

Tang Hao stood in front of the God of barbarian and bowed respectfully.

“The lightning Pool is here! Refined from the bones of an ancient Suan ni!”

“We have mystical materials! A piece of heaven crystal, a dozen pieces of ice sea Dark Iron, and a large amount of ten thousand year Dark Iron ...”

Tang Hao opened the yellow Dragon Ring and counted.

He had countless high-grade mystical materials on him. Some of them were from the ruins of the Thunder clan, some were from the Treasury of the Yushi family, and most of them were from Kunwu. He had obtained a large number of top-grade materials.

With this accumulation and the God of Berserkers as the main body, it was enough to create a giant God that was ten thousand feet tall.

“The spine ... There are so many top-grade mystical materials and a barbarian God. If I can successfully refine it, it will be a super killer weapon that can crush everyone!”

Tang Hao was excited.

“That’s right, the formations also need to be modified. Everything needs to be the best.”

Tang Hao sat down cross-legged and took out the previous refinement blueprint. He looked at it carefully and noticed that he had made some changes to it.

Now that his blacksmithing skills had improved greatly, he could do better.

After making the changes, he began to refine it. He had to be fast and refine this giant God before his opponent discovered him.

Pipa! Pipa!

In the next few days, in a certain underground cave, lightning flickered from time to time, and faint roars could be heard.

On the surface, Ji Wu and the others were still searching for treasures.

The treasures kept pouring in, and they found many Supreme treasures and ancient pills. To them, these things no longer piqued their interest.

Each of them had at least two Supreme treasures on them, and some even had three. Their auras had all increased by a large amount, and they had also swallowed a lot of medicinal pills.

Their strength had increased greatly, and they now had several treasures in their hands. Naturally, their confidence had also strengthened.

“That stinky brat, don’t let me see him again, or I’ll cut him with my sword!” The two elements Supreme carried an ancient sword and was full of killing intent.

“Hehe! That kid’s doomsday is here!” The perfected Lord of the Yao family laughed coldly as he held a Pagoda that shone with divine light.

The rest of the perfected cultivators were the same. They were full of confidence.

It was as if, in their eyes, killing that brat was as easy as slaughtering chickens and dogs.

However, it was not surprising. With so many Supreme treasures, as long as they activated them all and attacked together, it would be enough to make that kid suffer. With Ji Wu, their strength had reached a terrifying level.

On the entire Qi Yuan planet, there would not be any power that could rival them.

They searched for Tang Hao as they moved.

When they passed by a crack in the earth vein, a ray of light suddenly shot up into the sky from the crack.

Everyone was shocked and looked over. They saw a sharp spear stuck in the depths of the crack. The spear was red and gold, and five dragons of five different colors were coiled on it.

On the body of the spear, there were many mysterious talismans and runes that turned into shadows and rotated around the spear.

An earth-shattering aura burst out along with the light, far beyond the scope of a Supreme treasure.

This was a tribulation weapon!
